tion calling a road congress to meet in Raleigh on Thursday the 19 inst.

The Charlotte Observer strongly endorses Hon. W. M. Robbins, of Statesville, for the Mexican mission.

Many of the peasants in the famine districts of Russia are dying like flies from hunger and disease.

Mr. Blaine's condition does not seem to materially improve. According to latest reports he is growing worse.

The Governor's message was a lengthy one. We have taken time to read it but suppose it is an able document.

Mr. W. P. Stallings, formerly of Salisbury, but more recently of Reidsville, has returned to this city again.

Piping connected with the water tank near the railroad shops froze and bursted last Monday night.

Over 80 operatives are employed by the Rowan Knitting Mills company, and splendid work is being turned out.

Mr. M. V. B. Capps, it is said, contemplated moving to Lake George, Louisiana at an early day.

The treasury department has purchased 637,000 ounces of silver at 83 3/8 and 141/10.

Owing to the very severe weather the President has abandoned his intended hunting expedition for the present.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Henry Clay Evans of Tennessee to be first assistant postmaster general.

Mr. Thomas Boylin, harness maker, who has been living here for several months, has decided to return to Wadesboro, Anson county, his old home.

The district stewards of the Methodist church, at their meeting in this city last week, fixed the salary of Presiding Elder Renn at $1250.

Mr. D. R. Julian, doorkeeper of the House, came home last Friday to spend a day or two. He has since returned to Raleigh.

Mr. N. B. McCandless has a force of hands at work remodeling and refitting the hotel property on Main street, that he recently purchased.

Mr. Lloyd Swicegood, typo, who has been spending several weeks here with his parents, left for Raleigh last Monday night. Lloyd is a good compositor and a genial young man.

The weather for the past three weeks has been unusually wintry here. Several snows have fallen, and a number of mornings the mercury has stood close to zero.

Charleston, S. C. had a fifty thousand to lay fire on the 6th. The Read Fertilizing company's works, and the building of the Piedmont Guano company were destroyed.

The office of the ARGONAUT, Rocky Mount, N. C., was destroyed by fire last Thursday night. Some but not all of its files were saved.

Hon. A. Leazar of Iredell county has letter in the State Chronicle of the 5th in which he gives the Alliance "down the country."

Capt. J. M. Odell has tendered his resignation as president of the Salisbury Cotton Mills. A dividend was declared payable in sixty days.

Dr. L. W. Coleman of Rockwell, member of the board of county commissioners had three of his ribs broken a few days ago, caused by the fall of his horse.

Miss Beulah Burns, who has been visiting at Mr. M. F. Raudie's will leave for her home at Cedar Hill, Anson county, tomorrow.

Mr. John West and Mr. Thom Slink have formed a partnership in the family grocery business and will occupy the store room recently vacated by the Salisbury Racket store.

As several bills up before the Legislature. When that body gets properly down to its "knitting," in good earnest and something special is done, will try and keep up with the proceedings.

J. C. Simmons, druggist, made an assignment Tuesday for the benefit of his creditors. Theo. F. Klutz and R. Lee Wright are the assignees. Liabilities not known, but it is supposed that the assets will more than cover the liabilities.

A negro, "Babe" Price, who has been in the employ of Mr. C. A. Traylor for some time, stole from Mr. Traylor last Sunday night $150, and a suit of clothes.
Price made good his escape and has not yet been caught.

The house committee on naval affairs has decided not to begin the preparation of their appropriation bill until the report on the condition of the treasury is made to the house by the ways and means committee.

A Raleigh dispatch of Sunday says:
The annual report of the secretary of the Grand Order of Old Fellows will show a membership in North Carolina of 4,300 a gain of 800 during the year. There are 36 lodges, a gain of 12.

The New York presbytery, on Friday, reached a vote on the charges against Professor Briggs and the result was in Briggs's favor upon all the counts. The case will now be appealed to the general assembly.

Mr. Haute Meroney rode through the cold four miles to a pond to skate last Wednesday. The ice was about six inches thick, but when he went to buckle on his skates one of the straps was missing, and he was left behind, thus he missed his sport.

Last night about ten o'clock, the fire bell sounded the alarm of fire. It was at the residence of Mr. Thos. Coughenour.
Fortunately the fire was discovered in time and it was extinguished before any serious damage was done.

In the death of Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, which occurred Tuesday morning, has passed away an able statesman and a true Southerner. He will be much missed in the legislative halls of the nation.

Mr. Watson has introduced a bill in the House to create the office of a national inspector of cotton and grain, to provide for the issuance of certificates of deposit and for the issuance of post-office money orders thereon, and to provide for the payment of such orders.

