THURSDAY, DEC. 4 1890.

The Old Hickory Orchestra gave a very enjoyable concert at the St. James Hotel last Friday night.

The R. R. cut between the depot and the village is being widened to make room for the Yankin R. R. track.

Cotton is very low and all of our farmers who can are going to hold it until there is an improvement in the price.

Rev. T. W. Guthrie has been appointed Presiding Elder of the Shelly District by the Methodist Conference now in session at Concord.

Mr. P. A. Frazier has been elected a commissioner from the East Ward by the voters of that ward.

As will be seen by the report of the county commissioners all of the newly elected county officers gave bond and were sworn in last Monday.

A dozen gold fish has been placed in the public fountain obtained from the United States fish commissioner through the kindness of Hon. John S. Henderson.

An invitation is to be extended to the 1st Regiment of Virginia to join our boys at Wrightsville next summer and in all probability the invitation will be accepted.

A leak in the water main on Main street caused considerable amusement on Monday but a force of hands soon uncovered the leak and our efficient water works manager had it stopped.

Mr. Robert Hayden has resigned his position on the Charlotte Chronicle and accepted one in Baltimore. His resignation to take effect on Jan. 1st and Mr. F. E. McDowell will then take charge of the Chronicle.

Mrs. Chas. Price has been highly honored by being elected third vice-president of the lady managers of the World's Fair. Her name was presented by Mrs. Stone, of Mississippi and she was elected by acclamation.

At the magistrates meeting on last Monday for the purpose of electing a county commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of T. J. Sumner, Mr. F. P. Patton of China Grove was elected on the sixth ballot.

The New York Herald wants every socialist in the country to paste the following proverb in his hat: "It is a good thing to have a good hay crop, but it is a much more difficult thing to get it into the barn before the rain spoils it."

Four new home companies paid the corporation tax over to our clerk of the court during the month of November. A shoe company, Ice company, Flouring company and Fair association company. This is speaking volumes for our growth.

Messrs Klutz & Rendleman have had a large number of feed boxes put in the back of their store for the accommodation of the country people. It would be well if some of our other merchants would pattern after them and do likewise.

It might pay some of our old farmers to look up the old letters they received during the war. All of the Confederate stamps whether used or not have a value, provided they are left in the original envelope. They are in demand by stamp collectors as specimens.

"The Willing Workers" a circle of single daughters will give a musical soiree at Miss Linda Rumples Thursday night Dec. 4th. The entertainment will close with a donkey party. All are invited to attend. Music will begin promptly at 7 o'clock.

Sheriff Kridler requests that all persons who have not paid their tax do so at once as he wants everything paid up so that he can make final settlement on Jan. 1st. He says that the taxes are farther behind than ever before at this time of year which ought not to be.

The president of the North Carolina Press Association, has appointed Mr. Robert Hayden, of the Charlotte Chronicle, and Dr. W. C. Murphy, of the Burlington Herald, as delegates from the Association to the Southern Inter-State Immigration Convention which meets in Asheville on the 17th of December.

Messrs. Dry and Haneline to-day open the Piedmont warehouse in the old Iron building opposite the Post Office. This is a new adventure on their part and we hope it will prove a successful one. It is probable that more tobacco will be used by our home manufacturers next year than ever before and there is plenty of room for this enterprise. Go and see for you will find them pleasant and accommodating and they will do everything in their power to make your tobacco bring the highest possible price.

The Charlotte Chronicle says Mrs. Leith, the wife of the new pastor of the Methodist church at Salisbury, is a cousin of ex-President Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Leith comes to this conference with the new territory conceded from Holston Conference. Mrs. Leith is rather to be noted, however, for her own mental acumen and intellectual graces, than for her kinship to the ex-President. She writes exceptionally well, with grace, force and logic. Her occasional contributions to her church paper are universally praised for their finish and style.

Mr. John M. Horah and W. W. Kridler the two retiring county officers have served their county well. Mr. Horah's office is among if not the best kept clerks office in the State and his management reduced to a science, nothing could be called for that he could not lay his hand on and he always did it willingly and cheerfully. He has been an efficient and accommodating officer and the whole county now say "well done thou good and faithful servant." Mr. Kridler though the youngest sheriff in the State has proved himself amply able to carry on the business and his bondsmen, who are perhaps the best able to judge, say that he has fulfilled the duties of the office as well if not better than any sheriff they have ever known.

