

Carolina Watchman.

THURSDAY, FEB. 16, 1888.

Mr. Henderson's Amendment of Internal Revenue Laws.

PASSED THE HOUSE.

Mr. Henderson has shown most commendable zeal and persistence to accomplish the amendment of the Internal Revenue laws by removing some of its rigid and unnecessarily harsh provisions...

The bill referred to abolishes what is known as minimum punishments, and gives a discretion to the Court; and is intended to discourage frivolous and petty prosecutions.

The Blair Bill passed the Senate yesterday by a vote of 29 to 29. Our two Senators, Messrs. Vance and Ransom, voted for it.

Mrs. David Vance, daughter-in-law of Senator Vance, died in New Orleans a few days ago.

Washington Letter. (From our regular correspondent.) Washington, Feb. 13th, 1888.

To use the words of the genial Senator Cox, "We are clearing the decks for the tariff fight," and Mr. Mills, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee...

Section 2d declares that the United States shall not be liable to pay any fees to marshals, clerks, commissioners, or other officers for any warrant issued or arrest made, unless there be a conviction, or the prosecution has been approved by the attorney of the United States for the district where it is alleged the offense was committed.

Section 5th authorizes the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to compromise any civil or criminal case under the internal revenue laws.

Mr. Blaine Declines a Nomination.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AT SEA.

Mr. Blaine has written a letter declining to have his name come before the national Republican Convention as a candidate for President.

There is nothing in all this at which the democratic party need be joyful. On the contrary they would rather go into the contest against the distinguished leader of the republican party than against one of no great reputed standing.

There is a strong probability that four new States will be admitted during the present session of Congress, as the Democratic members of the House and Senate Committee on Territories have agreed to favorably report a bill for the admission of New Mexico, Montana, and the whole of Dakota.

Two young men of Catawba county, says the Chronicle, were arrested at the depot, in that city, Wednesday morning last, on the charge of robbery.

Col. D. K. McEneaney, of Wilmington, is dead.

There is a conscience case in the Indiana penitentiary: George Levi, a prisoner, confessed to the crime for which Frank Nelson is serving a term of 20 years.

B. F. Handforth, of Chicago, is getting out a book in favor of abolishing the standing army of the United States, and the substitution of a volunteer army, such as the people have heretofore organized in case of actual war.

A report comes from Oxford to the effect that minister Jarvis has about decided to return and contest with Mr. Ransom for the Senatorship.
