The Willing Workers, a ten of King's Daughters, will give a lawn party to-night (Thursday), July 11th, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Hedrick, on Innis street. All are invited to attend.

A number of shares of the Roanoke and Southern Railroad stock have been sold in Winston above par. This shows what the "twin-city" people think of the company. Why can't we get them to come this way?

We call attention to the ad of the University in our columns. It is thoroughly equipped for the best work, and offer to our boys as good an education as can be procured for the same money anywhere in America.

The 4th of July was passed over without recognition as a holiday in Salisbury, except by the U. S. officials. The negroes failed to come out as usual on this day, and thus it was undistinguished from other days of the week.

Hot weather upon us again, the mercury ranging in nineties in the middle of the day; but the nights are very pleasant, so much so that many who are in the habit of going nearer the mountains every summer, are at home.

Mr. W. A. West has resigned his position as traveling engineer on the W.N.C. R.R., and is now on the road again as an engineer. Engineer James has been appointed to fill the position made vacant by Mr. West's resignation.

We are requested to state that there will be an important meeting of the Pioneer Horse Company at the Mayor's office to-morrow night. Every member is expected to be there, as matters of importance will be brought up.

The prospect is fair for a big court for the term which commences August 19th. Already there are 14 in jail, and no telling how many under bond for their appearance. Two of the prisoners in jail will probably be tried for burglary.

Our supplement this week is for the men folks only, the principle feature of it being the advertisement of M. S. Brown, who is making a big drive in clothing at wonderfully low prices. Now is the time to lay in a year's supplies. Go and see him.

Maj. Robbins passed through Monday night going to Greensboro to attend a meeting of the trustees of Trinity College, where the question of removing the College to Raleigh will be definitely settled. The Major is opposed to a removal.

"I have no more money than a rabbit," said a debtor to a creditor, a few days ago in answer to a dun; and the creditor looked very sorry, and seemed to be weighing the probabilities in the unknown future. What, thought he, is the prospect of one who puts himself in the category of pussy, with nothing but her 2 cent coat and 74 cent carcass. The fellow ought to live in the brushwood and old fields with nothing; but rabbits for companions.

The Lenoir Topic says: Messrs. W. D. Jones, A. W. Austin and J. M. Isbell, went down to Salisbury, the Revenue Mecca, to make a draw, last week. They got what the went for, though some obsolete offices, that Cleveland had allowed to subsist into desuetude, had to be resurrected for the purpose. Capt. Jones was made Surveyor of Distilleries at $2 per day and expenses. Col. Isbell got the promise of brandy gauger and Mr. Austin of special deputy Collector.

Mr. W. C. Keith has in his possession quite a curiosity in the shape of an old fashioned woolen counterpane in perfect condition and made by his great grand mother in South Carolina over 120 years ago. But the age is not the only thing that makes it a curio. When George Washington was in South Carolina about the year 1790 he stopped at the guest of Mrs. Polly Thompson, the great grandmother of Mr. Keith, one night and this counterpane was used as covering on his bed.

Tax Refunding Bill.

Having been requested to ascertain the fate of Mr. Henderson's tax refunding bill in the last Congress, we have a letter from Mr. Henderson in which he says: "I regret to say that my tax refunding bill, which I succeeded in passing through the House, was not permitted to pass or even to be considered by the (Republican) Senate." This statement may be of interest to those who have expected justice to be done them though long delayed.

Enough.

We are not aware that the WATCHMAN has failed in duty to the sufferers by the hail storm. We publish in this issue a statement of the losses sustained by the residents in the neighborhood of Bear Poplar, and this to us, should end the publication on the subject unless there be very obvious reason for the contrary. In this view of the matter is the cause for omission to publish a communication to hand Tuesday morning. Let us not weary and disgust the great public with a matter of which they have already had enough.

For the Watchman.

Notice.

We are now prepared to do any and all kinds of repairing on furniture. Our workmen are the best that can be had. Terms within the reach of all, satisfaction guaranteed in every respect or no charge made. Trust to be favored with a liberal share of your patronage.

Postal Telegraph Opens in Richmond. RICHMOND, Va., July 10.—The office of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company was opened here to-day under very favorable auspices.

The Rowan Knitting Mill.

We visited this mill one day this week and were surprised to see with what ease a good, strong, honest pair of hose can be turned out with the proper machinery; and for the benefit of our readers we will try and tell how it is done.

