The Conference Platform.

The following is a correct copy of the platform a topted at St. Louis by the labor conference:

the general government only; a full private; and without the use of bank- mer. ing corporations; a just and equitable menes of circulation, at a tax not to exceed two per cent, as set forth in the sub-treasury plan of the Farmers' Alfinnce, or some better system; also, by payments in the discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

commune of silver. b. We denland the amount of circulating medium to be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita. v. We demand a graduated income

d. We believe that the money of the treasury should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people; Life is made up of littles; death is what and hence we demand all National and remains of them all. Day is made up State revenues shall be limited to the necessary expenses of government, community and honestly administered. e. We demand that Postal Saving banks be established by the governof the people and facilite exchange.

proval the following: The land, innot be monopolized for speculative purposes, and alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All lands now held by railroads and other coporations in excess of their actual needs and all lands now owned by aliens should be recinimed by the Government and held for actual settlers only.

TRANSPORTATION.

3. Transportation being a means of defence and public necessity, the Government, should own and operate roads in the interest of the people.

a. The telegraph and telephone, like the postal system, being a necessity for the transmission of news, should be owned and operated by the government in the interest of the people.

While some parts of the above address may seem at a mere glance to make partisan political distinctions, yet upon careful study one will clearly see that it is non-partisan, and further, will be impressed with the truth of its promises, and the ability of the comunittee who framed it. It was adopted with only a few dissenting votes, and the platform was adopted unanimously. and received with great applause. The conference having completed its work as a representative body, and adjourned

His Girl Wanted Him. to Bring a Receipt.

Mr. Amos Heath, of Lenoir county, was up before United States Commissioner Perry Wednesday week charged with retailing whisky without license. There was no evidince against him and he was discharged. He asked Commis-Perry to give him a receipt to that he got clear. Mr. Perry told him no receipt was needed. He left but soon returned and insisted on having a receipt. United States Aztorney Cook, who was present, told him that his liberty was the only receipt he needed, but as will be seen Mr. Cook was mistaken-Mr. Heath did need a receipt bad. A friend of Mr. Heath went to Mr. Perry and take him that Mr. Heath was engaged to he married soon and his girl had told! him if he didn't bring back a receipt showing that he was clear she would not marry bim-she didn't want to marry a man who might be carried off to jail a month or so after marriage. In view of Mr. Heath's dire necessity a receipt was given him signed by Mr. Perry, as commissioner of the United States, and Mr. Cook, as attorney of the United States. - Kinston Free Press.
