Mr. James M. Bradshaw, for several years a fireman on the Western road, committed suicide last Friday night by taking three vials of laudnum. He went to his room at Mrs. Joseph Gordon's, where he was boarding, about nine o'clock and drank the fatal drug. Afterwards he went down and told the family of what he did. Drs. Whitchead, Trantham and Dorsett were summoned, but their efforts to save him were futile. He died about 2:15 Saturday morning. He was asked before he became unconscious why he wished to die but positively re fused to tell. Several rumors are afloat that are not worth publishing.
