Carolina Watchman. LOCAL. THURSDAY, SEPT. 5, 1889. rates of The Carolina

- - - $1.50. my mant designed 3 months - 2.00. has money to loan. election, Tuesday, > and subscription election 10.h, 1889. Go vote for ing for "an extra paper." ask, "what's the price?" sfore was

MI. D. Atwell and family returned on a two nonthe sojourn at Blowing lock, hist evening.

a gool smoke, call for at Thomason & McColh. Bestad eight in town.

said 400.

The waterinelou crop was a failure comparatively speaking. still to hear from.

Knife, and key found at Van Mill Bridge on Sept 26th. All Alliances exper can have same by paying in the county are invited to co-operate with them, and any one else who wishes and describing property.

B. Van Wyck and M. S. o New York the first of the in their fall and winter ng of the soldiers re-union in orper we said there were about 40 externus in line, but should have

There and doubt, from present indiations, that salisbury township will vote the removal of the Revenue office to abscription to the Yadkin Statesville; but it is generally regretted that Mr. Morris Auderson, who has been milroad @

Masonar in North Carolina, is here this the office under Mr. Craige, and assisting acted : week giving instruction to the members in getting the office in good shape under of Falton Lodge, No. 99. News reaches the Yadkin Valley News

M. S. Brown has the prettiest and Dropped Deal While at Work. Dick Torrence, an old colored man, and cheapest line of ladies' patent tray trunks ever shown in Salisbury. No fell dead, Friday last, while at work in lifting, no trouble. Call and see them. the viginity assisting in running a cross-A complete line of samples for Fall cut saw. Clothing jast arrived. Fits guaranteed or money refunded. The schools in town were all open this week, and the streets have teamed with children loaded with school books, all looking bright and joyous. Ours is a healthy town with good water, and people who have come here without children can't slip through a year without an addition of one or more to their fami-

Communion services were held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. Rev. P. H. Dalton, assisted the pastor, Dr. Rumple, in these services. Mr. Dalton filled the pulpit during his stay, and his From Charlotte, sermons were characterised by a foreible presentation of Bible truths, and an earnest endeavor to advance the Redeemer's cause.

The Alliance men of the western part of the county have organized an association to be known as the Western Rowan Alliance Fair Assolation, with J. W. Miller, President, and D. C. Bradshaw,

Secretary, and will hold their first fair at

to do so.

Institute, by the interest manifested in going home after the services. The cirevery thing pertaining to the welfare cumstances of his death are not known and success of the session, as well as con- at the present writing. He may have

But few "egrets are expressed here at yards. TONCO County Commissioners' Meeting.

At the meeting of this body last Mon-Rev. Me Williams, Grand Lecturer of residing here two years, employed in day the following business was trans-

M. L. Bean appeared before the board Collector Eaves, thas returned to his and asked that a reduction be made in home in Statesville. By an upright walk his taxes on account of loss by fire. and gentlemanly conduct Mr. Anderson Laid over until February meeting. has made a host of friends here, who re-It was ordered by the board that heregret to lose him. He has the assurance after druggists will be required to attach that the good wishes of the best people of the original prescription to all accounts Reuben Holmes, Ernest Brown, Gus. Salisbury are his. His place in the Rev- when presented to the board for pay- just and high compliment most grace-It was ordered that A. H. Boyden be authorized to repair the Stokes Ferry road as far as the top of the hill northwest from John Miller's house, about two

High Compliment to a Salisburian.

The board of trustees of the Universi-

The "old issue" negroes, as a general Henderson, of this city, was elected to thing, work as long as they can stand up, the chair of mathematics, in place of and go at last to honored graves. The Prof. Graves, deceased. The News and

"new issue," especially those about our Observer says : towns, are mostly waiting for something to turn up to put them into an easy place-the county prison or the peniten- mendations. Prof. Cain was born in and has friends here who will regret his tiary-and at last become men of expe- Hillsboro, in 1847, and is a grandson of affliction. dients or Arabs.

Concord,

Greensboro,

High Point,

Winston-Salem,

wail themselves of these rates.

