

A CAR LOAD

OF VICTOR Grain DRILLS

—KELLERS PATENT, for sale to the Farmers of Rowan. Cheap for cash or well SECURED TIME NOTES.

This Drill stands at the very front and is unsurpassed by any other in America. It sows wheat and clover seed and bearded oats together with fertilizers most admirably. The quantity per acre can be changed in an instant—by a single motion of the hand. Read what people who have used it say about it.

MT. VERNON, ROWAN CO., N. C. Sept. 15th, 1886. I have used the Victor—Kellers patent—Grain Drill for several years and consider it a perfect machine. One can set it in an instant, to sow any quantity of wheat or oats per acre, from one peck to four bushels. It sows bearded oats as well as it does wheat or clover seed and fertilizers to perfection. I know it to be strictly a No. 1. Drill and combines great strength, with its other good qualities.

W. A. LUCKEY. SALISBURY, N. C. Sept. 15th, 1886. Last Spring I borrowed Mr. White Fray's Victor (Kellers patent) Grain Drill and put in my oats with it. It sowed bearded and non-bearded oats to perfection. I believe it to be the best Grain Drill I ever saw. It sows wheat or oats and clover seed and fertilizes all O. K., and I have one Victor will last as long as two Beckford & Huffman Drills. The Victor sows all kinds of grain satisfactorily.

RICHARD H. COWAN. SALISBURY, N. C. Sept. 17th, 1886. I have used the Victor—Kellers patent—Grain Drill for the past ten years and consider it by far the best Drill made. I have also used the Beckford & Huffman Drill, but greatly prefer the Victor, because it is much the most convenient and I believe one Victor will last as long as two Beckford & Huffman Drills. The Victor sows all kinds of grain satisfactorily.

For sale by JNO. A. BOYDEN. PIEDMONT WAGONS! YES PIEDMONT WAGONS MADE UP At Hickory, You Know! Why They Can't be Beat. They stand where they ought to right square AT THE FRONT! It Was a Hard Fight But They Have Won It!

Just read what people say about them and if you want a wagon come quickly and buy one, either for cash or on time. SALISBURY, N. C. Sept. 1st, 1886. Two years ago I bought a very light two-horse Piedmont wagon of the Agent, John A. Boyden, have used it nearly all the time since, have tried it severely in hauling saw logs and other heavy loads, and have not had to pay one cent for repairs. I look upon the Piedmont wagon as the best Thimble Skin wagon made in the United States. The timber used in them is most excellent and thoroughly well seasoned.

TURNER P. THOMASON. SALISBURY, N. C. Aug. 27th, 1886. About two years ago I bought of John A. Boyden, a one-horse Piedmont wagon, which has done much service and no part of it has broken or given away and consequently it has cost nothing for repairs. JOHN D. HENLY. SALISBURY, N. C. Sept. 2d, 1886. Eighteen months ago I bought of John A. Boyden, a 24 inch Thimble Skin Piedmont wagon and have used it pretty much all the time and it has proved to be a first rate wagon. Nothing about it has given away and therefore it has required no repairs. T. A. WALTON. Sept. 8th, 1886. 18 months ago I bought of the Agent, John A. Boyden, a 24 inch Thimble Skin Piedmont wagon—its lightest one-horse wagon—I have kept it in almost constant use and during the time have hauled on it at least 25 loads of wood and that without any breakage or repairs. L. R. WERN.

A White Rose.

FROM "IN BOHEMIA," BY JAMES BOYLE O'REILLY. The red rose whispers of passion And the white rose breathes of love; Oh, the red rose is a falcon, And the white rose is a dove. But I send you a cream-white rosebud With a flush on its petal tip; For the love that is purest and sweetest Has a kiss of desire on the lips.

No one is so accused by fate, No one so utterly desolate, But some heart, though unknown, Responds unto its own; Responds, as if with unseen wings An angel touched its quivering strings And whispers in its song, "Where hast thou stayed so long?" —Longfellow.

