Turning Over.

From present indications this is going to be a favorable year for men to change the course of their political lives. The Democrats of North Carolina, and of the Union, without any special reference to catching votes, have had the good fortune of putting into the field as standard bearers men of good renown—honest, patriotic men—who know the right and have the firmness the right to pursue. Now, this is a great point gained; and it is going to draw into the Democratic party many of those honest men who have heretofore acted with the Republicans; for, say what you please about its principles and the policies of parties, the character of the men leading them exerts a powerful influence on the minds of those voters who have neither the time nor the inclination to study the questions on which parties differ. Mr. Cleveland, for instance, is a tried man. He has shown his character, and proved himself to be trustworthy as the President of this great country. He is a fearless, impartial and faithful executive officer who makes the Constitution and the laws his rule of action. He is just as certain to resist the Democratic party if it goes wrong according to his judgment as he is to the Republican party. He considers his first and foremost duty is to the whole six million people of the country, and not to a fractional part of them. He does not keep company with jobbers, speculators, or scoundrels of high or low degree. He is not a gift-taker, has no special fondness for bull pups, nor South American jackasses; but his time and attention are given to those whom they belong. He believes that when a man is paid to do certain work he ought to perform it to the best of his skill and ability and with honesty. Unprejudiced people, whether Democrats or Republicans, seeing these things will stand up to the man with a decision born of strong conviction, and will not waver in the battle.

Our State ticket also comprises men of known and highly approved character, and is bound to draw to its support many honest men of the Republican party, who care more for the welfare of the State than for parties. It is composed of solid, substantial, reliable men, with eminent qualifications for the trusts to be placed in their hands. The people could have no stronger assurance of faithful and wise management of State affairs than is offered them in the ticket presented by the Democratic party.

Mr. Thomas M. Bramlet, a wealthy Boston gentleman, who has been prospecting the gold mines of this State for some time, died suddenly of hemorrhage of the lungs at Cleveland Springs, on the 4th instant. He was a native of South Carolina.

1840-1888.

The nomination of General Harrison, Republican nominee for President, will doubtless bring a feature into politics that will savor of the great campaign of 1840, and literally lay the Red Bandanna and White Beaver in the shade. Mr. Harrison is a grandson of President William Henry Harrison, and we allude to the Log Cabin feature. It swept the country in 1840. It will sweep the country in 1888, red bandanna, white beaver, Cleveland, Thurman and all.—Winston Republican.

The old men of the country who took part in the memorable campaign of 1840, will laugh at the above ridiculous comparison, offered as favoring the Republican party. All the winning points of resemblance between the Whigs and Democrats of 1840, belong to the Democrats of to-day as against the Republican candidates. The only thing they have at all is that their nominee, Harrison, is a grandson of the lament Wm. Henry Harrison of 1840; and when we would ask, were free American people known to run after anybody because his father or grandfather was a great man? They "are not made in that way," neighbor. You must start better nonsense than that. If there be any of that sort they are the worshippers of Bob Lincoln and Fred Grant—Republicans, every hoof of them.

J. P. Robbins, in the Lenoir Topic, says that he attended the Republican State Convention as a delegate—went there as sound a Republican as any man in the body; but that he was thoroughly disgusted at what he saw and heard, and came away a changed man politically. But we will let him tell it as follows:

"When I left Watauga county I was convinced that the present system of government ought to be changed, and that the cry of 'nigger,' brought against the Republican party, was originated by demagogues for political purposes. After attending the convention I was completely changed in my opinion, for I saw with my own eyes negroes jostling their way among the white delegates, acting upbraidingly and making themselves unduly prominent in the transaction of business. They took complete control of the convention at times and frequently it was impossible for a white man to get the floor or to get a respectful hearing. There were two negro secretaries of the convention, and during a portion of its sitting it had a negro presiding officer. Two of the four delegates to Chicago were negroes. Altogether there was too much negro in the convention to suit me; and although I have been a Republican, I am a white man and believe in white men ruling North Carolina. I fully appreciated, for the first time, what the people of the South have contended with in fighting against negro rule and negro insolence, and my ideas of county government have altogether changed. I am in favor of the present system of county government. I take this opportunity also to state that I do hereby formally withdraw from the Republican party, which is responsible for any danger there may be of foisting negro rule upon North Carolina."

6th District.

The Democrats of this District met in Wilmington on June 27th, and nominated the Hon. Alfred Rowland, of Robeson county, as a candidate for Congress.

Mr. S. J. Penbertson, of Stanly, was then put in nomination for Elector for the Sixth District. Columbus county seconded the nomination; and when Union county was called Mr. Covington moved that Mr. P. be declared Elector by acclamation, which was done amidst tremendous cheering.

The delegations had a pleasant time and finished up their work most harmoniously.

Re-union.