International Fair at Buffalo, N. Y., can

Cut in Pieces.

Salisbury,

Judge Bailey. He was also a relative of the late Judge Ruffin and has extensive connections in Western North Carolina. Buffalo, N. Y., Fair.

He is a characteristic and true North Carolinian in every sense. During the The Richmond & Danville R. R. wi war he served a while in the Confederate sell during the month of September, army. He afterwards studied law under round trip summer excursion tickets to Judge Bailey but concluded to devote Niagara Falls, N. Y., good to return himself to mathematics and engineering, particularly practical engineering, railantil October 31st, at the following rates: road location and construction.

$35.25 For seven years he was professor of 34.50mathematics and engineering in the Carolina Military Institute at Charlotte, which was conducted on the West Point 32.25basis as far as civil studies were concern 33.50He was for two years locating and ed. 32.75 building railroads and was engaged in collecting data for the map for the geo-Parties desiring to attend the Great logical survey of North Carolina. Since October, 1882, he has been professor of methematics in the S. C. Military Institute, a branch of the State University. He has written six books on various branches of bridge building and Having made arrangements The cut and mangled remains of Judge engineering in Van Nostrand's series to handle COAL more extensive-Gibson, colored, was found on the track which have given him great eminence as a mathematician. He is a member of the ly the next season, and having of the R. & D. R. R. four miles south of American Society of Civil Engineers and contracted with more responsitown, Saturday morning last. He was has been a teacher of pure machematics Prof. Kizer wen the esteem of all who at a religious meeting the evening before and engineering for over twelve years. ble Coal miners and shippers, I were in attendance upon the Teachers' in the neighboor, and it is supposed was He is said to be a constant and diligent would most respectfully solicit student and at the same time one of the any orders you may intrust in best of practical civil engineers. my hands, promising to furnish They also elected Dr. Richard Whitetributing to the comfort and pleasure of been drunk and fell asleep on the rail- head, of Salisbury, as the head of the you promptly with what coal every one present. As instructor he road track; or he may have been knock- medical department of the University. you may need the coming seawas indulgent and pains-taking, merit- ed down and laid there by some felonious He is a young man of exceptional ac- son at the lowest market prices. and the found in the fountain by our fire department. He found in the fountain by our fire department. He found in the fountain by our fire department. He found in the found BITUMINOUS (or soft)-Block application of his knowledge in the practice of his profession here and elsewhere. The University is to be congratulated in the selection of these two very able men; promptly you can buy at Sumthey will add force and character to the mer prices. faculty, already proverbial for its ability, and will rally around the University new enthusiasm and lend to its popularity.

Dr. Richard Whitehead is a native of Salisbury, and as such, we feel that we only echo the sentiment of our people when we say that no better selection could have been made and that it is a fully bestowed. The people of this comtofore. munity will be sorry to part with him 44:1m. but this call to a higher plane of useful-HALL'S SELF-FEEDING ness must not be ueglected for social obligations, no matter how hard to sever. Farmers of Rowan.

Thanks.

I desire to return my sincere thanks ty of North Carolina met in Raleigh last town for their timely assistance in saving to the firemen and other citizens of the week to elect two professors. Prof. Wm. my house on the night of the Bean fire. Cain, C. E., brother of Mrs. John S. Aug. 31, 1889. J. S. MCCUBBINS, SR.

DIED.

Of brain fever, in Woodstock, Ala. Sylvester Wright, infant son of R. A. There were twenty-six applicants, all Wright, aged two years and ten months. of whom came with the highest recom- Mr. Wright is a native of this section,

-Lump, Stove and grate.

Respectfully,

Salisbury, N. C

J. M. HILL,

Principal.

GIN

Salisbury, N. C.

COIT'S

J. ALLEN BROWN.

and gives universal satisfaction.

For prices or terms call on or address,

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

(Cor. Fulton and Bank Sts.)

Will re-open September 2d.

FEMALE ACADEM

SALISBURY

THE Select School for Girls, formerly

MISS JENNIE CALDWELL.

The name of every man in

MISS LIZZIE KERR, conducted by Miss Jennie Caldwell, will 44 2m.

