

Carolina Watchman

J. L. RAMSEY, Editor and Prop.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
One year in advance $1.50
Six months .75
TERMS STRICTLY CASH.

The WATCHMAN is organ of the Alliance in the 5th and 7th Congressional Districts.

The WATCHMAN has 50 per cent more circulation than any paper published in Salisbury.

Entered as second-class mail at Salisbury, N. C.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1892.

"I was once a party of principle, but now I depend on rotten eggs to carry my points."

The brethren in Georgia can do more good if they will look after their own speakers and throw fewer eggs.

The cholera doctors say the danger has all passed and no further trouble is apprehended. Don't be too sure about it.

The price of cotton has advanced some in the past two weeks. People are not advised to hold for better prices as it may only be temporary.

If Weaver's opponents could get enough eggs they would win the fight. But we wonder what your Uncle Tom Jefferson would say about such business in his party?

SAM JONES preached three powerful sermons at Pertle Springs, Mo., three weeks ago. A dispatch to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat reports him as saying: "I thank God there was one man who had the courage to stand up before Congress and denounce wrong, no matter from what source it came. Tom Watson is the man."

A CORRESPONDENT who was at Coal Creek, Tenn., during the recent trouble with the miners, has told a friend that the true inwardness of that trouble has not been made public. He says the papers never published the worst part of it at all. Most of the miners who were shot were stragglers. The main body of miners were not fought by the cowardly militia. The convict system must go.

NOT SELF SUSTAINING.

We think that several speakers and papers have been blowing about the penitentiary. The Raleigh Visitor gives the following figures for the quarter ending August 31st: Total expenses, $40,008.02; total earnings, $23,050.30; expenses over earnings, $16,957.72.

From that it looks like somebody's campaign thunder has been crushed. The Visitor shouldn't tell the truth until after the election by all means, and then begin to tell the truth.

COMING TO THEIR SENSES.

For years the agricultural press of the United States has felt short of its duty. Instead of keeping the people posted, exposing the wrongs that are being perpetrated upon the producers in many ways they have been strangely quiet. True they give the farmer good advice about how to raise a bale of cotton per acre, thirty bushels of wheat or fine horses and hogs. But at last they realize that more is raised than can be profitably sold. They have learned that overproduction is a false theory, and that underconsumption is impossible where conditions are just. They see that the farmer who raises 50 bushels of corn to the acre is not much better off than his neighbor who raises ten if he cannot get cost for it. They see now that crop manipulators are making millionaires out of themselves and paupers of the farmers and business men. They see that trusts and corporations are bleeding the country. The farmers found this out themselves. The organs of the various farmer organizations have thoroughly ventilated the schemes. But the leading agricultural papers are falling into line. Most of them are howling "calamity" in dead earnest. The result is entirely satisfactory. There never was as much determination and unity of thought. The farmers are bound to win sooner or later, and the agricultural press are going to be in the fight to a finish.

A LOSING BUSINESS.

The New York Tribune, Whitehall Road's paper, a Republican high protection organ, tries to show that a reduction of wages was justifiable in the Homestead case. In doing so it shows that the farmers are the losers at last. It gives the prices of flour, meal, meat, eggs, butter &c., in 1889, '90, '91 and '92. It shows that all the actual necessities of life that come directly

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The G. A. R. Encampment Over—The Behring Sea Arbitration—Other News.

Correspondence of the Watchman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20, 1892.

President Harrison's manly devotion to his sick-wife whose bedside he has refused to leave, except to attend to such urgent national affairs as cannot be left to his subordinates, is not altogether pleasing to the big headed politicians of his party who have come here to see him since he returned from Loon Lake last week, many of them on missions purely selfish in their nature, but there are few men whose hearts are in the right place, no matter what their political opinions may be, who do not honor him for the affection he displays for the woman he loves to love and honor, so many years ago.

Careful inquiry among the thousands of people from every section of the country who attended the G. A. R. encampment last week brought out one fact that is puzzling the politicians no little. The only States in which there is the usual activity which precedes a presidential election are those in which the people's party have gained a foothold. The prediction was made by hundreds of men from the other States, that unless there was a very great change between now and election day it would be impossible for either party to get out anything even approaching a full vote. No satisfactory explanation for this indifference on the part of the voters has been given, and I shall not attempt to do what some of the shrewdest men in politics have failed to do. It is simply mentioned as one of the queer things of the campaign that is being much talked about in Washington.

