CITY AND COUNTY.
All the Best News in Rowan and Vicinity.
L. B. TAAPPE, Local Editor.
THURSDAY, SEPT. 1, 1892.

Friley will take a racer down at the Concord Fair next week.

Summer has gone and fall was ushered in to-day. Verily time flies.

The public and private schools of Salisbury will resume work Monday.

Mr. J. W. C. Klutz, of Organ Church, is now the delivery clerk at the postoffice.

The directors of the Fair are requested to meet at the court house on the 10th inst.

This week will about exhaust the grape crop. Watermelons are also getting scarce.

The drug firm of Simmons & Co. has dissolved. Mr. Thayer will retire from the business.

A few days ago a Salisbury belle received a 100-page letter from her beau. How is that?

The members of the St. Paul Sunday school held their picnic at St. John's mill last Thursday.

The Rowan County Sunday School Convention met at Unity church, near Woodleaf, Tuesday.

Mr. James West, of Greensboro, is here with his flying jenny. It is located in a bad part of Lee street.

There are only fifteen more days in which to guess for the buggy at M. S. Brown's. See advertisement.

We learn from the Mocksville Times that Capt. Frank Brown has resumed work making the Yadkin river navigable.

Mr. Will White, the merchant at Mill Bridge, was married to a Miss Erwin in Pitt county yesterday. Our best wishes go to them.

The people's party convention of this senatorial district met in Lexington last Thursday. An official report is published in this issue.

The colored lithographs, advertising the Fair, have been printed and distributed. The premium list is also out and ready for distribution.

During the month of August the Register of Deeds issued thirteen marriage licenses. Ten of these were for whites and three for negroes.

There will be a meeting of the County Board of Education here Monday. The vacancy caused by the death of Col. P. N. Hittig will be filled and other business transacted.

The phonographic exhibition was held as advertised in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Monday night. There was a good attendance and a sum of money made for the association.

Salisbury had more than her share of negroes Sunday. The excursion from Winston, which arrived late Saturday night, brought five car loads of our brothers in black.

Mr. J. A. McDowell returned, a few days ago, from New York, where he had gone to buy and winter stock of clothing for the Rogers Clothing Co. Read the new fall page advertisement.

Miss Z. Gayton, the female pedestrian, passed through Salisbury last Saturday evening. She is walking for a $2,000 wager. She was about fifty miles behind when she reached here.

A new schedule went into effect on the Richmond & Danville road Sunday which brings nearly all passenger trains a little earlier than heretofore. The new schedule will appear next week.

It is said that Mr. Z. V. Walsler, a young republican leader, of Lexington, will probably be nominated by the republicans in this district to oppose Henderson and Shuford for Congress.

The democratic convention of this (the 26th) senatorial district was held at Lexington last Saturday. A. H. Boyden was made chairman. W. L. Owen, of Davidson, and E. Jones, of Forsyth, were nominated.

The prize fight between Sullivan and Corbett will take place near New Orleans next Wednesday. A large number of sporting men passed through yesterday for the scene. Corbett will pass here to-morrow.

Mr. I. Littmann, of the firm of Littmann & Lichtenstein, will arrive home from Germany. Besides buying a stock of goods and taking a long vacation, he also took into himself a wife while in the old country.

Mr. R. S. Cheever, of New York, will address the citizens of Salisbury in Me-rooney's hall, on Friday night, September 21. He will also speak at Woodleaf on Saturday, September 24, in the morning, and at Cleveland in the afternoon.

Some democratic campaign committee introduced a copy of the force bill into this office a few days ago. The reading was dispensed with and the bill was laid on the table. The currency question is engaging almost the entire attention of this body.

Last Friday night was the first anniversary of the fearful wreck at Boutwell's bridge, in which so many lives were hurried into eternity. Just six years ago last night was the great Charleston earthquake occurred. That was a memorable night for our people.

Mr. J. T. Wyatt has made arrangements with the managers of the Concord Fair to put on exhibition there his collection of minerals and curiosities. Any person having specimens they wish to exhibit should leave them at this office.

The report from Salisbury in the Weather Crop Bulletin for the week ending Monday last says: The rains during the week have greatly relieved growing crops. Rather late for tobacco and early corn, but good for cotton. In places it is wet enough to turn stubble. The rainfall was 0.85.

