When you see a man in wye, Walk right up and say 'hullo!" Say "hullo," and "how d'ye dol" "How's this world a usin' you!" Slap a feller on the back, Bring your hand down with a whack, Waltz right up and don't go slow, Grin an' shake an' say "hullo,"

Is he clothed in rags? O, no! Walk right up an' say "hullo!" Rags is but a cotton roll Just for wrapping up a soul; An' a soul is worth a true, Hale an' hearty "how dy'e do!" Don't wait for the crowd to go, Walk right up and say . hullo!"

When big vessels meet, they say, They salute and sail away. Just the same are you an' me, Lonesome ships upon a sea; Each one sailin' his own jog For a port beyond the fog, Let your speaking trumpet blow, Lift your horn and cry "hullo!"

Say "hullo" an' "how dy'e do!" Other folks are good as you. W'en you leave your house of clay, Wanderin' in the Far Away, W'en you travel through the strange Country t'other side the range Then the soul you've cheered will know Who ye be an' say "hullo!"
