The thing to do is to keep in the middle of the road.

By helping your local paper you help yourself. Try it.

EDMOND EMMONG, the ossified man, is dead. We suppose he died hard.

The sugar trust is getting in its work. If you have not felt its power, you will soon.

THE B. CASE was last Tuesday nominated for governor of Indiana by the republican State convention.

HARMONY is the watchword. But a fellow don't feel very harmonious when he has been badly treated.

ANY person in need of a presidential boom can get one cheap by applying to David B. Hill, of New York.

DON'T waste your breath advocating measures if you intend to desert them, if your party does not take them up.

A COMMITTEE has been appointed to notify Grover Cleveland of his nomination. It is very likely that he will accept.

EVERY one of the delegates to Chicago from the State of Oregon were paternal bankers. That is what is ruining the country.

GOOD bills have been offered by reform congressmen in Washington, but they cannot be passed until all the old fossils are left at home.

THE people must be educated. As it is, five in every hundred rule the other ninety-five because the other ninety-five are uneducated.

PRESIDENT HARRISON yesterday appointed Foster, of Illinois, as Secretary of State, to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Blaine.

THE greatest mistake the farmers have made is in not kicking sooner. But now that you know kicking is necessary, go at it like a man.

NEARLY eight hundred reform papers have been started in this country in the past eight months. Do you think the movement is going to die?

DID any farmer or laborer ever earn four times as much as his expenses on his farm or at the work bench? That is what the Bell Telephone Company is doing.

GOOD country roads are the most important local matter. Our people should think more about good roads than about who will be elected constable or register of deeds.

THE reform movement has sustained a great loss in the death of President Polk, but it cannot be stopped. There are other brainy men; there are more men who cannot be bought.

DON'T curse the banker for doing business under the present banking law. Kick yourself for voting for men and parties that are afraid to raise their voice against such laws.

THE Louisiana legislature has been noting for a United States senator for several weeks but have not elected one yet. It is thought now that the election will be postponed two years.

IN one of our exchanges we notice that a writer in giving his many reasons why he is an alliance man, says for one he is opposed to men buying up wind and calling it cotton, wheat, pork or tobacco.

THE wear of farm machinery is first from exposure to weather, and second from lack of proper attention. If kept well oiled and painted, farm implements will last longer and be more effective while they are used.

UMBRELLAS are rarely used in Aden, Arabia. Rain has fallen there only twice in twenty-nine years. Previous to the last rain, which occurred in 1888, there was a period of dry weather which lasted twenty-six years.

THE Chicago platform is the funniest article we have read lately. It is not humorous, but just funny.

SECRETARY RUSK is credited with having been able to reduce the amount of deaths among cattle at sea resulting from cruel treatment from 16 per cent. to 1 per cent. on the $25,000,000 worth annually exported.

WE have received the handsome catalogue just sent out by the faculty of Davidson College. We are glad to know that this old and excellent institution is now enjoying a larger patronage than at any time since it was founded.

THE Chinese Minister is the most expensively-dressed man in Washington. He never appears more than once in the same costume, and it is supposed that he has $150,000 worth of dry goods dedicated to his personal adornment.

EVERY man is entitled to his opinion and we can see no reason on earth why so many of our best people are abused and censured because they want to think just a little for themselves. Freedom of speech, freedom of thought, and freedom of action are inalienable rights guaranteed to all.

IT sounds strange to the ears of the politicians to hear the farmers talk learnedly about finance and government. Truly the bottom rail is getting on top sure enough. And again is the Bible vindicated: "The first shall be last, and the last shall be first."

THE Polk Memorial Association was organized in Raleigh last Thursday. Its purpose is to erect a monument to the memory of the dead leader and to assist his family in any way necessary. The board of trustees has been called to meet in Greensboro, August 9th, it being the opening day of the meeting of the State Alliance.

IN a recent interview Ex-Senator Ingalls said: "The Farmers' Alliance, or People's party, as it is now called, which by the way sent me higher than anything since the cow jumped over the moon, is generally supposed to be dead and to be disintegrating. That is not the case. On the contrary, out in Kansas, it is still manifesting considerable vitality."

THE junior of all the Vanderbilts is spending four million dollars on a fortress at Asheville, N. C., which he intends to make his home. The basement walls are from twelve to fifteen feet thick, and the architect of the structure is quoted as saying that the young plutocrat looks ahead to the time when an outbreak may test the strength of those Cyclopean walls.