The Yellow Year.

The yellow year is hastening to its close. The little birds have almost sung their last. Their small notes twitter in the dreary blast— That shrill piped harbinger of early snows; Theophrastus beauty of the scintillant rose. (Of with the morn's hoar crystal quantity glass—ed.) Hangs a pale mourner for the summer past. And makes a little summer where it grows. In the chill sunbeam of the faint, brief day The dusky waters shimmer as they shine; The rascal leaves obstruct the straggling way Of oozy brooks, which no deep banks define. And the grand woods, in ragged, scant array, Wrap their old limbs with sooty ivy-twine. —Cateridge.

Impossible.

Once there was a maid whose beauty Put to shame the choicest art; Yet she'd shrink no household duty, And she even had a heart. O'er her face smiles chased each other Like the sunbeams in the rose— And she never let her mother Sweep the steps or wash the clothes. Every night the grand piano Sang responsive to her touch— And this maid of charming manner Oft made bread and pies and such. She was fair of form and feature. Diamonds peddled beneath her glance— Yet, this handsome, dazzling creature Used to mend her brother's pants. P. S.—Her address has been lost. —Merchant Traveler.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

NORTH CAROLINA—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. Believing that God Almighty is the source of all power and authority in civil government, and recognizing Him in the person of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, as the Saviour of mankind and the Giver of every good and perfect gift, I, Alfred M. Scales, governor of North Carolina, by virtue of the authority in me vested by law, do appoint Thursday, the 25th day of November, as a day of special thanksgiving to Almighty God for the large share of mercies and blessings vouchsafed to us in the past year, and of devout prayer that He will continue to us His guardianship and tender care for all time to come. And I respectfully urge upon all, in accordance with an honored custom of our people, to remember liberally on that day the helpless orphans that we have taken under our charge. Done at our city of Raleigh, this 6th day of November, 1886, and in the one hundred and eleventh year of our American Independence.

ALFRED M. SCALES. By the Governor: C. H. ARMFIELD, Private Secretary.

About Parties.

Mugwumpism, civil service rules, internal revenue, appointment of negroes to prominent offices, &c., has played the mischief with the Democratic party of North Carolina. Two or three years ago we predicted that when the color-line was abolished by white Democrats, the Democratic party in the South would lose its hold on the affections of white voters. It has already come to pass in North Carolina. We read in our exchanges of many white Democrats voting the Republican ticket, and of colored Republicans voting the Democratic ticket. But remember that there is a large white majority in North Carolina, the Democratic party cannot afford to swap white votes for negro votes, for the reason that not many white men will co-operate with negro men in politics. If the Democratic party is to be no longer the white man's party, we are sure that many white men will leave it. That's the truth, even if people say it is unjust and not true. —Home Democrat.

Convict Labor.

We hope our people will discuss the feasibility and the justice to work convicts in each county where they are convicted on the public roads and in the swamps and other works, which will take some of the burdens off the people. And, if after the matter has been weighed, it should be thought wise and judicious to adopt this plan, instead of sending to the State prison, then let the Legislature so order; or if it should require a change in the constitution let the work be begun at once. But we think the Legislature can accomplish this without any change in the organic law. We are opposed to the peonage, grounds and machinery sold to some enterprising, driving firm, corporation or individual as a plant for some kind of North Carolina enterprise. —South Neck Democrat.

The Returns By States.

