THAT BROTHER OF MINE.

Who is it that comes in like a whirlwind, And closes the doors with a slam, And, before he has taken his hat off, Calls out for "some bread and some jam? Who is it that whistles so loudly, As he works at some tangle of twine

That will send his kite up into cloudland? Why, of course, it's that brother of mine. Who is it that, when I am weary, Has always a hole in his coat,

A button to sew on in a hurry, A sail to be made for a boat? Who is it, that keeps in my basket, His marbles and long fishing line, And expects undisturbed, there to find them?

No one else but that brother of mine. Who is it that tiptoes about softly, Whenever I'm sick or in pain-And is every minute forgetting, And whistling some head-splitting strain?

Who is it that when he is trying To be just as still as he can, Is always most terribly noisy? My brother, of course-he's the man.

Who is it I'd rather have by me, When in need of a true, honest friend? Who is it that I shall miss sadly When his boyhood has come to an end? And when he is far from the old hotae. And I long for a glimpse of Funshine, Whom then, do you think I sha", send for? Why, of course, for that brother of mine.
