Friend - A Word With You.

You know that every man who does not vote at this election must register before the new election law to vote. If you want the Republicans to carry the election and have your neighbor arrested and put in jail as in 1868-92, if you do not know that EVERY NEGRO who does not register and vote, the State will register and vote for him. So must every WHITE MAN. If you do not register after Oct. 24th - so late that you cannot register after Oct. 24th - you will be a non-voter. Don't say you have time - take time - YOUR HAPPINESS and the GOOD NAME AND REPUTATION OF YOUR STATE DEPENDS ON IT. GOVERNMENT AND WHITE MAN'S FREEDOM DEPENDS ON IT. DON'T WAIT. YOU MAY COST THE DEFEAT OF THE PARTY.

The grand piano purchased by the Choral Union is in all respects a splendid instrument.

Coal will be more generally used here this winter than ever before. We must admit that we are partial to the old wood fire and open fire place; but the preference for coal as fuel is on the increase.

The Old North State Orchestra of Statesville, N. C., will give a concert on Wednesday night Oct. 29th at Meroney's hall under the directorship of Prof. F. E. Barratt the brilliant violin performer.

We see it stated that Durham, Greensboro and Fayetteville will soon have the free mail delivery system. What is the matter with Salisbury? Her population is equal to that of the two last named places.

When our citizens cease to contribute to the booming of other places both in and out of the State, and devote their energy and means to the upbuilding of Salisbury she will boom as many other places are doing.

Mr. D. A. Sifford is having strawberry pie at his house, not the canned kind but regular old sure enough strawberry pie. He brought a paper of them to our office this morning gathered an hour or two before from his patch.

Most of the Salisburyans who attended the drawing and sale of lots at Shandon, Virginia last week, have returned. Speculation is rife and they all expect to get rich. We hope their highest expectations may be realized.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the marriage of Miss Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gates, to D. McL. Therrell, of Charleston, S. C., on Oct. 29th, at Wilmington. The best wishes of a host of friends in Salisbury are with them.

Several of Salisbury's hard cases were jugged last week charged with breaking into a car and stealing a lot of wine. If they are convicted, and it is said there is a pretty strong case against them, they will undoubtedly go to the penitentiary and it will be a happy riddance to the community.

Joseph James, son of Mr. W. L. James of this place, has been promoted in railroad circles at Columbia, S. C., whither he went about a year ago. He is one of the many young men who served the required time at the R. R. Shops here, and one now holding responsible places connected with the business of various railroads.

Married at the Presbyterian church yesterday at 10 o'clock, Mr. Peter Bryce Beard to Miss Pauline Parker. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. King of the Lutheran Church, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. Rumble. The happy couple left on the noon train for an extended trip to Florida. The best wishes of the WATCHMAN are theirs.

Considerable interest is being manifested here now by the membership of the Lodges, in behalf of Free Masonry. Fulton Lodge No. 99 ranks among the brightest and best equipped in the State. The Royal Arch has recently been revived and its affairs are now in the custody of young blood which means that the order is well manned and will grow.

We notice in the advertising columns of yesterday's Chronicle, an application for a coal black kitten at the Presbyterian manse in Salisbury. We hope that our town with its varied resources can supply the demand. Can our enterprising boys not effect a capture, if necessary and do so promptly? No price is stated but doubtless, a liberal one will be paid.

The members of the Orchestra cannot expect to attain to any very high degree of proficiency as musicians until they secure the services of a competent instructor. The proceeds of a few first class concerts during the winter, would contribute largely towards paying for proper instruction. This plan has been adopted by like organizations in other towns.

The members of the Young Men's Christian Association desire to give public expression of their thanks to the young ladies who so kindly assumed the task of adorning our hall for the assembling of the District Convention. The decoration was so tastefully done that it elicited many complimentary remarks. The young ladies have certainly placed us under a new sense of obligation, and again we thank you and assure you that we are much encouraged in our work by such evidences of appreciation.

From Montgomery County.

The Hamilton mine discovered a short time ago was sold last Monday to the Moratock Mining company for $600,000. This property is in the Uwharrie river district about three quarters of a mile from the Sanders mine and about the same distance from the river. It is close to the top of a mountain and in a crystalline formation. The ledge has been uncovered about ninety feet across, the whole being good pay ore while a great deal of it is cut up by small quartz stringers which are very rich probably assaying way up in the thousands. This find is a good one and at present probably has more gold in sight than any other mine in the State.

A ten stamp mill and other machinery is being delivered on the property and Mr. Muffley of Thomasville is in charge. At the Russell mine the only water-dredging done is in keeping the water down, but it is reported that the mill will be running again in a few days.

At the Appalachian, ten stamps are running on good ore; they are driving on the lower level and expect to run forty head as soon as they get to stopping. It is reported that a plant will be put up very shortly at the Morris Mountain mine and work will be carried on on an extensive scale.

