

Carolina Watchman.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

City and Country.

T. S. WATSON, LOCAL AND CITY EDITOR.

THURSDAY June 29, 1893.

James F. Cuthrell, of Raleigh, is visiting relatives in the city.

Hon. Kerr Craige spent Sunday at home with his family.

Mrs. Nancy Miller, an estimable lady of Morgan township, died June 19, 1893, aged 74 years and 8 months.

Dr. W. B. Ramsay and bride, of Sheriff's Ford, spent Sunday in the city, visiting the family of Capt. J. A. Ramsay.

J. Allen Brown and daughters, Misses Bessie and Lida, went to Connelly Springs Monday. The young ladies will stay about two weeks.

Mr. George Lyerly, an esteemed citizen of Providence township, this county, died at his home about 1 o'clock last Monday.

Dr. W. W. McKenzie has a card in this issue of the WATCHMAN, offering his professional services to the people of Salisbury and surrounding country.

Rev. Dr. Leith and wife, and J. Frank McCubbin and wife left last Tuesday morning for a month's visit at Washington, Niagara Falls, and the World's Fair.

The Presbyterian and Lee Street Chapel Sunday schools held their annual picnic at Franklin church Tuesday. There was a large crowd present, and a pleasant day was spent.

Eugene Thompson, son of Mr. F. M. Thompson aged about 13 years, and James Hodges about the same age ran away from home last Friday. They got as far as Concord, where they were caught.

Mr. Luther Lentz, of Mt. Pleasant, came near drowning Thursday evening at 3 mile branch, says the Concord Standard. He managed to get his horse unhitched and swam out.

We are glad to learn that Mr. R. L. Crawford, formerly of Salisbury but now of Winston, has been given the position of private secretary by district attorney R. B. Glenn. His salary will be $1200 a year.

During the progress of the storm last Thursday, Mr. John R. Crawford, telegraph operator, while attempting to send a message, was severely stunned by lightning running in on the wires. The shock was only temporary, and Mr. Crawford is alright again.

A severe storm of wind and rain passed over the city last Thursday afternoon. Lightning struck in two places in town but no damage was done. A great many fruit trees in town were broken down by the wind. Quite a lively time was reported among the employees of the knitting mills, caused by the lightning flashing through the building.

Mr. Charles E. Turner, of Iredell county, who won the gold medal in the Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest offered by the State Teachers' Assembly, is a graduate of Trinity College of the class of 1893, and represented the Hesperian Literary Society of that institution in the contest. Mr. Turner also won the highest prize for oratory, the Wiley Gray Medal, at the late Commencement.

Gas Bingham and Burton Craige returned from Horner school last Friday. We learn that on the commencement exercises, the Essayist's medal was awarded to Burton Craige, and both young gentlemen won first distinction in their classes. This is quite an honor to the boys, and reflects credit upon Prof. J. M. Hill, who gave them excellent training in their preparatory work.

Mrs. Jane Klutz, wife of Jacob Klutz of Locke township, died at her home last Sunday morning after much bodily suffering. She was a Christian woman, and died in the faith. She leaves a husband, five children, and many friends to mourn their loss. Rev. A. L. Coburn conducted the funeral services at the home. The remains were interred at Union Church, Dr. Leith conducted these services.

We should be glad to see several camps of veterans organized in the county and hope necessary steps will be taken to effect this. The necessary papers to form camps can be had by applying to Adjutant General, Geo. Moorman, New Orleans, and they can join the United Confederate Veteran Association up to date of the Birmingham Reunion, July 19 and 20th next. We call attention to a circular from Adjutant General Moorman in another column. Cheap rates can be had on all railroads to this reunion.

Concord Standard: Mr. Pink Campbell, of Hickory, N. C., was married, Thursday evening of last week, to Miss Jennie Lintaker, daughter of Mr. Jas. F. Lintaker, of No. 11. Rev. W. G. Campbell performed the ceremony. The bridal couple passed through on their way to Hickory.

Our city had quite a surprise on Tuesday in the announcement of the marriage of Mr. J. Frank McCubbin and Miss Mamie Gaskill at the residence of Dr. Leith at 4 o'clock in the morning. It was a private affair, consequently the ceremony was performed at Dr. Leith's. J. Frank McCubbin is one of the most popular young men in town, and has won one of Salisbury's most charming belles. The happy couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Washington. From there they go to Niagara Falls, Chicago and other points. We extend our hearty congratulations to the young people, and wish them much success and happiness.

