THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1890.

Don't forget the Chamber of Commerce meeting next Thursday night.

Miss Ida Meroney has returned from a several weeks visit to Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rice returned on Monday from an extensive trip through the South.

The Treasury Department has received a conscience contribution of $16 from Charlotte.

Senator Vance passed through Salisbury last Sunday on his way from Washington to Asheville.

We are in receipt of a package of garden seeds through the kindness of Congressman Henderson.

The Stately Observer announces our townsman Jno. W. Mauney for the Solicitorship of this district.

The St. Cecilia will meet at Rev. Mr. Murdoch's to-morrow (Friday) night. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. W. M. Worrell, of Petersburg, Va., an electric light man is in town figuring on electric lights for Salisbury.

Last Monday was St. Patrick's day. It is a big day in the Northern cities among the natives of the Emerald Isle.

Walter Murphy left yesterday for the Naval Academy at Annapolis having received an appointment from Hon. John S. Henderson.

Mr. M. S. Brown is in the Northern markets laying in his spring stock of clothing. He expects to bring back the largest stock he has ever had.

The directors of the Chestnut Hill Cemetery at a meeting held last Monday decided to make improvements at the cemetery by sowing grass seed, removing stumps, &c.

There is an old fashioned mud hole of considerable dimensions on church street directly opposite the entrance to Oak Grove cemetery that needs the attention of the street force.

Look-out boys! There is an audience, with a five dollar fine attached to it, against using the sling shot, which you are trying to kill birds with.

Col. Jno. C. Tipton, of the Greensboro Patriot, and Miss M. Josie Burke, daughter of Mr. J. K. Burke, were married at the residence of the bride's father last Monday, Rev. Jethro Humpale officiating.

We learn that Mr. J. D. Small has been given the contract to erect the new building for the first National Bank, and will begin operations very soon.

Why not take the letter box off of the lamp post in front of the postoffice and place it close to Lawyers row for the accommodation of the legal fraternity and court house officers.

The Rev. Sam Jones will commence his meetings in Charlotte on the 25th of April continuing eight days, three services each day.

The side walk in front of our office has been at times this week almost completely blocked up with goods and boxes as a result of Dave Julians trip North.

The Southport Leader is the name of a new weekly published at Southport, N. C. It starts out in a very creditable way and we hope it will not be long until we will be able to receive it a few hours after its publication coming direct to Salisbury over the South Atlantic and North Western Railroad.

Mr. J. E. Lanier has just returned from a trip to some of the principal Western cities, and remarked in rather a boasting Tardel way that the best equipped railroad traveled over on his route was the Western North Carolina.

Messrs. J. M. Harrison, J. S. Houston and J. A. Stewart have just bought and brought to this county the finest jack that has ever been brought to North Carolina.

It seems that real estate in and near Greensboro has gone clear out of sight. This is because the steel plant is going there.

Capt. P. S. Kneeland, civil engineer, assisted by Mr. H. McNamee, has just completed the survey of the railroad from Concord to Mt. Pleasant.

Hundreds of copies of the advertising sheet got up by Stewart Bros., of Winston, N. C. and in which a number of our citizens were bit were noticed blowing around on Fisher street one day this week.

The private car of J. H. Inman, President of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, passed through Salisbury last Thursday night with the following party on board: Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Wannamaker, Mrs. Russell Harrison, Miss Wannamaker, Mrs. Wildon, of Philadelphia; Miss Robinson, of New York; Mr. Russell B. Harrison and Mr. Hammond, of Trenton, N. J., they were on their way to St. Augustine, Fla.

This cold, freezing weather is a good time for those who have no convenient place to heap up the rubbish about the premises convertible into manure, such as the sweepings of yards, and the droppings of cows and other stock.

Since the war and reconstruction days, things have been somewhat out of order in the South. Even the seasons have taken on more or less demoralization.

Among the towns in North Carolina awakened to new life and promising rapid developments, says the Asheville Citizen, is Greensboro.

Big Things for Winston-Salem. We learn from the Winston Sentinel that two large projects are on foot to add to the attractions of Winston-Salem.

