

THURSDAY, OCT. 4, 1888.

County Democratic Ticket.

- FOR THE SENATE, T. B. BAILEY. FOR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, J. S. McCUBBINS, Sr. FOR SHERIFF, C. C. KRIDER. FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS, H. N. WOODSON. FOR TREASURER, J. S. McCUBBINS, Jr. FOR SURVEYOR, B. C. AREY. FOR CORONER, D. A. ATWELL.

Indications point to an increase in the price of bread stuffs. Dr. Griffith's office will be closed from the 10th to 13th inst. Globe I. Blumenthal & Bro. for good and cheap goods. Bais building. One-fourth to one-third of the tobacco crops reported damaged by frost.

Mrs. J. A. Clodfelter has returned from a protracted sojourn in the mountains. The bridges across the R. & D. railroad are in a slightly better state of repair than they were some time ago. Dr. Campbell has moved from the Barker house, in Brooklyn, to one of Mr. Jno. Knox's houses, on Ellis street.

Van Wyck & Schultz have just received a fine lot of neck ties of the latest styles, they are simply immense go and see them. We congratulate our sister town, Lexington, on having attained proportions large enough to raise her Post-Office to the third class. Our Baptist brethren have purchased a new bell for their church. It has a good rich tone and can be heard easily in any part of town.

Charles Overman, Sr., is shaking hands with his numerous friends here. He has just returned from blowing Rock where he spent the summer. With the going out of the watermelon we chronicle the advent of the 'possum season. Verily, the darkey is a highly favored American citizen. Victor Wallace has just returned from the Northern markets and is receiving a larger and more select stock of goods than ever. See his ad. in next paper.

Mr. James Plummer is remodeling the house on Lee street, recently purchased from Mr. Theo. P. Klutz, which will be a neat and comfortable residence when completed. The Sentinel says that Senator Vance will speak at Winston about the middle of October. Of course the Senator will not think of giving Rowan the go-by in this campaign. If you need any kind of goods look in the columns of the WATCHMAN and see who are the enterprising merchants that are keeping their money turning over and over all the time.

September 1888 will be handed down as one noted for its peculiarity of its season. Indeed the entire year, thus far has been a strange and unusual one on the line of weather. Mr. L. H. Four, at the First National Bank, Mr. O. D. Davis, at Davis & Wiley's Bank, and Ayer E. B. Neave will receive subscriptions to the fund now being raised here for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers.

Dr. Trautman contemplates the erection of a handsome residence soon on the lot recently purchased from the Boyden couple. This is the highest point in Salisbury and the Doctor will be able to look down on all his neighbors. The Salisbury Cotton Mills Co. have purchased eighty acres of land from Mr. S. B. Harrison, adjoining that first bought for site of factory, houses, &c., which makes in all over one hundred acres of valuable land now owned by the company.

An extra train is to be put on the road between Salisbury and Charlotte on the 10th of October, being the date of the soldiers' day at the Concord fair. The train will leave Charlotte in the morning at 7 o'clock and come as far as Salisbury and then return to Concord. Several changes have been made amongst our clerks. Mr. Claude Ramsey goes from Klutz & Rendleman's to Van Wyck & Schultz and C. M. Swicegood also goes to the same place, while Mr. Sloan accepts a position in another town, and Mr. W. R. Woodson goes to Klutz & Rendleman's.

Mr. J. B. Lanier will engage in the carrying business on a large scale next year. Preparatory to this he has begun building a factory adjacent to his foundry, and machine shops, forty by one hundred feet. Diversified enterprises is what is going to make the rapid growth of Salisbury solid. Vigorous cheering is heard in the vicinity of Barker's hall now 'nights occupied by negro orators getting in their political work during their credulous moments. They will vote de 'publican ticket till the stars fall, or so long as there remains a party of that name, and long there will be a solid South.

Cotton, in this market, 9.50 to 9.65. Corn, 65 to 67 1/2. Meal 80.

Everybody's. An entertainment will be given at McCreary's Hall next Tuesday night by the young ladies' societies of the different churches in aid of the yellow fever sufferers. The young ladies of the different societies who will take part are requested to meet at the Manse to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. We hope everybody will be found at the Hall Tuesday night, and by their attendance aid this cause.

Some Good Advice.

During the present Congress Mr. Henderson has been representing three districts, his own, the fourth and fifth. The Raleigh and Greensboro district failed to elect Representatives two years ago, when the opportunity to do so was offered them, and then turned to Mr. Henderson to represent them; but he is one of the most obliging of gentlemen, and as one of the most industrious and capable of Congressmen, and has served them with pleasure to himself and satisfaction to them. The burden of doing so would have been very great to an indolent man, but he is a tireless worker, and has found time to meet all the demands upon him, and to meet them well. It is none of our business, to be sure, nevertheless we take the liberty to suggest very respectfully to the voters of the fourth and fifth congressional districts that inasmuch as the government is paying for them salaries to two persons for holding down a chair each in the House of Representatives, those chairs had as well be occupied by gentlemen who would give Mr. Henderson a little assistance occasionally. Messrs B. H. Bunn and J. T. Morehead would be about the right men for the business, and if our friends of the fourth and fifth districts think well of the suggestion we would be pleased to see them act upon it in November.—Statesville Landmark.

Sanderlin in Atwell.

