

Once a Day. Thirty years ago, one of the most famous elephants that traveled in this country was "Old Columbus." During one of his summer trips through Virginia he stopped at a certain town in that State. A boy familiarly called "Dave" and notorious for leadership in all kinds of mischievous tricks, determined to show off before the other boys at "Old Columbus" expense, and invited several of his companions to go with him.

Having come to the elephant's stable, Dave gave him first candy, then cakes, and finally cried: "Now, boys!" and slipped a piece of tobacco into his prober, intending to get out of danger and enjoy "Old Columbus's" disgust and anger.

But before he could move, Columbus seized him and whirled him upward through the opening overhead against the roof of the stable.

We Tell You Plainly

that Simmon's Liver Regulator will rid you of Dyspepsia, Headache, Constipation and Biliousness. I will break up chills and fever and prevent their return and is a complete antidote for all malarial poison—yet entirely free from quinine or calomel. Try it, and you will be astonished at the good results of the genuine Simmon's Liver Regulator, prepared by J. H. Zetlin & Co.

The Redwood of California. Since Mahogany and the more expensive woods have grown scarce, the redwood of California has been extensively used not only in building but also in the manufacture of furniture. It is destined to take the place of walnut, cherry and mahogany, on account of its great supply and cheapness. When highly polished it is just as handsome as any of the more expensive woods. When rosewood went out of use on account of the extinction of the supply, house decorators for a long time were at a loss as to what they could use for a substitute, and at last they have discovered it in the California redwood. It is suited for any kind of decoration, and there is an illimitable supply throughout the Golden State, where extensive forests abound. The redwood trees grow to an immense size, and the timber made therefrom is very large.—Democrat's Monthly.

Personal. Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me, and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottle free at T. F. Klutz & Co's Drug Store."

New Meaning for Old Words. Exchange. Honest—An excellent joke. Rural felicity—Potatoes and turnips. Water—A clear fluid, once used as a drink. Wealth—The most respectable quality of men. Money—The god of the nineteenth century. Esquire—Everybody, yet nobody; equal to colonel. Jury—Twelve prisoners in a box to try one at the bar. Modesty—A beautiful flower that flourishes in secret places. Author—A dealer in words, who often gets paid in his own coin. Policeman—A man employed by the corporation to sleep in the open air. Doctor—A man who kills you to-day to save you from dying to-morrow.

Wonderful Cures. W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., says: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Klutz & Co."

Sir Wilfrid Lawson says: "There is an old saying of which I am fond. Some great man said: 'I never knew any one to get lost on a straight road.' It is only when you try to make short cuts—when you try to dodge a principle—that you get into scrapes."

A mule died from fright at Sumter, Ga., the other day. While being driven through the streets the wind caught up a large piece of blue paper and whirled it directly before the animal's face. The mule started back in terror, trembled violently and fell over dead.

When the Editor is Usually In. "Is the editor in?" "That depends much upon circumstances." "How?" "Do you want to whip him?" "No." "Do you want to collect a bill?" "No." "Do you intend reading an original poem aloud?" "No." "Are you thinking of subscribing for the paper?" "Yes." "Well, the editor is in."—Nebraska Journal.

Leave hope behind, All ye who enter here! So ran the dire warning which Dante read on the portals of the Inferno. So runs the cruel verdict of your friends if you are overtaken by the first systems of that terrible disease, consumption. "Leave hope behind! Your days are numbered!" And the struggle against death is given up in despair. But while there is life, there is hope! Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured hundreds of cases worse than yours; and it will cure you, if taken in time. But delays are dangerous. No power can restore a wasted lung; the "Golden Medical Discovery," however, can and will arrest the discovery.

A Michigan girl, says a valued exchange, while picking blackberries met a black bear among the berries. She turned to run and tore her dress on a briar so as to expose her patent wire bustle. The bear, mistaking the bustle for a circus cage, struck for tall timber, leaving the girl to go without hugging until a dry goods clerk closed his store at nine o'clock the next evening.

I have been badly troubled with catarrh from my earliest recollection and have tried everything imaginable for it, but never derived any permanent help until I used Ely's Cream Balm. It is working wonders.—A. H. Viets, Supt. Public School, Coleman, Texas. Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of a long standing case of catarrh. I have never yet seen its equal as a cure for colds in the head and headache resulting from such colds. It is a remedy of sterling merit.—E. L. Crosby, Nashville, Tenn.

John J. Hicks, who died not long ago in San Francisco, left this clause in his will: "I bequeath to my dear children my auditing love, which I hope they will as lovingly accept and retain toward each other. This precious gift will not perish with my body, but will live for them throughout all the ages of eternity."

One of the largest and most valuable trees in the South was recently cut in Woodruff county, Ark. It was a cypress, and made a log nine feet and four inches in diameter at the butt, seven feet in diameter at the top, and forty-six feet long. It measured 188,400 feet of lumber, 200,000 in shingles and was worth $800.

"There now," said Mrs. Dookin, "Susan B. Anthony says she can pick out the great woman for every great man the world has produced." Mr. Dookin did not reply, but went out and sat on the saw-buck and wondered why Miss Anthony didn't pick one out for him.—Chicago News.

A land grabber—A steam shovel.

HOW DO WE DIG OUR GRAVES? We must eat or we cannot live. This we all know. But do we all know that we die by eating? It is sad to dig our graves with our teeth. How foolish this sounds. Yet it is fearfully true. We are terrified at the approach of the cholera and yellow fever, yet there is a disease constantly at our doors and in our houses far more dangerous and destructive. Most people have in their own stomachs a poison, more slow, but quite as fatal as the germs of those maladies which sweep men into eternity by thousands without warning in the times of great epidemics. But it is a mercy that, if we are watchful, we can tell when we are threatened. The following are among the symptoms, yet they do not always necessarily appear in the same order, nor are they always the same in different cases. There is a dull and uneasy feeling; a bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning; the appetite is changeable, sometimes poor and again it seems as though the patient could not eat enough, and occasionally no appetite at all; dullness and sluggishness of the mind; no ambition to study or work; more or less headache and heaviness in the head; dizziness on rising; the feet or soles of the feet suddenly furred and coated; a sense of a load on the stomach that nothing removes; hot and dry skin at times; yellow tinge in the eyes; scanty and high-colored urine; sour taste in the mouth, frequently attended by palpitation of the heart; impaired vision, with spots that seem to be swimming in the air before the eyes; a cough, with a greenish-colored expectoration; poor nights' rest; a sticky slime about the teeth and gums; hands and feet cold and clammy; irritable temper and bowels bound up and constive. This disease has puzzled the physicians and still puzzles them. It is the most common of ailments and yet the most complicated and mysterious. Sometimes it is treated as consumption, sometimes as liver complaint, and sometimes as malarial and even heart disease. But its real nature is that of constipation and dyspepsia. It arises in the digestive organs and soon affects all the others through the corrupted and poisoned blood. Often the whole body—including the nervous system—is morally starved, even when there is no occasion to tell the sad story. Experience has shown that there is but one remedy that can certainly cure this disease in all its stages, namely, Shaker's Extract of Roots or Mother Beigel's Curative Syrup. It never fails but, nevertheless, no time should be lost in trying other so-called remedies for they will do no good. Get this great vegetable preparation, (discovered by a venerable nurse whose name is a household word in Germany) and be sure to get the genuine article.
