THE NOMINEES
 Of the State Convention—Four Belong to a Secret Order—The Ocala Platform Honored.

Correspondence of the Watchman.

We are in the same condition the little boy was the calf run over, this week. We have nothing to say. Our high living in the city of oaks was more than our frail body could stand. We returned home Friday night sick, and charged it up to various causes, loss of sleep on the way to Raleigh, loss of sleep while there, the change from cheap living to that of high, the crowded atmosphere, the hubbub and the noise. The only thing that kept me from getting sick in Raleigh was looking at some of the mugwumps when Elias Carr was nominated. Some of them looked like their daddy was dead and they had just heard it when they had to rise and swallow the Ocala platform, but when they saw their plaid trust campaign go down and that campaign of the Farmers' Alliance elevated they looked worse than I imagine the followers of Goliath, of Gath, did when David knocked the light out of him with a rock, and I was sorry for Major General, Dr. Squire W. M. Robbins when he read the platform, for he looked like I think I did last week when I took a mixture of salt, castor oil, Hubbard, concentrated eye soap, mustard liniment and some other little things I can't remember. I am not surprised at some of the large papers saying they like the ticket tolerably well and that it was the best that could be done under the circumstances. If they could have bulldozed the Farmers' Alliance and got in a plaid trust governor and a few men of that stripe, it would have been a fine ticket. Some of our Blackstoners and some large weekly papers are opposed to secret societies and say they should all be indicted. Now is your time gentlemen to try you. A bad Stephen's game. Your next governor will belong to a secret society that can dictate the offices of this State, and he holds an important office; you will have a secretary that belongs to a secret society which numbers 90,000 in this State and getting stronger each week; you will have for superintendent of public instruction a man that belongs to a secret society whose members are the men that have created the wealth of this country. They pay the taxes, they elect the rulers and they intend to have something to say about who they shall be, and the sooner the men who are fighting the Alliance and lying about them make up their minds to submit to it the sooner their digestive organs will get in good condition.

I can tell an Alliance hater wherever I see him. He looks woe-begone and reminds me of a picture, before using, in Dr. Jones' medical almanac.

Well, you will have for treasurer a man that holds a high office in the strongest secret society the world ever saw or ever will see, and as for auditor I don't know who you will have. He is not elected. After the election he will tell you more about him. Of course the man who was nominated is too nice a man to run on such a platform. While it was being read his face showed that he could not stand anything like that, and I would not if I were in his situation. He is away up there in that healthy country, and to sell out and go to Raleigh and get on

CRIME OF 1873.

How the Demonetization of Silver Robbed the People.

Up to 1873 there was free coinage of both gold and silver. Prior to that year any owner of either gold or silver bullion might take the metal to the United States Mint and have it coined into legal tender money, whereas, at present, only the owner of gold is so privileged. This law prohibiting the free coinage of silver, has resulted in a compound crime. First, the arbitrary depreciation of the price of silver, and the appreciation of the price of gold. Second, in the contraction of the volume of money necessary to transact the business of the country and the resulting depreciation of property-value. This, to be sure, looks simple enough, and is regarded by the average man as unworthy of special notice. To tell him that up to 1873 the silver in a gold dollar was worth 103 cents in gold, while now it is not worth more than 72 cents; that gold which was worth 147 cents in silver, is merely that and nothing more. But once let him clearly understand that the depreciation of silver, consequent to the appreciation of gold—brought about by a law-made market—was accompanied by a corresponding depreciation in the value of all property within the jurisdiction of that infamous law, and he will then learn that the demonetization of silver, which reduced by more than one-half the property of the debtor class, while more than doubling the wealth of the creditor class, was the most heinous crime ever committed by a corrupt government against an innocent and unsuspecting people.

Old Party Inconsistency Graphically Shown Up.

Is it not a fact that one Democrat in Congress voted against the infamous contracting system proposed by Hugh McCollough in 1866?

Is it not a fact that the Democrats in Congress voted against the bill to suspend the destruction of the greenbacks in 1865?

Is it not a fact that it is about time the people were looking after their own interests?

Is it not a fact that the Democratic and Republican parties occupy about the same position on all matters relating to the currency and bonds?

Is it not a fact that the eastern Democracy has dictated to the western and southern Democracy for the last twenty years?

Is it not a fact that there is but little difference, if any, between the two old policies of the Democratic and Republican parties?

Is it not a fact that New York holds the key to the situation, and that Wall street holds the key to New York, and that the money devils hold the key to rob the toilers?

Is it not a fact that all kinds of property is lower while money is dearer?

