

Carolina Watchman. LOCAL THURSDAY, DEC. 10, 1891.

Our "want" column has become to be a special feature. Watch it. Mr. Bruce Linster is visiting friends in the city. Work commenced on the street west of the fountain, last Tuesday. Mr. Earnest Brown is home from Davidson College to spend the holidays. Grip is raging pretty severely in town. In other places it is the same thing. Mrs. L. H. Rothrock and daughter, Miss Carrie, were in the city Tuesday. Chickens and eggs are scarce and are bringing a good price. Eggs twenty cents per dozen. Several communications were crowded out last week; their age will render them unwieldy this week. Owing to the death of Mrs. Brown, the grandmother of our printers, we don't get out on time this issue. The Presbyterian church is about finished so far as the brick work goes. The roof is being put on with fine slate. A jar of pickles and a ladies cloak was left on the floor ground which the owner can get by calling on Capt. John Beard. Messrs. Jno. Culp, Bennie and Dave Martin, of Gold Hill, went down to work in the iron mines of Alabama, last Monday. Mr. Calvin D. Hulsebosser, of Rockwell, killed a live of bees a short while ago which netted him 60 pounds of rich honey. Mr. Thomas Murr and mother, of Chester, S. C., arrived in the city last night to attend the bedside of Mrs. Charlotte Brown. Mr. Joseph A. Trekler and Miss Asia Earnheart were married Wednesday night, at the home of the bride, by Rev. C. B. King. Our merchants have their Christmas goods all in and one will feel young again by simply looking over the toys in the show windows. Mr. Boyden Klutz, of Blowing Rock, N. C., who has been visiting for a few weeks at Rockwell and vicinity, went home Monday. Mr. Charlie Berger, of Rimer, N. C., passed through here on his way to Illinois, Monday. He goes in search of work with better pay. M. S. Brown closed his doors to-day and made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Assets about $28,000, liabilities about $22,000. Mrs. J. C. Russell, of Big Lick, Tenn., who has been visiting friends and relatives in Rowan and Cabarrus counties, left for her home in Tennessee last Monday. "Texas on Wheels" will be at the depot the 12th and 14th of this month. Don't forget to see this marvelous sight, but leave something of the products of Texas. A slight change of schedule went into effect again last Sunday on the Richmond & Danville. Only a few minutes is the change, but how long it will remain is a question. We begin sending out bills this week to all those in the County who are due us for the paper. We don't want to go to this expense for nothing. Please pay up promptly. Mrs. C. B. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Watts, together with their daughter, Miss A. G. Watts, arrived in the city Wednesday night and will spend a few days at the parsonage. Messrs. H. & L. Wright made an assignment last Friday. The assignees are L. H. Clement and Lee S. Overman. Liabilities $13,000, assets $11,000. We are sorry to learn of the death of J. F. Merrill, editor of the Press and Carolinian, Hickory, N. C. He died Monday of pneumonia. He was a fine journalist. The paper that the WATCHMAN is now printed on is bad stuff. The company it was bought from made it by a new process as an experiment. It will soon be out and then we will give our readers good paper again. We have received a nice, daily calendar from the Pope Manufacturing Co., makers of the famous Columbia bicycles. This is the seventh year of its publication. We return thanks for this nice present. We publish on the outside of this paper an article from the Keeley Institute. This is a reformatory for drunkards. It is doing good work. Read the testimonials of those who have been cured of the drink habit. Furnell Elliott, of Hickory, shot himself through the heart last Monday. He was working on the depot at Newton, where the deed was committed. It is not known whether it was a case of suicide or not, but such is the supposition. The doors of H. & L. Wright's clothing store were opened last Saturday and things are being sold at cost. If you want a bargain you had better go at once. They had a large stock of well selected goods. The assignees are Lee S. Overman, of Hickory, and Miss Carrie Holmes, and Messrs. Dave Gaskill, Peter Beaird and Will Lindsay. Mr. R. Hines, Jr., gave a reception to Mr. J. H. Ramsey and wife, to-day, at his home in Gold Hill. They went down on the noon train, accompanied by Miss Lillie May Branton, Miss Carrie Holmes, and Messrs. Dave Gaskill, Peter Beaird and Will Lindsay. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castorol

A Mr. Coon, formerly of Rowan county, but now of the wheat belt of Texas, is paying his old home a visit. He called at our office immediately for a copy of the Oracle demands, after getting here. He wants something to stand by him in his arguments. He is an Alliancesman from the birth place of the Alliance.