The cotton is bought already spun and on quills. These quills are placed on a frame and the yarn wound on wooden spools. Some of these spools are taken to the rib machines, where each machine knits one long continuous circular web; by means of a chain with different size links on this machine a loose and a tight place is made in the web at regular distances which gives the tight place on the top of the leg of the stocking and also shows where they are to be cut. This web is then cut into lengths for the top of the leg or ribbed part of the stocking. Little girls then take these pieces and very dexterously insert the needles of the machine proper in the right places, or as the old folks would say, "throw it on," and it is ready for knitting the leg and foot. These machines consist of a cylinder the size around of the stocking to be knit, with needles working in grooves all around it. The point of the needle is like a crochet needle with a lip so hung on it that when it is pulled through a loop the lip closes and allows the point of the needle with the thread to pass through; as it comes back it opens to take another. The straight part of the leg is knit at the rate of 100 or 150 rounds a minute. A weight is attached to the top of the stocking which strikes on a projection and stops the machine when the leg is long enough. The heel is made by turning the machine part of the way back and forth by hand, and the toe is made in the same way. After the stocking comes off this machine it is taken to another one presided over by a young lady who was brought here from Philadelphia to show them how to do it, where the hole left at the toe is sewn up so nicely that no seam is left, and a person not knowing where it was joined could hardly find the place.

The stockings are then sorted, placed on a wooden form just the size and shape of the foot, treated to a steam bath and placed in a hot press and when they come out are ready to be labeled, tied up in packages and are ready for market. The capacity of the mill is 125 dozen pairs of hose per day. At present they are turning out only a little over half that number on account of lack of hands, but expect to run the mill to full capacity very soon.

The mill is under the management of Mr. W. T. Rainey, who it is said is displaying a great deal of tact and judgment for a business which is comparatively new to him and who will no doubt make a success of it.

Good Public Roads.

This subject is attracting earnest attention in South Carolina, Georgia, and other Southern States. Indeed, it is a primary subject of the material prosperity of any country. It is not enough to have railroads—you must have good roads to get your products to the railroads. It is mentioned as a fact that Brazil has a railroad of no practical value because there are no public roads over which the products of the country can reach the railroad. The same cause operates to retard prosperity among the farmers of this country, and must continue to do so until our public roads are improved.

We wish to mention in this connection the praise-worthy example of Davidson county, where convicts have been employed on the public roads—from Marsh P. O. in that county to Healing Springs P. O., beyond Chalk mountain. A deal of heavy work was done on this section, and what was, a little back, an almost impassable road is now made easy.

No better use can be made of convicts, and the employment of them on our public roads is perhaps the cheapest possible solution of the question "how are you going to do it?"—meaning of course, a substantial improvement of the public roads. We know of no better place to make their labor of value to all the people of a community, for all are interested in having good roads.

Free Work.

It would be a curious showing if country publishers of newspapers would keep an account of all the free work they perform in a year. We verily believe it would run high in the hundreds of dollars. Some people have an idea that the paper has got to be filled up with something, and that they are doing an editor real service to send him long obituary notices, long and gaseous accounts of marriages, society notices, reports of the actions of little societies of boys, school exercises of only neighborhood importance, windy accounts of coon hunts, &c., &c. These things may interest a few persons, but the majority of readers care nothing for them, and seldom read them. They are not the kind of news for the public, and they ought, at least, pay the cost of printing.

Another Treat.

The young men of the Washingtonian Debating Society will favor the public by giving a debate in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, on the night of the 16th inst. The ladies are invited. The speeches will be limited to a very short space. The subject of discussion is as follows: "Resolved that the signs and the times point to a dissolution of this Republic." The exercises will be engaged in by the following young men:

Affirmative: John Rendleman, Harry Tyson, Clinton Brown, Ernest Lowe. Negative: Thomas Porter, Louis Swink, John Julian, John Moore.

The Wood Grove Alliance Appeal.

From the Charlotte Chronicle. On the 4th instant the Wood Grove Alliance, of Bear Poplar, Rowan county, held a meeting in regard to the appeal for help that the Alliance had issued through the Chronicle.

The Alliance prepared a verified list of the losses, which is given below as forwarded to the Chronicle:

A list of losses of the individual members of Wood Grove Alliance, No. 404, Rowan county, N. C., by the late destructive hail storm which passed over this section of the county, taken at and approved by a special meeting of said Alliance held July 3d, 1889:

W. L. Kistler, individually and by tenants, $815 00

W. S. Rodgers (tenant), 552 00
Dan Howard (tenant), 246 50
John Harkey, 129 00
J. L. Kistler (tenant), 102 00
W. M. Graham, 105 00
B. C. Arey was absent, about 100 00
B. S. and J. H. Kridler, 55 00

Total, $6,207 00

M. E. SHERREL, J. O. HOUSTON, J. F. GRAHAM, Committee.

A foot note by the secretary says that not one of the committee lost anything, being outside the track of the storm.