Mr. Jas. L. Sloan, for eighteen months a postal clerk on the Salisbury and Knoxville route, came in last night for the last time. He has resigned on account of the ill health of his wife, and will go to Charlotte to accept the position of bookkeeper for a new firm there. Mr. Sloan was one of the best clerks on the route and the officers expressed their regrets at his quitting.

Miss Annie Gowan has been elected a teacher in the graded school to succeed Miss Bessie Neely, who goes to Charlotte to accept a position in the graded school there. Miss Minnie Watson and Miss Renn have accepted positions as teachers at the Oxford Orphan Asylum. A number of boys and girls have left in the past few days to enter school in other towns. Misses Maggie Rendleman and Mabel Kizer have gone to Mount Amena Seminary, at Mt. Pleasant. Messrs. Thomas Smoot and R. L. Cornelison went to Trinity College; Burton Craigie, to Horner's, at Oxford; Ernest McKenzie, Walter Woodson, Theo. West and Clarence Klutz, have gone to Chapel Hill.

Court.
In addition to the court news published last week we give the following:
Jenny Finger, sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for larceny. An appeal was taken.
Harry McLean, false pretense, 18 months at hard labor on public roads.
W. L. Keistler, misconduct as justice of the peace, fined fifty dollars and cost.
The John Stowe murder case was tried last Thursday and he was found not guilty.
Jim Henderson, plead guilty of manslaughter, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for 10 years.

Speakers Coming.
Dr. W. P. Exum, people's party candidate for governor, and Marion Butler, elector at large, will address the people of Rowan county in Salisbury on September 14th. Preparations for the occasion are being made, and the 14th will be a gala day in Salisbury.
It has been announced that James G. Field, candidate for vice-president on the people's party ticket will speak here on September 30th. An effort is being made to have the visit postponed till one day of our fair.
In future due notice will be given of all appointments of speakers by the people's party or of joint discussions.

Fire.
An alarm of fire was sounded about 10 o'clock Monday night. It proceeded from the premises of Mr. W. R. Friley, on East Innis street, where a kitchen had caught fire. The fire was extinguished before the fire department reached it. The damage is small.
Another alarm was sent in about five o'clock yesterday evening. It came from the Mt. Vernon Hotel, where a spark from the smoke stack close near the house had lodged under the shingles. The fire department responded promptly and in a few minutes the fire was extinguished. Water did nearly as much damage as the fire, all of which can be repaired for about $75.

A False Report.
Correspondence of Watchman.
MR. EDITOR:—I desire space in your paper to correct a false report that is being circulated by designing persons for the purpose of injuring me. It is to the effect that I would not accept the nomination by the people's party for the office of Register of Deeds. I will say that while I was not a candidate and did not seek the nomination, and it came to me unlooked for, I decided at once to accept the honor and make the race. I will say, further, that I stand squarely on the people's party platform and will use all honorable means for the success of the same. I am in the race to stay and will abide the result of election day.
J. W. SLOAN.

Third Annual C. C. A. & M. FAIR.
CONCORD, N. C.
Sept. 7th, 8th and 9th, 1892.
Something to interest and amuse all. Trotting and running races each day. Bicycle races, mule races, tournaments, etc. Excursion rates on railroads. Admission only 5c. Everybody come.

