CONCORD, June 3d. 1885. Mr. J. J. Bruner. Dear Sir: I am quite an antiquarian, and inflexi-ble when I belleve I am right. I had a dispute last Saturday with two old Railroad men as to when the first train ran through from Charlotte to Goldsboro, on the North Carolina Haliroad. Look your file for Feb. 1856 and see if am not right. My opponents in argument say "in 1854." I say that track laying commenced in Charlotte in 1854, but I do not know the month. It was in the summer, I think. Please answer and oblige