A Charlotte special of Sunday says: The Evans liquor bill, going to have a rough road to travel in this county. The city council, at a meeting Saturday night, affirmed the license ordinance, and the county commissioners gave notice that they will receive the money and issue liquor licenses. The license are for one year, and so the fight in the courts will probably begin in July, when the Evans bill goes into effect.

The New York Evening Post of Tuesday makes the statement of the Oregon contest makes it possible to give an accurate table of the vote for president as it should be cast by the electoral college and which will show: Total number of votes, 414; necessary to a choice, 225.
Cleveland's majority, 108. The total vote for the respective candidates is as follows: Cleveland, 276; Harrison, 144, and Weaver 24.

Mrs. M. J. Ludwick, wife of Mr. Bent Ludwick, died at her home two miles from here last Saturday morning, aged about 53 years. Mrs. L. was a native of Cabarrus county. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church upwards of 30 years and died in peace.
Her remains were interred at Harris Chapel Sunday morning 9 o'clock.

Mr. Pink Malt and family, of this city, father and son, will move to Macon, Georgia, next Saturday.

Capt. J. J. Bell a highly esteemed citizen of this city died at his home last Saturday night, aged about 83 years.
He was a consistent member of the M. E.
Church, South, at this place for 70 years. His funeral was preached by Rev. Dr. Leith in the M. E. church Monday 2 o'clock, p. m., and his remains were interred in the Lutheran cemetery.
Mr. Bell was next to the oldest citizen in Salisbury, Mr. John Hedrick being the oldest, his age being ninety years.

A beautiful four inch snow is now on the ground, came last night, when the people were wrapped in slumber. This makes the third snow of the season, and the longest spell of severe wintry weather that, perhaps, has been in seven years.

In the death of General B. F. Butler has passed away a unique character. For years after the war he was best known as "Spoons Butler." He was a man of marked abilities, but failed to turn his talents to good account. He was first on one side of politics, then another.

The Smithdeal Hardware Company with a capital stock of $25,000 was organized Monday night. The following are the directors: W. Smithdeal, S. H. Willey, Sr., F. J. Murdock, O. D. Davis, Theo. F. Klutz, P. M. Bernhardt and J. H. Ramsey. W. Smithdeal president and general manager, S. H. Wiley, vice-president, S. H. Wiley Jr., secretary and treasurer. This is a strong firm financially and a brainy one besides. It proposes to handle all kinds of vehicles, agricultural implements, paints, etc. This is an enterprise sure enough and we believe for it a large measure of success.

A musical concert was held in the Methodist church here Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society. Edna Dietrich, the celebrated violinist of Germany, lately of Hartford, Conn., gave an organ recital. Salisbury possesses much musical talent of a high order as was evidenced by the superb renderings of the fair contributors. It was a pronounced success and a large audience was present. There was no admission fee charged but a collection was taken up amounting to about $20.

The Review says an 8 year old colored boy of New Hanover county, during the absence of his mother, shot his 3 year old sister in the face, tearing off a large portion of the cheek, but fortunately not breaking any bones. He then stripped her naked and dragged her to a potato cellar to die. When one of the older members of the family came home and inquired about the baby he said that she was gone and he did not know what had become of her. When the child was found it was in the potato cellar, striped stark naked and nearly dead. When asked why he shot his little sister the boy replied that it was because she was bothering him.

Don't Get Them Mixed.
Many workers fall into the habit of creating people en masse, making no distinction between them. Here is a story with a moral:

At a conference of colored preachers in Indiana a report was brought up which criticized in a general way the pastor-who had not taken proper interest in Sunday schools. Instantly a brother was on his feet.

"Bishop," he cried, "Use 'gint dat paper; it floats on th'is world confound." The bishop replied that the report would hurt no preacher who was doing his duty. Instantly, however, a second objector was on his feet.

"It's 'spos'd to 'dat 'port, too bishop,"
"State your objection," said the chairman.

"Bishop," answered the objector, "de man dat don't hab fleas on him don't want to be put in de bag and shut up wid de man wat hab fleas on him." This settled the question, and "dat paper" went back to the committee to be modified to suit the occasion.

Oats and Horses.
Oats are said by a scientist to have an exciting power on a horse. The effect on the nerves and muscles were tested after eating oats and compared with their excitability before eating. Old horses mentioned that oats will make a horse more active or horse than any other grain. They contain, according to this authority, a nitrogenized substance peculiar to themselves. All oats contain this peculiar property, but the black oats have the most. When oats are ground the exciting effect is reduced, in strength and duration, but its effects are more active.
This peculiar substance is called avenine.
The soil where oats are grown makes a difference in the amount of avenine produced. Further investigation must be made to determine the kind of soil best adapted to produce the nerve power of the oats.