There was a grand re-union of soldiers, northern and southern, on the Gettysburg battle ground last Sunday. They met there to pay honors to the gallant soldiers who fell in that terrible fight, and to shake hands across the bloody chasm. One of the northern orators of the day said the charge of Pickett's division "had never been excelled in the history of the world." Another said "it was without a parallel." Truly, Southern valor can be recognized by a northern soldier, but in this case it was too dearly bought. Alas, the price.

General R. Barringer For Cleveland.

The Charlotte Chronicle of Tuesday, brought the gratifying news that General Rufus Barringer has announced (to a reporter of that paper) that he will support the Democratic ticket for President. Mr. Barringer has doubtless reached the conclusion from high and patriotic considerations, and as such his example is worthy the attention of all southern republicans who prefer the best interest of the country to the promotion of party.

Who is C. S. Rozelle, of Denver, N. C. P. "Rocked in the cradle of Democracy," as he says in his two column card, he has become a Republican. Wonder what's the matter with Mr. Rozelle, and whether Cleveland and Thurman can stand such a departure. Hon. W. H. H. Cowles has also lost a "bosom friend" because he has failed to give good times, make money plenty and fail to give his name. Cowles is badly ruined by this "bosom friend" as Cleveland and Thurman by Rozelle. The above information is gathered from the Union Republican, of Winston.

Voice of our People.

Mr. Editor:—I observe the names of various persons announced in your paper as suitable representatives of Rowan in the House of Commons. For some years Rowan has been well represented by a citizen of Salisbury of the legal profession, but as it seems to be the desire of the farmers to have one of their own number to represent them in the next Legislature, it behooves them to be prudent, cautious and circumspect in the selection of their candidate; one who should be well qualified in all respects for legislating, a worthy successor of his predecessor, an honor to his country, and not simply a machine to answer when called, and to vote when told to do so, and how to vote.

Rowan, in the next Legislature, will have only one representative, (the Senator being from Davie), and he will be chosen upon his own responsibility in the decision of all questions presented. He should therefore possess more than ordinary intelligence, and, if possible, legislative experience; a man of prudence, firmness and decision of character, of broad and liberal views, of energy and industry, of not more of their own direct and pointed, an indefatigable working member.

Now, it seems to me, after taking a survey of all the legislative material mentioned, that J. S. McCubbins is just the man for this position. He has all these qualifications, and many more. He was twice elected to the House of Commons, in the years 1874 and 1876, and proved himself an active, intelligent and working member. During these sessions the State debts were compromised and the sale of the W. N. C. R. R. consummated—measures of vital consequence to the taxpayers of the State.

Mr. McCubbins is one of the people, a self-made man, the sole architect of his own fortune, the result of indomitable industry, energy and enterprise, guided by a kind and generous nature, always equitable and just in all transactions. It is in his nature to be a farmer. This does him great injustice. He not only owns one of the best farms in the county—none leased—but he also owns two small farms near the city of Salisbury that he cultivates himself. He is therefore a farmer, and I myself a farmer, feel assured that the interests of the farmers of Rowan could not be entrusted to any one who would more cautiously protect them. A FARMER.

Mr. Editor:—Who will be the candidate for the Legislature? This question has been asked a number of times within the last few weeks. There are many candidates but there will be but one nominee. A number of names have been mentioned, among which we notice L. H. Rothrock, J. L. Sifford, J. S. McCubbins and C. D. Crawford. Now let us not go blindly into this matter. Let us not think "all is gold that glitters"; that success is ours whether a canvass is made or not; that, put us whomsoever we may, the people will rally to his support. This is a mistake. We would say be careful. We have not landed "safe within the veil." We need a leader; we need a man acquainted with the operations of both parties; a man that can go before the people and tell what they do not know; a man that can draw Bingham; a man in whom the people can place their confidence without hesitancy. Such a man we have; a man who has been tried and who has always been found faithful, doing all in his power to carry out his pledges and to advance the interests of our common people.

Lee S. Overman is the one man to carry the Democratic banner through the coming campaign. What though he is from Salisbury? What is his interest? His interests are best maintained through him? We can see no reason why he should not be unanimously nominated at the County Convention and we can see every reason why he should be nominated.

Fellow citizens, think! Do you remember how nearly the Reds, and Independents and guinea-headed negroes and stud horse keepers came ruling the last Assembly? Then how incumbent it is upon us to send a man of influence; a man acquainted with the operations of the Legislature, who is able to manipulate and utilize everything for the best of our country and people in common! Let every township rally to Overman on the 14th and on the 21st let his nomination be unanimous. VOTERS.

Doctor Shearer Accepts.

