Mr. T. R. Robertson has been appointed postmaster at Charlotte.

Mr. A. H. Boyden will take charge of the Salisbury postoffice on the first of July.

Mr. J. B. Sheets, of A. B. Brown, says that the perfume off of the human body is the most beautiful thing in the world.

The Neave Music School will close on Saturday night, to be given again and to-morrow night.

Messrs. Walter Murphy and Ernest McKenzie arrived home for vacation at Chapel Hill last Saturday.

A call, last Friday, from our old and honored friend, J. L. Sloan, Esq., of the city, was highly appreciated.

That North State gem of journalism, Caldwell's Daily Observer, announced last Monday the foundation of a new paper's new building was begun.

Mr. Sam Linton, Charlotte's gas-supplier, who is well known here, while visiting a gas main by the Buford Hotel Sunday, struck a well defined vein of gold ore, says the Observer.

Mrs. C. F. King, of Atlanta, Ga., formerly a Miss McRae, of Montgomery county, passed through the city last Saturday, on her return from visiting relatives in her native county.

One of our county's best farmers, A. McConnell, Esq., of Mt. Ulla township, reports fine wheat crops in his neighborhood. He has four acres from which he expects to harvest one hundred bushels.

The new M. E. church in process of construction on Chestnut Hill, is now enclosed. When completed, it will be a substantial and commodious structure. Mr. Lambeth received 88 votes; Mr. Thompson 75; Godwin 3; Dodson 7, and Grimes 16.

The Charlotte Observer, of Tuesday, reports that the death of a poor white woman, the wife of Ed Thomas, of that city, last Sunday brought to light the fact that the said Thomas had been treating his sick wife with fiendish brutality. He confessed after his arrest to having burned her arms with live coals of fire while she lay helpless on her death bed—pretending that he did it for the purpose of inducing her to profess religion and thus escape the fires of hell. The Observer states that Dr. Wilder is of the opinion that Thomas is insane. He had been previously inflicting other cruelties upon the poor woman—by various methods—until it seems he actually murdered her.

Children's Day services were held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening, a large and appreciative audience being present. The exercises consisted of songs, responsive readings, a recitation by the infant class, a mission address by Dr. Thornwell, of Fort Mill, S. C., and collection for the cause of foreign missions. The collection amounted to $89.33, of which $9.78 was donated by the infant class as a contribution to the Congo boat fund. The exercises were enjoyed by all present.

Salisbury is determined to continue the drunkard-making business. On last Monday she said by a vote of over two to one that she preferred to keep open these soul-destroying dens to entice the weak and helpless drunkard, and to blight his home and render it the abode of poverty, misery, and shame. While many expected prohibition to be defeated, everybody was surprised at the large majority license received. The whole vote cast was 493. Of these 313 were for license and 180 against, the majority for license being 157. The petition asking for an election, was signed by 283 qualified voters of the town, and the mystery to many now is what became of those who were prohibitionists. We suppose it was too "wet" for them to get out. Any information of them will be gladly received.

Davidson Commencement Exercises. The commencement exercises of Davidson College were largely attended and enjoyed by all. Rev. Eugene Daniels, D. D., of Raleigh, preached the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning, June 4, at 11 o'clock a. m., and Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., the sermon before the Y. M. C. A. at 8 p. m. On Tuesday the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees took place. Steps were taken toward the establishment of a class of philosophy and history. The English professor, Dr. Currell will hereafter be relieved of part of another course. Prof. Vinson taking political economy next year, W. S. Graves, Professor of Latin and French, resigned and W. R. Grey, Ph. D., of John Hopkins University, was chosen to fill this chair for one year. Mr. Jas. B. Wharey, of class of '92, was chosen assistant professor of mathematics and librarian for next year. Tuesday night, the annual exercises of the Literary Societies were held. The orators for the occasion were Rev. C. G. Vardell, of New Bern, who represented the E. and Rev. P. R. Law who represented the Phi. The speaking was unusually good.

Wednesday ex-Governor Thomas M. Holt delivered the annual oration, taking as his theme, "The Royalty of True Manhood." Gov. Holt spoke of the founding of Davidson College by sturdy Presbyterians, and of her adherence to the principles of her founders, as was evidenced by the fact that 59 of the 153 students now present were preparing to enter the ministry. He impressed upon the graduating class the importance of the development of the moral man and also importance of choosing the right profession. Wednesday night occurred the contest for orator's medal by the junior class representatives from both societies. Mr. C. E. Hodgkin, of Antioch, N. C., a Phil won the medal.

On Thursday, graduating exercises were opened with prayer by Dr. H. T. Pritchard, of Charlotte. The first speaker was Mr. E. S. Tillinghast, of Raleigh, a salutatorian, whose subject was "Poetry as an Educator." W. K. Forsyth, of Greensboro, delivered an oration on the "Mission of Genius"; H. R. Murchison, of Coronado, S. C., spoke on "Intellectual Hygiene"; "Carolina in the Literary World" was the subject of the next speaker, Mr. A. K. Pool, of Keyser, N. C.

Mr. T. W. Lingle, of Mill Bridge, N. C., was prevented by illness from delivering the philosophical oration on the subject of "The Influence of Gladstone Upon the Age."

