Capt. Jake Fisher the independent may be able to make a better speech than Jim Monroe, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Rowan, but he would not make a better Sheriff. Besides, Jim Monroe is backed by a nomination of the Democratic party of the county, in which the democratic Alliance men participated. The Democratic party, and, of course, every Democratic Allianceman, is in honor bound to vote for him. The Democrats of Rowan can't afford to go filibustering at this late day. Stand by the organization of the party; vote the ticket straight; don't scratch a name! Every Democrat is in honor bound to support the men nominated in the primaries and ratified in the county convention.

Vote for Jim Monroe for Sheriff. Don't put a premium on independents. Fisher thinks he would make a good Sheriff. The people think Jim Monroe will serve them best. They nominated him. They will vote for him independent Jake's opinion of himself to the contrary notwithstanding.

Jake Fisher says the "Bosses" rule the conventions, hence his conviction that he will make as good a Sheriff as the county has ever had. His cry of bossism is hush. He knows that the people at the several primaries named the candidates, and that there was no bossing done. Vote the ticket—you nominated!

Will the Democrats of Rowan allow Ped Thomas, Jake Fisher and John Horah to be elected over the regular nominees of the party? Not much! Voters stand by your nominees. We expect negroes and Republicans to vote for the independents but not white men who participated in the primaries and county convention.

Vote for Watson for Clerk of the Court. He was nominated in the convention and is the officially endorsed candidate of the party. Vote a straight ticket.

Vote to kill independents! The people are the best judges of whom should fill the county offices.

Office belongs to no man! It is the gift of the people who call men to serve them. The people have put out a ticket, vote it like it is printed—straight!

Are you going to vote for Esq. Earnhardt? He is an Allianceman? Yes, for he is the nominee of the party, and he should vote for good men like Mr. Burnhardt. Then don't scratch your ticket. Vote it straight. You are no more bound to vote for Mr. Earnhardt than for John Henderson, W. G. Watson and Jim Monroe. They all stand on the same footing. Vote it straight.

Jay Hubbellism is again rampant in the Government at Washington and the high-priced Civil Service Commission says no word. Do you approve it? If not, vote the Democratic ticket.

Now that the C. R. Railroad Company has secured $5,000,000 of English money, we presume that the line will be pushed through to Cranberry without delay. It will open up a magnificent country.

The most successful and progressive towns in the United States are those which liberally support their local papers. A successful newspaper advertisement in the world of the piece where the paper is published.

One of the effects of the new tariff law will be the ultimate control by Russia of the European oil and grain trade which has heretofore been supplied from the United States. This is one of the beauties of the Republican tariff for "protection" only.

The political fight in South Carolina goes merrily on and it is hard telling which will be next Governor, Tillman or Haskell. From late dispatches we learn that the Tillmanites are worried over the situation and the bitterness increases as the election approaches.

This great moral reform administration has suspended the civil service law, until after election in order that the collectors of campaign "boodle" may pounce upon the Government employes at Washington, and throughout the country with the demand of "your money or your place."

Ye gods, think of it! Raum the Commissioner of Pensions, whose position is precisely that of a man who has been indicted by the grand jury for felony, and who is one on bail awaiting trial, is making stump speeches for the republicans. How is that for cheek?

Mr. Conrad, special agent of the Interior Department for the collection of census statistics regarding tobacco, while in Raleigh on Tuesday, made the statement that North Carolina is this year leading all the sixteen States in which tobacco is grown, in increase of acreage, average value of product, and in quality of tobacco.

Have you heard of any manufacturer having increased the wages of his employes since the McKinley tariff bill became a law? Of course you haven't. The prices go up but the increases does not go to labor; it goes to capital every time. That's the republican idea of popular legislation. Is it yours? If not vote the democratic ticket.

Encouraged by the result of the police census made in New York, Baltimore has decided to have a recount of her own population made by her police force. It is a noticeable fact that the census returns of population have been made ridiculously low. If this was not done for the purpose of reducing democratic representation in Congress under the new appointment to be made, what was it done for?

It is all very well for the Democrats to criticize Mr. Flower for his management, or lack of management, of the Congressional campaign, but let us clear our own skirts of any blame by seeing that every Democratic voter in this vicinity goes to the polls and casts his vote for the party ticket. If that be done in ever polling precinct in the country the Democrats will certainly control the next House of Representatives. The only danger lies in the stay-at-home vote.

Higher prices will prevail in every department of business excepting the farmer and laborer. And there is less money to buy with. How long will it take a man to become poor? Higher prices for all he buys and less money for his time or produce. This is the result of the McKinley tariff. It is robbing the poor; making them poorer every day. We want the Alliance to jump the tariff; put it in their demands and make it an issue. It goes hand in hand with their policy, and will help as much as any other one measure advocated to bring about prosperity and fair remuneration for time and labor.

