THURSDAY, JAN. 16, 1890.

The influenza is losing its "grip." H. T. Bahnsen, of Salem, was here... Mary Hall has returned from a protracted visit to Charlotte.

John L. Hedrick is confined to his room with rheumatism. Gattie Long, a Chinaman, has rented a room and will open a laundry here next week.

The Wilmington Star comes out in an entirely new dress and presents a very neat appearance. The chickens are hard at work laying, and as a result hen fruit is very plentiful and cheap.

Carrie Frier of Salisbury was married on the 2d of January to Hon. W. J. Cottrell, Mayor of Cedar Keys, Fla.

The Raleigh Daily Call calls Salisbury "the great music centre of this State." The proprietor of the Call knows a thing or two.

Don't pay for an outside journal and try to deal-beat your home paper. Help your own locality by supporting home enterprise.

Anything of interest happens in your neighborhood, write the facts on a postcard and mail it to the WATCHMAN. We will be glad of any news of interest.

E. M. Andrews, of Charlotte, has an advertisement in this paper which you will do well to read. He offers on the installment plan, pianos and organs of the best make...

It is very strange that some of our merchants send off to have their job work done when they could get it done at home just as nicely and as cheap.

No notice in the Wilmington Messenger for a meeting of the stockholders of the South Atlantic and North Western Railroad at Southport on the 12th of February.

A part of the "State of Wilkes" came to town last Friday. She was brought here by seven steers, and "fotched" with her apples, "tatlers," cabbage, chestnuts, and two or three jugs containing a liquid which is sometimes made in that country from corn and known there as "block," some say it is good to drink if taken in small quantities.

Salisbury Cotton Mills. At a meeting of the Directors of the Salisbury Cotton Mills, held last Friday, it was decided to declare a dividend of 5 per cent.

This is an excellent showing for the first year, when it is taken into consideration that the hands were "green," the machinery new and stiff, and all the extra expenses necessary to starting a new enterprise.

Thanks, Mr. Banks. Mr. H. A. Banks, the resident agent and correspondent of the Charlotte Chronicle in this place, gets up a very new and interesting letter.

In the Chronicle of yesterday he pays his respects to the WATCHMAN in the following style: NORTH CAROLINA PEARLS.

In the mineral cabinet of the Watchman office are some North Carolina pearls, found about five miles from Salisbury, near the Reimer mine. They are small, ranging in size from a pin head to medium sized shot, but they have the true pearl appearance.

A HISTORIC CYCLONE. In this cabinet there is a girl's straw hat that was blown 22 miles in a cyclone four years ago.

Political Trouble in Montana. CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—A special dispatch from Helena, Montana, to the Inter-Ocean says: "Yesterday afternoon Messrs. Sanders and Powers, who were elected to be United States Senators by the republican house and senate, made formal application to Gov. Toole for certificates of election.

By the way, the Watchman office is a cabinet per se. It is "rich with the flavor of antiquity."

The press is a Washington press, used in Revolutionary days. It has figure heads of Ben Franklin and George Washington on the head. It is the same kind of press as was used by the Watchman in the days "before de war."

The Watchman was established in 1832, and Editor J. J. Bruner has had charge of it for 50 years.

Enochville Items. Mr. J. A. Wright is teaching school at Franklin.

Mrs. J. N. Plaster is very feeble with consumption.

Mrs. H. S. Reynolds has a genuine attack of la grippe.

The town ordinances are posted and men stand and read.

The cold wave was welcomed by those who had hogs to kill.

Not one intoxicated person was seen here during the holidays.

Mr. A. V. Sherrill is teaching near Prospect church at the Lips schoolhouse.

Rev. W. V. Honeycutt has gone to his circuit—Big Lick in Stanly county—and is well pleased.

Mr. A. Van Pelt has opened a shop for the repair and manufacture of wagons and farming implements.

Terrific Storms.

St. Louis, Jan. 12.—About 4:30 this afternoon a cyclone struck the north-east section of the city, making a pathway nearly a quarter of a mile wide, and leaving death and desolation in its wake.