THERE are 157 millionaires residing in New York City, while in all sections of our country are millions of honest hard working yeomanry who are kept between the upper and nether millstone. A day of reckoning is drawing nigh when justice shall have her own. The accumulation of the purchasing commodity into the hands of the few to the detriment of the many cannot long be maintained and at the same time continue as a free country. Water and oil don't mix.

QUESTIONS AS TO TAXATION

Are largely engaging public interest and attention, not only in Congress, but in a large number of the States and cities of the Union. A State tax conference in session at Harrisburg, Pa., and representing six of the largest commercial interests in that State, advises a separation of the valuation into two items: 1st, the bare land, and 2d, the buildings and improvements on the land. The legislature of Florida was asked during its last session to do this, but failed. They were too busily engaged on other matters of no real importance to the people. The report of this conference further says that the laws of Pennsylvania approach nearer to the theory of the single tax than those of any other State, but that unfortunately they have "all its objectionable features and none of the advantages of that system of taxation, in that it lays a very large percentage of the public burdens on real estate, yet fails to discourage the holding of land out of use for purely speculative purposes."

This report, which is found in Bradstreet of June the 4th, further says, "That any plan of taxation which carries the promise of lightening the burdens of the poor is deserving of careful investigation, for the reason that all tax systems now in use are more or less oppressive on the laboring classes, and that the taxation of the bare land alone without the buildings and improvements will diminish greatly the burdens on the homes of the poorer people."

PUT THIS IN YOUR PIPE.

Plain Facts and Sharp, Pithy Sayings from Reform Papers.

Death is the record fusion has made in all political parties. Let us keep clear of it.—Abilene Monitor.

Men preach from the house tops while the devil is crawling through the basement windows.—New Forum.

Labor not only pays its own wages but supports the bosses and fattens the millionaires.—News, Wytheville, Va.

The people must be deceived, and that, too, unsuspectingly. It is necessary to do this in order to save the "Democratic party."—Alliance Farmer.

Palaces and hovels, princes and paupers, millionaires and mendicants are complements of each other.—Cincinnati Herald.

Who is the biggest thief, the man who steals because he is hungry, or the man who steals from the hungry?—Cincinnati Herald.

If the Democratic party is a party of the people why does that party in congress vote to suit Wall street?—Little Rock Farmer.

What doth it profit a man to pray for the kingdom of Christ to come, and then vote for the reign of wrong to remain?—Omaha Tocsin.

Whatever the total wealth, its distribution among the producers is the measure of prosperity. Discontent is the rattling of empty dinner pails.—Justice.

There is more fatigue in coaxing the laborer to work than in being begged to allow him the privilege. Landlordism is the short cut to the infamy of slavery.—Justice.

Weigh this truth: The farmers will never get their rights until they get into one party, and they will never come together in either of the old parties.—Fort Worth Advance.

Money does not create wealth; it appropriates to its owner the wealth created by others, and thus enables one man to live from the sweat of his fellow's brow.—People's Tribune.

It takes a real faced man with a loud voice to succeed in Texas politics. It matters little what he says, just so he sucks himself full of wind and lets it escape hard.—Texas Stockman and Farmer.

If labor is plentiful and capital scarce, labor will be cheap and capital will be dear. If money is abundant why do the people use six dollars of bank credit (confidence) for each dollar in cash?—Monitor.

The salvation of this government lies in the distinct voice of every citizen in the direction of her public affairs. If government be left alone to professional politicians there is little to be looked for.—Houston Post.

Ignorance is not always bliss. Jones on one side of the road and Smith on the other, quarrel continually over tariff, high or tariff low, while each pays more usury, every year, than they both do tariff in ten.—Des Moines Tribune.

The labor question will never be settled by the sprinkling of rose water. The voice of the discontented will never be drowned by the beating of tom-toms and blare of trumpets. The voice of reason must and will be heard.—People's Tribune.

A grizzly bear from the Zoo was at large in the streets of Washington, Tuesday. But then the people, since the attempt to pass a silver bill, have become so used to the presence of the bears of Wall street that little attention was given to Bruin.—Colorado Farmer.

A patriot that shows itself only in a clamorous devotion to the abstract idea contained in a flag, and does not reach out in a noble sympathy towards oppressed and struggling fellow beings is a spurious article made of the basest of metal.—Winfield (Kan.) Free Press.