From Montgomery. Sheriff Saunders, says the Vidette returned from his prospect, which adjoins the Tebe Saunders mine, Tuesday, and he informs us that Col. Kirk has begun operations at this mine with about thirty hands, and intends putting up an extensive plant at once.

Choral Union. A second meeting of a number of the vocalists of Salisbury was held at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. on Monday night, and a permanent musical club organized.

As attending the festival at Charlotte in June, nothing definite has been decided upon. If satisfactory arrangements can be made with the managers of the proposed festival and a creditable number of the club can conveniently attend they may do so.

The Star of Bethlehem.

Astronomical calculations show that we shall witness a most interesting phenomenon in the course of 1890. A sixth star says the Charlotte News will be added to the five fixed stars forming the constellation of Cassiopeia.

Evangelist Fife.

"Bill" Fife, now known as the Drummer Evangelist, who closed a successful meeting last week in Concord, is reported by the Times as having made the following statement in regard to his indebtedness: "Mr. Fife made a statement which we feel called upon to give to the public of the State, and we hope every newspaper in North Carolina will copy it."

Death of Billy Whitley.

In last week's issue we noticed the death of Uncle Billy Whitley, of Stauky county. The Observer says of him: "In his death, which occurred March 3d, perhaps the oldest individual in North Carolina was laid to rest."

Cold in the Mountains.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 17.—Reports coming from the great tobacco counties in Western North Carolina show that at least one-third of the plants in beds have been killed by cold weather which prevailed Saturday night and yesterday.

Sentenced for Lynching.

WHITEHALL, Wis., March 14.—At 10:30 this morning Chas. Johnson, Ole Stitte, Ole J. Hanson, and Bertha Oleson, were sentenced to life imprisonment, and three days solitary confinement each year, for the lynching of old man Hans Jacob Oleson, in November last.

Choral Union.

As attending the festival at Charlotte in June, nothing definite has been decided upon. If satisfactory arrangements can be made with the managers of the proposed festival and a creditable number of the club can conveniently attend they may do so.

Chamber of Commerce.

This organization met last Thursday night, at the Mayor's office, pursuant to a call of the president. The object of the meeting was for the election of officers and to receive a committee from the Farmers' Alliance of Rowan county, who wished to confer with the Chamber in regard to what Salisbury would do towards helping the Alliance in establishing a fair ground near town.

Mr. S. R. Harrison, of the Alliance committee, stated the object of their visit, and said there was a great many of their order who wanted the grounds established near China Grove or Cleveland, but he felt safe in saying that if Salisbury would help, it could be brought here.

Mr. Haltman, also of the committee, stated that they wanted it understood that it was to be an Alliance fair and to be run by the Alliance, but that if established near Salisbury it would be a great benefit to the town, especially during the period in which the fair was being held.

An "Old Arm Chair."

The following from the State Chronicle will be of interest to some of our readers, who probably may remember the chair spoken of:

Rev. C. Durham, secretary of the Baptist State Mission Board, has just received an old arm chair with which some interesting incidents are connected. It makes no pretenses to good looks, and compared with modern chairs it is sadly wanting in the attributes of solid comfort.

DIED.

Last night at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Margaret Woodson Atwell, wife of D. A. Atwell. The funeral service will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, at the First Presbyterian church.

Saturday, March 15th, at 7 o'clock p. m., Fannie J. Miller, youngest daughter of the late Joshua Miller, aged 13 years. This sad death was the result of serious burns received on the morning of the above date.

Indictment Quashed.

JACKSON, Miss., March 17.—The indictment against John L. Sullivan has been quashed by the Supreme Court on the ground of being defective in its averments. The Court reversed the case, and remanded the defendant to the next term of the Marion county court to answer such indictment as may be found against him there.

W. E. Christian, who over a year ago bought W. J. Yates half interest in the Charlotte Democrat, has sold out to his partner, J. P. Strong, and accepted a position to do special work on the Philadelphia Press.

A real estate firm in Washington has written to Mayor Grant, of New York, offering to sell the old Marthway Washington home in Fredricksburg. The letter stated that the house is the one that George Washington spent the early period of his life in, and is therefore valuable as a relic.

Senator Cullon has introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for the erection in Washington city of a monument to the memory of John Ericsson, the inventor of the Monitor.