The An I-Option Bill.
The bill that is before the Senate to abolish future transactions in grain, cotton, etc., is not yet decided. Now, while we have not given the subject much consideration, there are some things in the matter which strike us as requiring much thought before the bill is adopted. The promoter of the bill is Senator Washburne, a large Minneapolis miller, whom it is only natural to believe is desirous of getting his stock of wheat from the fangers in the fall and winter at as low a price as possible, therefore it is only reasonable to ask is self-interest at the bottom of it? After the cotton or grain crops are secured many needy growers are obliged to sell, whatever the price is.
Now, milliners knowing this, are very wary to buy grain and winter at as low a price as possible, in order to get a low price for their stock, and as many of the smaller millers are not in the financial position to carry large quantities to warehouse, they are likely to take advantage of the necessities of sellers.

It seems to us to confine the buying to a few will be ruinous to growers. Speculators act as a buffer between excessive low prices of ordinary crops and excessive high prices of short crops. Speculators drive up prices very quickly if there is any apparent cause for low prices, and as many of the smaller millers are not in the financial position to carry large quantities to warehouse, they are likely to take advantage of the necessities of sellers.

A skeleton of a man was unearthed, so the story goes, in Montana recently which must have belonged to a man six ty feet high. He had backbone enough for the centre pole of a circus tent. But it is not yet an established fact whether he was a native of Montana or dropped off the planet Mars when it was swinging round this way. They say that about the size of full grown people in Marsiana —Wil. Star.

One of the most vigorous old men that we know is Mr. Oliver McMath, of Hickory Mountain township, who although he is 78 years old is one of the most noted fox hunters in the State. He can ride after the hounds all day without any fatigue, and break down any ordinary man.—Pittsboro Record.

Items of Interest.
The Mississippi is shallower than it was before since 1856, and is almost completely frozen over opposite St. Louis.

Over two hundred omnibuses in London are now fitted with electric lights supplied from small storage batteries.

Over one hundred persons condemned to death are now in prison in Greece awaiting execution of their sentence. The population of the country is hardly two millions. Nine people were guillotined in five days just before Christmas.

Scotland is going to make a special exhibit at the Chicago Fair of a hundred stalwart Highlanders, in full national costume. They will be picked for size and strength, and not for good looks. After the fair, or before it, close if the sensation of their appearance grows weak, they will make a tour of this country.

Squirrel are very plentiful and destructive in Washington. Lincoln county paid out $40,000 in bounties on squirrel scalps last year, yet but little good effect was produced. It is proposed to tax all the lands in the county to raise funds to fight the pest, and so make railroads and non-resident owners help in the work.

Horrible Murder.
WALTON COV., N. C., Dec. 31.
On last Monday night, Dec. 29th, the most horrible murder that ever occurred in Stokes county was committed near Neatman post office. Ira Voss and Samly Stevenson and Peter Keyser went to the house of Mrs. Polly Watson and asked for admittance and were refused. Voss and Stevenson entered the house by tearing down the door. Stevenson dragged the woman out, who was of a bad character, and about ten steps from the house beat her head into a jelly. Voss remained in the house while Stevenson came back and attempted to shoot the six year old boy of Mrs. Watson, and would have done so had it not been for Voss striking his hand as he fired, causing the ball to go over him. Mrs.
Watson was found the next morning near the house with a o' necks be-head and shoulders that would weigh about two hundred pounds. It is supposed that Voss implicated in the murder. The parties are in the hands of the officers.

Entry of Vacant and Unappropriated Land.
Two pieces of vacant and unappropriated lands have recently been entered in this county, one in the country the other in town. That in the country embraces about fifteen acres more or less, of woodland, and lies about six miles distant from here, about a quarter of a mile from the public road leading to Mt. Pleasant.
It adjoins the lands of Adam Rosenberry, K. A. Raine, the Sheriff's place and others and is on the west side of the road not far from what is known as the Erick school house. This was entered by James Glover and is a valuable piece of property.

That in the city is a lot of about half an acre lying between the Lutheran grave-yard and the Railroad shops or Lee street. The line commences at the North corner of the grave-yard and runs thence in a N. E. direction to the W. N. C. Railroad, with Lee street thence S. E. 50 feet to a stake thence S. W. 200 feet to the graveyard, thence N. W. with the line of the grave yard will 100 feet to the beginning. This was entered by Mrs.
Susan B. Pool, wife of Policeman W.
W. Pool and is worth a neat little sum.
Mr. Pool, it is said, will erect a store house on the land.—Herald.