There have been a number of good finds in the Uwharrie section lately, not enough to call them mines but still enough to gladden the hearts and fill the purses of the finders, among them is that of Elick Bear and Jno. Beaman on Horse Mountain, Morgan and Warner on Mitchell Mountain and L. Harper on the Pass Harris place.

Choral Union Concert.

The concert to be given to-night by the Choral Union at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. is the first of a series which will be given during the fall and winter, and is for the purpose of raising funds to pay for the splendid grand piano recently purchased, and to defray other necessary expenses of this home musical organization. Remember, when you purchase a ticket to the concert to-night, you are contributing to the success of an enterprise worthy of the support of the citizens of Salisbury, to say nothing of the musical treat in store for all who attend. Many of the young ladies and gentlemen of our town have taken advantage of the opportunity offered to improve themselves in vocal music; and with proper encouragement in the way of attendance at these concerts, will develop into singers of merit. Both the choir and congregational music at our various churches will be improved as a result of regular practice and intelligent training in vocal music now being received by the members of the Choral Union. Purchase a ticket whether it is convenient for you to attend or not.

Birchall Reiterates His Story.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Oct. 21.—Mrs. West Jones had an interview with Birchall, her brother-in-law, a day or two ago. They conversed about his case, and in answer to pressing question put by her, Birchall declared emphatically as he could that he did not fire the shots which killed Beavell, leaving her to suppose that he had a confederate. He has stuck to his story from the start—it is the only one he has stuck to—but a great majority of the people hereabouts still believe that he alone committed the crime.

The petition started in London in Birchall's behalf has not been numerously signed here. It has been in circulation several days, but up to to-night only nineteen signatures have been obtained. The Rev. Mr. Wade, Birchall's spiritual adviser, and one or two other clergymen and doctors are among the signers. Several ministers refused to sign the petition.

A Budget of News.

Raleigh Correspondent Wilmington Messeng.

Yesterday some information was sent regarding the Political situation. Today several leading men of both parties were interviewed. A Republican of influence and position talked to me with great frankness, and said the indications were that the Democrats would carry every district except, of course, the second. They have the advantage and are gaining. He spoke of the appointment of Rollins as collector of the Western district as one of the principal causes of Ewart's defeat, and said the revelations regarding Brower's personal life would crush the latter. The action of Ewart in joining the farmer's Alliance was referred to as militating greatly against him. Ewart is depressed and shows it plainly. Brower's acts with regard to his female proteges have for some time been known, but up to the time of Crawford's exposure of them had been kept out of print. The Republican leader referred to said he knew of them and had remarked at first of the year that Brower would meet with defeat and deserved it. In fact some of Brower's supporters had cut loose from him weeks ago.

The information gathered from leading Democrats was that the prospects have improved. The trouble is yet as to registration. A light vote is a certainty. Vance's letter to Secretary Beddingfield is a valuable aid.

There are people here this week from the most remote sections of this State. A gentleman from Currituck said to-day that his county is coming into line all right and one from Ashe county gives good news from that section, though he said the Democrats were not as enthusiastic as one would wish to see them.

A Mistake.

At Fairbrother, the new editor of the Durham Globe from the "wild and woolly" West, is jumping in the midst of things like a Texas steer on the rampage. He hasn't the North Carolina brand on him yet, but will soon become civilized. A few days ago he said that Governor Fowle was trying to step into Zeb Vance's brogans and that the breezes were gently playing through his whiskers. Now he accuses brother Joseph Daniels of crawling on his stomach before the Alliance and giving them advice at the same time. Mr. Fairbrother forgot to wash his western war paint off before emerging into civilization.—Winston Sentinel.

This is a sad, sad mistake. All the war paint and feathers worn by this melancholy and emaciated cuss were thrown into the Sim river as he headed towards this greatest state in the Union. So far as the brand is concerned, we confess that the old time brand of the South—which was a lambstone—is not implanted on our wide and sweeping brow. But his war paint is gone; the feathers have vanished and our wigwag is closed for repairs. The advice which Farmer Daniels gives to the many Alliance men makes us tired, and we propose to say so whenever we feel inclined. Mr. Fowle wanted to secure the brogans of Vance but alas, he failed to connect. These little gems of thought go with the paper—six dollars a year—fifty cents for one month—fifteen cents a week, five cents per single copy. And now is the time to subscribe.—Durham Globe.

The Last of the Buffaloes.

Chicago Herald.

The herd of buffaloes that the Government has preserved at the Yellowstone National Park, as almost the last specimens of the noble species, have got loose and wandered away. News of their escape has been sent out in every direction, and an expedition has started in a suit. But up to this time nothing has been heard as to their whereabouts, and their recovery is doubtful. They are likely to be picked off by the settlers and hunters, who can get almost a fabulous price for their skin. At the herd comprised the only known buffaloes it is a serious one and their slaughter would almost complete the extinction of a once countless race.
