The Conference Platform.

The following is a correct copy of the platform adopted at St. Louis by the labor conference:

FINANCE.

1. We demand a national currency—safe, sound and flexible—issued by the general government only; a full legal tender for all debts, public and private; and without the use of banking corporations; a just and equitable means of circulation, at a tax not to exceed two per cent, as set forth in the sub-treasury plan of the Farmers' Alliance, or some better system; also, by payments in the discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

a. We demand free and unlimited coinage of silver.

b. We demand the amount of circulating medium to be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita.

c. We demand a graduated income tax.

d. We believe that the money of the treasury should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand all National and State revenues shall be limited to the necessary expenses of government, economically and honestly administered.

e. We demand that Postal Savings banks be established by the government for the safe deposit of earnings of the people and facilitate exchange.

LAND.

2. Your sub-committee upon the land plank, beg to submit to your approval the following: The land, including all natural resources of wealth, is the heritage of all people, and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes, and alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All lands now held by railroads and other corporations in excess of their actual needs and all lands now owned by aliens should be reclaimed by the Government and held for actual settlers only.

TRANSPORTATION.

3. Transportation being a means of defence and public necessity, the Government should own and operate roads in the interest of the people.

a. The telegraph and telephone, like the postal system, being a necessity for the transmission of news, should be owned and operated by the government in the interest of the people.

While some parts of the above address may seem at a mere glance to make partisan political distinctions, yet upon careful study one will clearly see that it is non-partisan, and further, will be impressed with the truth of its promises, and the ability of the committee who framed it. It was adopted with only a few dissenting votes, and the platform was adopted unanimously, and received with great applause. The conference having completed its work as a representative body, and adjourned sine die.

COUNTY ALLIANCE MEETING.

Richard Razer Attends and Gives a Fall Account of the Proceedings.

I gathered myself together last Thursday morning with the necessary equipment—namely, a grip sack, small size, one plug of bad tobacco, one shirt, collar, and a pair of trousers, one of them partly smoked, and in company with Capt. Vail and one of Thomas & Vail's best turnouts, we left the stables, headed for A. Williams' chapel to attend the county Alliance which was to meet with Davidson sub-Alliance, five miles out from the city.

It had been said about the city that your correspondent was hunting for office. We will say that the committee of arrangements had blocked the game on us at Davidson Alliance by publishing a card stating that club raisers or office seekers would not be allowed to air their lungs, so you will see that I did not have any bee of that kind in my bonnet.

We found crops on our way out to Williams' chapel looking well and the prospect for rations the coming year good. We arrived on the grounds at half past nine and found the large grove full of wagons, buggies, carts, and a goodly number of old men, young men, old ladies, young ladies, small boys and small girls. The boys said there were some very pretty girls there. Well, we thought they were good judges and did not contradict them.

As the exercises were to open with a speech by Prof. W. D. Vinson, a non-Alliance man, the public was invited. On the grounds were merchants, doctors, insurance agents, farmers, etc., who were not members of the order. At ten o'clock the Alliance was called to order by Prof. H. A. Grey and an address of welcome was delivered by President T. L. Vail. At the close of Mr. Vail's address J. P. Sossamon introduced Prof. W. D. Vinson, who spoke an hour and a half on the present condition of the country. He went back to the days of the revolution and came up to the present, touching many of the defects in our government. In the main his speech was well received. Some of the brethren thought he rather went for Sockless Jerry. They did not take much stock in the name of Grover Cleveland. The Clevelandites were very scarce among the Alliancees. At the close of Prof. Vinson's speech dinner was announced and we found a table near 200 feet long growing under its weight. The table was attacked from both sides and heavy inroads made on it, but there were more than twelve baskets full left after all were through, and I think all did full justice. No

No one doubts that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy really cures Catarrh, whether the disease be recent or of long standing, because the makers of it clinch their faith in it with a $500 guarantee, which isn't a mere newspaper guarantee, but "on call" in a moment.

That moment is when you prove that its makers can't cure you. The reason for their faith is this: Dr. Sage's remedy has proved itself the right cure for ninety-nine out of one hundred cases of Catarrh in the Head, and the World's Dispensary Medical Association can afford to take the risk of your being the one hundredth.

The only question is—are you willing to make the test, if the makers are willing to take the risk?

If so, the rest is easy. You pay your druggist 50 cents and the trial begins.

If you're wanting the $500 you'll get something better—a cure!

one would have thought that so small a man as Dick Morse could have battled with that table as long as he did but if anyone thinks I misrepresent him I will refer them to Ben Barnett or Maj. Harris who were eye-witnesses. At 1:30 the Alliance was called to order by the president and the roll of sub-Alliances called. It was found that nearly every Alliance in the county was represented by full delegations. The minutes of the last county meeting were read and approved. The unfinished business was first transacted. It was placed in the hands of a committee at the last meeting and they were ready to report. The business was soon disposed of to the satisfaction of the Alliance. Some resolutions were offered and put in the hands of committees with instructions to report Friday morning. The Alliance then went into the election of officers for the ensuing year. Capt. T. L. Vail was re-elected president by acclamation; J. S. Ramsey, vice-president; J. D. Jamison, secretary; J. D. Jamison, doorkeeper. The chairman of the committee of arrangements made the assignment of delegates for the night. After some other business of minor importance the meeting adjourned to meet Friday morning at ten o'clock.