In this issue will be found an appeal signed by Mr. J. S. Carr, President of the North Carolina Veterans Association. We feel that the appeal will commend itself to the women of Salisbury and we would be glad to do what we can through our columns to forward this matter. The Executive Committee, without funds sufficient in hand to maintain the "Home," have opened it, believing that the good people of North Carolina will sustain it. Now we should see to it that the Committee is not disappointed, and it behooves the women of Salisbury to show the committee that our community is as loyal to the confederate soldier as Raleigh or Durham, or as to that matter, as any town in the State from Manteo to Cherokee. Who will authorize us to say that they will at once move in the matter?

The following appointments for Salisbury district were made at the Methodist Conference at Concord on Monday: J. J. Renn, P. E. Salisbury station, W. H. Leith, Salisbury circuit, W. L. Dawson, Mocksville circuit, J. S. Wilson, Rowan circuit, R. E. Bryant, Chestnut Hill Mission, supplied by A. L. Colburn, Farmington circuit, P. L. Groome, Concord station, H. W. Bays, Concord circuit, T. W. Smith, Forest Hill station, H. M. Blair, Mt. Pleasant circuit, W. S. Hales, Albemarle circuit, L. E. Stacy, Stanley circuit, L. M. Brower, Salem circuit, W. V. Hunicutt, Mt. Zion station, M. A. Smith, Enochville circuit, J. D. Baie.

The "Madame Fry Co.," of Boston, will give an instrumental and vocal concert in Meroney's Hall on Friday evening, the 12th inst. This is a Company of established reputation, and the public can confidently look forward to a rich musical treat. The company comes under the auspices of the Choral Union which is a guarantee that it is first class. Four rich and thoroughly trained female voices join in a number of magnificent quartets, and the ladies subsequently display their skill in their manipulation of the bow. Those who have heard them say that in their performance on the violin they successfully rival the Boston Quintette Club. We bespeak for the company a full house. Tickets will be on sale at Klutz & Rendleman's store in a day or so. We omitted the fact that the company has the pleasant feature of a fine electrician in the person of Miss Bertha Cheney.

Fatal Accident. Mr. G. S. Misamer who lived about two miles from China Grove was killed by the fast southbound R. & D train last Wednesday morning at China Grove. Mr. Misamer attempted to drive his team across the track in front of the approaching train but the locomotive struck the wagon breaking it into pieces and instantly killing Mr. Misamer while the team was not injured. This accident deprives a wife of a husband and six children of a father.

An Old Friend. The Asheville Daily Citizen says Rev. C. W. Byrd, who comes to Asheville to take charge of the Methodist Episcopal church south is a native North Carolinian. He is 41 years of age and is a graduate of Trinity college. He is married and has one child. His wife was a daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Bobbitt, who was one of the best known and most popular presiding elders in the state, and who died about two weeks ago.

Mr. Byrd has been at Fayetteville for two years and is said to have made himself very popular with the congregation there, who do not like to give him up. He is considered one of the finest preachers and also one of the best pastors in either the North Carolina conference, from which he is transferred, or this conference to which he comes. The Salisbury congregation made a strong effort to have him sent to that place, where he once served. Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, and Judge Montgomery, of Concord, both of whom know him, spoke of him in the highest terms to Mr. H. A. Guder, of this place.

To Contractors. Bids for building a new church edifice for the First Presbyterian church of Salisbury, N. C. will be received until Dec. 10, 1890. Plans and specifications may be seen in the office of E. B. Neave in Salisbury. The committee reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

E. B. Neave, Ch'm. of Com.

MARRIED. Rowan county, N. C., at the residence of the bride's mother, Nov. 26th 1890, by Rev. Samuel Lothrop, D. D., Mr. Benjamin E. Sumner and Miss Sarah Kessler, only daughter of the late William Kessler.

