

The editor of the Watchman was in the city on Monday. Mr. Benn, of this place, preached in Concord Sunday.

Mr. Adolphus Mauney, of Gold Hill, was in town last Tuesday.

Racings going on at the Fair grounds now every day by amateur racers.

The Fair is little more than a month off, are you ready with your exhibits?

Several more boys left here during the week for the different schools in the State.

Mr. T. F. Young left Monday night for the north to purchase fall and winter goods.

The Concord Fair commences next Wednesday. A good number of Salisbury people will attend.

Mr. D. P. Julian left Sunday night for the different markets to buy goods for his mercantile establishment.

The fairs all around seem to be quite in earnest this season and promise to be more of a success than ever.

Mr. M. A. Peperman, one of our club members, will hereafter get his mail at Rockwell instead of Heilig's Mill.

We hear of the critical illness of Dr. Lefor, in the lower part of the county. It is a young man in his profession.

Mr. De Bradley is in Concord practicing on the race track with his horse. He will run at the Fair there next week.

A pleasant party was enjoyed in Salisbury last Monday night by some of Salisbury's young ladies and gentlemen.

R. Lee Wright has gone north to purchase fall and winter goods, and will sell goods cheaper than ever sold in the city.

There was another wreck on the Western road yesterday, a freight train was wrecked near Marlow. No one was badly injured.

The directors of the Fair are notified to meet in the WATCHMAN office on Saturday the 10th instant. By request of the president.

We return thanks for tickets to the Canawha and Concord Fairs. The Canawha Fair will be held five days beginning the 20th of September.

Mr. F. H. Mauney, of Gold Hill, has cleared 150 acres of land in No. 7 township, Cabarrus county. This land has been made out for one hundred years.

Do you read the WATCHMAN? If you don't you ought to. Subscribe right now and get the best paper published in Rowan county and you will never regret it.

Mr. Ephraim Fisher sold the first new lease of cotton in Concord this year, 1st Monday. He sold it to Camison & Peizer and received nine cents per pound for it.

Mr. John Easton is now in northern markets selecting goods for his winter stock and will be glad to show his purchases to his many customers on his return.

The Watchman last week got out the best report of the wreck that has yet been published. It contained a full report of the witnesses before the jury besides much else. The article contained sixteen columns.

Col. Harry Skinner, the father of the sub-treasury scheme, will speak at the Concord Fair on Friday the 18th. Mr. Skinner is one of the brainiest men in the State says the Concord Standard, and asks all to hear him.

It is quite likely that Salisbury will have a daily paper about the first of October. Mr. Eldridge, of the Lexington Dispatch, together with J. R. Willard will run the paper. They have been at work this week securing all for the enterprise.

The delegates are back from the railroad meeting in Roanoke city. They are very much encouraged over the prospect of Salisbury getting the road; the road, however is not to be extended south just yet. But will come in the near future.

The WATCHMAN acknowledged the receipt of a handsome photograph of the Pilgrim Cornet Band, from their secretary. The work is nice and is appreciated by this office, and for which our thanks are returned. All wishing to see it can do so by calling at this office.

Stock Holders Meetings. The stockholders of the Piedmont Alliance Fair are requested by the directors to meet in the Court House the first Saturday in October, at 10 o'clock. This meeting is necessary in order to have a full success at the Fair this fall, and it is hoped that all will be present.

Announcement. Next week we will begin a thrilling serial story written by our brilliant fighting editor, Col. J. Allen Brown. It will run through about seven issues of the paper. The title of the story will be "Egg Culture, or How to Make Hens Lay Rapidly." Col. Brown will do his best on this story and it will be very interesting. After it is published it will be set to music and Col. J. P. Cook, of Concord, Cabarrus county, will set township rights. Now is the time to subscribe.

AMBLE HERE AND THERE.

The Growth of Rockwell—Prof. Rothrock's School—Gold Hill. Less than twelve months ago Rockwell station went into operation as a depot. Since that time it has been on the increase. It now has three stores and three dwelling houses, and several more are being erected. They are doing quite a paying business. The cutting and marketing of hickory wood is quite a lively industry. This item alone supplies many hands with labor. One thing at present detrimental to their prosperity is the mail arrangement. The post office is kept one mile from the station. These people have been trying to bring the office to the depot but so far have failed. This is a beautiful location for a town and prospects bid fair to see one soon.

