

Carolina Watchman.

THURSDAY, NOV. 4, 1886.

Democratic Nominations Elected. For Congress—7th District, JOHN S. HENDERSON, of Rowan.

BOWAN'S TICKET Elected. For State Senator, MON. F. E. SHOBER.

The Emmens R. R. Scheme. There were some who still cling to the Emmens railroad scheme and who said work would begin at the appointed time.

The Atlantic and Southwestern R. R. Col. Risley and contractor Bilheimer, of the Atlantic and Southwestern railroad were here a few days this week.

Rowan's Official Vote. ELECTION—Nov. 2, 1886. Congressional and Legislative Report.

The State Fair was considered a great success this year. By the way, the people of North Carolina are becoming educated to the advantages of fairs or exhibitions.

Election News. VIRGINIA.—Wise, dem. has 1800 majority in 3d dist. Brown, rep. is probably elected in 1st dist.

ILLINOIS.—10th dist. Worthington, dem. defeated by Post. Vote in 2d dist. close. Morrison concedes his defeat.

OHIO.—Has gone Republican by a large majority. NEW JERSEY.—Both parties claim the Legislature—the democrats by two majority on joint ballot.

NEW YORK.—For Congress Hancock has 4,350 majority and Donalds 4,331 in Onandago Co. Peckhams plurality is estimated at more than 8000.

KENTUCKY.—Speaker Carlisle is defeated by a small majority. WEST VIRGINIA.—A close election—indications are that Flick and Brown reps. are elected in the 21 and 3d dists.

MICHIGAN.—The republicans have the Legislature—the Congressional candidates are still in doubt. FLORIDA.—Davidson, regular democratic candidate will be elected.

ALABAMA.—Bankhead, dem. is elected by a large majority. MINNESOTA.—The democrats have elected 3 out of 5 Congressmen.

MISSOURI.—Returns indicate democratic gains. Nine democratic Congressmen have been elected so far; the returns may add others.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Close; Senate stands rep. 13, dem. 10, and one dist in doubt. NORTH CAROLINA.—Graham, dem. in 4th district is probably beaten by Nichols, rep. Reid, dem. in the 5th dist. is reported as beaten, but the returns yet to come in may change the result in his favor.

Rowan County.—The majority of the judicial ticket is about 700; Rowland's majority is 428; Long's 268; Patterson's 506. The greatest joke of the election is Long's victory in Cabarrus. There will be fun in Raleigh next winter.

The other democratic Congressmen in the State, so far as reported will be retained. Col. F. E. Shoher is elected State Senator from Rowan and Davie. From Davie—It was a regular Waterloo in Davie. Bailey (rep) elected by over 500; Ellis (rep) by 250; Settle (rep) by 300. Shoher and Henderson (dem) had no opposition and have a majority of 700 or 800 votes.

The Judicial ticket in Rowan will have more than 1500 majority; Montgomery will fall behind the ticket, but not enough to cause apprehension. CABARRUS COUNTY.—The majority of the judicial ticket is about 700; Rowland's majority is 428; Long's 268; Patterson's 506. The greatest joke of the election is Long's victory in Cabarrus. There will be fun in Raleigh next winter.

Table with columns: Precincts, Congress, Senate, House. Rows include Salisbury, Providence, Boston's X Roads, Hill's Mill, Franklin, Coleman's Store, Mt. Ulla, Morgan's, Locke, Gold Hill, China Grove, Enochville, Steele, Unity, Bernhard's Mill, Rowan Academy, Third Creek, Mt. Vernon.

The names in italic indicate prohibition. The candidates for county offices were without opposition except for the office of Surveyor, for which Mr. Bernhardt ran as an independent, against the regular nominee, Mr. Arey.

We report totals in the County for the several candidates as follows: For S. C. Clerk, J. M. Horuh, 1648. N. H. Woodson, Register, 1683. C. C. Krider, Sheriff, 1634. D. A. Atwell, Coroner, 1654. R. J. McCubbins, Treasurer, 1630. B. C. Arey, Surveyor, 1190. Bernhardt, for surveyor, received 596. Pless, for sheriff, captured 135. Walker, for Congress, scooped in 88. Mr. Eaton beat him right considerably, taking in 128.