INDICATIONS THAT THE NEXT HOUSE WILL BE DEMOCRATIC BY 21 MAJORITY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—The latest returns at hand make it appear that the Democratic majority in the next House will be 21, including the two labor men, who it is understood will both vote with the Democrats. It now seems that the Republicans have elected four Representatives in California and the Democrats two. The Democrats elect their candidate in the Second North Carolina district, and the official count in the Seventh Ohio district gives Campbell, Democrat, three majority. The table of State Representatives is as follows:

STATES.	DEM.	REP.
Alabama	8	0
Arkansas	5	0
California	2	4
Colorado	1	0
Connecticut	3	1
Delaware	1	0
Florida	2	0

Totals 173 125 Secretary McPherson, of the Republican Campaign Committee, says that if the Republicans have a majority on a vote by States in the House they will filibuster to the end of both sessions before they will allow the Democrats to change result by a contested election case. The only places where a change of one vote would affect anything, he says, are where the votes are too divided to admit of a contest.

Long's Platform.

"Mr. Long has been elected to the legislature in Cabarrus over McAlister the democratic nominee. Long was very frank in his campaign. He made his own platform, which was plain and to the point.—He promised, if elected, to favor laws giving legs, arms, ears, eyes, noses and pensions to disabled Confederate soldiers. To have all whiskeys sold in the State analyzed. To make teachers teach ten hours a day, and to restore virility to superannuated citizens. To cap the climax, he promised that if elected he would furnish a special train to all who voted for him to take them to Raleigh to witness his inauguration in the legislature. He said he did not want the voters to think he was trying to fool them; for he gave it as his opinion that neither he nor McAlister were fit to represent the county in the legislature. We venture to say he will make a good member." —North State.

Mr Morrison's Defeat.

The Democrats must pull themselves together and not only make the best of their Congressional leaders but learn wisdom from it. The people are disgusted with unfulfilled promises. What with fat refusals to reform the tariff, with jobbing River and Harbor bills and demagogic oleomargarine bills, the people can see no difference between Democracy and Republicanism. A pushing, vigorous, reforming Democratic party is what the people want, and not a mere look-alike shop for speculating on office. Tuesday's elections should teach both the Democratic Administration and Democratic Congressmen a valuable lesson. —Galesburg News, Dec.

A Good Man Gone.

Rev. Walter W. Pharr, D. D., who was stricken with paralysis, near his home in Mallard creek township last Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, as noted in yesterday's Observer, died from the effects of the stroke at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, though news of the fatal termination of his illness did not reach this city until yesterday morning. Dr. Pharr was aged about 73 years, and was one of the best known divines in this section. He was a native of Mecklenburg county, and in the year 1842, he graduated at the University of North Carolina. A few of his University class mates, including Col. Wm. Johnston, survive him. After leaving the University Dr. Pharr entered the Union Theological Seminary, at Columbia, S. C., where he prepared himself for the ministry, and the first church over which he assumed pastoral charge, was Poplar Pent, in Cabarrus County. He served as pastor of this church for twelve or fifteen years, when he accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Statesville. He remained in charge of the church there for about ten years, when he took charge of the church at Mallard creek, in this county, and served as its pastor with great faithfulness and fidelity, up to the month of May, 1884, when he was prostrated by an attack of paralysis, and from which he rallied but very slowly, and was never afterwards fully able to perform his duties as a pastor. Since this stroke, he had retired from active labor, on account of his enfeebled condition, being confined to his bed the greater portion of his time. He was still weak and sick, when the second stroke came last Wednesday and under which, with his shattered constitution, he rapidly sunk to the grave. During his lifetime, Dr. Pharr held many positions of trust and honor, and was for many years president of the board of trustees of Davidson College. He was also for a long time a director and trustee of the Union Theological Seminary of Virginia. He was a good man in all the relations of life, and as such he will be mourned. As a divine he was learned, and gifted with talents that were recognized throughout all this section of the State. Dr. Pharr was one of the 16 ministers present at the organization of Mecklenburg Presbyterian, on October 16th, 1839. The funeral services over Dr. Pharr's body will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning, from Mallard Creek church, and Rev. R. B. Morrow will officiate.—Char. Observer.

An Indignant Young Lady.

