Mr. T. F. Klutz moved into his new residence on Falls street yesterday.

A wet September, so far.

Mr. John A. Boyden will build a hotel at Blowing Rock.

For a splendid fit, gentlemen should go to Kelly, the tailor.

Go to L. Blumenthal & Bro. for good and cheap goods. Buis building.

A circus is said to be headed this way, and will be along here about the middle of October.

Mr. Victor Boyden left here Tuesday for La Grange to enter the Davis military school.

Wednesday and Thursday of next week (26 and 27th) occurs the big to-do at Greensboro.

New goods and plenty of them are being opened out at the various stores. Look out for new advertisements.

P. H. Thompson & Co. will pay the highest market price for old cast iron, also for Dogwood and Persimmon timber.

John Lee S. Overman of Salisbury, addressed a large assemblage upon the political issues of the day, at Hickory, Wednesday.

Don't forget that the candidates are to speak at the different appointments made by the Sheriff, beginning at China Grove, next Monday.

The editor of the Landmark has increased his circulation. An 11x14 is the old black mammoth as used to say, before de wah, its "gal chile" this time.

Messrs. Byrd & Quinn, dealers in grain and fertilizers, have thrown a large sign across the street opposite their place of business on Falls street.

Mr. Henderson has had a change made in the mail facilities between here and Mt. Vernon. After the first of October it will be a daily route instead of tri-weekly.

This county will be thoroughly canvassed during the month of Oct., and our people will have an opportunity of hearing some of the ablest speakers in this country.

It seems that dramatic and opera troupes are to give Salisbury the go-by again this season, caused it is said, by the high taxes imposed upon shows of that character here.

Judge Fowle arrived here late Monday evening from Mocksville, and left on the midnight train for Hickory, where he and Col. Dockery spoke according to appointment on Tuesday.

The inclement weather prevented a number of our citizens from hearing the joint discussion at Lexington last Saturday. The same circumstances kept us from Mocksville Monday.

The shoe store at the sign of the big gold boot has just received a large stock of boots, shoes, umbrellas, &c., that will be sold at prices that will astonish you. See their ad. in another column.

Mr. D. R. Julian has gone North to lay in a stock of fall and winter goods, and promises to let you all know through the columns of the WATCHMAN what he buys. Mr. W. L. Klutz is also in great markets North, purchasing goods.

The independent who was endorsed by the regno convention as a candidate for Sheriff of Rowan, has not yet accepted or declined, so his said. Don't be fooled, things can be understood that it would be imprudent to make public.

The wells in this section have not been in the recollection of the oldest inhabitants so full of water as since the rains last week. Such water is more or less contaminated and should be drawn off and the wells thoroughly cleansed.

The dry goods store of Van Wyck & Schultz is crum full of the finest and latest agencies in dry goods. Every body is invited to read their ad., and then go and see what they have. They are always pleased to show goods whether you buy or not.

Hon. John S. Henderson has succeeded in having a tri-weekly mail route established between Salisbury and Mount Pleasant, and Post-master Boyden requests that persons living between these two points will come in and consult him as to the best route.

Davidson College inaugurated its fifty-second collegiate year last Thursday morning. Dr. Shearer assumed control of the college, and announced a complete change in the course of biblical instruction. Instead of confining the study to Christian evidences and Ethics, as in former years, the junior years of the college course are to be devoted to the study of the Bible alone. From this study of the Bible, morals and evidences are to be deduced. Upwards of twenty-five freshmen are already on the grounds, and others have been notified of their intention to enter this term.

The Cabarrus County Fair to be held at Concord from Oct. 6th to 12th promises to be very interesting to all. As this will be the nearest to Rowan of any fair to be held this year, it should be well attended by our citizens and we have no doubt but that all that go will find it instructive as well as amusing. See their ad. in another column.

The speaking at Mooresville Monday was well attended notwithstanding unfavorable weather. We are reliably informed by a gentleman who was present and who is not given to coloring matters, that Judge Fowle did up Col. Dockery into a very small package and aroused the democracy of Davie as they have never been stirred before.