Washington Letter. From our Regular Correspondent. Washington, Oct. 30, 1886. It is remarkable but true that the Government offices of the United States, here and elsewhere, with their 130,000 employees, are going on in their work with industry and regularity. The state of things is unparalleled. It has had no existence except in the dreams of enthusiasts. But to make the surprise more surprising, this reform has brought about by the unredeemed and unrecognizable, too utterly unexpectably had Democratic. Has the tongue of Radical harangue lost its lubricity? Have the fictions with which he was wont to rally the rural republican become threadbare? Why is this? What mean these more grown stumps, no longer pressed by the number nines of frontier Blainettes? Where is our once untamed and rampant for bread and butter Republican oratorical mendacity? Come with me reader, and you shall see him. Here he sits in the Patent Office examining an application for patent on a churn or bustle or an improved baby walker. There he is in the Pension Office, hard at legitimate work under Democratic Commissioner Black, who with a smaller force passed many more pension cases than predecessor Hadley, his predecessor. You see him in the Treasury Department, in the Land Office the Indian Office the Postoffice Department—everywhere hard at work. How tame he looks. He will not hurt you. His malign energy is scotched. There is a restless pent-up energy about him, it seems abnormal to him to be confined to honest work during a political campaign, but he will get used to it; it will not kill him. By and by the novel idea that he paid to work for the United States and not for the Republican party will take root in his mind. In a few years his innocuous political desuetude will be a blessing to the country. What wonderful changes have taken place in twenty months. They have overcome us like a summer cloud, not dark and portentous, but big with salubrious showers. Twenty months ago, the property owners in Washington were despondent. It was predicted that a Democratic President would dismiss all the office holders, that five thousand owners of homes in Washington place a bid to sell at a price that a fall in real estate would follow. The result has been the reverse of that predicted. Instead of wholesale dismissals, only the idle, the incompetent and dissipated were cast out. The health, the moral tone and efficiency upon political parties. He has become a changed man—more respected by others, having more respect for himself. His credit is better, and now, instead of selling his home, he holds it at a higher price. Hundreds who have heretofore rented property or lived in boarding houses, are buying and building. One more term of honest Democratic Administration will place the National Capital on the solid ground of assured prosperity. It will require another term to enable the tree of political life which Cleveland has planted and watered, to take root and bear fruit. Should Blaine or Logan or Sherman come in two years hence, it would surely be a disappointment. I believe that a large majority of office holders here are no longer Republican. They enjoy a security under civil service reform that they have never known before, and they are compelled to see every day the improvements which the Cabinet officers and the heads of divisions under Mr. Cleveland have introduced. They are not, however, day and night with the reflection that unless they assist in the re-election of this member of Congress or that Senator, they will lose his influence, and lose their bread and butter.

compared with years long ago.—W. L. Star. Alluding to the big salaries paid the head men of the Knights of Labor, the Springfield Republican very justly says: "The public will not fail to note the glaring incongruity of this wide departure from the early simplicity of the Knights. Strikes to maintain an equality of wages can hardly henceforth be sanctioned by an organization which on its own account does not hesitate to employ one man at $5,000 and others at $2,000 a year, when it seems to be for its interest to do so. The same liberty of employment is what all employers ask for."

The tax on iron ore adds about $2 a ton to the cost of steel rails. The government doesn't need this money; the treasury coffers are running over. The workmen who make the rails do need the money. Why not take tax off the raw material and lay the foundation for an advance in wages?—Phil. Record, Dem.

COTTON! J. D. GASKILL IS BUYING Cotton & Cotton Seed. Office between A. C. Harris and Klutz & Rendleman. BRING YOUR COTTON TO J. D. GASKILL. SALISBURY MARKET OCTOBER, 28th.

