Section 1. The representatives of he democratic party of the United States in national convention assembled re-affirm their allegiance to the principles of the party as formulated by Jefferson and exemplified by a long llustrious line of his ancestors of democratic leadership from Madison to Cleveland. We believe that public welfare demands that these principels be applied to the conduct of the federal government through accession to power of the party that votes them; and we solemnly declare that the nece of a return to these fundamental principles of free, popular government based on home rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now when the tendency to centralize all money power at the federal capital has become a menace to the reserved rights of the States that strikes at the very roots of our government, and under the conscitution as framed by the fathfathers of the republic. Sec. 2. We warn the people of our common country, jealous for the preservation of their free institutions that the policy of the federal control of elections to which the republican party has committed itself, is fraught with the gravest dangers, scarcely less momentous than would result from a revolution practically establishing monarchy on the ruins of the republic It sfrikes at the North as well as the South and injures the colored citizen even more than the white; it means a horde of deputy marshals at every polling place armed with federal power, returning boards appointed and controlled by federal authority, the people in the several States, the subjugation of the colored people to the control of the party in power and the reviving of race antagonisms now happily abated, of the utmost peril to the hold of the Senate.

Such a policy, if sanctioned by law would mean the dominance of a self perpetuating oligarchy of office holders, and the party first entrus el with its machinery could be dislodged from power only by an appeal of the reserved right of the people to resist oppression which is inherent in all self government communities. Two years ago this revolutionary policy was emphatically condemned by the people at the polls; but in contempt of that verdeclared in its latest authorative utterance that its success in the coming elections will mean the enactment of despotic control over elections in all States. Believing that the preservadefeat of this policy of legalized force and fraud, we invite the assistance of we pledge the democratic party, if it one of the chief agricultural States of the West there appears a real estate Of the Chicago Convention as Officially mortgage debt averaging $105 per capita, and that sinfilar conditions are shown to exist in other agricultural exporting States. We denounce a policy which fosters no industry so thirely as it does that of the sheriff.

Sec. 4. Trade interchange on the asis of reciprocal advantage to the countries participating in a time-honored doctrine of the d mocratic faith. but we denounce the sham reciprocity which juggles with the people's desire for enlarged foreign markets, a freerexchange by pretending to establish trad relations for a country whose articles of export are almost exclusive agricultural while erecting a custom house barrier of prohibitive tariff taxes against the richest countries of the world, when they stand ready to take our entire surplus of products and to exchange there for commodies which are necessary and are comforts of life among our own people.

Sec. 5. We recognize in trusts and combinations, which are designed by capital to secure more than their just share of the joint product of eapital! and labor-a natural consequence of prohibitive taxes, which prevent the free competition, which is the life of honest trade, but we believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and we demand the right enforcement of laws made to prevent and control them. together with such further legislation in restraint of their abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

Sec. 6. The republican party, while professing a policy of reserving the public lands for small holdings by actual settlers, has given away the people's heritage until now a few railroads and non-resident aliens, individual and corporate, possess a larger area-than that of all one farms between the two seas. The last democratic administration reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the republican party touching the public domain and reclaimed from corporations and syndicutes, alienated and domestic, and restored to the people nearly one hundred million acres of waluable land to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citiz ns, and we pledged ourselves to continue this policy until every acre of and so unlawfully held shall be reclaimed and restored to the people. Sec. 7. We denounce the republican legislation known as the Sherman act of 1890, as a cowardly makeshift, fraught with possibilities of danger in the future which should make all its supporters, as well as its author, anxious for its speedy repeal; we hold to the use of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be equal intrinsic and exchangeable value or to be adjusted by international agreement or by such sateguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of any dollar at all times in the market and in thepayment of debts; and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with gold and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of the farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenceless victims of unsta-

Sec. 8. We recommend that the proibitive ten per cent. tax on State bank issues be repealed.

Sec. 9. Public offce is a public rust. We re-affirm the declaration of the democratic national convention of 1876 for the reform of civil service, and we call for the honest enforcement of all laws regarding the same. The nomination of a president as in the last republican convention by delegates consisting largely of his appointeesholding office at his pleasure is a scandalous satire upon free popular institutions and a startling illustration of the method by which a president may gratify his ambition.
