REGISTER YOUR DEEDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That section one thousand two hundred and forty-five of the Code be stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: No conveyance of land, nor contract to convey, or lease of land, for more than three years shall be valid to pass any property, as against creditors or purchasers, for a valuable consideration from the donor, bargainor, or lessor, but from the registration thereof within the county where the land lieth: Provided however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to contracts, leases or deeds already executed, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six: Provided further, that no purchase from any such donor, bargainor or lessor shall avail or pass title as against any unregistered deed executed prior to the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, when the person or persons holding or claiming under such unregistered deed shall be in the actual possession and enjoyment of such land, either in person or by his, her or their tenants, at the time of the execution of such second deed, or when the person or persons claiming under or taking such second deed, had at the time of taking or purchasing under such deed actual or constructive notice of such unregistered deed, or the claim of the person or persons holding or claiming thereunder. Sec. 2. That any person or persons holding any unregistered deed or claiming title thereunder, executed prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, may have the same recorded without proof of the execution thereof: Provided, that such person or persons shall make an affidavit before the officer having jurisdiction to take probate of such deed, that the grantor, bargainor or maker of such deed, and the witnesses thereto are dead or cannot be found, and that he, she or they cannot make proof of their handwriting. Said affidavit shall be written upon or attached to such deed, and the same, together with such deed, be entitled to registration in the same manner and with the same effect as if proven in the manner prescribed by law for other deeds. Sec. 3. That all deeds, contracts or leases, before registration, except those mentioned in section two hereof, shall be acknowledged by the grantor, lessor or the person executing the same, or their signatures proven on oath by one or more witnesses in the manner prescribed by law, and all deeds so executed and registered shall be valid and pass title and estate without livery of seisin, attornment or other ceremony whatever. Sec. 4. That for the probate of all deeds, including the privy examination of any feme covert executing the same, executed prior to January first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, the clerk shall receive fifteen cents for each name, and the register, for recording the same, fifty cents for the first three copy sheets, and five cents for each additional copy sheet. Sec. 5. That this act shall be in force from and after the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and the Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published in at least three newspapers in each judicial district in the State for six weeks before said day, and shall furnish to each clerk and register in the State a copy thereof, to be posted in their offices. The register of deeds of each county shall post or cause to be posted in four public places in each town of his county, for sixty days prior to the time when the act shall go into effect, printed notices explaining the provisions thereof and notifying all persons interested to comply with the provisions of said act. In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 27th day of February, A. D., 1885.

BRIEF ITEMS.