To the Ladies of Salisbury. The Executive Committee of the North Carolina Veterans Association have established a "Home for Soldiers" at Raleigh. Already the "Home" has been opened and several disabled worthy confederate soldiers are being provided for. More are seeking to be admitted. The committee with an abiding faith in the love that the good people of North Carolina cherish for the old and disabled "confederates," have risked the establishment of a "Home," relying upon the generosity of a sympathizing public to sustain it. I do not believe that the Committee have placed a false estimate upon the affections of the people of North Carolina respecting the confederate soldiers. In the hour of our country's need they left all to follow her flag. Now in their distress I believe the good people of the State will help to maintain those stricken and disabled in the cause we all loved but was lost. I feel that the interest of the "Home" commends itself to every one, but especially do I appeal to the ladies of North Carolina to make the "Home" the special object of their care. The "Home" has no certain fund to rely upon for support. We have laid the foundation stone of the "Home" upon the loyalty of North Carolinians to the cause of the noble and good, and with faith in God that he may maintain the right, I appeal especially to the ladies. Help the "Home." Give some sort of an entertainment, and send the proceeds to Mr. W. C. Stroum, Treasurer, Raleigh, N. C. You will be most agreeably surprised, I am sure, at the readiness which you will find on the part of the public to encourage and patronize you. The ladies of Raleigh and Durham, and may God bless them, have already been of most substantial benefit in this direction and placed the management under lasting obligations. May I ask the ladies of Salisbury to do likewise? Believing that this appeal will not pass unheeded, and asking the blessing of a triune God upon any and all who manifest an interest in a cause that is dear to every true southern heart. I beg to,

Subscribe myself, J. S. CARR.

Commissioners Meeting. The board of county commissioners met last Monday and the following business was transacted. H. N. Woodson, returned $18.00 collected from Isham Hairston, being balance of his court costs in full, also returned $13.80 collected from P. D. Linn being hire for convict Joseph Talbot also returned $5.00 collected from P. N. Heilig being rent for the office now occupied by him for the two months ending December 31st, 1890 all of which said Woodson was ordered to pay to County Treasurer to go to the general county fund.

The Board of Commissioners for Rowan county, for the two years ending December 1st having completed all their duties as such board, so far as they are able to judge, on motion adjourned.

MEETING OF THE NEW BOARD. The new board consisting of W. L. Klutz, L. W. Coleman, Cornelius Kessler and J. A. Stewart having been duly qualified by Jno. M. Horah, Clerk of the Court, organized by electing W. L. Klutz chairman, who was qualified as such, and the board proceeded to business.

A number of accounts were presented, approved and ordered paid. Adam Brown, keeper of the poor reported the average number of paupers at the poor house during the month of November, 1890, to be 13, whites 10, colored 3. He also filed a statement of the expenses of keeping paupers, amounting to $82.97.

W. W. Kridler, sheriff, reported that he had collected up to date $4,775.00 of the taxes for the year 1890 and paid $3,500.00 to County Treasurer and deposited $1,275.00 in the Davis & Wiley Bank to the credit of the State.

John M. Horah reported to the board that he had collected a corporation tax of $25 from each of the following corporations: The Salisbury Ice company, The Piedmont Alliance Fair Association, The Enochville Flouring Mills and the Salisbury Shoe Manufacturing company.

W. A. Houck, member elect, of the county Board of Education took the prescribed oath of office and entered upon his duties as a member of the board.

A. A. Shepherd, Jno Moyle & Bro, Geo W Smith, David Haneline, Charles Kessler and the Mt Vernon Hotel bar were all licensed to retail spirituous liquors, wines, &c., in quantities not exceeding five gallons for the next six months.

G. Richards was licensed to sell malt liquors by wholesale in the town of Salisbury for six months. Jas M Monroe, J Sam'l McCubbins, W G Watson, Horatio Woodson, B C Arcy, D A Atwell and Jno F Ludwick, officers, elect, of Rowan county all appeared before the board, filed their bond and took the oath of office, as did a number of constables elect, from different townships in the county.

Jno M Horah, Clerk of the Court, and Horatio Woodson, Register of Deeds, each filed their official reports and exhibited County Treasurer and Sheriff receipts in full for the past year.

Adam M Brown was elected keeper of the poor for the ensuing two years. Jas F Robinson was elected Bridge Inspector for the ensuing two years.

Ordered that that part of the jail building used as a dwelling be repaired under the direction of Commissioner Klutz. Ordered that the Clerk notify J. W. Mauley, P. N. Heilig, John S. Henderson and John A. Ramsay to pay up all back rents for the offices now occupied by them and belonging to the court house, and also to notify them to vacate said office on or before Jan. 1st, 1891.

