Senator Sherman had the Money. Columbus Dispatch.

"Senator," said a strange gentleman, addressing Hon. John Sherman on a train the other day, "the conductor of this train has lost his pocket-book, containing $200, and unless he finds it he is a ruined man. Now, I believe you "did you hear that?" have it in your power to relieve him of his embarrassment. In short, Senator, I believe you have that pocket-book in your valise."

Senator had gone to the conductor's room to make a change of linen, and had pulled down the blinds. In the darkness he had gathered up with the he facts, that he undertook the task.

Be Modest.

One of the most important rules in the science of manners is that you preserve an almost absolute silence coninterests to ordinary acquaintances, and you will see feigned attention swiftly followed by indifference and then by weariness, until everyone has found a pretext for leaving you. But if you wish to group about you the sympathies of all and to be considered a charming and agreeable fellow talk to them of themselves and the sympathic control of themselves are smeath.

ORGANIZED 1859

This medicine combines Iron with pure vegetable tonics, and is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It Enviches and Purifies the Blood, Stimulates the Appetite, Strengthens the Muscles and Nerves—in fact, thoroughly Invigorates.

Clears the complexion, and makes the skin smooth. It does not blacken the teeth, cause headache, or produce constitution—all other Iron medicines do.

MRS. ELIZABETH BAIRD, 74 Farwell Ave., Milwankee, Wis., says, under date of Dec. 26th. 1884:

"I have used Brown's Iron Eitters, and it has been more than a doctor to me, having cured me of the weakness ladies have in life. Also cured me of Liver Complaint, and now my complexion is clear and good. Has also been beneficial to my children."

MRS. LOUISA C. BRAGDON, East Lockport, N.Y., says: "I have suffered untold misery from Female Complaints, and could citatin reher from nothing except Brown's Iron Bitters."
