

GREAT EXCITEMENT OVER LOW PRICED GOODS. AT KLUTTZ & RENDLEMAN'S TWO STORES,

Which are kept full of choice and desirable GOODS by daily additions, which are marked at Rock Bottom Prices for CASH or BARTER.

Big Assortment of Tinware, cheapest in town. Brooms cheaper than ever before.

KLUTTZ & RENDLEMAN. WILL REMOVE.

After this week I will occupy the room formerly used by the Southern Telegraph Company.

NEW AND FANCY DESIGNS, And will be better prepared to please everybody than ever before.

A HOME Company. ASTRONG Company. TOTAL ASSETS, $750,000.00. J. ALLEN BROWN, Resident Agent, Salisbury, N. C.

FREE FOR MEN ONLY. VIGOROUS HEALTH. HARRIS REMEDY CO., 809 1/2 N. 3rd St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

LOOK OUT! Compare this with your purchases:

ELY'S CATARRH CREAM BALM. Cleanses the Nasal Passages, Allays Pain and Inflammation. Sore, Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell.

PIEDMONT WAGON. MADE AT HICKORY, N. C. CAN'T BE BEAT! They stand where they ought to, right square AT THE FRONT!

Just read what people say about them and if you want a wagon come quickly and buy one, either for cash or on time.

50 ACRES of good land, 6 mile from Salisbury, on the Concord road terms reasonable for cash. PINKNEY LUDWICK.

INTERESTING TO FARMERS.

Save Your Crop. From the N. C. Bulletin. From the statistics issued by the Department of Agriculture at Washington, the present corn crop of the United States amounts to 1,453,000,000 bushels, which is shorter by two millions of bushels than last year's crop.

Extract from the Report of the Commissioner of Agriculture. To the Honorable Board of Agriculture: GENTLEMEN:—Since the last meeting of the Board's meeting has been held, the resignation of Dr. Dabney was tendered, and accepted by the Executive Committee.

Dr. H. B. Battle, his first assistant chemist, was chosen by your Executive Committee to direct the work of the Station until this meeting of the Board; his report will explain what has been done in that line.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES. By the direction of the Board I have visited a number of Farmers' Institutes held in the State; indeed, all where it was possible for me to attend.

Board's representatives should do all the work or be too prominent in these meetings. The local farmers should be responsible for their organization and management.

Experiment Farm. Part of the business transacted at the December meeting of the Board of Agriculture was the discontinuance of scientific work at the Experiment Farm.

Boys as Inventors. Some of the most important inventions have been the work of mere boys. The invention of the valve motion to the steam engine was made by a boy.

The power loom is the invention of a farmer boy, who had never seen or heard of such a thing. He cut out one with a knife, and after he had got all done he went to his father with it.

Fine Prospects for the Agricultural Department. From the Raleigh News and Observer. Hon. Jno. S. Henderson of Salisbury, writing to Secretary Bruner of the State Agricultural Department, says:

The Sharpshooter's Last Shot. Once during the war, a skirmish line, composed mainly of the Forty-eighth Illinois, was thrown out in advance of our army, lying near Jackson, Miss.

How He Convicted Himself. The biblical truth "Out of thy own mouth shall thou be condemned" was strikingly verified in the case of a conductor on a prominent line running out of St. Louis.

A word from Peter Cooper: "In all towns where a newspaper is published, every man should advertise in it, even if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is engaged in."

A model prayer.—"Lord help me." The first word laying hold on heaven, the last touching the earth, the two bound together by a golden link.—Hastings.

A Trick in Rifle Shooting. "No, sir, I do not claim to be an expert at fancy shooting," said Captain Jack Crawford, in answer to the Artillery's inquiry.

The Western Mail first published the following remarkable story of a brave dog: On December 29 last the steamship Muley Hassan was passing through the Straits of Gibraltar, when Captain Thomson went on deck with his retriever Nellie.

Albert Hawkins, a muscular colored man, born a slave in Anne Arundel County, Md., in his boyhood and youth was quite a local celebrity of the racing and fashionable stables.

Tennyson in his exquisite poem, dreams of a long procession of lovely women of ages past. This is all very well, but the laureate would have done the world a greater service if he had only told the women of the present how they could improve their health and enhance their charms.

The tender words and loving deeds which we scatter for the hearts which are nearest to us are immortal seed, that will spring up in everlasting beauty, not only in our own lives, but in the lives of those born after us.—Spurgeon.