In addition to dozens of dwellings in the southern, central and northern sections of the city, more or less wrecked, the following big buildings were damaged: A. Anderson mill, Goodwin candle factory, Pullman shops, Van Brock's furniture factory, Kingsland and Ferguson Farm Implement works, the Missouri Pacific hospital, Hogden school, German Evangelical church, Second Presbyterian church, and others are yet to be heard from.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—It is estimated that the total damage by the cyclone will reach $200,000, mostly in factories and the north end, of which a dozen have been completely wrecked.

FATAL IN KENTUCKY.

CAIRO, Ill., Jan. 13.—A tornado last night struck the east side of the city of Clinton, Ky., demolishing 55 houses, killing 11 people, and wounding 53.

Montgomery, Ala., January 13.—Today the supreme court of Alabama rendered its decision in the celebrated Hawes case, appealed from the Jefferson criminal court.

Let's Talk About the Weather. Not about the weather exactly, but about some of its remarkable results. No such things have ever been known before.

Discord in the Quinine Club. Two members of the B. on Quintette Club had a little tussle yesterday morning.

Colored Messengers. The Washington Advocate, a paper published in the interests of the colored people, has been making some inquiries concerning the treatment of messengers and laborers in the departments under the Harrison Administration.

Here It Is. The Carolina Watchman says Mr. Ketchy, of that vicinity raised this year on four acres of ground 250 bushels of corn—an average of 62 1/2 bushels per acre.

DIED. At his home in Franklin Township on the 10th, W. R. Fraley, aged 67 years, buried at Unity church on the 12th.

MARRIED. In Mooresville, Jan. 9, by the Rev. W. W. Pharr, Mr. John W. Leazer, of Atwell township, Rowan county, to Miss Frances Shaver, of Coddle township, Ireland county.

$50,000 Voted to a Railroad. NEW BERNE, N. C., Jan. 9.—The city of New Berne voted today by a very large majority, to subscribe fifty thousand dollars to aid in constructing a railroad from New Berne to Wilmington.

Another National Park.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—A bill has been prepared by General Grosvenor establishing the Chattanooga and Chocomauga National Military Park, which has the support of leading members of the societies of the army of the Cumberland, army of Tennessee, army of the Potomac, and all the leading ex-Confederate officers engaged in the battles indicated.

The park proper to which the title is to be obtained by the United States by condemnation and purchase after ceding of jurisdiction by the State of Georgia, embraces the battlefield of Chocomauga, and is to be bounded by the line starting on the Lafayette road just north of the Cloud house, thence west to McFarland's gap, thence along the Dry Valley road to the road from Crawfish springs to Lee Gordon's mill, thence to these mills, thence down Chocomauga river to Reed's bridge and thence to the place of beginning, covering about 7,000 acres.

The affairs of the park are to be managed under the Secretary of War by three commissioners, one to be an army officer. It is made the duty of these commissioners under the secretary of war to ascertain and substantially mark all battle lines.

L. ED. HEILIG. GROCERIES. PROVISIONS.

We have a great many handsome and useful things suited for Xmas presents. Don't fail to give me a look before buying. Remember I don't keep shoddy Racket Store goods, and as to my saying I was going to leave here in Spring and selling out at cost, &c., I meant it, but there's such a fascination and such great attractions in Salisbury, it would break my heart to leave the dear old town.

And as to Bro. Stoner's hits at me, I will only say I am sorry he did not succeed here and it should be a warning to him to keep good goods hereafter, and not impose on the public with Racket Store goods. Everybody trades with Van Wyck.

Wishing you all, but especially my customers, a most delightful Xmas, I am yours, striving day and night to please,

O. B. VAN WYCK. ANNOUNCEMENT OF

W. H. REISNER & BRO., LEADING JEWELERS.

We are receiving new goods daily, and now have for your inspection the finest line of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Rings and Novelties ever on this market. We have everything complete. Our work department is the best equipped in the State, and are now prepared to turn out work at short notice, and in a workmanlike manner.

Appreciating past favors shown the old firm, we respectfully ask a continuance of your patronage to the new firm. We are, truly yours,

W. H. REISNER & BRO.

N. B.—The change of the firm name necessitates the closing of the old books, and I would respectfully ask all who are indebted to me to call and settle the same.

Very truly, W. H. REISNER.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. Having qualified as the Executor of J. M. Ritchie, dec'd, this is to notify all persons having claims against his estate to present them to me for payment on or before the 20th day of December, 1889.