E. P. Hall, Esq., of Mt. Ulla, was in the city Monday.

N. B. McCausless returned Tuesday night from the World's Fair.

John Hardy, the negro who beat his wife a few days ago, was caught Monday night, and placed in jail.

We are glad to know that Mr. J. L. Watson, who has been sick for two weeks with typhoid fever, is convalescing.

We are glad to see Mr. James Heathman in town to-day after several weeks' illness with the typhoid fever at his home at South River.

Rev. T. R. Sampson, missionary from Athens, Greece, will lecture on missions, in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. A. L. Johnson plucked his first ripe tomatoes last Friday, and will have a plenty of this luscious and healthy vegetable on the market the latter part of this week.

Hon. Jno. S. Henderson and Jas. H. McKenzie went down to Raleigh Monday night—delegates to the Episcopal Diocesan Convention in session there this week.

The Charlotte News says: Mr. Frank Snider sent the News a cabbage stalk from his garden this morning that is a curiosity. From the single stalk, ten large and well developed heads have grown out.

Ed Marsh is at home with a fractured rib, and is slightly bruised otherwise. While making up a freight train in Asheville, he was knocked from a car by the roof of the car shed. He will be alright in a week or two.

A rattle-snake with 7 rattles, has been on exhibition at Smoot & McCulloh's store for the past few days. It was captured by Henry L. Tomlin, freight conductor on the Western road.

The Charlotte News stands ahead on chicken tickets. It says: Constable Irwin has a chicken worth talking about. The chicken was hatched in January. A few weeks ago it went to laying eggs and now it is setting on them. This beats the record.

The Daily Herald says: A postal card received from Rev. N. S. Jones, pastor of the Baptist church, states that while he and his wife were on a visit at the country home of Mrs. Jones' aunt, in Conecuh county, Alabama, on last Friday night, the residence with all its contents was burned. Mr. and Mrs. Jones lost all the clothing they had with them, together with some other articles of personal property. Their many friends here will be sorry to learn of this loss.

Mrs. Fannie Hairston, of Davie county, gave quite a pleasant house party on Tuesday night of last week. The following young ladies and gentlemen of Salisbury were invited and participated in the joyous festivities: Misses Fannie and Alice Caldwell, Bessie Henderson, Nannie Craig, Jennie and Ruth Klutz, and Daisy Seales; Messrs. Walter Murphy, James Gaither, Ernest McKenzie, and Dr. W. W. McKenzie. The young people report a very pleasant time.

Mr. N. S. Hamilton, of Montgomery county, was in town Monday, and informs us that he has recently discovered an apparently rich vein of gold-bearing slate ore in Ophir township, near Barne's Creek, Montgomery county. He and his partner, Mr. W. T. Harris, have sunk on it to a depth of 20 feet and they find the vein is from 4 to 5 feet in width, and that it is rich in gold all through. It can be traced upon the surface for a distance of 75 yards, the ore showing gold all the way. Mr. Hamilton has had experience in mining and thinks he has a good thing in this new discovery.

We have received from the secretary, H. W. Ayer, a copy of the premium list for the State Fair of 1893. It is a more artistic publication than ever before, being embellished with handsome illustrations of North Carolina scenery, agricultural and fishing industries &c. The list has been thoroughly revised, especially in the departments in which ladies are interested, and the premiums are very liberal. The usual star premium of Fifty Dollars in gold is offered for the best exhibit made by a lady resident of the State, with a second premium of Twenty Dollars. There is also a premium of Fifty Dollars for the best display of many kind in the Main Exhibit Building. Fruit growers and Poultry fanciers, as well as others, will find the list for this year very interesting. Anybody can get copies by applying to H. W. Ayer, Raleigh, N. C. Everybody should have one.

The services of the laying of the corner stone of the new Methodist church on Chestnut Hill, being prevented on last Thursday by the storm, were held Monday afternoon, June 26, 1893, by Rev. J. J. Renna, presiding elder, assisted by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Coburn. Rev. Dr. Rumble, by invitation, delivered a pleasing and appropriate address, which was highly appreciated and enjoyed by all. The building is now enclosed and pointed. It is also ceiled overhead, and the floor is laid. It is a handsome brick structure, large enough to hold a congregation of three or four hundred people, and taking everything into consideration is remarkably cheap. The following is an account of the work: Paid for work and material thus far $737.37. Indebtedness for work and material $655.82. Will require to finish $250.00. Total cost of building $1,643.19. Mr. Coburn and building committee, are to be congratulated on their work. They have a $2500 building for $1600.