The Alliance passed a resolution thanking J. M. Harrison for his able defense of the Alliance in making the appeal, in a card to the Salisbury Watchman, and requesting the Salisbury Watchman, the Progressive Farmer, and the Chronicle to publish the resolution. The substance of the resolution is given and the want of space forbids more.

The Wood Grove Alliance, at the meeting on the 4th, also passed the following resolution, which is duly attested and bears the official stamp:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Alliance are due the Charlotte Chronicle for publishing our appeal for aid with favorable editorial; and the same is hereby tendered. W. L. KEISLER, Secretary.

Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY JULY 5.

The reports of the correspondents of the Weekly Bulletin issued by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Signal Service, show that there has been a very marked excess of rain-fall, about an average temperature and very little sunshine during the week ending Friday, June 5. All crops have been injured by the excessive rains. In the Roanoke valley cotton and oats are said to have been almost entirely destroyed. All lowland crops have been seriously injured. Wheat and oats which had not been garnered have been very seriously damaged; the wheat is sprouting in the shock. Reports from a number of localities state that tobacco has been "drowned out." Fruit is rotting in many places. The general outlook is very discouraging. Reports from seven stations give an average weekly rainfall for the State 4.44 inches. The normal weekly rainfall for the month of July for the State, as determined from observations taken at a number of Signal Service stations (from four to thirteen years) in this State and the adjoining States of Virginia and Tennessee, is 1.27 inches. The excess of rain, 3.17 inches, freshets have occurred in many places, flooding bottom lands and washing away bridges. The week has been very unfavorable to farm work and all crops are getting grassy, the land being too wet for plowing.

EASTERN DISTRICT. An excess of rain about an average temperature and very little sunshine are reported from the district with a very unfavorable effect upon all crops, cotton and corn especially. The following weekly rainfalls are reported: Weldon, Halifax county, 6.35 inches; Elizabeth City, Pasquotank county, 5.21 inches; New Hanover county, 4.21 inches; Goldsboro, Wayne county, 3.50 inches; Rocky Point, Pender county, 2.26 inches; Wadesboro, Currituck county, 4.57 inches; Excess for the district, 3.30 inches.

CENTRAL DISTRICT. The reports from this district show that there has been an excess of rain, an average temperature and a marked deficiency of sunshine with a very injurious effect upon all crops. Tobacco has been damaged considerably by the heavy rains. The following weekly rainfalls are reported: Greensboro, Guilford county, 3; Raleigh, Wake county, 4.33; Burlington, Alamance county, 4.50; Spout Springs, Harnett county, 4.60; Gibson's station, Richmond county, 4; Jonesboro, Moore county, 12 (estimated); Wadesboro, Anson county, 4.55; Average for the district, 4.26; Excess for the district, 2.99 inches.

WESTERN DISTRICT. Decidedly too much rain, too little sunshine and about an average temperature are reported with an unfavorable effect upon the general crop. Tobacco, fruit, wheat and oats have suffered. The following rainfalls are reported: Davidson College, Mecklenburg county, 6.50; Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, 6.40; Dallas, Gaston county, 4.63; Bat Cave, Henderson county, 2.60; Old Fort, McDowell county, 10 (estimated); average for the district, 5.03 inches; excess for the district, 3.76 inches.

For the Watchman. Notice. We have just received the finest lot of Rattan Reed and Cane chairs that can be found in a southern market. Price from $1.75 to $8.00; also a beautiful line of pictures in walnut and gilt frames. Call early to get first choice. Resp., W. H. BURNS & CO.

The North Carolina Teachers' Off.

The N. Y. Sun of Monday says: The North Carolina School Teachers' party which is going to do as much of Europe as it is possible to do in six weeks, sailed on the State line steamship State of Nevada at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The party consists of 105 persons, of whom about eighty are teachers, and the rest their relatives and friends. They had arranged to sail on Saturday, but owing to a delay in the unloading of the freight were unable to get away till yesterday.

The party consists of forty-eight gentlemen and fifty-eight ladies. Mr. Eugene G. Murrell is conductor. Among the tourists are ten married ladies, who will act as chaperones. Among those who are at the dock to see the travelers off was Gov. F. W. Ellis, of North Carolina, whose daughter, Miss Helen Fowler, is in the party. Some friends who are teachers and her father came all the way from Raleigh to see her off.