We have the prospect of a pleasing panorama of "Milton's Paradise Lost" on the evening of the 27th and 28th inst. Mr. Moore, of Hickory, N. C., has effected an arrangement with the Y. M. C. A. of Salisbury, and the exhibition will be under the auspices of the association, and partly for their benefit. A citizen of Salisbury, who attended Mr. Moore's exhibition in Hickory, pronounces it the finest thing of the kind that he has ever seen, and well worthy of a crowded house. Further notice will be given in a few days by hand bills, &c.

At Winston on Tuesday (18th) at 5 o'clock p. m. C. W. Byrd (pastor of the Methodist church at this place) to Miss Hattie Bobbitt, daughter of Rev. W. H. Bobbitt D. D., Rev. Mr. Gay, of Lexington officiating. The happy couple arrived here Wednesday morning and are at Mr. W. M. Paynes. The WATCHMAN extends congratulations.

Mr. Owen Bishop and family of Hereford, England, arrived here a week or ten days ago with the purpose of settling in our county. Mr. Bishop is a practical farmer and brings with him the English thrift and modes which has brought the English soil to its present high state of cultivation. We sincerely hope that Mr. Bishop will make a complete success of his farming operations as it will probably be the means of a number of others following him here.

The finest herds of cattle ever on exhibition will be there. There will be more pens of fine hogs of more breeds than ever before. The poultry will be a sight in itself, it will surprise professional breeders. This has been a good fruit year and the exhibits will be in keeping with it. The crop displays will equal anything ever seen. The races will be standard. The Great Indian Ball Game will be played by a band of Cherokees. Music. Distinguished speakers. Meeting of farmers. Merry time and fun for all. Railroad fare only one cent a mile.

The First Petition for Prohibition in North Carolina. King Hagler of the Catawba Nation of Indians, at Salisbury, 26th of May, 1756, to Chief Justice Henley: "I desire a stop may be put to the selling strong liquors by the white people to my people, especially near the Indians. If the white people make strong drink let them sell it to one another or drink it in their own families. This will avoid a great deal of mischief which otherwise will happen from my people getting drunk and quarrelling with the white people." To this the Chief Justice replied: "Your observation in respect to the white people selling liquor to the Indians is very just; as there is no law at present to prevent it, I will mention to the Governor the necessity of making one to restrain these pernicious practices for the future."

Colonial Records.

Notice. That a meeting of the Democrats of Scotch Irish township is solicited on Saturday the 24th of Sept., at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp, to organize a Cleveland and Fowle Club at Mt. Vernon. The Hon. Theo. Klutz, is expected to address the meeting. By request of the Dem. Ex. Com.

MARRIED. By Rev. C. A. Rose, Sept. 12, 1888, Mr. Thomas J. Morgan and Miss Fannie E. Beaver, all of Rowan county, N. C.

On the 18th inst. at the house of the bride, Rev. Mr. Klutz officiating, J. D. Henly and Mrs. Kate Correll.

On the 18th inst. at the residence of Mr. John Barringer, Rev. Mr. Franklin officiating, Mr. Leo Powles and the widow Gouley.

The new editor of the Durham Tobacco Plant does not sympathize with his predecessor, Mr. Burkhead, in his love for the Third Party. He leans decidedly the other way. We quote what he says, and call attention to his last sentence. He says: "We can't help it, in truth we don't care to. Our creed is PLAIN CHAT. We hold that so long as we stick to the facts, the paucity don't hurt. So then to be plain with our Third Party friends, we propose to style them just what we think they really are, to wit: THE ASSASSINS OF TEMPERANCE REFORM."

A Commendable Act. Near the middle of Oak Grove cemetery at this place, is a grave with the following inscription cut upon a wooden head-board.

LEUT. COL. F. M. KENT. 1ST LA. REGIMENT. Died April 1864.

Mr. Swicegood, the sexton, incidentally remarked, in the presence of Mr. C. R. Barker, this grave would very soon be without a mark as the head board was in a state of decay, whereupon Mr. Barker, who is noted for his manifest interest in everything pertaining to the Confederate soldier, having entered the service himself when only thirteen years of age and served to the end, wrote the Secy. of State of La, making inquiries concerning Col. Kent, and stated the circumstances of his grave at Salisbury.

