Meeting of the Cleveland, Fowle and Henderson Club at Meroney's Hall to-night. Everybody invited.

Remember the days of 1865 to 1870, and prevent a return of such times by voting a white man's ticket.

The Georgia Jubilee singers gave an outdoor minstrel performance on the public square, last Saturday.

Encouraging news comes from all parts of the country. Cleveland will be our next President and Fowle Governor.

Rowan is in good political shape now, and the usual, if not an increased majority, will be the result on the 6th of November.

Remember there will be no unregistered negro votes on election day. So attend to this important matter at once, white men.

Marshal L. Mott, of Statesville, Republican District Elector, held forth to a crowd of negroes at Meroney's Hall Tuesday night.

One negro vote will be equal to two in the event if you remain at home and do not vote on election day. Remember that, white men.

Two weeks from to-day the WATCHMAN will probably be able to announce the election of both State and National Democratic tickets.

Remember you cannot register after Saturday the 31st November. The election is on the 6th but the registration books will be closed on the 3d.

Quite a number of Salisburyans are in Richmond taking in the Exposition. Buffalo Bill's show, Wild West was exhibited there, but has gone West.

It is said that the nominee of the Republican party of North Carolina for Superintendent of Public Instruction cannot parse a sentence correctly, to save his life.

We learn from a Davidson College correspondent that Leo Wallace of Salisbury is inceptor of the Soph. class, and that our Rowan Freshmen, Tyson and Lingle, bid fair to stand high in their class.

To-morrow promises to be a big day here. Senator Ransom is making speeches this campaign that are worth making a sacrifice to hear. So, be on hand to-morrow (Friday), and bring your boys.

The large and beautiful shade trees which lined the streets of Greensboro, are being dug up by the roots, to make room for a uniform width of pavements, which are being laid with brick. One of the attractions, and principal ornaments of the older Southern towns is the splendid shade trees. We think Greensboro has made a mistake. We cannot conceive of a project that could induce us to sacrifice the magnificent shade trees of Salisbury.

Dr. Benbow's democratic dupes, who he has induced to go for the third party, will be astounded (?) to learn that he has left the prohibition party and will vote for Harrison and Morton. That was the game from the first.

Col. John A. Holt is now superintendent of the Charlotte Cotton Compress. The hands of this establishment struck for higher wages a few days ago, and lost their situations. They were not satisfied with $1.25 per day, but demanded $1.50.

The following dispatch was received here a few days ago. We expect the "Old Roman" will carry off the honors: INDIANAPOLIS, IND. Mr. Chas. D. Crawford—The "Old Roman" and myself will speak at Cincinnati Tuesday. D. L. GASKILL.

Mr. C. R. Barker has written the members of his drum corps 1861-65, asking them to be present at the re-union to-morrow. Should they come, drums will be furnished them, and with the old regimental sifer, a sample of martial music will be given, such as was heard enquiring of the war.

Tuesday was a gala day for the Prohibitionists and Republicans of Salisbury. A negro named Grandison spoke in favor of Prohibition at the Court House in the afternoon. T. P. Johnson made a street talk on the same subject late in the afternoon and M. L. Mott spoke to the Republicans at Meroney's Hall at night. Both Grandison and Mott had very good audiences considering the weather, and both audiences were made up of white, black and colored, more black and colored than white.

Senator Ransom Will speak to the people of Rowan on to-morrow evening at Boyden's Grove. Come and hear him.

Rowan Knitting Company. The above is the name of a company just organized for the purpose of manufacturing knit goods. The stock of the company is $10,000, divided into 200 shares of $50 each. An Excellent Paper.

To show what can be accomplished by enterprise and a little ingenuity, we here state a few facts in regard to one of our brothers of the editorial fraternity. About five months ago H. A. Murrill of Hickory, N. C., bought an interest in the Hickory printing Co., and took charge of the business and local department of the Press and Carolinian, published by this Company. Since that time the paper has been greatly improved. Last week the paper came to us with a "new dress," and is one of the neatest papers published in the State.

It has an able Editorial Staff, and is doing a great deal for the Democratic party. It is newsy, and on the whole, is an excellent family newspaper. Subscription price $1.50.

COUNTY LOCALS.

Enochville.

Some of our people took in the Richmond Exposition this week.

The pastor of St. Enoch church closed his eighth year in this charge yesterday.

The Reformed have their church enclosed and are using it for preaching, though there remains much to be done yet before it is finished.

The public speaking here on the 19th, by Watson and Glenn of Winston, was highly appreciated by all who heard them. They are strong and true men in favor of Democracy.