The Indian Territory. TABLEQUAH, I. T., Oct. 20.—Yesterday John Ingraham, alias Ward, who has been living with his uncle about eight miles west of this place for the past four months, was mortally wounded by officers who went to arrest him, making a desperate resistance. Ingraham was wanted in Charleston, Swain county, N. C., for murdering a man named Welch about a year ago. The murder is said to have been a cold-blooded one. The North Carolina sheriff learning of his whereabouts wrote to the officers, giving a description and name of Ingraham and stated that $500 reward was offered for his capture and delivery. Yesterday morning our sheriff, already knowing where the man was, summoned a posse to go and arrest him. They reached the place a little before day and could get no chance on the man as he did not sleep in the house they supposed he was in, but about sunup he showed himself going to the field to plow with a shooter belted around him and a Winchester rifle on his shoulder. The officers, who were in ambush until he began to plow, leaving his Winchester in the corner of the fence. He plowed across the field to the opposite side with his sixshooter around him to where the officers were lying in wait for him, and as he was turning a row they ordered him to surrender, when he replied: "No, I'll be d—d if I do," and put his hand on his pistol to draw it when the officers fired on him with fatal effect, wounding him by one shot going through his side and another breaking his arm. After this had been done Ingraham tried to shoot with his strong hand and made attempts at resistance until he was finally exhausted and overpowered. The sheriff of North Carolina writes that he was a bold, desperate man.

New Counties. Already the people in certain sections are beginning in the matter of making new counties. There are now 96 counties, which are at least 30 too many. If people knew how costly the matter is, they would not be so willing to favor it. A few men with axes to grind get together and fix up their tricks for securing a new county. They have lands to sell, or some business schemes at hand, and they make specious representations of the great benefit to follow, and the people who will sign anything sign petitions, and the legislators are importuned, and if nothing else will do unwarranted decisions are made and strange appliances are brought to bear and the end is gained in the face of the fact that really no new county is needed and taxes will be increased. New York has six millions of inhabitants and only some fifty counties. North Carolina has 1,600,000 inhabitants and 96 counties. There are counties in the State that pay very little of the public taxes. There are counties that are too poor to erect good jails and court houses. There is always an increase of public burdens with an increase of counties. More sheriffs, more clerks, more judges, more justices, more Judges, &c., with more counties. There have been counties formed in North Carolina that brought no good to the people, but evil. Thus far we have seen two movements mentioned to make new counties. We hope that legislators from those counties in the State not interested in this unnecessary movement will see to it that no harm is done by an increase of taxes, and that useless new counties are not formed. The counties are too many now, and people can get no relief in most of the counties with any great sacrifice when it is necessary to attend. The difficulties are small now as WAGON STOLEN. Stolen from my house, four miles west of Salisbury, Sunday night last, the running works of a one-horse "Old Hickory Wagon." It may be known by the left shaft, which was broken about one and a half feet from the end, and wrapped with leather to mend it. Also stolen at the same time a new blind bridle with a twist bit, and three or four bushels of corn. The corn was taken from the crib, the thief breaking into the crib to get it. Any information leading to the recovery of the wagon, &c., will be thankfully received by one who is unable to offer a reward of any value. Nov. 2d 1886.

FARM FOR RENT. I offer my farm, 3 1/2 miles east of town, near the R. R., to a good tenant at reasonable rates. Possession given at once. Will rent farm lands alone, or dwelling and farm together. Fine opportunity for the right man. 1:30:pd. R. V. LANIER.

OPEN LETTER! Office of R. J. Holmes, Dealer in GENERAL MERCHANDISE, Salisbury, Oct. 7th '86. To the Public: I Have just returned from New York and Philadelphia with a general stock of goods, the best I have ever had. They are now ready for inspection. I shall be pleased to see all my old customers and every body else in search of goods in my line, and I assure all that by an examination of my stock, before purchasing elsewhere they can save money. My line of Dress Goods and Ready-made Clothing is unusually fine. I invite comparison. You will find them at bottom prices. I have also a full line of first class Groceries which are offered as low as such things can be sold at elsewhere. Very respectfully, R. J. HOLMES. 50:2m.

NOTICE. The regular annual meeting of the Western Carolina Railroad Company will take place in Salisbury, N. C., on the 4th Wednesday in November, 1886—being the 24th day of the month. G. P. ERWIN, Sec. and Treas. 52:2dofm.
