

When Attacked by Pneumonia.

"What is the first symptom of pneumonia?" was asked of a New York physician.

"A severe chill," was the reply.

"What ought a man to do who is seized with such a chill?"

"He should get into a bath tub containing hot water—so hot that it would redden the skin—and stay there as long as he can."

"What is the philosophy of such treatment?"

"A severe chill, which always precedes pneumonia, indicates that the blood has gorged the lungs, liver or kidneys. Now, the first remedial step is to dissipate this blood. The hot bath does this. It draws the blood to the surface, and dissipates it over a greater area. After having laid in the bath until relief is experienced the patient should step out of it and wrap himself in a woolen blanket. Don't stop to dry yourself with a towel, but wrap the warm wool around you and tumble into bed."

"The consensus of opinion among the leading physicians of the day is that pneumonia is an infectious disease. That is, the disease germ is in the air and when the right physical condition is presented the germ takes root and fructifies. The popular idea that pneumonia is confined to cold weather is an erroneous one. There is no pneumonia in the Arctic regions. It is mainly due to the sudden changes in our temperature. By consulting the health reports of New York city it will be found that the highest death rate occurs in December and February, but that there are a good many cases in August."

Better have your heart on your work and eighty acres, than a quarter-section and be at odds with your occupation.

There are now a hundred rivulets on the farm, yet it is cheaper to give the animals drink from a well protected from surface water.

It is a false notion that is responsible for grievous evils, that a cheap teacher is good enough for the summer term, because all the pupils are small.

It is better to take a little liver medicine than to grumble and feel blue, and the man who has had fruits during the winter will not need the medicine.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.

To THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,

T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

Made for the Woods.

In his "Random Recollections,"

Henry B. Staton tells the following laughable story of Jeremiah Mason, the great lawyer:

After he had become distinguished in New Hampshire, he went into a rural county to try a civil suit. A pious little Judge was on the bench.

He assigned Mason to defend a negro on an indictment for petty larceny.

With surprise, tinged with indignation, Mason declined the task. "Sir, you must obey the order of the Court," said the little Judge. "All you need do is to take your client into the adjoining room, and give him the best advice you can." This struck Mason in a funny light, and he arose, beckoned to the negro, and stalked into an empty room with "client" at his heels.

"Are you guilty?" asked Mason.

"Yes, sir," responded the negro. "Can they prove it?"

"Yes, sir; all the witnesses are here." Mason put his head out of the open window, and said: "It is about 15 feet to the ground. Do you see those woods?"

The negro leaped and Mason returned into the court. By and by the case was called, but the negro did not respond. "Where is your client?" asked the little Judge. "I do not know," replied Mason. "Your honor directed me to give him the best advice I could, and the last I saw of him he was running for those woods over there." Every body laughed except the little Judge, and the curtain fell on the scene.

Nothing Like It.

Every day swells the volume of proof that as a specific for all Blood diseases, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Remember, this is an old established remedy with a record! It has been tested many years in thousands of cases with flattering success! Eruptive and Lung troubles, Catarrh, Kidney disease, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache and all disorders resulting from impoverished blood, there is nothing like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—world-renowned and ever growing in favor!

A Texan tells the following snake story:

"One night my wife and myself were awakened by a noise from the shelf which contained our small store of crockery, followed by a crash which showed that a great portion of our cups and plates had been flung to the floor. Springing up to discover the author of this attack upon China, I found a large snake in a somewhat unpleasant fix. He had crawled upon the shelf, attracted by a number of eggs which were scattered about. One of these he had swallowed, and in order to get at the next he had put his head and a portion of his body through the handle of the jar which happened to stand between the coveted delicacies. The handle was just open enough to let his body, in its natural state, slip cleverly through, but not sufficient to let it pass when puffed out by the eggs. His snakeship thus found himself unable to advance or retreat; and his floundering about to escape from this novel stock had caused the accident which had aroused us. I, of course, proceeded at once to execute summary justice upon the snake, as the eggs he had swallowed were a dead loss."

How's Your Liver?

The old lady who replied, when asked how her liver was, "God bless me, I never heard there was such a thing in the house," was noted for her amiability. Promethium, when chained to a rock might as well have pretended to be happy, as the man who is chained to a diseased liver. For poor Promethium, there was no escape, but by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pills, the disagreeable feelings, irritable temper, constipation, indigestion, dizziness and all the troubles which are caused by a diseased liver, promptly disappear.

An April Shower.

When the cattle are put on the grass too early both are injured.

The note that is not due till two years will be harder on you than the note due in one year.

Counting our chickens before they are hatched would not be so bad did we first handle the eggs.

The successful farmer is the one that makes ten per cent. on the money he has lost through mistakes.

The horse with plenty of curry-comb outside and oats inside doesn't show his ribs before midsummer.

It is a poor rule that would work both ways; nevertheless, both lending and borrowing are unprofitable.

None but a good farmer can make eight per cent. on borrowed money; and he is the last farmer to do it.

Bad tempered cows, dull plows, and weak fences ought to be evils unendurable, for they are not immovable.

The man who allows the rivulets to get his manure is always sure that the government is robbing the people.

What doth it profit a man if he keeps the weeds down on his farm and allows them to grow on the highway?

Extend the house cleaning into the cellar, and make the work more thorough where shirking would be least seen.

Is Consumption Incurable.

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was withdrawn from school, Ark., and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jessie Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I should have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at T. F. Kluttz & Co. Drug Store.

Bicycling Women.

[Washington letter to St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

I saw a woman one evening last week—I saw a woman go by on a bicycle! On a bicycle, I repeat; a vehicle with two wheels only, one of which was directly behind the other. Her feet—not to use a stronger term—were on both sides of the connection bar, balancing precisely as a man would. There was a flutter of lace and a flash of skirts whenever the respective ends of the walking beam went up.

"Will women wear bicycles anywhere else?" I enquired of a maker.

"Of course they will. Washington will set the example, and New York, Boston and Chicago will follow. There are 14,000 cycles in this city, and there are new low bicycles will gradually supersede the old ones. It must be so. The survival of the fittest requires it."

So woman is completing her conquest of the planet. She smokes. She smokes. She preaches. She hazes. She shoots. She rides. And now she has lassoed the iron grasshopper, and has fearlessly mounted it.

The bicycle dress is made like a riding habit, but divided into two skirts.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for twelve years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bled almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Dr. King's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first day's use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone. D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.