State News. Clinton, Conn. James C. Clenny, a young son of an Irish or Scotchman, son of Mr. Josiah C. Clenny, hurt one of his legs as he sprang with a cotton stalk. Inflation set in and his condition grew worse until the limb became totally dead and it became necessary to amputate it.

Newton, Ent. The Alliance of shoe factory somewhere in the county. We learn that the required amount of stock has been taken. As will be seen from the notice of the president, a meeting of the committee having charge will meet in Concord Dec. 6th to consider the location and other particulars.

Asheville Citizen. The divorced wife of Dr. Burgin, formerly in the employ of the Western North Carolina railroad living near Andrews, in Cherokee county, left her home Thursday, the only occupants of the house being a six year old child and an infant. When she returned the house and children had been consumed by fire. It is not known how the fire originated.

Greensboro Workman. The Synodical committee of the Synod of North Carolina, consisting of Messrs. Hall of Wilmington Presbytery, Melville of Mecklenburg, Sprunt of Albemarle, McNeill of Fayetteville, Hill of Orange, met in Dr. Smith's study this week, and made the division of time with the presbytery assigned to Rev. Dr. W. W. Smith as an additional Synodical Evangelist by which each of the six presbyteries get something near eight weeks each of his time for next year.

Daily Workman. On yesterday we referred to the fact that Mr. Gid. Morris of Raleigh was here for the purpose of meeting Mrs. Wood, of San Diego, Cal., an old sweetheart of his. They were engaged to be married 29 years ago. He went to the war and he heard that she was killed, and she married another man. In the meantime she had been married twice and he three times. Both are free now, however, and they are to be married after 29 years of waiting. She arrived here this morning and they went down to Raleigh together. Both were as happy and foolish as if they had never been married before.

Reds Growing Wild. OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 1.—A Bee special from Pine Ridge Agency says: The Indian police on duty a few hundred yards from the agency buildings dashed into Agent Rogers' office late Saturday night and said that a band of reds, who were inevitable unless they were given protection. All had received urgent to join the hostiles and go on the warpath with them. Agent Rogers sent them an extra guard of one hundred scouts but even this did little good. The Indian village country was taken away and Sabbath morning revealed the fact that over two thirds of the 3,000 who were here at noon had disappeared. The hostiles have decided to move their camp into "Bad Lands" and there await the coming of troops to capture them. They began moving there yesterday morning and by night all were hidden away in the region which the best scouts describe as being worse than the lava beds in which the Modocs took shelter. These "Bad Lands" began at the mouth of Wound Knee creek, which has so much been heard of lately and which is gathering a large number of reds, not without the ghost-dances started at this reservation. They run 110 miles northwest and about 50 miles east to west. It is an utterly barren region of precipitous canons and fantastic and ghostly formations. Few white men are acquainted with the region, the Indians, however, knowing it thoroughly. The fact that it is possible for the Indians when once established there as they are now to continue making raids on the settlers adjoining Bad Lands will certainly, it would seem, induce the soldiers to push into the region after this big band of reds, notwithstanding the fearful chances to be incurred. The scouts that brought the information concerning this later plan of the hostiles also said that the latter had just slaughtered 500 head of government cattle belonging to Gov. McElreath, of South Dakota. The scout says this beef being hauled in wagons and pack trains to the new camp in Bad Lands. Many wagon loads of flour and other provisions that have been stolen from the settlers were also seen hidden away in the region. A Brooksville man has just received a telegram from Gen. Ruger warning him that 300 lodges (about 1,000 warriors) of Cheyennes were coming from Cheyenne Agency to join the hostiles near here. The Sixth Cavalry, en route to Fort Meade, at Fort Meade, have been ordered to stop at Fort Still, where another ghost dance fever has broken out. This was the day set for the appearance of the new Indian Messiah, but so far as can be learned the children, who have hugged the delusion, have been disappointed. Turning Hawk, who keeps a store in Porempine, came in yesterday afternoon, and reported that the hostiles had raided his store, and taken nearly $1,000 worth of goods. A party of eight scouts, under Frank Gardner, chief government scout, have just started out to get further information, and very important developments are expected. The troops are still under orders to be ready to move on at a moment's notice.

