R. O. Stamps and Coins.

We make bold to say that the Post Office Deportment and the Treasury Department have perpetrated some very letter postage stamps from red to green, was a "green" act of the P. M. G. Why did he want green, when red was just as cheap and far more convenient to the public? The Secretary of the Treasury, we suppose is responsible for so many of our coins being so nearly. of a size that it takes close looking to discern the difference. The one cent the dime, the 5 ct. nickel and the 85 gold piece are all nearly the same in size. It would be a public convenience to have them as different as possible and yet this fact has never had government attention, or if it has, was purposely ignored. Can any one offer a reasonable explanation?