Killed in a Drunken Brawl.
JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 7.—A special from Ocala to the Time-Union says: Harry Sinclair, a white man, was killed last night about 12:30 o'clock by a negro named John Taylor. The raggedy departed near the Florida Southern depot. Sinclair went to a house occupied by several negro women and had difficulty with Taylor, which resulted in the negro cutting him with a razor and then shooting him through the heart. Sinclair came from West Virginia twelve years ago and engaged in the lumber business at Ocala. He was deemed a good citizen, and would occasionally go on a drunken pre, when he was inclined to be reckless. He was married, and 37 years old, intelligent and well connected, having a brother doing business in Savannah and another brother a colonel in the regular army, who is now stationed at Mobile.

Steve Ryan on Bail.
ATLANTA, GA., Jan. 7.—A new turn was taken to-day in the case of the merchant prince, Steve Ryan, whose financial failure of a year ago will be remembered, especially in business circles, and who has been in jail for a year for contempt of court in refusing to deliver certain assets, which the court decided he had in his possession.
For some time his attorneys have been endeavoring to secure a trial by jury and regain release from jail, on bond until the trial could be heard. After a lengthy hearing Judge Clarke granted their prayer to day. Ryan breathes the air of freedom outside the jail walls.
His bond is for $100,000.

More money for the people at less rate of interest is involved in a law under which State banks will be put in operation, and the subject deserve and will receive the most careful and thorough discussion.—Raleigh Chronicle.

Texas boasts that it has 57 counties, each of which is larger than the entire State of Rhode Island.

The Marion Free Lance notes the marriage of William Kelly, of McDowell county, aged 70 years, to a girl 16 years of age. This is the venerable groom's third matrimonial venture.

Jacob Bunce, of Hartford county, Md., has died and left 27 orphans.
He has been married three times. His first marriage was without issue. His second wife had had nineteen children, including two sets of twins and one of triplets. By his third wife M.
Bunce had eight children.

We print from the Wilmington MESSENGER an article entitled "A Needed Discussion," which raises an interesting point. The editor of the MESSENGER and other patriotic writers have pointed out the injustice that has been done the writers of the South—and notably such writers, poets in the best sense, as Poe, Lanier, Hayne and Timrod—by the sweeping assumption of Northern critics that the South has produced no literature to speak of.
The reader will observe that the articles of the MESSENGER, and the discussion between Dr. Smith and Prof. Baskerville commented upon our excellent contemporary, have reference chiefly to the alleged effect of slavery upon the South in repressing literary effort and the appreciation of literature. But, as we have said, the discussion raises an interesting point which we have never seen alluded to.—Fayetteville Observer.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 9.—Mr.
F. W. Thornton, the great dry goods merchant, made an assignment to-day. It is really only the sequel of the failure of the People's National bank of this city two years ago. By that failure Mr. Thornton was a heavy loser and if he had sought his own advantage he would have done then what he did today, but he recognized the injury to the community which would be added to that already caused by the bank's failure and manfully resolved to attempt to prevent it. This he would undoubtedly have accomplished had it not been for the unprecedented harden-ness of the times in this section, consequent upon the low price of cotton, lasting practically up to this time. Mr. Thornton was undoubtedly the leading dry goods merchant in North Carolina and due to the failure of the People's bank was looked upon as the most successful.
He is a large owner of real estate and survivor in the value of this, consequent upon the cotton price, contributing to prevent him carrying out his intentions. He is a strong man and an accomplished merchant, and it is not doubted that he will soon be on his feet again. He has already received many letters from his northern creditors extending their sympathies to him.
His failure is regarded here as a public calamity and he has the warmest sympathy of all the citizens who have a lively sense of the great service he has done this community during his extraordinary business career of nearly a quarter of a century.

The assignees are R. M. Nimlocks and A. B. Williams. The liabilities are estimated at $25,000, assets about the same. Preferences and mortgages amount to $75,000.

117 & 119 N. Eighth St., Philadelphia, Pa.
Satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Farmers Wholesale Supply House of Philadelphia, Pa. to supply members with goods at the lowest market wholesale prices, and any goods received that are not satisfactory, can be returned to them at their expense, and money will be refunded for the same.
Business agents who have filed a Bond with us can place their orders for the Farmers Wholesale Supply House through this office, and pay for same within thirty days from date of Bill.