Very soon thereafter a letter was received by Mr. Barker from Capt. Hurst, late of Co. B-118 Illinois Infantry, now a resident of Dallas Texas, which stated that he had seen the letter of inquiry, and that he was a son-in-law of Col. F. M. Kent, having married his daughter after the war.

He requested Mr. Barker to have the grave put in good condition, forwarding the amount necessary to pay expenses of the same.

Mr. John Buis has been given the contract to place a neat marble slab, with inscription, and close the grave with curbing of granite. It will also be turfed and everything made substantial about it. Col. Kent is remembered by a number of our citizens as having been placed on light duty at the Garrison here, on account of wounds received in Virginia of which he died.

He was buried with military honors, Prof. Neave's band furnished the music. Kind and grateful hearts have placed flowers on the grave, every decoration they since the war.

Capt. Hurst, as will be seen above, was a Union soldier, (and there is no doubt about his having been a good one) with a great big heart, brimful of goodness, and sympathy for a fallen foe. May he live long and prosper in that dear old sunny South.

COUNTY LOCALS. Cleveland. The corn crop will be short through this section.

The majority of the farmers are about through breaking fallows.

There is not as much talk about politics as usual. What is the reason?

I understand that Mrs. G. A. Allison has returned from the Epeetique Springs.

Owing to the abundance of rain for the past two weeks, farmers are not through sowing oats.

The cotton that had opened before the rain set in is sprouting and is such that there will not be more than half a crop.

Messrs. Lyerly & Bros. have finished their new outdoor gin, the old one being destroyed by fire last winter, and are now ready for work again.

Organ Church. The Sunday school at this place is well attended. They are speaking of having a S. S. celebration at Organ, the fourth Sunday of November.

The cotton picking season is at hand. That is also considerably damaged by the rains, rats in the boll before opening, and what opens is of inferior quality.

To sum it up, the corn crop will be about half a crop. If the rains continue there is no telling the damage that will be done to both these crops. The hay crop has also been injured by being washed down.

Rev. Mr. Brown has gone on a visit to his brother in Mississippi, who was taken suddenly ill. Mrs. Brown is visiting her father's "house," in Virginia.

Mr. Brown and lady have been growing in favor and popularity since their sojourn with us, and the people show their appreciation of them by pounding them occasionally, fixing up around the parsonage, &c.

The farmers are through sowing oats; they have sown a larger acreage this year than usual on account of the shortage in the corn crop. The corn crop is not only a very light one, but is seriously damaged by the continuous winds and rains. On upland the corn has been blown down and is rotting on account of rain. Bottom land has been overflowed several times and consequently damaged.

Scotch Irish. A meeting was called by the Dem. township Ex. Committee, to meet at Teague's School House, in Scotch Irish township, on Saturday night, the 15th inst., for the purpose of forming a Cleveland and Fowle club, and notwithstanding, the roads were muddy, and the night rainy, the crowd was there, so was Mr. Bailey, our nominee for Senator, who made us a very good speech. After which the club was organized with 32 members. C. A. Guffey, Esq., was President, S. Henley, Vice President, and W. C. Teague, Secy.

Reidsville Democrat: Col. Dockery has stopped slandering Mrs. Cleveland, because he found it unpopular to do so in the presence of Judge Fowle, but he still delights his colored friends by slandering the bishop and the ladies of the Episcopal church as advocates of social equality. If a pious, self-sacrificing Christian woman dares to teach the children of her servants the tenets of the catechism, she is held up as an example of degradation by this "savagery race," (so termed by Judge Russell of the Republican party) whose candidate Col. Dockery is applauding.

Hail stones from five to eight inches in length are reported as falling in Pennsylvania on the 18th inst.

Concord Presbytery. Met at Taylorsville, N. C., Sept. 14th at 11 o'clock, and was organized by the Rev. Mr. Arrowwood, Moderator; and Rev. J. A. Ramsay, clerk pro. tem. The opening services were conducted by Rev. J. Rumble, by request. The roll call showed 19 ministers in attendance and about the same number of elders.

