INFERIOR COURT.

The May term of this Court, held last week, was more interesting and had a fuller docket than usual. The members of the bar were kept pretty busy nearly ular Mayor. all the week. While in the bar Thursday afternoon the case of State ve Lewis Scales was called. The bill of indictment charged Lewis with stealing two kegs of gun powder from the powder house of Mr. Victor Wallace, a merchant of this place, on or about the 7th of March last. That quantity of the lot stolen was found in his possession on Monday the 9th. There were 32 kegs and cans taken. Lewis himself was put upon the stand and swore that when the officer, Mr. the warrant to him, he told Mr. Beard leman, agents. - Pensions, by that he would answer before the Mayor. C.