The prizes were then awarded by Rev. Dr. T. R. English, of Yorkville, professor in Union Theological Seminary, Hampden Side, Va.

In the Philanthropic Society Mr. W. K. Forsyth, of Greensboro, N. C., won both the debater's and essayist's medals, and Mr. L. E. Wells, of Duplin county, the declaimer's medal.

In the Eumenian Society, Mr. John L. Douglas, of Blackstock, won the debater's medal, Mr. F. H. Wardlaw, of Darlington, S. C., the declaimer's medal and Mr. J. M. Harris, of Harrisburg, N. C., won the essayist's medal.

Mr. J. H. Grey, of Huntersville, won the Wm. Banks Biblical medal, for which Mr. T. W. Lingle was a good second best.

Honorary degrees were then conferred upon the following: A. M. upon Prof. D. F. Eagleton, A. B. Austin College Texas; D. D. upon Rev. E. A. Ramsay, Memphis, Tenn., and Rev. W. S. Beale, Clinton, S. C.; and L. L. D. upon Justice Aramstead Barwell, of Charlotte. The following young gentlemen graduated and the diplomas were presented by Dr. Shearer:

B., mathematics, Nashville, Tenn.

The following students were on the roll of honor, having averaged over 95 in the scale of 100: Seniors, J. H. Grey, E. S. Tillinghast, J. R. Schenck, J. M. Douglas and J. L. Douglas; juniors, M. E. Sentelle, J. M. Farr and C. E. Hodgkin; sophomores, V. J. Hill, H. C. Hammond and F. A. Baras; freshmen, N. H. McGillvary, J. E. Brown, Jr., J. G. Varner, J. E. Mills and W. A. Goodman.

J. H. Grey, of Huntersville, N. C., then delivered the valedictory oration on the subject of "Trial by Jury."

After the rendition of the "Old North State" by the college chorus the exercises were ended.

Montgomery County News—Troy. J. P. Hall, Superintendent of the Sunday school at Zoar church, states that last Sunday was Children's Day there, and that the occasion was a very interesting and successful one; and that much interest is taken in the Sunday school work there.

W. T. Harris, Esq. showed me some very rich specimens of gold ore taken from the Hamilton mine a few miles North of Troy, which he has bonded. The vein is well developed and is 43 or 55 feet wide in a shaft twenty five deep, and the mine is thought to be a Bonanza to our young Bachelor friend.

Messrs. Douglass & Shaw, of Carthage, paid our town a visit this week, on business, and have associated W. L. Spence with them in the practice of law at this place. So the firm will be "Douglass, Shaw & Spence," hereafter.

Handsome cards of invitation were sent out for the picnic at "River Side Park," at Smitherman's mill, on Little river, on Friday the 9th of June. Mr. Blair and others prepared some boats for the occasion, which with Croquet and Lawn Tennis, afforded enjoyment for the large crowd that attended.

The day was auspicious, beautiful and pleasant, in fact, just such a day as all desired to see for such an occasion. The attendance was large, estimated at three or four hundred. Four States, viz: Colorado, Florida, Virginia and North Carolina, were represented; and the Counties of this State represented were Montgomery, Rowan, Moore, Richmond, and Staunty. It was said that a more handsome number of ladies was never seen in the State, at one gathering, whose attractions have smitten many of the young gentlemen in our vicinity.

A public dinner was given to the large assembly, and there was a bountiful repast—enough for each and enough for all. After the white assembly had eaten, the colored present were invited, who of course did justice to the occasion, and still several baskets full were left on the table.

The committee on invitation, the chaplains, the managers, and citizens interested, are to be congratulated upon their great success and good management of the picnic of 1893, at the River side Park, on Little river. It is an event that will be long and pleasantly remembered. Amusements, such as boat-riding on the river, croquet, and lawn tennis, music and dancing were greatly enjoyed; and nothing transpired to mar the pleasures and enjoyment of the day. Everybody returned well pleased with the picnic, and all agreeing that it was a grand success in all respects, and a day long to be remembered.

There were near two hundred of the ladies and gentlemen who came back to Troy, and remained all night. There was a social gathering of the crowd at Mr. W. R. Harris' residence at night, where the young ladies and gentlemen had music, and spent the night most pleasantly and happily. It is said that the house and yard were filled with the young people.

Rev. J. B. Hurley, pastor of Central Church at Raleigh, who has been visiting his sick mother, near Troy, for some time, returned home this week, leaving his mother much improved.

From present indications, there are good reasons to believe that the marriage bells will ere long be ringing about Troy and Zion church.

Prof. A. S. Harris will open a High School at the Academy, in Troy, in August next.

We have had fine rains this week and the crops are in good condition and growing rapidly.

The Irish potato bugs have made their appearance in great numbers; and are hard to destroy.

J. M. Denton, postmaster at Troy has, at last, received his commission and has taken possession of the office.

Misses Ada Wade and Ada Allen have returned from Greensboro Female College.

Bailey, the Master of Mocksville Lodge, No. 124, has appointed the following named persons as the members of the various committees for the next annual Masonic picnic, which will be held there on Thursday, August 10th: On Grounds—S.
