Watered as second-class mail at Salisbury, N. C.
 THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1893.

Sunday the 16th, was the last on which the World's Fair will be opened. The directors at their meeting last Friday, voted, almost without discussion that the gates should be closed on the Sabbath. Write me christian people of our land are glad of this, they can give the directors no credit for their action in this matter. These godless, avaricious men have no conscientious scruples in closing the doors of the big show on Sunday. They have found that it doesn't pay. Instead of a big rush on Sunday as they expected, the attendance on that day has been considerably smaller than on other days of the week. To the christian people of our land, who resolved to boycott the great exposition for its desecration of God's holy Sabbath, belongs the honor of closing the gates on Sunday. Sunday opening was a European idea, although a great many of the exhibits from that and other eastern countries have been covered and roped in on Sunday for some time past. This is a great victory for the christian Sabbath and one that reflects great credit upon the better class of American and European people.

Vanderbilt's Buncombe County Estate.
 R. L. Abernathy in Morganton Herald: The first idea called up in the mind of a visitor when for the first time he looks upon the grandeur and magnificence of the works of George W. Vanderbilt, is that of the towering pyramids of Egypt, of the magnificent structure of Solomon's Temple. It would be folly in me to attempt anything like a pensive description of that stupendous edifice, or even the faintest idea of its grand and beautiful surroundings.

To look upon its ponderous stones; its massive pillars; its extensive and gorgeous floral departments; its towering walls, cemented and covered with polished marble or granite; its huge and ponderous wrought iron beams, joints and girders, some weighing near a thousand tons, its sculptured and decorated towers, its arched and figured domes, crowds the mind with such a sense of magnificence, grandeur and beauty that sickens the brain with the weight of its glory, and you instinctively turn to less stupendous objects for relief.

An Indiana Negro Lynched.
 INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 15.—Allen Butler, a wealthy colored man, of Lawrence county was found hanging by his neck, dead, Thursday. It is believed that he was hanged by a mob. He had a white girl about 15 years of age working for him. His son became intimate with the girl, and when she was found to be in a delicate condition it was alleged that Butler performed an abortion. That he was taken out and lynched by a mob is not doubted.

Attacked by a Mad Tiger.
 CHICAGO, July 13.—Miss Marcella Berg, the woman trainer at Hagenback's circus in Midway Plaisance, was fiercely attacked by a half wild tiger tonight. Before the enraged beast could be torn from the body of his victim, the woman was severely bitten, and blood was streaming from three ugly wounds in her right thigh. The exciting encounter took place in the arena before a large audience. Five women faint d at the sight.

Confederate Veteran's Reunion.
 The Confederate Veteran's reunion which was to have been held at Birmingham, Ala., July 19th and 20th, and Gen. Underwood's excursion to Northern prisons, the World's Fair and unveiling at Chicago, have all been postponed until Friday and Saturday, September 15th and 16th, 1893. This postponement makes no change in arrangements or dispositions already made, and all delegates appointed and everything done will remain in force for September 15th and 16th.

George Vanderbilt's Neighbor.
 New York Press.
 George Vanderbilt has a country villa and a track of 9,000 acres near Asheville, N. C. There are fourteen acres in the southwestern portion of this estate the young millionaire does not and cannot own, though he has made effort after effort to do so. The fourteen acres belong to a negro man named Collins, who, when Mr. Vanderbilt bought the large tract, asked him $600 more for this small tract than he was willing to give. A few weeks later Mr. Vanderbilt went to Collins and agreed to his terms, but Collins now adds a couple of thousand to the first price, and as often as Mr. Vanderbilt get in the notion to pay Collins his price Collins went up a safe distance and has just announced that he will not sell the land at any price so long as he can have Mr. Vanderbilt for his neighbor. He tells Mr. Vanderbilt that the value of a good neighbor in this world cannot be estimated by all the money of the Vanderbilt family.

After a Negro Murderer.
 GRENADA, Miss., July 15.—In Calhoun county, 20 miles east of here, a thousand armed men are scouring the country in search of a young negro school teacher named Jim Sellers and if they catch him he will be lynched. Sellers stabbed his companion, Walter Davis, to death in a quarrel Thursday night.

The limit of effrontery is reached when the Third party lodges about over the State go to passing resolutions to bring Democratic Congressmen what to do about the Sherman bill. In view of the fact that those who constitute these lodges exhausted vituperation last year in denouncing this Congressmen as venal tools of the money power and unworthy to be trusted, check could go no further than it goes when these slanders proceed to pass out their orders to the representatives of the people as to what they should do about public matters.—Charlotte Observer.