Since Claus Spreckels sold out to the sugar trust for $7,000,000, the latter has the sugar market in its control, and the price of refined sugar has been advanced. It is estimated that the advance in price will yield to the trust the snug little sum of $19,000,000 in a single year.—Independent Press.

It is estimated by the Washington Star that $90,000,000 worth of fraudulent food products are mixed with good articles, or sold in place of them annually in the United States. This amount is stolen from the people by men who coin fortunes by cheating the consumers.—New York Citizen.

The Central Pacific railroad owes the government about one hundred million, on which it cannot, or does not, pay even the interest. It is the most stupendous fraud of the century. While the road is insolvent the directors have amassed private fortunes aggregating hundreds of millions of dollars.—The Caucasian.

It is well enough for our people to remember that all the national legislation of this country for the past twenty-five years has been done by lawyers. A very large majority of our Congressmen have been of the legal profession, and it would be well enough for our people to keep this in mind when the doctors of law go out into the country to teach the "ignorant farmer" how to vote.—Southern Alliance Farmer.

A Japanese doctor never dreams of asking a poor patient for a fee. There is a proverb among the medical fraternity of Japan: "When the twin enemies, poverty and disease, invade a home then he who takes ought from that home, even though it be given him, is a robber." And yet, the poorly fed and clothed working girls of this country are called upon to help Christianize these heathens by contribution from their scant earnings. Shame, here is thy blush!

The board of aldermen has closed down upon the license question in Greensboro. If the county commissioners ratify the action of the board, Greensboro will soon be "dry."

The matter of establishing a home for aged and infirm women in Charlotte is still being agitated and promises success. The institution is needed and should be established.—News.

State Treasurer Bain has announced that $11,300,000 of the old State bonds have been funded under the funding act, which expires by limitation July 1st, when funding operations will cease.

The Winston Republican claims that the oldest minister in the State resides a few miles from that city in the person of Rev. John Alsopugh, who the past week turned his 91st year.

Mr. D. B. Groff, of Washington, D. C., recently purchased the Wadesboro Brown Stone Quarry, located near that place. He says that the quarry will probably be worked extensively before a great while.

Scout: Mr. Henry Morame, an industrious citizen, was working in the harvest field on the lands of Mr. H. W. Fries. He stopped to take a drink of water, and in a few minutes thereafter fell over dead. He was about 54 years of age.

At 1 o'clock Sunday morning the oil house near the C. F. & Y. V. depot at Greensboro caught fire and the entire building and two hundred barrels of oil were destroyed. The latter flowed in a stream down the street. Wildest excitement prevailed.

No. 6 Township was visited Friday evening with a severe and damaging wind, rain and hail storm. Some of the citizens tell us they have never seen such a down pour of rain. The corn and oats were badly twisted and turned about.—Concord Standard.

Rev. Dr. William S. Lacy, of Norfolk, says the Landmark, has accepted an invitation to preach the dedication sermon next Sunday, 26th June, of the elegant new Presbyterian church recently built in Elizabeth City, N. C. The church is designated as the "Camm Memorial."

At the commencement of Emory College, Georgia, a few days ago, the faculty conferred the doctor of divinity upon the Rev. J. T. Gibbs, of Fayetteville, N. C. Dr. Gibbs is the able presiding elder of the Fayetteville district of North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church South.

Caterpillars have taken possession of Bladen county. Last season they confined their ravages mainly to the swamp growth, especially to the black, sweet and tupelo gum. This season they are devouring the foliage of the oak. They do not take hold of the maple or elm unless they are very hungry.

Two brothers, living in the western section of Stokes county, went to New York three weeks ago after green goods, and were met at the depot by the man they were looking for. They were conducted through miles of streets to an obscure building, and were taken into a room one at a time and relieved of $300 each at the point of a pistol.

At Lenoir Monday, the 19th, a colored well digger, started to clean out a well. While he was near the bottom of the well the rock wall caved in and he was buried thirty-five feet under ground. A large force of hands set to work at once to relieve him. At intervals they could hear him speak. After eight hours of hard work they drew him up alive and almost unharmed. The wall caved below and above him, but two large rocks formed an arch just over his head, which kept him from being crushed.