MECKLENBURG NEWS.
What is Going on Among the Deceitants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence.
Thirty cents was stolen when silver was demonetized.
Subscribe for the WATCHMAN and keep up with the times.
More money is what the people need to meet their actual requirements.
Mr. T. M. Chambers, of Matthews, died a few days ago from a stroke of paralysis.
Thirty cents stolen should be put back on the silver dollar. One dollar should be as good as another.
If the sun had nothing else to do but shine on the righteous it would hardly be worth while for it to rise as early as it does.
Farmers from every township in the county have been in our den this week and they, without an exception, report the cotton outlook bad.
Huntersville sent three doctors with their township delegation to the county convention. We guess it was to take care of the returns if they got sick.
One of the leaders of the democratic party of Texas says that the democratic party without whiskey would be like the Baptist church without water.
Dr. W. P. Exum, people's party candidate for governor, and Marion Butler will address the public in Charlotte on September 7th. Everybody come.
The thirty cent larceny is a greater curse for man than the tax of "two pence a pound on tea," which precipitated the revolution.
Daniel Webster said: "Liberty cannot endure in any country where the tendency of legislation is to concentrate wealth in the hands of the few."
Give the democrats a "chance" to pass a free coinage bill by sending back to Congress the ninety-four men who voted against it. "Consistency is the bugbear of fools."
$12.50 was pulled out of two unfortunate wretches Monday morning, by the mayor, for drunks. Who made it possible for men to get drunk at their own will.
Wanted.—A thin man, who has been used to collecting, to crawl through key holes and find debtors who are never in. Salary, nothing the first year and doubled each year afterwards.
A lady who controls some property in this county was heard to say the other day that the country was ruined if they let the poor folks in office. Who created the wealth of this country, sir?
"Will you please insert this obituary notice?" asked an old gentleman of the editor the other day. "The deceased had a great many friends about here who'd be glad to hear of his death."
We heard a democrat who was in the convention Saturday say that one man bullied and ran the show over the whole concern. There is nothing new about that, but; that's old.
The Observer quotes Col. H. C. Jones as saying that the republican party stinks to heaven and that it was like striking one's mother to revile the democratic party. We wonder if this is not a free country.
What has become of all the southern patriots that yelled the skin off their throats when old Horace Greely was a candidate for president. Is it not the same crowd that is—cussing Weaver? Great geewillikin!
A citizen remarked the other day that Charlotte could not get any more wood from Paw Creek after January 1st, 1893, as the city was going to be legislated away from the county. Get in your wood, gentlemen.
A young country editor fell in love with the clergyman's daughter and the next time he went to church he was shocked when the preacher announced his text: "My daughter is grievously tormented with a devil."
Cheer up, boys, the campaign orators are on the stump extending sympathy to "the toiling millions." They always do just before elections, you know. When the ballots are all in "the toiling millions" can take care of themselves.
We heard of a bank officer a few days ago cancelling an engagement he had made with a farmer for butter because the farmer belonged to the people's party. The same bank officer made his fortune speculating on the farmers' cotton. How is that for boycott, say farmers and laborers.
Jay Gould's Associated Press is loaded with news concerning the prostration of Frick's wife, but not a word about the wives of those whom Frick hired to commit murder in the defence of stolen property. How thoroughly we are subjugated.
A cotton mill man from a neighboring town called to see us this week. We asked him for an opinion as to the price of cotton this season. He replied that everything pointed to low prices, that cotton goods was stiff, but he did not think that cotton would be higher than last fall.
We heard two good democratic brothers discussing the convention that met here last Saturday. One asked the other how he was pleased with the ruling. He said not at all, but there was a worse pill for him than the ruling. The 8th of November will show that convention not to have been so decidedly harmonious in spirit.