Gen. Daniel Sickles, of New York, who was one of Senator Hill's strongest supporters at the Chicago convention, gave evidence by his talk while at the encampment that he has not become reconciled to the nomination of Mr. Cleveland, and it will not surprise any of those who lead him to hear at any time that he has bolted the democratic ticket.

Washington is very different to-day from what it was a week ago. Then brass bands and drum corps were heard on every hand as the arriving posts of the G. A. R. marched to their quarters; to-day there is only the ordinary hum of business traffic. The great crowd—in the neighborhood of 250,000 people—has enjoyed nearly a week of sight seeing and quietly returned to their homes to discuss the beauties of their capital city and the hospitality of its citizens, and the grandest part of the last quarter of a century. It was a good natural crowd, and everybody speaks well of the good order which prevailed in the city during their stay. That they had a good time was evident from their faces, and countless many felt as one gentleman put it: "There I only once thought I regret, and that is I have to stop to eat and to rest. I should like to keep on going and taking part in the numerous entertainments which have been so generously provided for us." The fact is, it was a physical impossibility for any one person to have attended all the entertainments.

The Departments of State and of Justice are busily at work upon the preparation of the answer to the United States, to the statement upon which Great Britain will base her case in the Behring Sea Arbitration. It is a ticklish sort of a job and the greatest care is being taken; as it is recognized that a blunder, insignificant of itself, might result in prejudicing our case to a dangerous extent in the minds of the distinguished gentlemen who will sit as a court of arbitration, they also know that if the case be lost the administration will catch it hot and heavy from those who have been at first opposed to arbitration, believing that thereby this country is taking a chance to lose rights which it never should have allowed to be questioned, but should have maintained at all hazards, by force of arms, if necessary. President Harrison regarded the matter as of so much importance that he left Mrs. Harrison for the first time since he brought her back from Loon Lake, except for a few minutes of the time, in order to discuss with the Secretary of State and Attorney General the outlines of the document to be prepared, which he proposes going over with great care after it is completed.

It may be stated on good authority that this government will not for the present take any action in regard to the complaints made by the owners and sailors of the American sealers recently seized by Russian war vessels. There are reasons why it is not desirable to tackle this question just now. Russia in making these seizures has only exercised the same right which we claim in Behring Sea, and unless there were some peculiar hardships put upon American citizens who were on the seized vessels it is hardly probable that anything will ever be done in the nature of a protest against the seizure.

Lima Car Works Destroyed.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—A special to the Dispatch from Lima, Ohio, says the Lima car works were entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Two hundred cars in the course of construction were also destroyed. The fire spread to two large oil tanks, which were exploded. The total loss is estimated at $100,000; insurance about half.

There are two kinds of protective tariff men. One kind is determined to protect money if it takes despotism to do it. The other kind is determined to protect mankind and a free government if it takes the ballot to do it.—Nonconformist.

PUT THIS IN YOUR PIPE.

Plain Facts and Sharp, Pithy Sayings from Reform Papers.

There is a vast difference between business-skill and political trickery.—Echo.

The power of him who stands morally highest is the only real power.—Chicago United.

If any one lives in luxury, it ought to be those who produce the wealth.—Huron Realist.

Thirty years of wrong and oppression is forcing this reform movement to a success.—Truth.

One door in Vanderbilt's mansion cost $50,000. What did yours cost?—Voice of the People.

The great moral truths of the world have been thrown off from the heart at white heat.—Chicago Unity.

The man who does not want sectionalism abolished is either a coward or an office seeker.—Review.

Never say anything against a man behind his back you cannot substantiate to his face.—Gordon Courier.

A dear dollar fastens debt upon the people; a cheap dollar enables the people to pay their debts.—Realist.

Instead of trying to pick flaws in other people's character, try to keep your own above suspicion.—Gardian News.

The gladdest of all the glad words of tongue or pen, the gladdest of these are: "Congress has adjourned again."—Economist.