Is it not a fact that contraction of the currency has caused it?

Is it not a fact that both of the old parties are responsible for it?

Is it not a fact that times are harder than ever before since the war?

Is it not a fact that the laboring people are fools for fighting each other to furnish fun and occupation for the politicians?

Is it not a fact that it is time we should cease these bickerings and division among ourselves and act together in the year of our Lord 1892?—W. S. Morgan, in Wheel Enterprise.

Condition of Southern Agriculture.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., spoke of his recent Southern tour to-day. Among other things he said:

"I am not a pessimist, but during my visit to the South I was most painfully impressed with the appalling condition of agriculture. The depression of the farming interests in the South is truly alarming. Cotton has been king of the South, but the king has not only lost his throne but has become a beggar. The farmers are in debt and are growing more and more hopeless. Negroes are crowding into towns more rapidly than whites, and they loaf about and fall into vice and rascality. The South is the agricultural garden spot of the world, and when agriculture fails to pay there is something wrong."

Democratic Calamity Howlers.

According to the census bulletin of July 29, 1891, the mortgage debt on the farms and homes of the United States has reached the enormous sum of twenty-five hundred and sixty-five million dollars ($2,565,000,000). According to census figures the interest on this debt paid every year by the five States of Alabama, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Tennessee is $67,505,929.

The bulk of this debt is in the Mississippi Valley, and it is worthy the attention of every one in the Valley when the Harrison administration, through its Bureau of Agriculture, tells us that we are "overproducers" and that our products must therefore go lower.

But what are to do about it? We owe this enormous debt and it bears an enormous annual interest. The census shows that in two such States as Ohio and Kansas over one-third of our farmers are homeless and landless already. If we do not pay this debt, principal and interest, there will not be 10 per cent. of freeholders among the voters of the Mississippi Valley in the next ten years.—St. Louis Republic.

All the year round, you may rely upon Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify the blood and invigorate the system. It's not like the sarsaparilla, that are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May. The "Golden Medical Discovery" works equally well at all times, and in all cases of blood-taints, or humors, no matter what their name or nature.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, because you only pay 25¢ for good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you. Can you ask more?

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion. It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

The "Discovery" cures all Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, as Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, White Swellings, Hip-joint disease and kindred ailments.

The Congressional Record.

Some interesting facts are connected with this official gazetteer of the proceedings of Congress. Altogether, the publication of the Congressional Record makes more type setting and press work than half a dozen ordinary papers in the United States. It is some times from 100 to 125 pages of solid matter, which would make an octavo book of 400 to 500 pages. It requires an enormous amount of type to get out the Record. A new dress is procured at the beginning of about every other Congress—every four years, and sometimes every two years. A new dress means over 100 tons of type—many times more than there is in a dozen of the larger printing offices, including type of all grades. The Record uses but three kinds of type—long primer, nonpareil and brevier. The body of the Record is set up in brevier, bold face, solid. Extracts are set in nonpareil. Some announcements and a little other matter is put in long primer. The bulk of newspaper matter in the daily press is in nonpareil or minion, so that the Record has her body matter in a little larger type than the newspapers use on an average. It is printed on good heavy paper.

About 12,000 copies are published. Each member of the House gets about twenty-seven, and each Senator about forty-seven copies daily. These they have mailed regularly from the government printing office to those they wish to have them. Some of them are preserved and bound at the end of the session, all free of cost. A new dress of type for the Record costs in round figures $73,000. It costs probably $3,000 to $5,000 to give a first class daily newspaper a news dress. The type came from a foundry in Chicago, and filled 383 boxes, averaging a weight of 115 pounds. By purchasing in such large quantities, prices are made very low. The nonpareil costs, in round figures, forty-three cents; the brevier thirty-six cents; and the long primer thirty-one cents a pound net. This is a considerable reduction from the customary prices. The old type is sold at what the public printer can get. It is usually about half worn when sold, and ordinarily commands about five cents a pound more than the metal is worth. Many newspapers in the country have given a new dress from the old dress of the Congressional Record. A two-year-old dress of the Record is ordinarily not worn more than that used for twelve months in a country office, as there is so much in use here, and then everything is stereotyped.

The African Methodist Episcopal church's proposition to go into the international shipping trade with a capital of $300,000 is unique. The idea is to establish a line of steamships and open up a line of trade between New York, Baltimore, Charleston or New Orleans and the west coast of Africa. The profits of the venture if there are any, are to go to the church. The ships, of course, are to be manned by negroes. The fund proposed would just about pay for one steamer, strong enough, probably, to run from Savannah to Beaufort by the inland route.