Then the great pension rolls should be attacked, and purged of many illegal and fraudulent expenditures. With these matters remedied and the Alliance demands granted, our people would have a fair chance to live comfortably, educate their children and die happy—at least with the assurance that their children would have a fair chance for existence, with due industry, under fair and equitable laws.

Vote as you think. If you think it right that legislation should be controlled by the men who contribute the corruption fund of the republican party, and that the House of Representatives, instead of representing people, should be used merely to register the will of its Speaker, you will, of course, vote the republican ticket, but, if you think that legislation should be the result of unbiased deliberations by the men sent by the voters of the country to Congress, you will take off your coat and work for the democratic ticket.

Several prominent republican stump-speakers, among them Speaker Ross and Representative McKinley, have declared as an excuse for the increase in prices upon articles of general use caused by the new tariff law, that cheap prices were not desired by the people. Think of that! How many of you prefer to pay increased prices for what you buy? And pray, if the people do not want cheaper prices, why do they flock to the stores which advertise special low prices in our columns? Every one wants to purchase at the lowest possible prices what he or she may need, and if the republican orators do not know this, we would respectfully suggest that they take a holiday and study up on human nature before going on the stump again.

The National Democrat which was established in Washington one year ago by Edmund Hudson, with the endorsement of many of the great leaders of the party, has entered upon its second year with a circulation of 40,000 copies each week. This is probably the largest circulation ever attained by a weekly newspaper during the first year of its existence. The National Democrat occupies a field of its own, and one that too long remained untilled. It gives a complete record of political information, including the most important speeches that are delivered by Democratic leaders in Congress and on the stump. It is rendering the party an important service, and should be read by all who wish to keep fully informed in regard to public affairs and who want to defeat the wicked scheme of the Republican leaders to secure permanent control of the Government, in spite of the fact that they are, and must remain, the minority party of this country.

Lottery and Advertising Scheme.
BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Oct. 27.—Several merchants of this city who are conducting guessing and voting schemes in advertising their business, fearing that newspapers carrying their advertisements might be suppressed, requested Postmaster Neville to consult Postmaster General Wainman whether the schemes were prohibited by the lottery law. Neville has received a letter from Attorney General Miller saying that such advertisements of guessing and voting contests may for the time being be permitted to run in newspapers.

Note the phraseology: "be permitted to run." This begins to savor of Russian censorship of the Press. But we must be prepared for any emergency under Radical rule! Not only the liberty of the Press, but the liberties of the people are being curtailed, abridged and narrowed down! Think freemen! Before casting your vote next week. The republican party intends to oppress, tax and degrade the masses. The only safe thing to do is to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

A Republican Dodge.
Raleigh Correspondent Wilmington Messenger.
About midnight Saturday night your correspondent was told of a Republican game which will certainly be a boom-erang. It was said that a circular had been sent out instructing the Republican strikers to challenge every vote and raise a question as to whether the voters had been sworn by the registrars. This is an effort to delay voting. Its object is to raise factions objections so as to prevent Democrats from casting votes. The point can be raised for no other purpose whatever, as it is understood that all the electors have been sworn.

As soon as this latest Republican attempt to cause trouble at the polls becomes known it will arouse the Democrats. It will swell their ranks, just as Eves' infamous "reliable" circular did in 1888. It is an attempt in advance at intimidation. The papers should make it ring from one end of the State to the other. The news came to your correspondent from good authority. This is the first mention of it made.

To the Farmers.
Utica Observer.
Under the Republican policy of high protection the farmer has endured greater hardships perhaps than any other class of industrious toilers. He sees the value of farm lands decreased nearly one half during the past year, under the system that taxed him for nearly every commodity he has been compelled to buy. Instead of giving him relief the Republican Congress has added to his burdens. Yet our opponents have the impudence to solicit the approval of the farmers for their policy of extortion.

Why am I a Republican
State Chronicle.
We would like for any man in North Carolina that intended to vote the Republican ticket to answer the question "Why am I a Republican?" Let us see what answers would be given. Jno. Williamson says that the only honest Republican in North Carolina is the negro; and certainly there would be no Republican party here but for the negro. As the negro is the backbone, as well as the backbone of the party, let us begin with him.

Well, Mr. Sambo, why are you a Republican?
"I am a Republican because the Republicans set me free."
Are you a Republican then from gratitude or from fear that the Democrats will enslave you again, if they get a chance?

"From gratitude. I don't believe the Democrats care to enslave me, nor that they could do it if they cared to. Four years of Democratic rule under Cleveland destroyed all fear of that."