Chas. R. Campbell, one of our most worthy young men was thrown from a mule on last Saturday and had his collarbone broken. It was set by Dr. Casby, and he is doing well.

Married, in the Lutheran parsonage, Enochville, N. C., Oct. 21st, 1888, Mr. Chas. R. Watkins to Miss E. Winecoff, both of China Grove. When the pastor of St. Enoch stepped out of the church after services, he was surprised to find this happy couple waiting to be made man and wife. He very soon performed the ceremony and the couple left for China Grove where they took the train next morning for Greensboro, where they will make their home.

A CHANGE OF BUSINESS.

Messrs. Gallagher Bros. intend leaving the photographic business for one which they hope will prove more lucrative.

Those wishing to secure pictures of themselves or friends should lose no time, as the gallery will be closed in a short time. Remember the old proverb, "The early bird catches the worm."

This is your last chance, there is no telling when you will have the chance of getting satisfactory pictures again.

Gratulate.

A negro well known here returned from South Carolina this week, where he had been employed some months working on the railroad. He was in rather a dilapidated state having had his surplus earnings stolen from him when just on the eve of starting home for the purpose of voting, and had to tramp all the way from Columbia to Salisbury.

He at once applied to a few of his white Republican friends for a lift; but was greeted with the reply that they were "busted." He then made an appeal for a small, insignificant share of Republican campaign bottle, which he learned had been sent to town; but no go. He is still arrayed in his tramping outfit, and will remain so "till some Democrat takes pity and sets him up. He intends to vote the 'Publiken ticket all the same.

If the Republican party were to disfranchise the negro he would think it all right.

The State Fair.

The annual exhibit of the industrial products of the State was, we suppose, a fair average this year as compared with those of preceding years. The space in the Great Hall was well filled with the various subjects of exhibition. Catawba county was mainly represented by two manufacturing establishments from Hickory,—her Piedmont wagons and Leather. There were also wagon exhibits from Tennessee. The exhibits of grain—wheat, corn, oats, rye, buckwheat &c. were very good. Also the display of vegetables was good; and the ladies' department, and art gallery, always handsome. The live stock stalls were not all filled, but the animals on exhibition were fine, some of them very fine. Our townsman Elisha James took first premium on stallions. Durham was well represented by various articles, but her chief exhibits were Blackwell Smoking Tobacco and Durham Fertilizer, the latter of various grades.

Wednesday and Thursday was the big days of the Fair. The crowd in attendance on Thursday was simply immense, comprising ladies and gentlemen from all parts of the State; and the preparations for accommodating them in getting to and from the grounds were adequately provided. The weather was delightful and every one enjoyed the pleasures of the occasion with evident relish.

We copy from the News and Observer, of the 20th, the following, which will be interesting to the farmers:

At the close of the fair everybody tenders a universal and overwhelming vote of thanks to Secretary Wilson. He has labored early and late in the interest of the fair, and has carried the fair through with a success which reflects the highest credit upon his executive and managerial ability. He has moreover been courteous and accommodating to everybody, and has won the gratitude of every man, woman and child who has attended the fair. A more efficient officer and a more clever gentleman could not have been chosen by the Society for the office, and he deserves their thanks as well as those of the public.

There was never a more gallant handsome, popular, and courteous chief marshal than Capt. Benjamin Coleman. He has always had his hands full throughout the fair but he has never at any time been too busy to do those countless little favors and courtesies which he has been called on to do a hundred times a day and which he did so handsomely and so gracefully. The State Fair never had a more efficient and gentlemanly chief marshal, and there is a universal wish that he may wear the white sash again many times.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

At the meeting of the Agricultural Society Mr. W. G. Upchurch, president of the Society, reported on the work of the Society.

Mr. P. M. Wilson was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Short speeches were made by J. B. Batchelor, Esq., Col. Faison, Col. J. M. Heck, Maj. R. S. Tucker, Dr. K. P. Battle, K. H. Battle, Capt. S. B. Alexander and Col. Taylor. In addition to the vice-presidents, chief marshals and there is a universal wish that he may wear the white sash again many times.

Dr. Battle introduced the following resolutions in regard to the death of Capt. John S. Dancy, the first president of the society. He spoke feelingly to it and on motion of Col. Heck it was adopted by a standing vote and on Gen. Cox's motion a copy of it was ordered to be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That this society has heard with profound regret the death of one of its vice-presidents, John S. Dancy of Edgecombe. The society has lost one of its most intelligent and progressive members, has done large work for southern agriculture, and the State at large has been deprived of one of its best and most useful citizens.