Miss Florence Bligh, the pretty and interesting lady canvasser of the Sunny South, has gotten into trouble in this city again. It will be remembered that Miss Bligh was inhibited from canvassing for her literary paper in Lynchburg about twelve months ago, without taking out the regular license; and it will also be recalled that the Sunny South published a spicy article on the subject of the outrage, lamenting the sad lack of patriotism and common sense on the part of this benighted people. The newspapers of this city agreed that the law as interpreted here was an imposition so far as it is related to newspapers; and the Council some time ago struck the word "newspapers" from the ordinance. Thursday Miss Bligh again appeared in Lynchburg and began a canvass for her paper; but before she had proceeded far Officer Pendleton felt obliged to warn her to desist unless she should first take out a license. The young lady was indignant, and visited Judge Latham, asked that functionary to grant her relief from the State tax; but the Judge expressed regret that he could not oblige her. Miss Bligh then, to save further annoyance, paid the license tax.—Lynchburg News.

Wonderful Ulcers.

ATLANTA, GA., June 7, 1886. In 1878 there came to my hand what was thought to be a carbuncle, which ran its course several months, broke and finally healed. The next spring knots or knobs came on my arms, which were thought to be rheumatic, and I took gallons of medicine from the best physicians in Culbert, Ga., where I then resided. About this time my left limb below the knee commenced swelling at a fearful rate, and finally came to a head and broke. Both arms were sore, and I could hardly bear my weight standing, and hardly know how I managed to live through it all. About this time we moved from Culbert to Atlanta. I began to despair of ever getting well; my sore on my limb was a regular eating ulcer; now about three inches in length, two inches wide, seeming to be down to the bone, and discharging about a cupful of pus (matter) a day, my arms still aching, my sleep disturbed, and I sometimes thought I would lose my reason. A friend recommended B. B. B. I commenced its use, and I saw an improvement from the very first. I have taken 8 or 9 bottles, and my arms are entirely well, and the large ulcer on my limb has healed. I now feel like a new person, thanks to such a noble remedy, B. B. B. Mrs. FANNIE HALL, 109 West Baker St. Atlanta, Ga. A BOOK OF WONDERS, FREE.

A Vinegar Well.

There is great excitement at New London, O. over the fact that one of the public wells of water has turned into a well of vinegar. Mr. Carney, a gentleman in the employ of a boot and shoe firm, went to the well as usual one morning recently to get water for sprinkling the floor of the store, and in pumping saw that the water had a peculiar red color, but thought nothing about it until he drew some to drink. He took a good swallow of it, and found that he was nearly strangled. Others tasted of it, and the news soon spread to all parts of the city, and in a short time the citizens were flocking to the well and carrying home what seemed to be a good quality of vinegar. One enterprising grocery firm here has already filled 100 barrels with it, and proposes to put it on sale. Farmers are coming in from all parts of the country and taking home with them thousands of gallons. What seems more surprising is the fact that the flow of vinegar is greater than the flow of water. The earth wave on the night of August 31 was felt very perceptibly here, and all attribute the phenomenon to the convulsion of nature.

Expecting Cash.

A brother publisher said to us the other day that he recently received a letter from a magistrate saying that he thinks he can collect the subscription bills in his neighborhood, because a number of the delinquents have joined the church. We have to confess that after over thirty years experience, we are a "doubting Thomas." A religion that would cause men to pay their debts would be a valuable factor in the newspaper business, and would be welcomed by publishers who are constantly victimized by all classes of men from alleged Christians to pronounced infidels. Now—notwithstanding all the changes of the centuries—as in the days of Pope, "an honest man is the noblest work of God."—Elizabeth City Carolinian.

"CHUMPS"

Who Gather in the Ducats at the Expense of Suffering Humanity. The Glaring Gull Exhibited by Non-Professional Frauds.