There is more eloquence in the silence of the people, this summer, than is falling from the lips of plume orators.—Acorn.

We increase in population at the rate of a million a year, but the volume of currency steadily contracts.—San Antonio Truth.

The bloody shirt has lost its political efficacy. Sectional hatred finds no lodgment in the bosom of a Populist.—Colorado Mail.

It is exceedingly amusing to see an army of laboring men striking for high wages and voting for low wages.—Cincinnati Herald.

This reform wave which is sweeping over the country cannot be turned backward. It will rush rapidly on to success.—Atlanta Farmer.

Don't lose any sleep about Alabama in the presidential election. She will be found somewhere near the head of the procession.—Topka Advocate.

And they do tell us that that great body of traitors which has been assembled at Washington for quite a while is adjourned.—Frozer News.

$80,000 is the modest sum this government pays as tuition to send five men to Europe to find out what kind of money we shall use.—Custer Mail.

The Farmers' Alliance have done it! God bless those who inaugurated a means by which the people can meet on common grounds.—Montrose Union.

There is quite a difference in the location, and enlightened people; the former bow to wood and stone, while the latter worship gold.—Rising Star Light.

American liberty is the liberty to work at the terms of the man who holds a cinch on the means of production and distribution, or slave.—Seattle Call.

If gold was demonetized it would be used only in the arts and would soon fall below the price of iron, tin or copper. There is fiat money in gold.—Exchange.

Labor is not a commodity, to be sold by competitors at the lowest bidder. Labor is the creator of all commodities—capital's progenitor.—Kansas City Phalanx.

A party that must go back to another generation to show its good works and has no promises for the future is a poor thing to tie to.—Louisiana Farmer.

One hundred and ninety million acres of land in the United States is owned and controlled by foreigners, the greater share by English landlords.—Great West.

Reader, did it ever occur to you that despite your personal hardships you are living in a time that the future historian will set down as an "epoch." What part are you playing?—West Coast Mail.

One trouble with the American farmer is that when the weather is dry he does not need better roads, and when the mud is hub deep there is no chance to build better ones.—Independent Tribune.

Wheat is gradually dropping in the great wheat marts. Still the gold bugs cry aloud to the farmer that it will be better next year, and that we are having prosperous times generally. Yes, prosperous for the gold bug, but death to the farmer.—Exchange.

John Rockefeller, of New York, is said to be the richest man on earth, possessing in round numbers $150,000,000. If it were all in gold it would weigh about 3,000 times his own weight. His daily income in gold would exceed his own weight.—Exchange.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Celebrating Its Discovery.

SAN DIEGO, September 28.—This city is to-day celebrating the 350th anniversary of San Diego bay. Nearly all business houses and many private residences are tastefully decorated in honor of Cabrillo celebration.

Worse Than a Powder Magazine.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 23.—A special from Lima, Ohio, says: "At 2 p. m. the nitro-glycerine magazine one mile west of the Solar Oil refinery exploded with terrific force. Windows were shattered and houses jured in this city, fully four miles away. Great excitement prevails. A number of lives are reported lost."

Whitecaps at Work.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., Sept. 28.—A report comes from Cooke county of doings of "white caps" a few months ago. The organ and band which has been the terror of Sevier county citizens for several months, have moved their base of operation to Cooke county. Notices have been posted in front of some of the leading farmers of the county, informing them that unless they left the county within ten days they would be severely dealt with. Other houses were visited, and in some instances riddled with bullets. It is expected that bloodshed will result in a short time from the actions of this band of white caps.

A Good Nomination.

Mr. J. H. Turner, national secretary of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, and also secretary of the national executive committee of the people's party, has been nominated for congress from the fourth congressional district of Georgia. This district is represented at the present time by Mr. C. L. Moses. Mr. Turner is now serving his third term as national secretary of the alliance, is a good writer, a strong debater, and thoroughly posted on the principles which underlie the present contention. He is a man of unblemished character, true, and trustworthy, and will make one of the strongest campaigns in the State. He was born and reared in the district which he seeks to represent, and his sterling worth will draw him much support.

