A TERRIBLE PATE FOR MORE THAN FIVE HUNDRED PEOPLE. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

YOKOHAMA, July 23 .- About eight clock on the morning of the 15th inst, there was a terrific volcanic eruption on Mount Bandai, in the province On Sunday morning, the 15th inst.,

about 8 o'clock, there were three snccessive earthquakes in the neighborhood of Mount Bandai, the first of which was slight, the second rather severer and the third was quite heavy. While the third earthquake was going on there came tremendous noises three times in rapid succession, as if hundreds of thuderbolts were striking overhead. In that instant the Small Bandai-for there is the so-called Big Bandai as well-lost its upper portion, and at the same time a mass of black cloud curled up to the sky. In another second the cloud was broken up into fragments and began to fall making for a short while the broad day as dark as midnight. Minute lava and ashes then began to fall, soon covering the ground six inches deep. the same moment two streams of boiling mud, presumably burned stones and rocks, were thrown up from the fiery peak, which filled up valleys in the vicinity and newly formed many a hill over them. The area of ground thus covered with the boiling mud is now roughly estimated at fifteen miles including nearly every living thing. tants, were entirely crushed under the iquid lava, and several others partly destroyed. Near by the volcanic peak there used to stand three small hot spring hamlets, and there were here about one hundred and fifty visitors for health or pleasure. Their exact number will probably never be known. as all were destroyed and buried.

According to the statements of the survivors with whom I talked and the concurring testimony of the people who live in the district for miles around the mountain, on the morning of Sunday, the 15th of this month, rumblings were heard and earth tremblings were felt in the neighborhood of the mountain. The first disturbance noticed occurred about 7 o'clock and was followed by three earthquake shocks at intervals of ten minutes, when there occurred a loud explosion, which the people compare to the report of thousands of cannon discharged simultaneously, accompanied by another terrible earthquake shock, which so frightened the people that they attempted to fly.