The following letter has been handed us for publication, and it is likely to prove highly gratifying to many of the friends of Davidson College:

Rev. J. Rumble, D. D., Secy. Board of Trustees of Davidson College:

DEAR BRO:—Your official notice of my election to the Presidency of Davidson College, with accompanying documents, came duly to hand. Ties of personal interest and friendship and above all of congenial and successful work in my present position, make it exceedingly hard for me to relinquish it, even for so important as this to which you call me. The hearty unanimity of your Board and also of the institution in calling me to this position, wholly unsought by myself, is no small factor in helping me to decide this to be a call of the Lord. I do therefore accept it as such, relying upon His grace to guide me in the untrodden future. Were I a mere novice in College work I might fail to realize its difficulties and responsibilities; as it is, I can but tremble with a full sense of them all, while I entreat Him to strengthen me and through me. The cause of Davidson College has done a noble work for Him, and I trust that there is still more glorious for this school of the Church.

Allow me through you to thank the Board of Trustees for the confidence reposed in me. If God will, it shall not prove to be misplaced. Allow me also to thank you, my dear brother, for the kind and assuring way in which you have informed me of their action and of your personal sympathy and support in the discharge of my new and official duties.

Yours in the bonds of the Gospel,
J. B. SHEARER.

Cyclone at Laurinburg, N. C.

Quite a destructive storm swept over this place about 3 p. m., Thursday last. The hotel, Parkin's gin house, two negro churches, four or five stores and several residences were unroofed or otherwise badly damaged. Some of them were destroyed. Mr. Roper's stable was blown down, killing two mules. No human life lost. The storm was from the South.

A Very Significant Announcement.

The declaration of ex-Mayor Seth Low of Brooklyn that he will support Cleveland and Thurman important, not only on account of Mr. Low's commanding position in the Republican party, but because he represents a large and conspicuous element which four years ago supported Blaine, but will this year vote for Cleveland.

Opinions of the Press.

Henceforth let there be work. The Democrats have in the field the best possible ticket. We are very sure of this. We can not see how they could have done as well without which the nation. In our heart we believe we have a clean ticket, such as should commend it to the consideration and favor of all honest men who love their country and would see it prosper, and who love justice and fair dealing. The Democratic ticket is politically sound and personally pure and honest. It represents the principles upon which our government must be administered if it shall flourish and prosper and if the liberties of the people shall be preserved.—Wilmington Star.

Cleveland and Thurman are platforms in themselves, and are good enough and broad enough and big enough and strong enough and sound enough for the fortunes of our party to stand upon in perfect safety and security. Their names mean purity, honesty and the sanctity of all the hallowed tenets of the constitution—that blessed palladium of our country's liberties, and without which the autonomy of the States and their time honored sovereignty would go down in ruin and destruction. During the trying times of reconstruction Thurman was the central figure in the United States Senate in upholding the dignity and integrity of the Constitution.—Wilson Mirror.

While the Democracy of North Carolina are for tariff reform, as interpreted in Cleveland's message, yet in North Carolina the one, great important issue overshadowing every other is "shall the white man rule." Many people may try to turn off on a side issue, but the fact remains, and we have got to confront the enemy with that question and no other. Are the people of this old grand commonwealth, so rich in its past record of patriotic endeavor and all the ennobling characteristics of the anglosaxon race, ready to turn the government over to an inferior race and become subordinate to the unchecked and unbridled will and caprice of ignorance and prejudice. No, a thousand times no, will be the answer on November 4th.—Charlotte Chronicle.

It is not proposed to entirely relieve the country of this taxation. It must be extensively continued as the source of the Government's income; and in a readjustment of our tariff the interest of American labor engaged in manufacture should be carefully considered, as well as the preservation of our manufacturers. It may be called protection, or by any other name, but relief from the hardships and dangers of our present tariff laws should be devised with especial precaution against imperiling the existence of our manufacturing interests.—PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE.

Chairman William H. Barnum.

We congratulate the Democratic party on the fact that Hon. William H. Barnum has consented to continue to serve as chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

BUY YOU A CLOCK.

If in town you chance to drop,
Buy yourself a clock;
The kind of clock—what is a clock?
The kind that is guaranteed,
That will keep good time
And run like a rhyme,
And cost you nix for a year.
And if a clock from me you have bought
That wont run exactly to a dot,
I ask you then to bring it back
And if in the least it does anything lack,
I will give you a new one
Or the money pay back.

Now, of clocks I a large assortment have got,

That must go and go cheap for cash on the spot;
In nickle, wood, and marbleised iron,
All the latest designs you surely will find,
From the little tick tick to the big tock tock.

The prices are low, in fact very low,
Considering the quality and finish;
Why for $1.25 who can't have the hour,
And keep up with the times and his neighbor?
The days are now here when your time is quite dear,
So get you a clock, that on time you may steer.

I have clocks for all people, the rich and the poor,
From $1.25 to $18 in store.

And clocks—what is clocks—nothing less, nothing more,
And that for the cash they pass out of my door.

So come along all and a bargain secure
And see to the letter if I could not more.

Very truly yours,
W. H. REISNER,
LEADING JEWELLER.