You wish to pay a debt of gratitude then. Let us see how large this debt is. Did you know that the government was taxing you not only to pay the cost of setting you free, but also a pension nearly a million men? Do you know that your freedom was an accident of war? Did you know that President Lincoln, your best friend, said that he would keep every negro a slave, if he could save the Union thereby?

"No, Sir, I never knew these things. I always thought that the Republicans set me free because they loved us, and wished to help us, while the Democrats hated us and wished to keep us down."

If the Republicans set you free for love and wished to help you, they would show it all the time and everywhere. What has the Republican party under Harrison done for you? Have you any rights or privileges under Harrison that you did not have under Cleveland? What has the Republican party in North Carolina done for you? Was it not the Democratic party that gave you free normal school in insane asylum, deaf and dumb and blind asylum, and free schools for your children?

Do you know that the Republican party is trying to keep you poor? I tax you nearly everything that you buy, and take money from you who are poor and ignorant, to enrich the millionaires of Pennsylvania? Did you know that the Republican party is trying to ruin the South? Did you know that the ruin of the South means your ruin, because your home is in the South and your prosperity depends upon Southern prosperity?

Did you know that a Northern Republican is glad to hear of race troubles and race fights, because it gives him capital to make political speeches and helps to keep him in office? Did you know that the negro in the North elected Harrison to office, and yet he dares not appoint a negro to office in Northern States? Did you know that in many Northern cities the white laborers will not let the negro work at his trade as a carpenter or as a mason? Did you know that President Harrison discharged colored servants from the White House when Cleveland had retained throughout four years? Did you know that you furnished the votes, while the white Republicans in North Carolina take the offices? Did you know that "Grudger Ephraim" always gets the coal and leaves you "barking up the wrong tree"? Did you know that the respectable white people of the State would be able to do more for your advancement and would pay you higher wages, if they were not kept so poor by legislation which carries their money North? Did you know that every time you cast a Republican vote you endorse this unjust legislation and hinder the improvement of your race?

"Well sir, I know what you say, but I am obliged to vote for Mars Upchurch. Don't the Bible say "The son of the bond-woman shall vote for the son of the free woman?"
The next largest class of Republicans is the white office holders. In reply to the question, why he was a Republican, one of this class replied: "I am a Republican just so long as the Republicans elect me to office. If I can get the negroes to vote for me, why should I be?"
"Principles! thunder! What do I want with principles as a candidate of a lot of 'half-savages'?" (That is what Judge Russell called the negro.) All they want is somebody to pull over their eyes the wool that covers their brains. I have to honey them up during the campaign, and it's dirty work too, but every successful farmer has to handle manure."

But here you no regard for your State, for its real interests, for its development?
"O, well, a fellow has to look out for No. 1 first."

Is not this a man a political pirate, a liar, thief and hypocrite? Does he not belong to where other felons are confined? Should he not at least be placed in the pillory of public scorn? Yes, indeed, says John Williamson, the negro is the only honest Republican.

What shall we say of the few misguided white men who go with this black herd led by leiders without principles? Do they realize what Republican ascendancy in North Carolina means? Do they realize that it means bad government, high taxes, no public education, decrease in property values, and insecurity of life and person? What shall we think of a man who risks all these inestimable and dearly purchased rights in order to see some "good fellow" in office? What shall we think of the old "Union man" who treasures the memory of Clay and Webster by following the lead of Lissauer and Upchurch and Alencian? What difference of opinion exists on other subjects every Southern man who intends to live in the South should say in the coming election, "I will not sustain the Republican party in its attempts to impoverish and oppress the South. The war is over and the negro is a citizen. This is now a free government, and the Southern whites are entitled to the full enjoyment of all its rights and privileges. I shall not vote for the party that has increased the tax on every thing the poor man uses in order to enrich still further those already rich. I shall not vote for a party that is afraid to trust the people, but declares its purpose to control elections by a force bill."

Washington Letter.
(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—Attorney General Miller has experienced a change of heart since U. S. Treasurer Huston wrote screechingly of him that he took no interest in practical politics, or else he was acting under the direct orders of the superior officer, Mr. Benjamin Harrison, who is in adept in the peculiar shade of practical politics that has given the Ludia a reputation that their great "blocks of iron" reputation, when he revoked an order issued by Attorney General Garfield prohibiting the employment of deputy marshals to act in connection with elections for a longer period than five days. Mr. Garland issued the order to prevent the notorious John I. Javenport bankrupting the U. S. Treasury by hiring for weeks before elections in New York thousands of deputy marshals at $5 a day, whose only business was to work for the republican party, and for the present Attorney General to revoke that order at this time is asarrant a bit of partisanship as was exhibited by a member of any administration.