BETHANY ACADEMY. To fulfill Jim Cook's prophecy we went to school at this place one day. It was the last day of the summer term. We felt comfortable; both the beauty of the place and the kindness of the esteemed Prof. Rothrock will make you feel at home. We got there early, and heard the opening exercises. This hour is spent in rehearsing Biblical knowledge. The entire school in concert repeated the books of both the old and new testament, the 15th and 23d Psalms entirely, and the great "Golden Rule," also a short prayer for the 521 Psalm. It is commendable that even the smallest in the school can repeat the books of the Bible. Jim Cook can't do it. We wonder how many schools in the county give lessons in this particular branch of study, and who will say it is not important?

GOLD HILL. Moving right along in its usual quiet way. It now has several stores. The thing is not doing much at present. You can see several new houses near the depot. It intends to try and get a house on its own. We find the people here in just as good humor to receive the Rockwell residents as they do in Salisbury. Rev. Sam Moyle, a popular young minister of this place, has just returned from a series of five weeks' preaching in Cabarrus county.

Charlotte's Second Presbyterian Church. Prof. W. H. Neave says: "I attended services in Charlotte's Second Presbyterian church last Sunday night. The fine well-trained choir began the worship by singing a magnificent Te Deum in 'old around' style of musical excellence and beautiful devotional cheerfulness. So-prana, alto, tenor and bass sang each in a beautiful solo in this fine composition, and all of these together with the chorists, were delivered in tones of pure, sweet, full, even and resonant quality, with fairly comprehensive delineation of the text. The organ support by Mr. Williams, would have been grand in a public hall, and was truly a model in being evolved from such an ill-conditional organ of an organ. The new Second Presbyterian church, now being erected, will cost $20,000, and when such a generous building fund can be raised, surely the strain of adding two more thousand to purchase a suitable organ would be light on such a wealthy church membership. Perhaps a stately edifice and cultured congregation, with their superb excellent pastor—Rev. Mr. Reed—and accomplished organist and choir conductor—Miss Addie Williams—without a first-class, modern grand organ, will resemble a beautiful face with the nose cut off. The grand organ—the most wonderful combination and noblest work of human ingenuity—belongs, exclusively to religion; hence there can be no valid excuse offered, to God nor man, by a church that spares in the cost of one, except bona fide poverty; neither the pretext of economy, nor the dark-minded gloom of bigotry—nor both in one—will pass current.

In the sermon, pastor Reed took the position that God makes only the germs of the adult in the infant, and that man is wholly responsible for the quality of his manhood. It was a topical, more than a textual discourse; his style was thoroughly earnest and self-possessed, and his subject-matter had a rare literary beauty, permeated with a vein of genial humor, that made his preaching extremely gracious, instructive and cheering."

County Commissioner's Meeting. The County Commissioners met last Monday and transacted the regular routine of business. One thing done was the settling of the Yadkin railroad tax between the different townships. The legislature decided that the tax accruing from the road should be apportioned to these townships as the commissioners should decide. Mr. Theo. F. Klutz is to be commended for the active part which he took in this matter. In making speeches for the assurance of this road he promised the people of the various townships to secure for them the tax of the road in their townships. This part he still sustained, and by hard work he secured for each township the amount of tax through which this road runs that voted subscriptions.

New Advertisements. See notice of Mrs. Chadwick's music school. Mr. A. L. Peeler has an administrator's notice in this issue. Read what E. Mas & Earhardt have to say this week.

Messrs. J. H. McKenzie and D. L. Watson have an administrator's notice in this issue. Don't fail to read the notice of the Teacher's Institute; it is important. See advertisement of the Durham Fertilizer Company. They are making several new brands of Fertilizers. Read what they say.

STATE NEWS.

Items Boiled Down to Save Space—From Mountains to Seashore. The State University opened with 255 pupils this year. Hunter Harris has been appointed assistant in mineralogy at the State University.

Mack Bess, a negro, was lynched, on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad, last Monday, for attempting to rape Mrs. Peterson. Her shriek gathered a large crowd in time to see the negro disappear in the bushes. They pursued and overtook him at once dangled his body from the end of a rope on a telegraph post.

Dallas Eagle: It seems that the Baptist Church don't want any of Uncle Sam's Revenue officers in here. At their Association every minister pledged himself not to preach in a church where such members belong. As a consequence, a couple of revenue officers were turned out of the church at Long Creek and Rev. Mr. Jackson has served notice that he will no longer preach at that place because the church refused to turn out its revenue officers.

Bethany Academy. The school closed at Bethany Academy last Monday. An error was made in a former issue concerning its closure. Our farmers have not done much farm work during the past two weeks. The weather being unfavorable.

