Sweet Potatoes.

This is one of our peculiar Southern products that is not properly appreciated. We are prone to follow after Northern or foreign practices and adopt their special crops for special purposes, when we have better at home. English and northeren farmers grow turnips for stock because their climate is suited to turnips and not suited to sweet potatoes. They also grow Irish potatoes because they can grow them more successfully than the sweet potatoes. The sweet potato, as known in the South, is a boon that is denied is equal to paper manufactured from them. Turnips and Irish potatoes are linen rags, was in its natural state not to be compared with sweet potanothing but the stems and waste of the toes in respect of ease and cheapness

Shocking Accident.

So read the headli es of many a newspaper column, and we peruse with palpitating interest the details of the catastrophy, and are deeply impressed by the sacrifice of human lives involved. Yet thousands of men and women are falling victims every year to that terrible disease, consumption (scrofula of the lungs), and they and their friends are satisfied to believe the malady incurable. Now there could be no greater mistake. No earthly power, of course, can mistake. No earthly power, of course, can restore a lung that is entirely wasted, but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will rapidly and surely arrest the ravages of consumption, if taken in time. Do not paper column, and we peruse with palpitaconsumption, if taken in time. Do not, therefore, despair, until you have tried this wonderful remedy.
