Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, of Baltimore, has been doing an useful work in finding out how the Southern States have to pay for the benefit of the Federal pensioners -the men who fought against the South. In 1887 the South received $1,724,115 and paid $26,717,042. Think of it; the Southrn States that were robbed, stripped and pealed by the North, are paying yearly nearly $27,000,000. This is an enormous bleeding and helps much to grind the In 1887 our people heard a great deal faces of the poor, and the negroes among of talk about the building of a railroad the others.