Constipation and sick headache permanently cured, and piles prevented by Japanese Liver Pellets; especially adapted to children's use. Sold by Edwin Cuthrell, Salisbury, N. C.

Infant son of Thomas J. McKenzie, aged about 6 weeks, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The bereaved parents have our heartfelt sympathy in their loss.

Rev. J. A. Howard, of Reidsville, will give a lecture on the life of Christ, at the Y. M. C. A. to-night, illustrating it with stereopticon views. The price of admission is 25 cents, children 15 cents.

R. Lee Wright, of this city, and Miss Sallie B. Oakes, of Yadkin College, were married at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon. The happy couple left last night for the World's Fair. We extend best congratulations.

We are glad to note the rapid and wholesome growth of the State University which is a matter for State pride and rejoicing. In two years the student roll has grown from 198 to 316. $20,000 worth of repairs is being made on the buildings; this summer; water works, baths, etc., are being supplied. The scholarship of the institution is being recognized everywhere as equal to that of the leading Universities, and soon we shall have in North Carolina the great Southern University. See advertisement.

The Episcopal Diocesan Convention, which convened in Raleigh Tuesday for the purpose of electing an assistant bishop for the Western part of the diocese, closed its meeting yesterday, having chosen Rev. Dr. Joseph Blount Chesire, Jr., of Charlotte, as Assistant Bishop. Dr. Murdoch, of our city, ran ahead of all the nominations until the 39th ballot, receiving on the 38th ballot 25 votes. On the 39th ballot, Dr. Chesire received 29 votes (just the number needed) and was declared nominated. The laity, by a vote of 24 parishes for, to 7 against, elected him.

An unfortunate accident occurred on the farm of Mr. B. Ludwick last Sunday morning. Paul Means, a negro boy about 14 years old, was accidentally shot by a pistol in the hands of John Kinley, colored, aged about 19 years. There are two reports about the shooting, and it is impossible to get the truth about the matter. The first report is: the negroes were in a room dressing, and Kinley, who was fooling with a 32 calibre, double action revolver, started to assist Means to tie his cravat. Means in raising his hand to the back of his neck, struck the hammer of the pistol held in the hands of Kinley and discharged it, the ball striking him on the left side of the neck. The other report says that Kinley pointed the weapon at Means and pulled the trigger, thinking it was not loaded. The ball struck the spinal column, and the attending physicians say glanced downward and lodged in the chest. The spinal cord was injured, producing paralysis of the whole body. The boy was conscious all day Sunday and talked with his friends, but could not move any portion of his body. He died Sunday night.

We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from our talented young friend, Rev. Oscar W. Haywood, now pastor of the Baptist church of Morristown, Tenn., who was passing through the city on his way to Mt. Gilead, Montgomery county, to visit his mother and other relatives at his native home.

In 1888 Bro. Haywood was connected with the writer in the editorial management of the Troy Vidette, and the year following was sole editor of the Mt. Airy News. He is one of the most talented young ministers that Wake Forest College has turned out in recent years, and the Baptist church of North Carolina can be proud of such a son, who will honor her wherever he goes.

Mt. Gilead Locals—Montgomery County.

Rev. K. A. McLeod filled his regular appointment at Sharon the 25th inst., and as usual he preached a good practical sermon to an attentive audience.

On last Thursday evening the 22nd inst. we were visited with a very hard wind, rain, and hail. A great many trees were blown down; also several ices, stables and old buildings in the community were destroyed. The hail was very large, and damaged corn and cotton very badly, though it did not extend far from this place. The west end of Mr. M. B. Lassiter's brick store house was blown out, and quite a lot of old buildings near by were blown to pieces, though no one was hurt as we have heard up to this writing.

Rev. K. A. McLeod and family have gone to Virginia this week on a visit to his wife's father.

The Mt. Gilead Baptist church has just completed a very nice belfry, and is ready for the bell. It adds very much to the appearance of the church.

Mr. Cull Smith's son, about 10 years of age, was bitten by a snake one day last week, and hasn't been able to walk since. He drank a pint of whiskey and it did not intoxicate him the least bit. He lives in Pee Dee township, and was improving when last heard from.

Last week Mr. Joe Melton, while moving from near Erie Mills to Candor, got about half way and died. He was brought back and buried at Melton's Grove, a place named after him. He was over 80 years of age and a native of Stanley county—a boot and shoe maker by trade.

Mr. W. T. Haywood, of near this place, has a cabbage with 5 heads to it.

Mr. T. C. Ingram and wife were in town last week.