Don't Want a Catholic Mayor.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—There is much agitation here over the prospective election of Stuart Knill as lord mayor of London. The opposition to Knill is based wholly on the fact that he is a Roman Catholic. Knill has written a reply to a letter from Lord Mayor David Evans as to his probable course in the event of election; as to certain religious services, which the lord mayor is expected to attend in his official capacity, and to the appointment of a chaplain. Mr. Knill says that should he be chosen lord mayor he would have a clerical chaplain, while he would, so far as his personal attendance at worship was concerned, of course continue to attend Roman Catholic ministrations. The newspapers mostly support Mr. Knill, but there is a strong and bigoted opposition and the legality of his election may be assailed.

People's Party in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 13.—The third party convention met at 9 o'clock this morning and a permanent organization was effected without delay. The following candidates for congress were nominated: First district, W. R. Mason; second district, Frank Babbitt; third district, J. F. Tate; fourth district, A. P. Longshore; fifth district, W. C. Whitley; sixth district, John M. Davis; seventh district, Blackwell; and eighth district, J. H. Parsons. All of those have hitherto been democrats except Parsons, who is a brother of the United States district attorney here. The convention has nominated a full Weaver electoral ticket. The two factions of the republican party are hopelessly split, both committees having adjourned without agreement. The above is taken from the press dispatches and discloses a healthy situation for the people's party.

"Overloaded."

Stetson Hats for $1.25.

3,000 pairs new sample Shoes and 1,000 new sample Hats just arrived at

E. W. BURT & CO.'S SAMPLE STORE.

SALISBURY, N. C., Near Stand pipe, Opposite Julian & Co

ROOT-TEA-NA!!

The Great Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Blood CURE.

The Best and surest treatment on earth for $1.00. Sold only by Dr. J. B. ALEXANDER, 15 S. College St. Charlotte, N. C.

Brown, Weddington & Co.

Retail Hardware.

We have just received a large lot of one pound butter moulds, price 25cts, also a large lot of oval and round Bread or Dough Trays. The celebrated Swing Dairy Churns, Cylinder and Dasher Churns; all can be suited.

The best assortment of Table and Pocket Knives, Table and Tea Spoons in the State.

Brass and Porcelain lined preserving Kettles, and at such low prices that no family need be without them.

A very large assortment of Tinware, Pots, Skillets, Ovens and other house-keepers' articles.

We have the best Coffee Tables that are on the market. Why should you throw away money on an old pointed tin when a small amount more will get a good one.

Call and see us when you want anything in our line.

BROWN, WEDDINGTON & CO., 25 East Trade Street, Charlotte, N. C.

Subscribe to the WATCHMAN.

==A Clothing Carnival.==

New clothing secured at unheard of prices are heaped mountain high on every counter in the store. Bargains that will astonish the most economical buyer. No baits, frauds or make-beliefs. Everything square, honest, and straight. You can save money by trading with me.

LOOK! LOOK!

For $5.00 you will get a suit worth $7.50

" 7.50 " " " " 10.00

" 10.00 " " " " 12.50

" 12.50 " " " " 15.00

" 15.00 " " " " 18.00

See them, they are wonderful values. Ten dozen men's fine fur sample hats at 50c. on the dollar. Shoes, furnishing goods, underwear, fine assortment and the prices to suit the times. You are respectfully invited to examine my stock.

M. S. Brown.

FREE SILVER

—Is one of the issues of the campaign.—

We are in the thickest of the fight with a first-class stock of SHOES.

Silver Dollars will go further in our store for FALL SHOES than anywhere in the country. We also carry a handsome line of

Hats, Trunks and Umbrellas

very cheap. We undersell all competitors.

C. M. & H. M. BROWN.

DR. BROMCOOLE'S ENGLISH BITTERS

Cures all Female Complaints and Monthly Irregularity. It cures or drives out the Back or Bile, strengthens the feeble, builds up the whole system. It cures thousands and will cure you. Daughters have it. Send stamp for book.

DR. J. P. BROMCOOLE & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator upon the estate of Genelia Miller, dead, all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present them for payment on or before the 20th day of July, 1893, or this notice will be filed in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

J. W. POWLAS, Administrator.

WHISKEY

and of fine quality. Cures all ailments. Sold by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations. Price 75c per bottle. Wholesale and Retail.