Quite an exciting time occurred at the depot Wednesday. A negro working in one of the barber shops stole a girl from Livingstone College and they tried to get off on the noon train. Two of the frogs came up in a carriage and took the girl and the sheriff took the boy and lodged him in jail. The scheme didn't work. All the friends of Messrs. H. & L. Wright and M. S. Brown regret their failure very much. They are energetic young men but the times are too hard. The clothing business is very uncertain when there is short crops. But with their energy and business capacity they will pull through and succeed yet. You can't keep a working man down. Prof. Neave gave an impromptu musicale at his home last Saturday night. No special pieces were taken to make this more interesting than any of his predecessors, but such thorough musical training as one would receive at the school of Mr. Neave would need no special practice to render a pleasant evening, and this one was not an exception to the general run of these entertainments.

The Lutheran church was crowded last Sunday night to hear the Rev. Mr. Schreiner. He is a young man of sound training and by his lecture made some converts for the foreign missionary cause. All were well pleased with his talk and hope to see him with his wife and family in the future. He is spending some time with friends and old acquaintances.

A grand monument was erected Tuesday, in Oak Grove cemetery, to the memory of the late J. J. Bruner, so long the editor of this paper. It is twelve feet high and is made from Noversville granite by C. B. Webb, of Statesville. Watch on ye mighty tower, ye have have beneath your base the exalted remains of one who was held in the highest esteem in the hearts of his fellowmen. You guard the place where sleeps a man.

The First Mile Post. The WATCHMAN is nearly 60 years old. It has just passed the first mile post under the present management. The general depression has affected its progress just as it has many other enterprises. But for the past twelve months it has been slowly crawling up the ladder.

The WATCHMAN thinks it ought to have a great many more readers in Rowan and all adjoining counties than it has. As a business paper it has tried to treat all of our people with fairness. A program of the Alliance in the 5th and 7th Congressional districts it has tried to be useful. Its columns have been open for the publication of all matters of Interest and value.

To our friends and patrons everywhere we return thanks. To our advertising patrons in Salisbury and elsewhere we are grateful, and hope to merit a continuance of the same. Now let us start out with renewed vigor and run the subscription list up to double what it now is before year's end. Double what it now is before year's end. Double what it now is before year's end. Friends, go to work.

Meeting of Commissioners. The board of County Commissioners met last Monday. The mill board was present. Sheriff Monroe presented his bonds to the Commissioners, with S. H. Wiley, R. J. Holmes and W. Smith as sureties. They were approved by the board and the bonds ordered registered.

County Treasurer J. Sam'l McCubbins, presented his bond to the amount of $25,000, with R. J. Holmes, J. S. McCubbins, S. H. Wiley, V. Wallace and Theo. Ruebbaum as sureties. This bond was accepted and ordered registered. Clerk Watson filed his bond of the sum of ten thousand dollars, with R. J. Holmes, J. S. McCubbins and D. R. Julian as sureties. His bond was accepted and ordered registered.

D. A. Atwell, Coroner, filed his bond of $2,000, in the sum of two thousand dollars, with H. N. Woodson and J. P. Tompkins as sureties, which was accepted and ordered registered. H. N. Woodson, Register of Deeds, filed his bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with S. H. Wiley and W. Smith as sureties. This bond was also accepted and ordered registered.

B. C. Arey, County Surveyor, filed his bond in the sum of one thousand dollars with Kerr Craig and Theo. F. Klutz as sureties. The bond was accepted and ordered registered. A. M. Brown, keeper of the County Home, reported 21 inmates in the county's care, 11 are white and 10 black. The outlay of the county during the last month in food, clothing, medicine, etc., has been about $250.

