EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS: To Congress: Give us more money...

Jay Gould has been telling funny stories again. Now let the people look out...

The country isn't crying for an extra session of Congress this spring...

It is hard to be a patriot and a partisan politician at one time and the same time...

This is the season for picking United States Senators...

The action of the British government in shifting one of the questions in dispute before the United States Supreme Court...

Did you ever notice that just as soon as a person gets the idea that he or she is absolutely necessary...

It is rather small business that some of the big newspapers are engaged in, in trying to throw ridicule upon these state legislatures...

To Postmaster General Wagnon: Why not abandon your postal telegraph idea...

The House of Representatives displayed the right spirit when it voted to discharge the committee on Rules from further consideration...

The Alliance members are expected to attend every meeting, whether they expect to do so or not...

Carolina Cry for Ficher's story

THE ALLIANCE RING

The Charlotte Chronicle is disturbed in account of the fact that the Alliance members in the Legislature...

A BLEZZARD IN EUROPE

Last Saturday and Sunday were blizzard days for the people of Europe. In France, Holland and Belgium...

A Good Plan

At the last meeting of Wake county Alliance a splendid plan was adopted. Hereafter the meetings will not be held in Raleigh...

READY FOR WAR

A bill has passed the legislature giving the Gov power to suppress the oyster pirates in the eastern sounds. Gov. Poole has applied to the Governors of South Carolina and Virginia...

SHOP STOPS

The Alliance Legislature is being itself vainly.

Why don't somebody say Col. Polk is a failure and that the Alliance will last one of the next days?

The farmers of this country are slowly getting up toward the top of the ridge where they ought to have been all the time.

The writer has always argued that the farmers should reform themselves first. All will agree that this is the proper thing to do...

A $5,000-a-year United States Senator living in a $1,000-a-year house in Washington does not sound right.

Alliance members are expected to attend every meeting, whether they expect to do so or not...

It is a great pity that Senator Ransom will hold his place four years longer. We could do without his services...

Washington Letter.

SENATOR TELLER - THE ELECTION BILL - FREE COINAGE BILL - OTHER ITEMS.

Correspondence of the Watchman.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19, 1903.

Senator Teller declares upon honor which has never been impeached, that his own and the silver republican Senators did not make a combination with the democrats to secure the passage of the free coinage bill...

The republican leaders are determined that the present shall be a continuation of the session of the Senate until the election bill shall have been voted upon...

Senator Van Dine stepped down for a moment yesterday without explanation. A good many Alliance people were satisfied with his action...