Corn is coming up very well in this section, and a good crop is expected. The wet weather has caused cotton to shed some of its squares. Mr. John V. Foster has harvested more than one hundred and fifty cents of money wood to the depots at Rockwell and Gold Hill this season. The W. H. & F. M. Societies' entertainment, at St. Peter's last Sunday was a success. Rows, Brown and Rice were not present, but the crowd was large. A report from the factory shows that this society has contributed $20 for missions during the past year. Mr. Columbus E. Burnett, of Texas, is visiting at the home of his parents in this county. Mrs. David H. Johnson has returned from the health giving waters of Blowing Rock, which improved her health and she is better than ever.

The train run over a girl and killed her last Tuesday. Mr. Elias L. Rowan leaves next Monday for Roanoke College, to attend the next session at that institution.

Mr. J. M. Brady, who has been working for Mr. E. H. Hattie, in Salisbury, came home on business Monday evening.

Manning. Top and felder making is at hand. Some have already made. Fruit of all kind, and watermelons, are about paid out. Messrs. C. W. Sifford, and K. W. Sifford, and all earnings this week, and say that it is pretty good. Cotton is not opening yet.

Messrs. Sifford & Gardner will run the molasses factory at the Ross's Mill this season.

Everybody seems to be well pleased with the speaking in Salisbury last Tuesday.

The protracted meeting at Mt. Pisgah Methodist church, with Rev. A. J. Coburn, pastor, has been going on for the past week, with little or a good many converts.

Miss Sally Peeler, of Rockwell, N. C., and Mr. H. A. Beaver, of Davieville, Va., returned to their homes last week after visiting relatives in this neighborhood. Miss Fannie E. Beaver left last week for an extended visit to her two brothers and sisters near Ocean City.

The trustees of this district met last Saturday at Salem school house, and elected three men for school committee, which are as follows: W. H. Bass, D. F. Wise and J. H. Graham. Success to your valuable paper, September 14th 1891.

In Memoriam. CASSELL HALL, KNIGHTS PATRIOTS, 1 SALISBURY LODGE NO. 31. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted as expressions of the sense of this lodge. WHEREAS: An inseparable friendship has been felt to remain from earth on beloved brother, Joseph B. Gordon, deceased; That to the death of Brother Gordon in this Order has lost a faithful and beloved member, his family a kind and loving son, husband and father, and the community a public spirited citizen of sterling worth and integrity. Therefore, That the members of this lodge wear the honorary badge of mourning for one lamented brother, and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished his family with assurances of our sympathy and love, and that copies be furnished the papers of the town or publication. Respectfully submitted, Theo. F. KLUTZ, J. G. W. CLARK, G. W. CLARK, J. D. MCKENZIE, Cou.

The Colored People. The colored people are taking a lively interest in the Southern Exposition, which is to be held at the city of Raleigh, from October 1st to December 1st, 1891. They have organized in each Southern State, and are at work getting up exhibits showing what the race is doing for the industrial development of the South. This effort on their part shows to the world that they live in the South in peace and friendship with the whites, and that the great "ungainable" of a race problem is a haunting.

MINING DEPARTMENT.

Mining News Gathered in This and Other States. Mining is a safe business if pursued with the same care as in any other industry, banking, or any other legitimate pursuit. It is also a creator of wealth. It is claimed that the profit on a good silver mine, less the discovery, of good licks on the Pacific coast, amounts to over 10 percent per annum. The mine of the precious metals does not exchange its creative value from time to time as in other industries. The dollar is based on the surface of another dollar added to the wealth of the world.

It has been reported that the Carolina Queen, a very rich mine located in Burke county has been sold to capitalists.

Last year Cabarrus county produced $15,074 worth of gold, Stanly produced $8,912 worth, and Rowan $2,548 worth.

Mining as a business has not been profitable to many people, but the same can be said of the professions, the trades, farming, merchandising and everything else.

Active mining operations are reported from various sections of the State. From present indications, North Carolina will soon be second to no State in the Union. Development is all that is needed.

A great interest is now being taken in mining in Cabarrus county says the Standard. This fertile gold bearing region is being scoured in every direction for the precious metal not a little of which it has.

Mr. S. J. Warren has opened up three large veins of sulphur on Long Creek, about a mile north of the Long Creek gold mine. These veins were operated during the war by the Confederate Government, and it was from this source that much of the sulphur used by that Government was obtained.

Mr. Isaac Bates showed the Monroe Register a bar of gold, and output of the Howie mine, Union county, for a month's run. It was worth a little over ten dollars and was worth over $2,000. Mr. Bates is working only about twenty hands now, and the fact is demonstrated that this is one of the richest mines in the county.