The Earl of Shaftesbury is dead. Two hundred Piegan Indians are out on the war-path in Montana. Senator Blain says his educational bill will be re-introduced in the Senate. Bengal, India, has 3,600 square miles of its territory under water from heavy rains. Gen. Tombs, one of the really great men of Georgia, is said to be failing in mind. The proposed reorganization of the Civil Service Commission was considered in a Cabinet council on the 1st inst. The greatest events of an age are its best thoughts. It is the nature of thought to find its way into action.—Bovee. Temperance is reason's girl and passion's bride; the strength of the soul, and the foundation of virtue.—Jeremy Taylor. The best part of our knowledge is that which teaches us where knowledge leaves off and ignorance begins.—O. W. Holmes. The man of understanding reasons only according to what he has learned; but the man of genius according to himself.—Lorraine. Men often preach from the horse-poles while the devil is crawling in through the basement windows. Good is slow; it climbs. Evil is swift; it descends. Why should we marvel that it makes great progress in a short time? Sympathy is a fellow feeling for any one in trouble; it can only be fully developed where there have been like experiences. Be not ready to quarrel; avoid oaths and passionate adjurations, excess of laughter, and outbursts of wrath. They disturb and confound the reason of man.—Rabbi Lechiel. Mortal joy is ever on the wing, and hard to bind; it can only be kept in a closed box. With silence we best guard the fickle god, and swiftly it vanishes if a flippant tongue haste to raise the lid.—Schiller. Rich pilgrims and zealous men of God have changed things so much at Jerusalem lately that land there has doubled in value, and many modern dwelling houses have been erected. In five years the South has increased its productions $300,000,000. As John Sherman has not been Secretary of the Treasury during that time he cannot account for it. Dr. W. W. Myers, a well-known physician of Pittsburg, Penn., has been arrested charged with raising a promissory note for $125 to $925, and forging a note for the same amount. The monster petition of the Salvation Army regarding the protection of girls, recently presented to the English Parliament, was two miles six hundred yards and one foot long, and bore upward of 303,000 signatures. The Central Park board of New York is very much worried at the crumbling of the Egyptian obelisk. It is said to be due to the severity of our winters. Scientists are trying to devise some way to prevent it. As a general rule, that society where flattery is acted is much more agreeable than that where it is spoken. Attention and deference do not require you to make fine speeches expressing your sense of unworthiness (lies), and returning all the compliments paid you. Old putty moistened with muriatic acid will immediately become soft, and easily removed. For erysipelas, make a decoction of plantain leaves. Apply the wet leaves to the inflamed parts, and lay a wet cloth dipped in the solution over them. Use the leaves warm, and frequently. To prevent the hair from falling out, use one ounce of aromatic spirits of ammonia, one ounce of spirits of rosemary, one ounce of glycerine, three drams of tincture of cantharides, and rosewater enough to make eight ounces. Apply the preparation night and morning by rubbing it on the scalp. Tracing paper, so useful for transferring patterns, may be easily made at home. Dissolve a piece of white beeswax about an inch in diameter in half a pint of turpentine, and immerse the best quality of white tissue paper in this bath for three days. Dry it thoroughly before using. Tracing paper should never be folded, but should be kept flat. It is said that young ladies in Vienna wear their initials worked in silver and gold on the breasts of their jackets in which they appear on the streets. It is curious to consider from what beginnings fashions sometimes spring. Initials originally were restricted to handkerchiefs and such other small articles of clothing as were feared might get mixed up and lost in the wash. To take grass stains and wheel grease stains from colored as well as white materials, rub a little clean lard on the spots, and let it remain over night. In the morning, wash the spots with cold water and common soap, rinse well and dry them quickly, and press the garments with a hot iron. If the color is likely to change by using soap, then use naphtha or alcohol instead, and water.

This fall the President will probably visit Richmond, Va. It is better to have good habits than to have a fortune. Dude—"You love me then, Miss Lydia?" Lydia—"Love is perhaps somewhat too much to say. At least I have sympathy for you, because your face resembles so much that of my poor dead Fido." Some Eastern poetess asks the conundrum: "Oh, where does beauty linger?" Our office hours are from eight to six; mornings, noons and evenings generally at home, or out walking with the family.—Peele's Sun. A gentleman whose family consists of a wife and twin girl babies came in very late one night and went to bed. His sleep was broken, and he tossed and tumbled, and mumbled something about "two of a kind" and "a small pair." "Poor John," murmured his wife; "he is tired and is dreaming of the children." "What was the trouble at church this morning?" inquired one Dakota citizen of another; "I understand that you were a row." "Oh, it didn't amount to anything. Some of the members in the back pews threatened to shoot the minister unless he spoke louder. That was all." Doctor—"who has been sent for at 2 A. M.?" "Madame, pray send at once for the clergyman and, if you want to make your will, for the lawyer." Madam—(horriified): "And shall I send for the undertaker too, for heaven's sake?" Ex-Senator David Davis tells a story which may be useful as a hint to stump speakers during the coming campaign. One day, while on the stump himself, he had occasion to say, "I know no East, no West, no North, no South." "Then," said one of his hearers, "you'd better go home and study up your geography." "I broke me all up," says Mr. Davis, and from that on till the close of my address there was no personal magnetism in my bursts of campaign eloquence." Show Negro Killed. The body of a colored man which had been run over by the cars was found on the railroad track near the residence of Mr. Lyndon Swain on Friday morning. No one recognized the body of the man, but he was supposed to belong to Cole's shop. He was given appropriate burial by the town commissioners.—Greensboro Patriot. Sucked the Poison. At Fort Jervis, Charles Faurot, a lad, performed a very heroic act that deserves commemoration. John La Forge, a companion, was bitten in the leg by a large blower adding, a very venomous snake. Faurot at once stripped the stocking from the foot and applied his lips to the wound and sucked the poison. He afterwards restored to consciousness the lad who had swooned. The physician did not arrive in half an hour, and he said the boy had been saved by the brave Charley Faurot.—Morning Star. The Boston Girl. It is said of the Boston girl who got lost up in the Catskills the other day that she shouted in an intellectual tone of voice: "I require assistance from some honorable man of culture and refinement." When the farmer who found her was leading her back to the hotel she asked him if he was a regular subscriber to the Atlantic Monthly, and if he had read "Natural Laws of the Spiritual World." And when he said "No," she forgot to thank him for his assistance.—N. Y. Mail. Like Begets Like. A lazy boy makes a lazy man, just as a crooked sapling makes a crooked tree. Who ever saw a boy grow up in idleness that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man, unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearances? The great mass of thieves, criminals and paupers have come to what they are, by being brought up in idleness. Those who constitute the business part of the community, those who make our great and useful men, were taught in their boyhood to be industrious.