Among the subjects of most interest, engaging the attention of the body was the consideration of two calls laid before it. One from the Westminster church of Charleston S. C., for the pastoral services of R. A. Webb, now of the Davidson College church. And the other from the Taylorsville and Wilksboro churches, for the pastoral services of Rev. Mr. McClelland.

The Charleston church sent up a delegate to prosecute the call for Mr. Webb, and addressed the Presbytery at some length by a written appeal, in which was set forth a history of the church, past and present, and its urgent need of such a man as they believe Mr. Webb to be. The church, it appeared, had long been opposed to instrumental music in their religious services, and until within the last few years had not employed it. Its introduction at last was contrary to the views and convictions of many of the members and they believe the labors of Mr. Webb, who agrees with them on the general subject, may tend to restore the ancient usage of the church in this relation. The discussion of the call took a pretty wide range, but ended in a decision to place the call into the hands of Mr. Webb, who, it is understood, will accept it.

The call for Mr. McClelland to serve Taylorsville and Wilksboro churches was strongly opposed by the churches he is now serving, and they plead their cause so well that Presbytery could not consistently consent to the transfer.

One other subject which elicited marked attention was "Home Missions." Able speeches were delivered in favor of more equal division of labor and means for the destitute fields within our own bounds instead of expending them in foreign countries. And it was urged that the christianizing and building up of the church at home was one of the surest means of securing help for the extension of the Gospel among the heathen.

Interesting and able addresses were delivered on education—one from the President elect of Davidson College, the Rev. Mr. Scheerer, D. D., outlining the plan for making the Bible a more effective part of education was listened to with marked attention.

The voluminous record of the commission appointed to investigate the trouble in Franklin church, Rowan county, was read and approved.

The weather during the meeting was inclement, but it did not interfere with the business of the Presbytery nor hinder the attendance on the religious services of the Sabbath; nor did it hinder the generous people of Taylorsville from showing a handsome hospitality to their guests.

The next meeting of Presbytery will be held at Mooresville, on the first Friday in April, 1889.

The Refugees at Hendersonville. Dr. Geo. W. Graham, who has been spending a few days at the Hot Springs of this State, arrived home yesterday. He came through Hendersonville where the yellow fever refugees are quartered, and though he did not interview any of them, he picked up a few points from the local passagers. They are at this time the arrival of the refugees at Hendersonville, four cases of yellow fever have developed, which, with the four cases on the train, makes eight cases altogether in Hendersonville. The people of that place feel safe in the conviction that the fever cannot spread in their atmosphere, and no alarm at all is manifested by the citizens, the refugees themselves being the only ones who feel uneasy.

All the refugees before leaving Jacksonville, signed a written agreement that they would not leave the town of Hendersonville under any circumstances, until after the expiration of the usual ten days, but it is said that some of them are violating their contract, and scattering out in different directions. It is claimed that a party of them made their way to Saluda, and there registered as coming from Columbia and other places.

An experienced physician is attending the refugees in Hendersonville, and the sick are receiving better treatment and are in better circumstances than if they were in Jacksonville. They are as comfortably housed as possible under the circumstances. As many of them have doubtless carried the germs of the disease in their system, it is expected that new cases among the Hendersonville refugees will continue to be reported for some days.

The refugees are isolated as completely as possible from the citizens, and the patients are being cared for in a house that is isolated both from the citizens and refugees. Although the people of Hendersonville profess to be perfectly at ease, it is evident that they are somewhat nervous. There are nearly five hundred refugees in the party, and when the train that brought them pulled into Hendersonville the large crowd that had assembled at the depot, fed like a pack of frightened sheep. The refugees, at any rate, are now enjoying the hospitalities of the town and they feel that they are welcome, since Hendersonville was the first town in the State that issued an invitation to them—Charlotte Chronicle.

"The extent of the superfluous burden indicated by this surplus will be better appreciated when it is suggested that such surplus alone represents taxation aggregating more than one hundred and eight thousand dollars in a country containing fifty thousand inhabitants."—Grover Cleveland.

It is the only Drill I ever saw that will sow the Red Root-Pre/Boar/ed (ate) to perfection. JOHN V. BARRINGER. Salisbury, Sept. 8, 1888.