A certain trucker of Mount Olive who shipped eight barrels of potatoes to New York recently received last Monday eight two cent stamps as net returns from his shipment. Another trucker of that town who shipped eleven barrels was charged up by the commission merchant with 43 cents deficiency to pay freight and incidental expenses.

The Newtown Journal says news has reached that city that Bayard Daniels shot Stanley Watson at Goose Creek Island, Thursday, and he was not expected to get over it. Both are white men of that place. Mr. Daniels was arrested and placed in Bayboro jail. There had been a lawsuit between the two men in time past.

The wheat crop is the largest ever grown in Wake. The yield per acre is notably high. On forty acres Mr. P. H. Mangum, of Wake Forest, made over 1,000 bushels. Major Tucker made 475 bushels on 10 acres. Sheriff Page says the winter oat crop is fine. Spring sown oats were hurt by the drouth. Corn on bottom lands has been considerably injured by the drill worms.

The Raleigh News and Observer says that a few days ago at Hillsboro a young colored boy about fifteen years old drowned himself in a peculiar manner. He had stolen some money from Mr. Parks, of that place, and on being detected he ran to a pond and divesting himself of his clothing jumped in and drowned himself.

The wheat crop is the largest ever grown in Wake county. The yield per acre is notably high. On forty acres, Mr. P. A. Mangum, of Wake Forest, made over 1,000 bushels. Major Tucker made 475 bushels on sixteen acres. Sheriff Page says the winter oat crop is fine. Spring sown oats were hurt by the drouth. Corn on bottom lands has been considerably injured by the drill worms.—Chronicle.

Raleigh News and Observer: A gentleman had a curious relic of more than a century ago at the State Treasury yesterday. It was a ten dollar bill issued under an act of the legislature of this State which set at Hillsboro in 1778. It was printed by James Davis, whose name appears on it, and calls for ten Spanish dollars or their equivalent. It bore the inscription: "On or bears the strength of interest."

Wm. M. Shelton, who on Sunday last killed Grant Tweed on Spill Corn Creek, Bladen county, was captured in Greenville, Tenn. Friday. Sheriff C. B. Candler, of Madison, went to Greenville after Shelton, but returned without him. Shelton is held in that place in a pistol case, as well as for the murder, and the authorities refused to give him up. Sheriff Candler was in Asheville Friday applying to Gov. Holt for requisition papers.

Edgecombe has an inhuman freak in the person of a negro boy about ten or eleven years old. A few days since Dr. J. M. Baker was called in to examine a negro baby on the Bridgers-Redmond farm about four miles from this place. The baby had been left by its mother in charge of his boy, a brother, and the boy had taken it to the garden wall made out of wadded pine slabs about six feet high and had thrown it over. It fell into a tub, its head striking against the side, denting in the soft skull. Dr. Baker's examination showed that the baby's chance for living was small.

Elsewhere.

Congress is expected to adjourn July 15th.

Ex-Senator Ingalls sailed a few days ago for Europe.

Bi-hop Blyth, of Jerusalem, says there are now in Palestine double the number of Jews that returned from the Babelian captivity.

This season's high water in the Mississippi has been unprecedented, and the river is again rising. For the third time low lands between Keokuk and West Quincy are submerged and railway traffic interfered with.

At Shelbyville, Tenn., Monday a mob went to the jail, and forcibly securing the keys from the sheriff, took the murderer, W. M. Bates, of Bowesville, from his cell and hanged him to a tree in the court house yard. Bates died protesting his innocence.

A vicious hog killed and partly devoured the 4-year-old child of Martin Frolich at Chillicothe, Ohio. The next evening the neighbors were horrified to find that Frolich had killed the hog, and he and his family were eating it, while the remains of his mutilated child lay in the house.

A big counterfeiting gang was unearthed at San Francisco, Cal., last Wednesday by the arrest of two of the leaders. They were captured while at work, and all the apparatus for making spurious coin was found. It is estimated that the gang was composed of about a dozen men who had been at work over a year, and it is thought that they have in that time put over $100,000 worth of counterfeit money in circulation.

Spartanburg, S. C., June 28.—News has just reached here of a most diabolical crime committed at Gaffney this county. W. C. Carpenter's little girl (ten years old, was given carbolic acid by her nurse, a negro girl named Millie Brown. The girl was vexed with Mrs. Carpenter and took this means of venting her spleen. The unfortunate child died shortly after the most terrible suffering. The girl was brought here and committed to jail. She confessed her guilt.