Conservative Democracy. New York Star. During the only National Democratic Administration since the great War the progress of liberal and frugal government was impeded by a hostile Senate. There is strong ground that the Democratic President elected in 1892 will have the co-operation of a Congress Democratic in both branches, including a Senate ready to confirm worthy nominations and to assist sound American policy in dealing with foreign nations. Unless the Democracy fails to earn the continued confidence of the country, the change of Senatorial control will doubtless occur during the second half of the next Presidential term, if it shall not have been already accomplished in the first half. The prospect of undivided direction of National policy should operate to render Democrats not merely more industrious, but also more prudent. The greater the ultimate reward, the more essential circumspection as well as resolution in moving to obtain it. Since only by Democratic error can the rich prize be lost, let us make certain that no serious Democratic error be committed. The people have declared their abhorrence of Republican methods and their preference for the principles of Democracy. Their confidence given on the 4th November will be continued so long as the representatives of Democracy live up to Jeffersonian standards. If they fail to do that, or even if they outrun obvious public need and desire in governmental changes, they will cease to command popular approval. Conservatism is the guarantee of Democratic success.

Wade Hampton Shot. COLUMBIA, S. C. Nov. 26.—A telegram received here to-night states that Senator Wade Hampton, while out gunning on his favorite hunting grounds in Washington county, Miss., was accidentally shot by his son, McPherson Hampton. The son, it seems, fired towards his father, and wounded him in the head, one of the shot striking him in the eye. His injuries, however, are not believed to be serious, and it is not thought likely that he will lose his eye sight. The accident happened in the same locality where the Senator a few years ago lost one of his legs.

Gold and the Richmond Terminal. New York, Nov. 28.—At the annual election of the Richmond Terminal Co., on the 9th of next month, the complexion of the directory will be completely changed, five new members coming in. The names of the new directory are Jay Gould, Geo. Gould, Russell Sage, Abram S. Hewitt and R. A. Foster, the two last named gentlemen existing in the M. & E. N. special request.

The Democratic Opportunity. N. Y. Times. Senator John W. Daniel, in expressing his views on leading national questions to the Times' correspondent, says the recent victory means permanent Democratic ascendancy if they improve their opportunity; not if they do not. Continuing the Senator said: "The election rebuked Republican policies and measures. The force bill in elections, bismism and gag law in the House of Representatives, lending money to banks without interest, crippling our silver currency, extravagance in subsidies and pensions, bounties to the few, high taxes to the many, State Sectionalism—all these things have been rebuked and repudiated. The Republicans will have some chance to trim their sails in the last session of the 52d Congress which is about to convene, and the Democrats must propound their measures in the first session of the 51st Congress, which met December 1891. Then will be shaped the issues for the Presidential election of 1892.

"The issues in 1892," resumed the Senator, "will be tariff and currency foremost, they must go together. The tariff is one side of the question, that is, the amount of the tax; the currency is the other side, and the means of payment. It may be that the Federal election bill will come in too; but if that moribund measure is resurrected it will only be a mill stone around the neck of the Republican party."

Major Daniel has been quoted as opposed to Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination. Touching the question of the availability of candidates, he said: "I think it will be full time to discuss the nominee when we face the questions to be dealt with. So far as the tariff is concerned, Mr. Cleveland is in touch with the people. The McKinley bill, in its full results to the Republican party, has projected him into even greater prominence than he before possessed, great as that was. But the currency question will soon rise into equal prominence with the tariff, and if Mr. Cleveland should insist on the cessation of silver coinage as he did in 1885 and should urge the retirement of the paper currency [greenback] as his Secretary of the Treasury, Daniel Manning, did in his reports, it is quite evident that the Democratic situation would be complicated and endangered. We have $22 per capita. France has more than twice that much per capita. Our national bank circulation is being retired. Our silver problem is unsettled. I, I short, we must remember that the country has repudiated the Republican measures. We should look rather to the shaping of wise measures than the discussing of the candidates. If the Democracy proves equal to the occasion and can handle the tariff and the currency well, it can elect any good candidate in 1892. If it should unhappily both the business, as the Republicans have done, it may be unable to elect any one. The Republicans have become giddy with power in this Congress and lost their heads. Let our candidates," said the Major, "represent our measures. Take care of the measures, and the candidates will take care of themselves."