Every once in a while says the Charlotte News, a rich find of gold is made in the pioneer fields section of Cabarrus county. Mr. J. C. Black was in the city yesterday with a white flat rock that weighed three pounds and was worth $100. One day last week, Mr. Black found a rock on the surface that panned out exactly $50 worth of gold.

Further west a force of miners has been at work on a richly situated mine on the Mt. Airy property, a few miles east of Salisbury, the King's Mountain News, and on Wednesday struck a vein of gold that an old English miner says will assay $1,000 per ton. The vein is several feet in thickness, of unknown depth, and the grains of yellow gold can be seen all through it.

Very few people know the extent and position of coalfields mining in North Carolina. The best mines in the world are in Macon county, a part of which are owned by Dr. L. L. Leno, who has a hundred a ton annually. Several valuable mines and deposits have been found in the coal fields of North Carolina. A heavy coal bed, several feet thick, is now being worked at Anderson, in the mountains of the State. The coal is now being used at Anderson, in the mountains of the State. The coal is now being used at Anderson, in the mountains of the State.

Teacher's Ins Title. Prof. C. C. Melver, State Ins Title Inspector, will, during the week beginning Monday the 21st inst., hold an Institute in Salisbury. The law requires all Public School Teachers to attend, and on failure to do so, they cannot be certified and allowed to teach. If the Public Schools are in session during the week, the law requires that all citizens attend, and it is desired that all citizens attend, and it is desired that all citizens attend.

Fun and Excitement. Jno. T. Patrick, the Secretary of the Southern Exposition to be held in Raleigh, N. C., during October and November, has hired for two months, four aeroplanes, two men and a woman, and there are to be daily ascensions, and parachute jumps, from the opening until the closing date of the Exposition. Besides this balloon feature many other attractions have been arranged, for Patrick believes in amusing the crowd as well as showing them a fine exhibit of the products of the South.

To Sub-Agents. There will be a meeting of the Alliance Business Agents of Rowan county in the Court House in Salisbury, September 18th at 10 o'clock a. m. All are requested to attend. Important business of our district. Come prepared to make out your fertilizer report for which this bill. J. C. BRIDGMAN, C. B. A.

Vocal Music. Mrs. Chadwick, who succeeds Mrs. Rump in her class, solicits patronage in Vocal Music, and will begin her term Thursday, September 10th, at Mr. N. P. Murphy's.

GLAD TIDINGS!

WHAT IS IT? Klutz & Rendleman want all the dried fruit, berries, etc., brought to Salisbury. We want you to know that we will give you as much for them as the market affords. Eighteen years ago we began business in this town and by always paying cash for what we bought and sticking to our motto, "The best goods for the least money," we have been compelled to enlarge our store-rooms until now we have six floors filled and packed with the most desirable goods.

SALISBURY. has ever seen. We have the latest styles of Dress Goods and are anxious for the ladies to see them. We are prepared to sell goods and will sell them cheaper than any other house in the place. Look at some of our prices: At our store you WILL GET THE R. & S.

All kinds of Gents' Furnishing Goods.—Always make our stores your headquarters, even if you don't want to buy, it will give us pleasure to show you our goods and tell you how cheap we will sell them. In our back lot you will find feed boxes for your horses. To the wholesale trade we offer special inducements. Yours anxious to serve, KLUTTZ & RENDLEMAN.

Leonard's "PARLOR QUEEN." I have for ten years been seeking terms by which I might be able to have an ORGAN constructed different from those which have been on the market, and I have at last attained the methods so earnestly sought.

THE SERVICES OF THE MOST SKILLED ORGAN-BUILDERS of the United States have been secured, and the proprietors of one of the most flourishing factories in the world have agreed to install me in my enterprise. The Organ bears the following name: LEONARD'S "PARLOR QUEEN."

WE SELL THE BEST PIANOS MADE. VISIT E. L. KIRKALL AND OTHER PIANOS.

The Following are a Few of the Many Important Advantages this Organ has over Others: It is better suited to cultivate the voice and much easier to sing with. It is easier to tune the violin and other stringed instrument with and saves the breakage of many strings. The response is so quick that the most rapid piano music can be performed on it. It is so easily pumped and blown that a five-year-old child can manipulate it. It is especially adapted to the Southern climate, and the keys are warranted not to stick.

It is sold on FIVE YEARS TRIAL. If you feel dissatisfied I agree to make it good free of charge or replace it with a new one. Write me for particulars and send me the WATCHMAN.

J. S. LEONARD, STATESVILLE, N. C.