A Third party orator, enlightening the people of a neighborhood in this county a few days ago upon the question of the government ownership of railroads and other equally practical matters, told them that Vanderbilt owns a railroad from New York to Chicago which is bonded at fifty millions of dollars. It is worth only twenty-five millions, though, he said, and the idea is for the government to begin to build a road right along side of it. Vanderbilt, seeing what is up, will weaken and sell out to the government for twenty millions and the thing is done. This is one of the greatest schemes of modern times. We hope Mr. Cleveland will take note of it and mention it in his message to the extra session of Congress.—Charlotte Observer.

That Chicago Fire.
 CHICAGO, July 17.—John B. Skinner, president of the Hercules Iron Works Company, owning the cold storage building, burned on Monday last, places the blame for the terrible loss of life upon Assistant Fire Marshal Murphy. He insists that the blunder was made in the face of repeated warnings from the employees in the building. Capt. Fitzpatrick was with Marshal Murphy. The men, Skinner declares, would not listen to the admonitions of the men who knew the structure and the danger of the ascent to the tower.

Looking for a Fiend.
 BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 17.—A posse has been searching since Saturday night in and around Bluefield for a negro who, it is reported, shot and killed two women near Fairfield. The posse sighted a negro near Calera yesterday afternoon, and fired a dozen shots at him, but he fled to a dense swamp and escaped. The swamp was surrounded last night, and the belief is general that the negro was captured and lynched before daylight.

A Triple Lynching in Store.
 NAVASOTA, Tex., July 18.—Yesterday a negro attempted to ravish a widow woman named Mrs. Valensky near this place. The woman made a desperate resistance and drove the negro from the premises. He returned later with two other negroes who stood guard while he outraged the 17 year old daughter of Mrs. Valensky. The country is being scoured for the fiends and if captured there will be a triple lynching.

The Verdict in the Chicago Disaster.
 CHICAGO, July 18.—The coroner's jury investigating the World's Fair cold storage calamity reached a verdict at 5:30 this evening. The jury held to the grand jury the following persons: D. H. Burnham, director of works at the Fair; Fire Marshal Edward Murphy, of World's Fair fire department; J. B. Skinner, president of the Hercules Iron Company; Chas. A. McDonald, secretary and treasurer of Hercules Iron Company.

From Chambermaid to Baroness?
 CHICAGO, Ill., July 18.—Pretty Anna Witkower, who was until last week a chambermaid at the Palmer House, is now Baroness Sohlerin, wife of a millionaire Austrian nobleman. The courtship began about a year ago, while the baron was a guest at the Palmer House. It was renewed last spring, and Saturday, when the baron made his third visit to Chicago, the couple were married.

A Race War Imminent.
 It is reported that the white people of Neelyville, Missouri, a few days ago served notice on the negroes to leave the country. The negroes protested and have purchased guns, pistols and ammunition in large quantities and informed the white men that they have made up their minds to stay where they are, and fight to the death before surrendering a single one of their rights. There has been no conflict as yet but one is likely to occur at any time.

Mormons in Virginia.
 It is stated that ten Mormon missionaries are operating in the upper part of Hanover county and have made about thirty converts to their faith. The Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians of the county have organized with Mat. John Page, father of Thomas Nelson Page, as their leader, to try and induce the converts to leave the party and the Mormons to leave the State.

A Man's Fiery Necklace.
 St. Louis, Mo., July 17.—Fred Wilson was taking a nap on the grass at Fish Lake, Ill., on Sunday, when a stranger stole up and set fire to his celluloid collar. Friends ran to Wilson and put out the fire, but not until he was horribly burned. The man who ignited the collar was caught, pulled into the lake and ducked until he was almost drowned.

There May be War.
 CHARLESTON, S. C., July 14.—The married band of Governor Tillman made a move today against the blind tigers in Charleston. They have been running now just two weeks since the dispensary law went into effect, and while it is true that every house in Charleston has a supply of stimulants stored away, enough to last six months, the blind tigers which sprang into existence on July 1st, have been doing a thriving business.

Fort Scott, Kan., July 18.—The First National Bank of this city, the oldest financial institution in southeastern Kansas, has suspended payment. The directors of the World's Fair have decided to advance the entire receipts today, Sunday, 16th, to the families of the firemen who lost their lives in the fire Monday. Other relief measures promise substantial aid for the bereaved families.
