and other necessary work being done.

Jim Cook has got something up down at Albemarle, and he might just as well tell what it is. He goes down every three weeks.

A wreck occurred on the E. T. V. & G. road Monday evening. The engineer and a man stealing a ride were killed. Both engines were complete wrecks.

· Owing to the publication of the premium list of the Fair we have to leave out several communications, and can't give as many locals as we would like.

Wedding time is here. Mr. John Lingle, of Locke township, will be married Variety squashes. " this evening to a Mrs. Owen, of that vicinity. We learn that there will be one on factory hill Sunday morning.

engine at Dan River last Monday. Four cars and the engine went in the river, and a span of the bridge was torn down It was not the vestibule as was reported.

The past few weeks have been ones of destruction both to property and life over the world. Fires have been getting in their ravages in our country; Japan had an earthquake last week, in which 24,000 people were killed.

Mr. Chas. M. Brown, who for the past five years has been selling shoes for 5 lbs butter, J F Stancill, M. Bridge, 1st Schultz & Marsh, resigned his clerkship last Saturday evening and has accepted a position with the large shoe dealers, Wilson & Carr, of Washington, D. C. He left Sunday night for his new home.

Work on Streets Begun.

Work began on the streets last Monday morning. A force of 13 hands are grad ing, begining in front of A. Parker's store. and working in the direction of the foun- Col. jel.ics, tain. The streets are snak about 17 inches at the fountain. The dirt is hauled to the lower end of the square and used Jar jelly, Mrs L D Beaver, C. Grove, Ist in filling in. · Attention Veterans.

As proposed at the Fair on the 21st ult. the Confederate Veterans will Jeave Salisbury Tuesday, November 10th at olclock, a. m. for the Southern Exposition, on cars that will go through to Raleigh without change. Returning will leave Raleigh on Friday.

Fare for round trip on realroad $2 60 expenses in Raleigh, $1.00; total for al $3.60. Arrangements have been made Col. preserves, Miss Mand Beard, Salisfor rooms in Raleigh, and the old order, 'Four days rations in your haversack," a Col. preserves, Mrs D C Bradshaw, Rusbadge, blanket and a towel will complete your outfit.

Two More Fires.

Fixes are getting too alarmingly fre- Fruit cake, Mrs A A Bishop, quent. Last Sunday night just as the people were returning from church the was at once seen, it burned so rapidly. It occurred in the barn of Mr. John A. Boyden. From the appearance of the blaze the fire originated in the hay. Jelly, Nothing is known of the cause.

At 7:15 on the next evening the dreaded demon was again announced. Green apples, G H Koon, Salisbury, This time it proved to be in the stable Grape wine, B II Owen, of Capt. T. B. Beall, in the west side of town. The fire is supposed to have originated in they hay loft. This stable being some distance from the fire companies' house the building was very nearly destroyed before the reels got there. The building was a total loss.

Owing to the situation each time no other buildings eaught. Two cases occurring very nearly alike naturally lead the people to think that it is the work of an incendiary. It is reported that the Display native grapes, 59 varieties, T P town is full of tramps, and many think them the guilty ones. Whoever they are they should be caught, for he is undoubtedly worse than a murderer who Col. wild flowers, Miss Ellen T Julian, can render the owner of a house as dependent as the fowls of the nir. We don't like to think that anyone would be so mean, but if such is proven we and all deserves.

All persons indebted to McCubbins & McCanless for fertilizers will please call and settle as they are compelled to have Col. handy perennials, T P Johnston, Salthe money to meet their notes to the company.