Henry W. Grady, only son of the lamented Henry W. Grady, will enter the University of Virginia in October.—Correspondence of Watchman.
Our prayer is that this country may have another sure enough Henry W. Grady.
During the last fiscal year there were produced 465,000,000 pounds of cane sugar, 12,000,000 pounds of beet sugar, 1,380,000 pounds of sorghum sugar, and 144,882 pounds of maple sugar, on which the government paid a bounty of $7,342,077.
Walking demi-john candidates for important official positions are not as plentiful as they used to be. The people will no longer employ through the ballot box, habitual drunkards to do their business. And why should they? They would not employ them as clerks, or shop hands, or to work upon the farm.
Mr. Johnston says if the people's party is as weak as the metropolitan papers say it is, he can't understand why they fight it so hard, and he can't understand why the dear old party leaders will have to scrape the bottom of their pockets for the last nickel to help beat them.
The friends of Mr. J. H. Barnett could not but have been a little disappointed at his failure to secure a nomination for the House, seeing that he led Mr. Jetton a little in the primaries.—Observer.
Yes, we have heard there was a little harmonious decreedly enthusiastic disappointment. Bah!
Never until the silver dollar was demonetized in 1873 was there a day when the bullion in it was not worth as much or more than its face value in gold. Mr. Sherman says the silver dollar had gone out of circulation in 1873 because it was at a premium. Gold is now at a premium. Why not put his specious theory in practice and demonetize gold?—Non-conformist.
We know a man who bought a pint of whiskey in Charlotte the other day. While he was paying for it the bar keeper said he did not allow a third party man to come in his house. The whiskey buyer told him that was where he stood, and he turned the bottle up and poured the whiskey out on the floor and went out with his empty bottle. You people's party men must remember that the saloons are democratic.
Mr. Tom Ritch was traveling the Potter's road, Friday, a few miles from this city, and saw a dog lying in a briar patch by the roadside. He inquired how the animal had come to his end, and was informed that he had bitten a Gideonite and then crawled off and died.—Observer.
If Tom Ritch will take a ride on the 9th of November he will find the weeds and briars full of dead carcasses which had come in contact with the Gideonites on the 8th.
The force bill cannot be made the paramount issue because the republicans are nowhere openly defending it, and a large and influential portion of the party are known to be opposed to it. It is seized up by a few democrats for private only, who are not in sympathy with the other principles of the party and who came to grief in the nomination of Mr. Cleveland, simply as a rail on which to climb out of the "last ditch," when they were landed at Chicago.
Commissioner Peck, of the labor bureau, who has always been a close friend of Senator Hill and who was appointed by Cleveland, says, in speaking of the tariff sentiment expressed in the report, that he was free to admit that the statements contained in his report were not in accord with the democratic platform adopted at Chicago; when he began his investigation in 1890 he expected that the figures would vindicate the democratic position, now he was compelled to confess his error.—N. Y. World.
Where does this strike you? You had better take that old platform down to Buzzard Roost blacksmith shop and get Cleveland and Peck to put in some repairs.
Condensed Platform.
Economy.
Lower tariff.
Free coinage.
Better times.
Common sense.
Common justice.
Regulation of railroads.
A graduated income tax.
No alien ownership of land.
More money and less misery.
Abolition of the national banks.
History Lessons.
Come up close and let me hear what you have been doing.
Q.—Are you going to vote for Cleveland?
A.—Yes, because he is the only one who will give me a reason for voting that way, will you?
A.—Cleveland opposes free silver and favors national banks.
Q.—Can you give another reason?
A.—Because he vetoed the drought sufferers' seed bill.
Q.—Can you give another reason?
A.—Yes, because he signed a bill giving Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Garfield each a pension of $5,000.
Q.—Can you give another good reason for voting for Cleveland?
A.—Yes, because he loaned the poor starving banks $60,000,000 of the people's money without interest.
Q.—Any other reason?
A.—Yes, because he invited Fred Douglas, his wife and daughter to his private sweet reception.
Q.—Any other reason?
A.—Yes, because he appointed a negro as custom house officer at Boston.
Q.—Any other reason?
A.—Because he signed more pension bills than any other president of this government ever did.
Q.—Can you give another reason?
A.—Yes, he kept republicans in office.

Senatorial Convention.
Correspondence of Watchman.
The people's party convention of the 26th senatorial district, composed of the counties of Rowan, Davidson and Forsyth, met in the court house in Lexington, on August 25th, 1892.
The convention was called to order by Chairman P. J. Leonard, of Davidson county, who explained the object of the convention. S. A. Earnhart, of Rowan, was requested to act as temporary chairman, and John Beard, of Rowan, as temporary secretary. The roll was called, all counties being represented. No contests in delegations. It was moved and carried that the temporary organization be made permanent. C. L. Brown, of Rowan, then placed in nomination for the senate, Virgil A. Wilson, of Forsyth. P. J. Leonard, of Davidson, then placed in nomination Rev. Geo. E. Hunt, of Davidson. Wilson's nomination was seconded by F. N. Paff, of Forsyth, and Hunt's nomination was seconded by Capt. J. A. Fisher, of Rowan. C. L. Brown, of Rowan, then moved that the nominations be made by acclamation, which was carried. Virgil A. Wilson and George E. Hunt were then declared the unanimous choice of the convention for senators from the 26th senatorial district. On motion the chair appointed W. A. Myers and Alex. Swicegood, of Davidson, to notify Mr. Hunt of his nomination. F. N. Paff and Marshall, of Forsyth, to notify Mr. Wilson of his nomination. P. J. Leonard, of Davidson, and Capt. J. A. Fisher, of Rowan, being called on made brief addresses. The secretary was requested to furnish the proceedings of the convention to CAROLINA WATCHMAN and Progressive Farmer. On motion the convention adjourned.
JOHN BEARD, S. A. EARNHART, Secretary, Chairman.

W. H. Caldwell, of Columbia, S. C., and W. A. Wynne, of Raleigh, N. C., amateur wheelmen of some note, started from the battery at Charleston Tuesday morning for a bicycling tour around the continent to San Francisco. They ride English wheels, weight 32 pounds each. They are making the trip in seventy days, going via Augusta and Atlanta, Ga., Decatur, Ala., and Memphis, Tenn.