R. J. HOLMES, AGT.,

EMBRACE OPPORTUNITIES.

WHILE FOOLS HUG DELUSIONS.

Now my Christian friends Mbrace the opportunity of buying goods low while I am sacrificing them, and don't hug that delusion of thinking you can buy at the same prices when I get By handing me your order back from market.

I HAVE JUST RECEIVED

to the effect that Rev. John Welborn, very well known here, is making quite a reputation in Idaho as an orator.

Price, Snelton Blackmer, and Victor enue office will be filled by a ralikill, ment. Boyden, of Salisbury, will enter the whom, we will wager, will be his infer-Davis Mintary School at La Grange, next ior, intellectually, morally, and otherwise.

father.

It appears that some of the road overseers in this county reversed the usual order by working the roads the week following instand of the one preceding (h)ours.

The New York (daily) Star appeared to the sugar trust. last Thursday in a bran new suit. It is one of the best, certainly the most rehable, Democratic papers published in this country

Thos. Sunner, Esq., has so far recoverel from a recent attack of severe sickness as to be able to attend the regular nonthly meeting of the Board of County

Several of our citizens speak of visitag Baltimore next week. Reduced rates reaffered to the Maryland Exposition which will be worth seeing. The rate we learn is $1150 from Salisbury and re-

Sheriff Kride has paid to the County justice. Treasure a part of the mcrchants tax levied for 1889 this is the first time a That one of our farmers feeds his sheriff of Rowan county has ever setded even a part of this tax by the first of cant-elope. September,

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will sell round-trip tickets from Salisbury to Baltimore and return for the Maryland Exposition at $11.80. Tickets m sale Sept. 7th, 8th and 9th; good to return until and including Sept. 20th,

The more we see and hear of the success of the fruit fair held at Winston, the more we regret the absence of the fuit grovers of Rowan County on that occasion With proper effrots the next annual fill might have been gotten to

To thee who desire a government of ace or aything else for the matter of the present administration save your self the trouble of button ng ther radicals, and go direct for He is boss of the "Lime Kilu

Cabber stalks should be cut and burey generate an odor that is any ley R. R., the Atlantic Coast Line, and pleasant, and very unhealthy. the Carolina Central R. R. This will be miles from Salisbury. A. M. Brown reported the average That Father Time is a friend number of paupers during the mouth of August to be 18, of which 6 were white That all of our Salisbury girls belong and 12 colored, and the cost of maintaining them was $37.96.

That of all the vegetables, the onion has the most scents.

That some of our saloons are kept up C. C. Krider, Sheriff, exhibited the by the double entry system. That money is tight, the consequence of merchants taking too much.

They Say

That the shooting of Judge Terry was another victory for the America Nagle.

That a Salisbary blood who fell in love has got out by the assistance of the girl's the tax books for the year 1889 be placed in said Sheriff's hands for collection.

Not being able to get through with the That Judge Merrimon during our last business the board adjourned until Tuescourt made a "fine impression" on some day, when the jury box was revised. who were brought before the bar of daughters on canteloupes so that they Including all of the various kinds, twelve but only 70 cents with it. in number, are driving right along and seem to be doing a prosperous business. That one of our Rowanites lost 120 Within the past week we have visited pounds in one day. His wife eloped several of them, and it was pleasing inwith another fellow.

Our Factories,

deed to note the active attendants and That one of our Salisbury girls always and operators among the buzzing makeeps the young gentleman who calls chinery, each one intent on his or her waiting at the door until she can have particular work.

his photograph placed on the mantel piece in the parlor.

Sudden Death.

John Q. Harkey, aged 17 years, was taken with inflamation of the bowels Wednesday of last week, and died Friday. He was a steady and worthy comes young man.

Salisbury to Maxton.

