THEY ARE KABNESTLY URGED TO PARTICI-PATE IN CHARLOTTE'S MUSICAL

FESTIVAL. PRINCETON, N. J., January 20th, 1800 To the Musicians of Salisbury:

As I cannot write a separate letter to each of you, I take this method of making some suggestions concerning the Musical Festival to be held in Charlotte next June. Though at a distance from Salisbury for a time, I do not feel myself out of Salisbury's musical circle, and wish to contribute my share to promote the cause, both in Salisbury, and in North Carolina.

A few weeks ago I heard Handell's "Messiah," that grandest of all oratorios, given by two hundred and fifty voices Maine railroad company $100,000 to keep and seventy-five instruments; and as I heard the beautiful story of Christ's birth and life and death, told in liquid its tracks clear of snow.