True to the promise, Rowan's banner township had her day, a day of men, matrons and maidens, of music, oratory, fun and good dinners, in short, a picnic generally. Yesterday a squadron of Atwell's horsemen met and escorted the speakers of the day, the Brooklyn Band and the Salisbury contingent to the grove at Sloan's store, to which place the general crowd had gathered. Mr. Sanderlin made two speeches, one of two hours length in the morning, and another half as long in the afternoon, and he held every portion of his audience throughout them both. He made voters for his party and friends for himself, while he gave old Atwell many a hearty laugh and three solid hours packed from minute to minute with a medley of pleasurable emotions. He is a sort of an oratorical harlequin, and, for a sometime preacher, measurably "flip." Rowan will help elect Mr. Sanderlin, in the full knowledge that North Carolina has no truer, nobler son than this hale old soldier and Confederate officer of another day and patriot of the hour.

An Unjust Law.

Editor Watchman.—If a school teacher contracts with a school committee to teach, we will say, a three months school and he goes on and teaches out his term by filling out his contract, and then continues the school simply because the committee failed to notify him to stop, he certainly could not expect to recover wages for such continuance and so with all other contracts. In regard to News Papers and Periodicals, there is a law, that if a person subscribes to a paper for a year, and when the subscription is out, if the proprietor of such paper continues to send it, just as if the subscription had been renewed, and if the person does not notify them to stop it but still takes it out of the Post office, he is liable to pay for it, and failing to do so, he is liable to indictment for a misdemeanor and may upon conviction be fined, and even imprisoned. All Newspapers now do business on the cash-in-advance system and will not send papers unless they are paid for in advance. It is not always convenient for a subscriber to notify an editor to stop his paper, and he ought not to be expected to do so, for when the year paid for is ended his contract is ended, and it should be the duty of the Editor to stop the paper when the time paid for is ended. Such a law is unjust and unmerciful and works a great hardship on subscribers, and ought therefore to be abolished. W. R. FRALEY.

Big Railroad Deal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Directors of the East Tennessee Rail Road at a meeting here today passed a resolution unanimously agreeing to the proposition from the Directors of the Richmond & Danville Rail Road to lease the East Tennessee property for a period of 29 years on a percentage of earnings. A committee was appointed to propose the lease to be presented for ratification at another meeting to be held on Tuesday next. The declaration of a division on East Tennessee first preferred was considered. This means more for Salisbury than one would at first suppose, as the East Tennessee road comprises nearly, if not quite, 5,000 miles of track and the only outlet in this direction is over the W. N. C. R. R.

THE INCREASED AGRICULTURAL WEALTH THIS YEAR.

NEW YORK, September, 28.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of the trade will say: Doubt about the corn crop has varied. Estimates point to a crop of 5,015,000,000 bushels; but it is doubtless the largest crop ever raised. The increase of more than 550,000,000 bushel in this crop far outweigh in value any loss in the yield of wheat, and also any possible loss in the yield of cotton; but the yield of oats is also the largest on record, and the yield on hay and potatoe excellent. It is safe to say that this year's agricultural products will represent, at least, one hundred millions more money than last year's, at average prices for both. In view of the great gain in the actual production of wealth, it is natural to expect increased activity in business and manufactures, but as yet the improvement has been but moderate. The operators in cotton also have gone so far that English manufacturers have begun to work short time in order to "break the corner;" and in this country the demand for cotton goods is slow and conservative.

Roaring Waters.

CAUSES A BIG SENSATION IN COLUMBUS COUNTY. News has been received that a great sensation prevails at Whiteville, Columbus county, the seat of what is claimed as far as the great Kierground river. The roaring and rushing of the water can be plainly heard, and hundreds of people are visiting the spot. When in the vicinity of the supposed stream it can be plainly heard, but when a person lies flat upon the ground the phenomena becomes really alarming. The sound indicates that the water is not any great distance down, and that it is not in small streams, but a majestic river that is coursing on its way unseen in the bowels of the earth to the sea. Vehicles passing over the ground where the phenomenon exists create hollow echoes from below, and the earth in the vicinity for a great distance around seems to be cavernous, judging from the sounds that follow sharp blows. The Whiteville people are possessed of a very morbid curiosity about the matter. Some say there is no telling when the bottom may fall out of the whole town.

Did They Die in the Clouds?

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 29.—A large silk balloon, with its car deserted and drifting, was captured on Cumberland Hill this morning, where it caught among the trees. The address, "Carl Myers, Mohawk, N. Y.," was found on it, with a piece of Buffalo newspaper pinned to the basket, on which was pencilled: "Met our death in the clouds." NORTH EASTON, Mass., Sept. 29.—The balloon Commonwealth, in which Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married at Providence on Thursday, in which they made an ascension in the presence of 20,000, landed safely here at dark last night. The car dragged for over a mile before it was caught, and the young couple were badly shaken up but said they had enjoyed the experience exceedingly. They spent the night at the house of Mr. Poole, and this morning started for Providence.

Frost and Snow.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 1.—Heavy frosts fell last night throughout this section, killing four-fifths of the standing tobacco crop. WOODSVILLE, N. H., Oct. 1.—One-half inch or more of snow fell here. CRATEBORO, Vt., Oct. 1.—Southern Vermont hills are white with snow. LONDON, Oct. 1.—Snow fell in England to-day. TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 1.—It was quite cold here last night, and frost is expected soon.

Peeler's School House.

There will be public speaking at the above place next Friday night, October 12th; and it will be worth hearing. Come out. Moore county pays more than $50,000 every year to swell the surplus in the National Treasury at Washington. This is what protection means to us.—Sanford Express.