The party will stay until July 20, in Scotland. From there they will go to London and Paris. At Larue they will take the steamer of New York, and expect to return about August 20.

The Grissom Case.

Raleigh Correspondence to Will Messenger.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 8.—The Grissom investigation continues, to hold its own as the centre of interest here. The testimony of Dr. Grissom was continued late on Saturday. He testified that he did not ask Miss Edwards to run away with him and did not tell her he would make her marry under certain conditions, because he knew he did not have the power to do so. In the matter of the specific charges of cruelty to patients, he denied everything but throwing water in the face of some. This, he contended, produced a desirable mental effect. He denied that he ever locked up, or had locked up, two of the female patients and told them to do so. In the matter of the patients, as far as he has gone, his testimony has been a positive denial of everything charged against him. The local public, who are intensely interested, are put to sore straits for the formation of an opinion in some of the matters at issue. It is generally believed that the Dr. is guilty of undue severity to some of the patients, but in the matter of improper conduct toward the females, the people are puzzled how to express themselves, consequently, nothing positive is believed on either side in those lines. The investigation was resumed this morning at 11 o'clock.

The First Sale of Cotton.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The first bale of new cotton sold here this year was sold to-day by Henry Clews & Co., at 16 1/2 cents, and was shipped by Carter & Bradley, of Columbus, Ga. It goes to Liverpool.

RAILROAD ELECTION.

NOTICE is hereby given that there will be an election held in Rowan county on Tuesday the 10th day of September, 1889, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of said county, a proposition to subscribe one hundred thousand dollars to the stock of the Yadkin River and Company, in five percent. bonds of the county of Rowan, to run forty years, with the privilege of paying any or all of them at the end of ten years, or at any time thereafter, that the Board of Commissioners of said county may elect. Those who wish to vote in favor of said proposition will vote a ticket with the word "Subscription" upon it; and those wishing to vote against said proposition, will vote a ticket with the words "No Subscription" upon it.

An entirely new registration of voters has been ordered for the election. By order of the Board of County Commissioners, THOMAS J. SUMNER, Chairman. HORATIO N. WOODSON, Clerk. June 24, 1889. 1f.

HA! HA!! HA!!! HERE I AM!
THE UGLIEST MAN IN TOWN.

BUT I NEVER BROKE A PROMISE, WENT BACK ON MY WORD OR MISREPRESENTED ANY GOODS.

MY PROGRAM FOR 1889-90.

I will close out my stock of dry goods at cost from now on till September 1st in order to make room for my mammoth fall stock.

My renting boss is going to put in a handsome passenger elevator so I can use three stories; so I will put in the largest stock of imported millinery ever brought to Western North Carolina. My Milliner will spend six weeks in Baltimore and New York and will give you the latest Parisian fashions.

Mr. Jas. A. Wrenn, who is well known throughout the State for having the most exquisite taste in selecting Dress Goods, combining colors and knowing what will suit a lady, will go North with me, and we together will select a stock of goods that will be a credit to old Salisbury. God bless her, and may she move onward and upward in mercantile and manufacturing industries till she will rival any other Southern city.

Now, any of you ladies what is 'spectin' to git married and wants Jim and me to say nothin' and select you an outfit that will be as pretty and sweet as the sunshine and shadow that chased each other across the billowy fields amid the breath of June, just let us know in time and we will do it, and Jim and me 'll hope you will live happy, die rich and go to Heaven at last.

I. W. D. B. J. S. M. V. C. T. X.

The above is my cost mark; ask Mr. Schultz, Jno. Sloan or Scott Lindsay. You can tell the price of my goods as good as I can, so come along. Why pay a profit on goods when you can buy at New York cost?

I am working for glory—don't care a cent for money, just want enough to live on and pay debts, and that ain't much.

Remember we keep no cheap auction or Racket goods; don't sell any goods but what we can look a man square in the optics when we meet him; and as to these other merchants seeing how we can sell at cost. Well, no; but I'll tell you what they can see: They can see 50 per cent. profit on goods we sell at 10 per cent., and we smile and smile and smile as above, and if instead of picking at me through their advertising columns they would attend to their own business as they should, they would not have so much time to help me with mine. Life is too short to fuss, I ain't got time to fight anything but high-priced stores and I'll lick them yet if they don't put my chunk out.

I am with you to stay, am doing all I can in the way of chain music and my little money to improve the town, and now show your appreciation of my doing all I can and give me a white man's show.

Yours anxious to please and well pleased.
