LOCAL BRIEFS,
City and Country.

WATSON, LOCAL AND CITY EDITOR.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY July 8, 1893.

Miss Mary Julian, who has been in Baltimore two weeks, will return home to-night.
The Providence Township S. S. Convention will be held at St. Luke's Reformed church, Thursday, August 3rd 1893.

The second annual convention of Morgan Township S. S. will be held at St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran church, Friday August 4th 1893.
Mr. E. M. Baringer, of this city and Miss Anna Turner, of Burlington were married at the Beech house in Greensboro Tuesday. We extend congratulations to the happy couple.

Rev. T. R. Sampson, returned missionary from Athens Greece, delivered two excellent lectures on foreign missions in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Sampson is a fluent and able speaker, and speaks from experience and observation, having been in Greece and in different parts of the foreign field for the last fifteen years. He is an earnest, zealous worker, and one who has done great and lasting good for the noble cause for which he is laboring.

Last Friday morning about 8 o'clock a negro named Johnson Lloyd, of Concord, in attempting to steal a ride on a freight train, was seriously injured. He was thrown from the train and struck on the head by one of the iron rods under the car. The wheels of the car passed over his right leg, crushing it from the knee to the foot and leaving it hanging by a small piece of flesh; his skull was also crushed. Dr. Whitehead and W. W. McKinzie amputated the leg above the knee and at last accounts he was getting along very well.

The Landmark says the people of Statesville and Iredell county are prosperous and have plenty of the where-withal to meet present wants, at least, or words to that effect. This must be true, for we noticed while there last Saturday that active work is progressing there in the erection of very substantial brick buildings in place of nearly every one of the buildings recently destroyed by fire. Statesville is no slow town by any means, and in connection with her other first-class enterprises she has the deserved reputation of having the best weekly newspaper in the State, which fact is due to her patriotic citizens' pride in unitingly sustaining all business enterprises which are likely to prove beneficial to the town and community. Many of the towns of our State would be better off if their citizens were imbued with the same spirit of enterprise that is a prominent feature in those of our sister town. They deserve to reap abundant prosperity.

Last Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock the store-house of Mr. Taylor Fry, on Factory hill, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was given and a large crowd quickly collected, but the fire, which had probably been burning unnoticed for nearly an hour, spread rapidly, and the building was a sheet of flame in a very few minutes after being discovered. The fire was fed by combustibles in the store and fanned by a slight breeze, the flames were quickly transmitted to Mr. Fry's dwelling, which stood at a distance of only a few feet from the burning building. This also was completely enveloped in flames, before the fire companies from town arrived. In a few minutes after this, streams of water were pouring on the burning dwelling from hose attached to a hydrant standing near the new factory building, and soon the flames were under full control. St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel and Mr. J. M. Odell's dwelling were both in great danger, and would have burned if the fire companies had been 15 minutes later. The Chapel was considerably scorched, and damaged otherwise. Mrs. Fry, who was very sick at the time of the fire, was carried to Mrs. Myrick's near by. It was feared that excitement would have a serious effect upon her, but she is reported to be getting along very well since the fire. The insurance on the property amounts to $1,500. This does not cover the loss, but will be a great help to Mr. Fry. He has our deepest sympathy in all his troubles.

Confederate Veteran camp was organized Tuesday night under the auspices of Col. Chas. F. Fisher Camp, No. 3. Space forbids us printing a list of the names.

We understand that arrangements have been made whereby cash loans can be secured on good improved real estate to the extent of fifty per cent. of its value. The board of directors of the Perpetual Building & Loan Association will superintend this effort to place Northern money in our midst. Every dollar of this money loaned among us will tend to relieve the hardness of the times.—Daily Herald.

Miss Annie Ingram, of Arkansas, is visiting Mr. L. P. Byrd's family this month.
Mr. M. S. Martin has made a contract with Mr. Williamson of Norwood, to paint his house.
Miss Mantie Christian has gone to Dalton and Red Banks to visit her sister, Mrs. J. T. Ewing and her cousin, Mr. J. B. Hayward.

Mr. M. S. Martin had cotton blooms by the 1st of July. Who can beat him in cotton growing?
Mr. Jim Bailey now of McCall station but formerly of Wadeville, was up last week, 28th instant swapping horses and buying beef cattle.
Mr. Henry Vestal left here 28th instant for his home in Moore county.
Miss Georgia McAulay has just returned from a visit to Mrs. Cox at Lilesville.
Miss Rothcock, of Gold Hill, is visiting in town this week.
We are having good refreshing showers every few days.

Our Advertisers.

"Banks go up" but prices still "go down" at E. W. Burt & Co's. So they say in their new ad. this week.
The Cherokee Nursery Company has an advertisement of their extensive Nurseries at Way Cross Ga., in this paper. Read it and wait for their agents.

Salisbury Bicycle Club.
The bicyclists of Salisbury met Monday night and organized a club to be known as the Salisbury Bicycle Club. The following officers were elected:
I. H. Foust, president, James McCormick, secretary, Walter Heathman, treasurer, John Gorman, captain. The following rules were adopted:
1st. That all wheels shall have alarm bells.
2nd. That no member shall ride at night on the streets without a lantern attached to the bicycle.
3rd. That the town ordinances in regard to signals and pavement riding be strictly observed.
4th. That racing on the streets be forbidden and considered a sufficient cause for official investigation.
5th. That disorderly conduct shall be a sufficient cause for expulsion from the club.
6th. That each rider shall steer as far from horses attached to vehicles as possible, and that whenever a horse shows signs of fright the rider shall dismount and do all in his power to prevent the horse from frighing.

China Grove Dots.
Rev. John George occupied the pulpit at Mt. Moriah Sunday. He preached an excellent sermon.
Dr. A. J. Crowell went to Charlotte last Friday. He returned the same evening.
Owing to the quick sand the factory well has shut down at forty-eight feet.
Theological student, R. L. Patterson has accepted a call to supply the Lutheran Mission at Greensboro.

Mr. J. M. Eddleman and wife attended the fourth of July exercises at Greensboro.
Miss Lula Patterson has returned from her visit to Salisbury.
Miss Mary Graham will open her school at Saw on the tenth of this month.

Mooreville News Notes.
Farmers are about done work, and crops are looking fine.
Cotton was somewhat late this spring, but in all prospects was never better.

Children's day services were held at Center church last Saturday. The exercises were opened with prayer by Dr. Whaley, after which Rev. A. T. Graham, of Davidson, was introduced and delivered an address appropriate to the occasion. A collection was then taken up for foreign Missions in which $35 was realized.

DR. W. W. McKENZIE
Offers his professional services to the citizens of Salisbury and surrounding community. He can be found at his office up stairs over the post office or at Klutz's drug store.

RECENT IMPROVEMENTS.