A delegation of the business men o Maxton have made an offer to grade and cross-tie the line of the Yadkin railroad from Norwood to Maxton and thus give Salisbury a direct connection at that on the proprietor's own farm, 30 acres of place with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valwhich are devoted to this popular vege-

Mr. Editor :-- Please permit me to make a few suggestions, as it is nearly time to sow a wheat crop. 1st, Prepare your The best and most popular cotton gu land well by plowing and harrowing twice, and 2d, sow nothing but clean, Possesses all the very latest improvements J. M. Horah, Clerk of Court, reported pure wheat. If there should be a little that there were three prisoners confined cockle in the land, go over it in April and take it out by the root. This can in the county jail to be hired out. easily be done by inserting a sharp piece of iron or steel 2x5 into the end of a State and County Treasurer's receipts in small wood staff 5 or 6 feet long. By full for the State, county and school this means you will rid your land of all taxes for the year 1888, also the County filth and produce a crop of clean, pure wheat, which will sell for 25 cents per Treasurer's receipts for all county and oushel more than the trash that is usualschool taxes collected under schedule B ly raised. Or if you prefer having it of the Revenue Act up to this date. It made into flour, it will sell for forty or was thereupon ordered by the board that | fifty cents more than the trash usually ground for market. I was at one of the best roller mills in the county a few days ago when a farmer came in with a lot of wheat for sale. It was about one-fourth cockle. The proprietor told him if he would remove the cockle he would pay him 90 cents; but with the cockle in it, he could not pay over 75 cts. Another had a lot of musty wheat, worth 90 cents without the must

Now that we have improved mill machinery it is surely our interest to produce good, clean wheat.

McCubbin, Harrison & Co., cf Mill Bridge, have put up extensive roller the terms as heretofore. The fall session mills at a very heavy cost and made a opens Wednesday, Sept. 4th, 1889. home market for wheat equal to any in the State. Surely we ought to have pride enough to raise good, clean wheat to offer them. They are paying the

The knitting factory is deficient in highest prices in cash for good wheat hands, having scarcely half enough to at their mill. The same may be said of P. M. Brown, of Salisbury. We must run all the machines. It is turning out keep up with the times if we expect ful very nice goods and bids fair to equal prices for our produce. Go and see the the expectations of the stockholders. wheat raised by J. M. Harrison, Sam' Beeker, on the McCubbins farm; J. B Mr. P. H. Thompson's machine shop Parker, John C. Menius, George W. Corand foundry is driving away on orders ahead, and doing custom work as it Mr. J. B. Lanier's canning factory, ma- find no difficulty in getting good prices.

chine shop and foundry, were all busy Aug. 30, 1889. and the only man of apparent leisure about them was himself. The peach season being nearly over the operatives in the canning factory is somewhat reduced, and those remaining are chiefly day, Aug. 23, 1889: employed in putting up tomatocs raised

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Rowan county, return our heart-felt thanks to our instructors, Rev. F. J. or rent properties will find it to

HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS 500 BUSTLES & DRESS PADS

The latest improvements in bustles, all sizes. They are certainly curiosities, come and see them; made especially for me and at prices you can afford to buy two-one for Sunday and. one for every day.

VAN WYCK'S LITTLE ARMY CORSET

IS A WORLD BEATER AT 50 CENTS.

contracted for 100 dozen. A regular $1 corset for 50 cents. Don't buy till you see it.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Will be opened up in full blast by Sept. 15 under the management of a competent milliner from New York, and I will do my best to break the back bone of high prices, or in other words, will sell goods so low you can afford to buy all the children a new hat. I will have a large stock in that you can get suited in everybe continued in the same building and on thing you want. Something to suit the ladies, something to suit the gentlemen and boys, and I will not forget the baby.

> Make my store your headquarters whether you want to buy or not. Stay all day-come after breakfast, bring your dinner with with you and leave before supper.

I am still the ugliest son of a gun in town.

O. B. VAN WYCK.

Leader Latest Styles and Lowest Prices

Go to Schultz.

will tell you that it is about as easy to raise good wheat as trash, and that they

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at the close of the Rowan

County Teachers' Institute, closing Fririher, J. F. Carrigan and others, and they Western North Carolina who FARMER.

has timber land, improved and unimproved, farm lands, town lots and properties for sale. We must have bottom prices, full, clear and correct descriptions.

Persons wishing to buy, sell