The country is flooded with bogus medicine, and a few cents of capital is all they have to sustain their prestige. Numerous cleverly concocted certificates are forced upon the unsuspecting purporting to have "snatched them from the grave" some poor victim of blood poison or other disease, when to our knowledge the identical persons lay in agonizing agony while the public were reading their remarkable recovery. Another serious offense is the publication of erroneous statements concerning various drugs, such as are prescribed by our best physicians, declaring them deadly poisons, and recommending, when prescribed by physicians, and in the proper combination with certain compounds, is not only harmless, but forms one of the most powerful antagonists to blood poison known to the medical world. B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) contains iodide of potash. This compound holds hundreds of genuine certificates from persons who have been cured of various diseases arising from an impure state of the blood by the use of B. B. B. The question now is, if iodide of potash is such a terrible enemy to health, why is it that this Blood Balm Co. have made within three years the most gigantic sales and cures ever made on American soil?

We are credibly informed that the Blood Balm Co. Atlanta, Ga., propose to cure any case of the following complaints for one third the money and in one half of the time required by any known remedy on earth. T. diseases embrace all forms of Scrofula and Serofulous Ulcers and Tumors, all stages of Blood Poison, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases and Humors, Kidney Affections, Chronic Female Complaints, Erysipelas, etc. Send to them for a book filled with the most wonderful cases on record, mailed free to any address.

Losing Valuable time.

He was seated across the room. "Harry," she said, "if a fire were to break out suddenly in the house what would be your first impulse, do you think?" "Well, my first thought would be for you of course; I would get you to a place of safety, and then do what I would to extinguish the flames." "That would very nice of you, Harry, to think of me first; but if a fire was to break out now, for instance, wouldn't you lose valuable time reaching me way across the room?"—St. Paul Herald.

Activity in Railroad Building.

[Baltimore Manufacturers' Record.]

One of the most potent factors in the present activity in the iron trade is the very large railroad construction in progress. A few months ago, when it was predicted by the Railway Age that the new railway mileage of 1886 would not fall short of 6,000 miles, there was considerable doubt as to the correctness of this statement, inasmuch as the entire new mileage for 1885 was only 3,131 miles. It is already proven however, that instead of stopping at 6,000 miles, the total will probably run up to at least 7,000 miles, and possibly more, or a larger mileage than in any preceding year except in 1881 and 1882. The returns to the Railway Age show that during the first ten months of the year there were 216 lines under construction and that 5,439 miles of new main track were laid. As a large amount of preliminary work has been done in the way of grading, bridge building, &c., preparatory to actual track-laying, which is now going on in many States and on many roads, the new mileage during November and December will be very great. The mileage of new track by States from January 1 to October 31, 1886, was as follows:

States	Miles	States	Miles
Alabama	18	Mississippi	119
Arkansas	28	Montana	48
Arizona	30	Nebraska	455
California	168	New Jersey	26
Colorado	24	New York	29
Dakota	546	North Carolina	154
Florida	289	Ohio	64
Georgia	62	Oregon	24
Idaho	13	Pennsylvania	106
Illinois	351	S. Carolina	101
Indiana	53	Tennessee	10
Iowa	338	Texas	404
Kansas	957	Virginia	24
Kentucky	60	Wash. Ter.	136
Louisiana	9	W. Virginia	49
Maine	3	Wisconsin	346
Maryland	27	Wyoming	83
Massachusetts	3
Michigan	431	Total in 39 States
Minnesota	297	and Territories	5,439

With the exception of Texas, Florida, North Carolina, Mississippi and South Carolina, there has been rather less activity in the building of new roads than had been expected. However, many of the most important lines on which track-laying was expected to have commenced, are now getting into shape for more vigorous work. The outlook for railroad construction in the South during the coming year is very good. A number of very important lines will soon be under active construction, and within a year or two the railroad mileage of the South will be largely increased.

ECZEMA ERADICATED.

Gentlemen—It is one year to-day that I think I am entirely well of eczema after having taken Swift's specific. I have been troubled with it very little in my face since last spring.