All the unpaid insolvent taxes of the late C. C. Kridler and those of W. W. Kridler are turned over into the hands of J. M. Monroe for collection. J. M. Monroe reported that he had collected taxes to the amount of $5,751, and that he paid the County Treasurer $1,084, and paid into the bank $1,667 to go to the State of North Carolina. Several appropriations were made to outside paupers.

MINING DEPARTMENT. Mining News Gathered in This and Other States.

"Mining is a safe business if pursued with the same care and industry as merchandising, banking, or any other legitimate pursuit. It is also a creator of wealth. It is claimed that the profit on gold and silver mining, since the discovery of gold in California, has averaged 100 per cent. over the cost of the property. This is not true, but the metals do not exchange as readily. What he takes from the earth he has to put in his pocket. The dollar he brings to the market is another dollar added to the wealth of the world."

The Ohio company which bought the old Barringer mine in Stanly county last summer, began work last Wednesday. Capt. C. F. Burns is superintending the work. The mine will be worked extensively as soon as the necessary preparatory work can be done. This is one of the richest mines in the State and we may expect to hear big reports from there soon. The men in charge are thoroughly acquainted with all manner of mining.

The Colorado mine is on a boom now. Stock in the company is now selling at an average of 150 per cent. Only a few days ago three men from New Jersey came down and went to these fields to work for gold in that rich country. The present owners are doing some extensive work to advertise the gold crop in North Carolina.

The Carolina Iron, Mining and Investment company was organized with a capital stock of $1,000,000, in shares of $10 each. The property consists of the magnetized iron mines near Danbury, Stokes county. This is the richest mine in the South. Only a limited number of the shares are for sale.

Deaths. Died Thursday morning at 1:30, Mrs. Charlotte Brown, a well known and respected lady of this city. She was 60 years old at her death, which was caused by a complication of diseases. Her remains will be buried to-morrow evening in the Lutheran graveyard. Mrs. Brown leaves nine children to lament their loss.

Little Katie May Peeler, daughter of Julius Peeler, was born September 24th, 1885, and departed this life after a long and painful illness, November 3d, 1891. She received injuries on May the 30th, when her clothes caught while building a fire, from which she died. The parents have the sympathies of the whole community.

Bethany Academy. Mr. Robert Smith has decided to stay with us until Christmas. Grace Reformed church had a missionary sale last Saturday. Miss Mattie Hulsebosser is spending a few days with her sister, near Concord. The school of the academy is moving on quite well. More than sixty scholars have been enrolled in the past two weeks. Many of our farmers have sold a large amount of hickory wood, and are thus enabled to hold on to some of their cotton.

The Rockwell Alliance store has quite a large trade last night. She is getting in new goods every week. A certain man in the neighborhood of one of our farms, this year which he sold last month after paying for the game, pecking, and other expenses of raising, etc., had one dollar left. So he nearly lost his labor. A very interesting railroad meeting was held in Morgan township last Monday evening. The speakers were Mr. J. H. Holmes, Mr. W. M. P. Osborne and Rev. G. H. Cox were the speakers. Mr. E. R. C. Bambley has bought three fine horses for which he paid $1,800. He has been and is still preparing his farm for stock raising. Mr. Bambley also speaks of building a roller-shedding mill at Rockwell. It is probable that a switch will be built on the line of the Yorklin road, near Bethany Academy. Gold Hill is still moving up. Another new house has gone up recently.

The Bird Law. An act for the protection of birds in certain counties. Section 1st. Any person who shall trap, net or band partridges or quail in any of the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus, Catawba, Davidson, Lincoln, Lenoir, Granville, Northampton and Mecklenburg without having obtained permission from the owner of said lands shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before any justice of the peace of said counties, shall pay a fine of ten dollars, said fine to be applied to the public school fund of said counties, or imprisoned not more than five days for each offense. Sec. 21. That this act shall be in force from and after its passage. Ratified the 27th day of February, 1892.
