

Words of Wisdom. Cleverness is a sort of genius for incontinence. It is the brain of the soul. Humility leads to the highest distinction, because it leads to self-improvement. Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity, and truth accomplishes no victories without it.

The manner of saying or doing anything goes a great way toward the due of the thing itself. It is better to have thorns in the flesh, with grace to endure them, than have no thorns and no grace.

In the loss of an object we do not proportion our grief to its real value, but to the value our fancies set upon it. The man who doesn't know much, and his name is legion, is the one most anxious to display his knowledge.

The love of singularity proceeds from a restless mind, possessing some portion of genius and a large portion of vanity. Oppression makes wise men bad; but the distemper is still the madness of the wise which is better than the sobriety of fools.

A happiness that is quite undisturbed becomes tiresome. We must have ups and downs. The difficulties which are mingled with love awaken passion and increase pleasure. There is this difference between two temporal blessings, health and money: Money is the most envied, but the least enjoyed; health is the most enjoyed but the least envied.

Every increase of knowledge may possibly render depravity more depraved, as well as it may increase the strength of virtue. It is in itself only power, and its value depends upon its application. Yesterday is yours no longer; tomorrow may never be yours; but today is yours, the living present you may stretch forward to the things that are before.

The Girl Who Helps Mother. There is a girl and I love to think of her and talk of her, who comes in late when there is company, who wears a pretty little air of mingled responsibility and anxiety with her youth, whom the others seem to depend on and look to many comforts. She is the girl who helps mother. In her own home she is a blessed little saint and comforter. She takes unfinished tasks from the tired, listless fingers that falter at her work; her strong figure is a staff upon which the gray haired, white faced mother leans and is rested. She helps mother with the spring sewing, with the weeks mending with a cheerful conversation and congenial companionship that some girls do not think worth while waiting on only mother. And when there comes a day when she must bend, as girls must often bend, over the old worn out body of her mother, lying unheeded in her coffin, rough hands folded, her long disquiet merged in rest, something very sweet will be mingled with her loss, and the girl who helped mother will find a benediction of peace upon her head and in her heart.

Praying for Reporters. From the St. Paul Globe. The Minnesota Legislature was recently opened with an extempore prayer, composed by a revered member, from which the following is an extract: "And now, dear Lord, bless the reporters, whose nimble pens catch every word almost before it is uttered. Like Thyself, they are omnipresent and almost omnipotent. If we take the wings of the morning and fly to the uttermost parts of the earth, they are there. They meet us in the jungles of Africa, they waylay us in the solitary canyons of Colorado and when at length we find the latitude of the magnetic pole, behold they are there. May their light and goodness be equal to their power and in the general assembly of Heaven let no reporter be excluded."

A Babe in the House is the source of much sunshine and joy, brightening many a dark cloud and lightening many a heavy load—but joys continue to abide only in a healthy body. The creator with great wisdom has distributed over the earth vegetable remedies for every ill of human kind. This marvelous Laboratory reveals its secrets to man only by long and searching labor. Few men have attained greater success than Dr. R. V. Pierce; he derived for suffering humanity a greater production than his "Golden Medical Discovery," the unfailing remedy for consumption in its earlier stages, as well as for chronic nasal catarrh, scrofula, tumors and all blood disorders.

The supply of red cedar used in the manufacture of lead pencils is derived from the swamps of Cedar Key, in Florida. The product of the mills there is shipped not only to northern but to European factories, and the industry gives employment to a great number of operatives. The wood also yields a valuable oil and the sawdust is distilled and the oil extracted.

Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice. Take each man's censure, but reserve thy judgment. You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottle free at Klutz's Drug Store.

Dignity does not consist in possessing honors, but in deserving them. You cannot have a privileged one without a wronged many. Privilege and injustice are two names for the same thing, according to your point of view. If you are inside the circle, the circumference is concave; if you are outside it is convex. You cannot perch one man on an artificial elevation without taking the materials for his little mound off the general level. If there be seven fat kine there will be seven lean ones to correspond, whose ribs stick through their skin because their fodder has gone to make collops of fat on their obese brother's flanks.—Dr. McClure.

Telegraphic communication will shortly begin between Russia and France. All dispatches at present come through Germany, and have recently been tampered with at Berlin. Russia, in case of a war between Germany and Austria, would be entirely cut off from telegraphic communication with the remainder of Europe.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisis, also Diarrhoea, the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from the first bottle; and after taking six bottles he was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh sixteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief it afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by T. P. Klutz & Co.

For three weeks I was suffering from a severe cold in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. I tried some of the many catarrh remedies without any relief. Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of my cold was removed.—Henry C. Clark, 1st Division: New York Appraisers' Office.

I was troubled with catarrh in my head to an annoying extent for three years. After using one bottle of Ely's Cream Balm I was entirely cured.—Wm. J. Cline, Victor, N. Y.