The Stars and Stripes. The American flag originated in a resolution of Congress, June 13th, 1777. "That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternately red and white; that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation. Formerly a new stripe was added for each new State admitted to the Union, until the Congress the stripes were reduced to the old thirteen, and now a star is added to the Union at the introduction of each new State. The standard flag of the army is fixed at six feet six inches by four feet four inches; the number of stripes is thirteen, viz: seven red and six white. THAT DIRTY DANDY.—Danduff is dirty and disagreeable in every way. It soils the clothing continually, and is accompanied by a hardly less annoying sensation of itching. The scalp is diseased. There is nothing in the world so thoroughly adapted to this trouble as Parker's Hair Balsam. It cleanses and heals the scalp, stops the falling hair and restores its original softness, gloss and color. It is not oily, highly perfumed, an elegant dressing. Very economical, as only a small occasional application keeps the hair in perfect condition.

A STUBBORN CASE OF SCROFULA. I have been afflicted with Scrofula from my infancy, and in consequence have always been a frail and delicate creature. I might truthfully say that I was raised chiefly on mercury and potash. These remedies for the time being would dry up the fearful ulcers, with which I suffered, but they would return with greater violence. I was the merest shadow, as to form and person. My digestion was all deranged and my existence was most wretched. Everything that could be done, but no permanent benefit was derived. At last a great tumor came on my neck below the left ear. It increased in size until my head was forced to the right shoulder and in this ungainly and uncomfortable position, I was compelled to carry my head. The doctors decided that it was there to stay as long as life continued, and for many years it did remain. In March, 1884, at the suggestion of Colonel John Taylor I was induced to try Swift's Specific. My system responded to the medicine promptly, and I began to improve from almost the first bottle. That fearful tumor has all disappeared, and every appearance of the disease has left my person except a small hard lump on the right side of my neck, and that is disappearing rapidly. From a fragile little girl I have developed into a healthy and robust young lady as there is in the neighborhood. Swift's Specific is the only remedy that has ever given me any permanent relief, and I am in better health and weigh more than I ever did in my life before. My old friends scarcely recognize me since this wonderful change has been wrought in my appearance. My gratitude is unbounded for what this medicine has done for me. MISS TOMMIE EMBRY. Best on all Sides. By malaria, how shall we escape the dread infection? Is the question which the denizens of fever and ague districts ask themselves. The answer comes from former sufferers who for years have escaped the visitations of the periodic scourge, through the protective influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. When the necessity for using preventive measures arises, use this means of prevention at once. It regulates the liver, facilitates digestion, and liberates impurities from the system, when such exist, by promoting healthful action of the bowels and kidneys. Act early. In all regions where miasmatic vapors breed disease, it is also necessary to be provided with a safeguard, and this is true, though a sojourn in such localities is destined to be brief. No one can afford to breathe malaria for a short time. The Bitters is a sovereign specific for rheumatism, debility and nervousness. Keep it on hand.