I will take occasion here to let the readers of the WATCHMAN know what kind of an impression I had made on some of the audience. Capt. Vail and myself were assigned together, but he having some business to look after at home was compelled to return to the city and that left me without a conveyance as mine host was not on the ground. A good brother whom we will call J. M. Hanch for short, walked up to me in a crowd and addressed me as Captain, and said: "I have a conveyance here and will be pleased to have you go home with me. I believe if you do it will bring peace in my family, something that has not been there for many a day. My wife has been quarreling with me for ten years because she believes I am the ugliest man in the world and if I can get you to go home with me it will settle the matter for she will see that she has been mistaken." I went, and I think I had the desired effect for he was grum going home but we had not been at his residence half an hour or so when he was the liveliest man I had met. I was royally entertained.

Friday morning at ten o'clock the Alliance was called to order and the minutes of Thursday read and approved. The first business that came up was the installation of the newly elected officers. The president was installed by R. A. Grier, ex-president of the county Alliance, and the remaining officers were installed by President Vail. T. L. Vail was elected delegate to the State Alliance which meets in Greensboro.

A preamble and resolution on the death of Col. Polk was read and adopted by a rising vote. A resolution was then offered tendering Prof. W. D. Vinson a vote of thanks for his timely address, which was unanimously adopted and ordered that a copy of the resolution be sent to Prof. Vinson.

Capt. Vail made a report of his visit to the conference at Raleigh on the 17th of May. After some friendly discussions on different matters the Alliance adjourned for dinner.

They met at 1:30, all full and fresh. One hour was spent in discussing farming, currencies, etc. The meeting adjourned to meet with Hopewell Alliance the first Thursday in October.

RICHARD RAZER.

P. S.—We forgot to give Bro. S. X. Potts, of Hopewell Alliance, a little advice in the proper place, but will do so now. He was nominated by a brother for a certain office and it was argued, in his behalf that he was a bachelor and could easily give his attention when called on. We overheard two young ladies, who the boys say were good looking, say that it was his own fault that he was a bachelor, that he had no business to be a bachelor and if he was not going to do any better than the Alliance should put him on duty and keep him there.

Good Bye, Boycott.

Capital to the extent of $200,000.000 has combined in San Francisco and issued a warlike manifesto against the boycott. Their language is terse, forcible, emphatic. Their tone implies unlimited confidence. They talk like men who are not one bit afraid. The Federated Trades and labor organizations must kneel and kiss the rod. The weapon and the only peaceful weapon of the laboring man is knocked from his hand at the first pass made by the capitalist. The rich employers do not wait for their poor enemies. They take the initiative. The war of labor and capital is begun by capital. Every body has anticipated the conflict, but few thought capital would be the aggressor. Labor must submit. Unconditional surrender is the ultimatum.

Poor, blind capital! Poor, wealthy fools! Better have left this war to your children who may be wiser than you. The boycott was a very harmless weapon compared to the one that European workmen are using. It is the mildest weapon in the world. Do you dream that laborers are so degraded that they will accept the lash without a murmur? Your money is very powerful but are you sure it can throttle labor in open contest? Are you quite prepared for the final, single-handed death struggle? Is America ready for the inauguration of a vicer system of slavery that the war swept away? Can you who are rich make open threats against us who are poor? Can you afford to fire the opening shot?

Go to your bookstores and ask for "Caesar's Column," by Ignatius Donnelly. Read it over two or three times. It will give you food for reflection. It will tell you what our fathers taught, that all men are created free equal, and that your wealth will be a shield of straw in the day when you goad the American workmen to desperation. We may be sons of the earth, but you must not forget that the sun will get on top. When it does, God help you.—Traveller's Republic.

The Crops in the State.

The department of agriculture receives just after the end of each month reports from over 1,200 correspondents, covering thoroughly the condition of the crops. The report for July 1st was summarized yesterday. It shows the percentages of condition to be as follows: Corn 95%, cotton 84%, wheat 96%, oats 95%, tobacco 61%, peanuts 83%, Irish potatoes 103%, sweet potatoes 103%, sorghum 94%, rice 93%, melons (bar) 94%, apples 94%, peaches 92%, clover 97%, small fruits 94%, grapes 90%, stock 97%, cut in 94%, sheep 91%, swine 100%, labor 87%. Every crop has improved, as compared with the reports in June and May. The percentage of cotton continues low. The next report will show accurately the extent of the damage by the rains the past few days.
