What can be the motive which setu at a the President in respect to the Recordership of the District of Columbia! Failing in securing the nomination of Matthews, of N. will adjourn Monday next, by limitation of time. Some of the members will never be returned and should not. All in all, we have heard intelligent entlemen say it was the weakest body that ever assembled in the State House at Raleigh. Be that as at may, let not the people forget that if they want their business well done not to vote for "Indep indents" as they did last year. They threw into the State Assembly an ement of evil by which much delay business and other mischief was wrought. Let it not be forgotten that no democrat who values principle can any more afford to vote for an "independent" than for an out and out radical. This is the white man's State. and they alone can be trusted to rule it. "Independents," do not see the subject in this light, but lean to the side and color on which they mainly rely for support to office, regardless of cons quences.

Western Asylum.

We are in receipt of the Report of the Board of Directors of the Western N. C. Asylum for the Insane for the two years ending Nov. 30, 1886. We learn from it that of the $18,000 appropriated by the last General Assembly for the support of an increased number of patients at the Asylum in consequence of its enlarge-ment, $14,500 was left unexpended and emains for future use.

W. J. Yates, Esq., the President of the Board of Directors, in his Report pays a just tribute to Messrs. J. G. Hall, J. C. Harper, and Dr. F. T. Fuller, the building committee, for their faithfulness and efficiency. They served the State in that capacity twelve years without compensation, and completed the north wing of the Asylum Oct. 1, 1886, leaving about ten thousand dollars of the building fund unexpended. The line dividing the ter-270 ritory of the Asylum at Raleigh and that at Morganton has been moved farther east, and 12 counties have been added to the territory of the Western Asylum. The Report, covering 72 pages, is filled with statistics, which must be highly interesting to students of medicine and to alienists.