Resolved, That the secretary devote a page of Society's journal to the memory of our late esteemed vice-president.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted. It was drawn by Mr. K. H. Battle, and the names of the committee were suggested by Col. J. M. Heck.

Whereas we think the time has come when sheep husbandry will be of great advantage to the agricultural interests of the State.

Resolved by the Agricultural Society of North Carolina that B. H. Battle, W. G. Upchurch, S. B. Alexander, Elias Carr and L. L. Polk, be appointed as a committee to urge upon the Legislature of North Carolina to adopt a proper system of sheep-husbandry, and that said committee prepare a bill to carry out that object. Adopted.

As We Predicted.

The Greensboro Patriot says it is stated on good authority that Dr. D. W. C. Benbow, the leader of the Prohibition party in North Carolina, "comes out from among them," and will vote for Harrison and Morton. He has been singing "Lead thou me on" to entice those who really desire to see whisky exterminated; but after doing this, he will vote, as he always has, the straight Republican ticket. You, who proposed to follow Benbow, will you follow him now?

The Republican party favors a higher tariff, the Democratic party a lower tariff, which will you choose?

Congress Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—At one o'clock to-day Congress concluded one of its longest and most interesting sessions. After 330 days devoted largely to the discussion of economic questions, after the passage by the House of Representatives of a notable tariff measure, and the declaration of the Republican party of its views on this important question by the report from the finance committee of a substitute for the House measure, Congress suspends its public work until the first Monday in December.

Bishop of Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., October 22.—Mgr. D. J. O'Connell, rector of the American College in Rome, and nephew of Rev. Dr. O'Connell, of Belmont, N. C., has been appointed Bishop of Richmond in succession to Right Rev. John J. Keane who is at the head of the province University in Washington. Mgr. O'Connell was educated at St. Mary's College, Columbia, S. C. The institution was burned by Sherman's army.

The Fever Record.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 20.—Dr. Neal Mitchell, President of the Board of Health, reports 50 new cases of yellow fever for 24 hours ending at 6:30 p. m. to-day.

There was only one death, that of Mrs. R. T. Marshall. Of new cases seventeen were white and thirty-three colored. Total cases, 3,769; total deaths, 327.

Entered a Jail and Robbed a Prisoner.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A Susquehanna officer placed a drunken man in jail, and thinking the man too drunk to escape, left the door unlocked. Two tramps saw the operation, and after the officer had taken his departure they entered the jail, robbed the prisoner, who was too drunk to resist, of his coat, hat and boots, took the padlocks off the cell doors, and departed.

Another Big Scoop.

THE RICHMOND SYSTEM GOBBLES UP THE CENTRAL RAILROAD OF GEORGIA.

NEW YORK, October 22.—The Richmond Danville Company to-day decided to accept the option offered them in the stock of the Georgia Central Railroad, thus adding 2,500 miles to the Richmond system and making the total 9,000 miles.

The Old North State Forever.

Special to the News and Observer.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 23.—J. M. Curran, of Granville, took the highest premium on new wrappers at the Exposition to-day; J. D. Cooper, of Vance the first premium on new cutters. Our Granville county golden belt against the world.

Samuel J. Tilden's Will.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Judge Lawrence, of the Supreme court, handed down a decision to-day sustaining the Tilden will.

Gen. Rufus Barringer is out in a letter in answer to one written by a colored man named John Echenek, who talked of supporting the third party. Gen. Barringer says in reply:

"The vital issue however, in this contest, is the business and industrial one made by President Cleveland; which hits all trusts and organized wrongs—the whiskey trust included."

"I am sure that most of our labor troubles and financial depressions come from high tariff taxes and the idle surplus locked up, (some hundred and forty millions of dollars) just as Cleveland says. I am also sure that high protection injures agriculture, the small industries and the ordinary labor. A steady home market is needed for a few perishable products; but the great staples require the markets of the world. Extremes are often dangerous. New England, under the stimulus of high duties, is dotted over with manufacturing towns, but farm life is nearly destroyed, and her best men are now for Cleveland and re-education. In Pennsylvania, where high tariff industries most prevail you also see lock-outs and strikes the year round, and tramps abound. And without a competing foreign market the home factories simply flood the country with sham and shoddy goods, and thus cheat the ignorant poor, especially uneducated colored people. Honest home mills do not fear competition."

These were my views as far back as 1851-52; when, as State Senator from Cabarrus and Stanly, I offered resolutions opposing any increase of tariff taxes. Journal, p. 178."