Under the law deputy marshals can only be employed in towns of more than 2,000 inhabitants and it is now certain that swarms of them are to be employed in every town above that population in the country in fact they have been employed and under pay at the rate of $5 a day for some days, and everyone of these men are republican workers, in every sort that have no scruples when a political advantage can be gained. It will now be in order for Messrs Quay, Dudley, Huston & Co. to take the Attorney General to their hearts, and—here the milk in your account—induce the republicans of Indiana to withdraw their opposition to his being nominated by Harrison as successor to the late Justice Miller. He gets, how this little Miller will rattle around in the chair of the dead Miller.

Ex-President Cleveland has been here several days in attendance upon the Supreme Court where a case in which he is counsel is being heard. He is receiving a great deal of attention, and it would appear that he would make a social host of, but he says he is strictly a business trip, and that he will come again and bring Mrs. Cleveland, whom all Washington loves, with him.

The question of the validity of the new tariff law having been raised by the New York importers, and such able lawyers as Senator Carlisle and McClellan having the opinion that the omission of the paragraph reducing taxation on tobacco from the copy of the bill signed by Mr. Harrison made the entire law void, it has greatly disturbed the administration. Mr. Harrison was aware of their error soon after Congress adjourned and to have it corrected was one of the reasons he was so anxious to have an extra session. How the Supreme Court will decide this question, should the importers determine to carry it into the Courts, is, of course, problematical, but the chances are that the republicans on the bench would take the same view of it that prominent members of their party have already expressed—that the omission of a clause so omitted, Representative Bayne, one of the republican conferees, made a bad break in his effort to explain the omission by saying that it was intentional on the part of the conferees. Senator Carlisle also one of the conferees proves contrary to have been the case.

Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt can be a very funny fellow when he tries. He has issued a manifesto which deserves a high place in the numerous literature of the day. With the agents of the various republican States associates bulldozing and threatening to black-list the Government employes if they do not contribute, writes under his nose, Mr. Roosevelt, to the presidents of these associations warning them that members of their associations in the Government service will be prosecuted if they violate the law. Could anything be more farcical?

If the best information obtainable is correct I don't see how the democrats can fail to carry the House. The Congressional committee figures on not losing more than four districts it has in the present House, and on making the following gains: Two in New York, two in North Carolina, one in South Carolina, one in Louisiana, one in Alabama, two in Connecticut, two in Maryland, two in Virginia, two in Arkansas, seven in Ohio, two in Iowa, two in Michigan, two in Wisconsin and I in Kansas, a net gain of twenty-five. Besides these there are twenty-two other districts which the committee mark as doubtful, but think their chances of carrying are good. A net gain of ten members would give the democrats the House by one majority.

A Landlady's Politics.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 25.—Jessie Hamrick and Wilson Morris, young Democratic lawyers, are plaintiffs in a peculiar injunction suit in the Superior Court. They allege that they are Democrats and intend to vote the Democratic ticket at the coming election; that Mrs. Sutton with whom they are boarding is a Republican; that knowing they cannot find another boarding house in the precinct, and that if they move their residence they will lose their votes, she has demanded that they vacate their room in her cot and go elsewhere to take their meals. They further claim that she has no cause of complaint against them except that they are Democrats, and that her only object in ordering them to leave her house is to deprive them of their suffrage at the coming election.

Mrs. Sutton admits that she is a Republican but declares that politics has anything to do with her action towards her boarders.

The court granted a temporary restraining order pending the hearing of the case.

How the State Stands.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.—The reports from the registration are encouraging. There will be a big vote—much larger than was expected on an off year. The Republicans in the central counties are pretty well registered. The registration for appointment for a new registration is certainly good. The Legislature will be largely Democratic. Merrimon will have 20,000 majority. In many cases the Republicans will not vote for their candidates or judges. Charles Price, their candidate for Chief Justice, would be disappointed if they did. He now makes $2,000 a year as United States District Attorney and as the paid attorney of the R. & D. railway. Of course he is not willing to give up such position for the $2,500 position of Chief Justice. His only object in desiring the nomination was to get himself in line for appointment as District Judge when Judge Dick retires, which the latter can do in two years. The latter position will be for life, and now pays $4,500, with great probability of an increase to $5,000 when Congress again meets. Price's Republican friends have been questioned and he desired the endorsement of the question. Eaves is against Price, and evidently does not desire to see him elected. It is said that at Washington while Eaves was waiting to get the Senate to confirm him, Price told the President and other officers that if Eaves were confirmed he would tender his letter the next day. So there is no love lost between these two.
