

The Home Rule Bill Defeated.
London, September 7.—The House of Commons has rejected the home rule bill by a vote of 128 to 42.

White Caps Assassinate a Man.
CHATTANOOGA, September 8.—At Dunlap Station, about 30 miles from Chattanooga, Lafayette Grimes was murdered from ambush last night. The old man had been whipped by white-caps last week, and had procured the arrest of the white-cappers. In order to prevent him from appearing as a witness against them the white-caps lay in wait with shotguns, and riddled his body as he passed, at a late hour. The officers are not very anxious to run across the murderers, as they are regarded with much fear.

Millionaire's Suicide.
CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Although worth more than $1,000,000, Max M. Rothchild, well known in the business world, killed himself on Tuesday because of an insane fear that he was in immediate danger of poverty and privation.
Mr. Rothchild sought two modes of death before finally accomplishing his purpose. He first shot himself, driving four bullets into his head. This not proving immediately fatal, he hanged himself from a hinge of one of the doors of his own bedroom.
Max Rothchild was a member of the wholesale firm of Rothchild Bros., and a leader in society. He was 44 years of age.

One View of Free Coinage.
Does the proposed scheme for the "free coinage of silver," as generally understood, contemplate that all holders of bullion in this country can have coined at the Government mints by simply paying to have it done? If not, what does it mean?
There are many proposed schemes. These differ one from another. But when people speak in general terms of law providing for the "free coinage of silver," they mean that all holders of silver bullion would under such a law have the right to take their bullion to the Government mint and have it coined into dollars without cost to them. They would there receive a silver dollar for every 412½ grains of their silver bullion.—Richmond Dispatch, Sept. 8d.

Buttermilk for Silverware.
From the Christian Union.
I have discovered an easy way of restoring tarnished silver to its first appearance. Silver becomes so blackened from the sulphur smoke that I was disgusted with mine. However, I forgot a little cream in a jug; it soured, and on cleaning it I noticed the bottom was like new silver. I immediately put all I had in buttermilk for a few hours. The carving became as fresh as at first. Any kind of sour milk is just as good. No more scouring, which did not produce the new appearance.

Valuable Information if True.
The Durham Sun publishes the following which is valuable information.
Every little while we read of some one who has stuck a rusty nail into his foot, knee, or some other portion of his person and lockjaw has resulted therefrom, of which the patient died. Yet all such wounds, it is said, can be healed without such fatal consequences as often follow them. Smoke such wounds, or any wound or bruise that is inflamed with burning wool or woolen cloth. Twenty minutes in the smoke will take the pain out of the worst wound, and repeated once or twice it will allay the worst cases of inflammation arising from a wound.

A Horrible Accident.
The 13 year old son of Mr. Lasley Perkins, who lives near Chandler's mill, met with a death on the 20th inst. He was riding on a shaft iron when his coat became entangled around the shaft. It was carry him around at a lively gait when Joe Strander, a by-stander, saw him. Young Perkins struck his legs against Strander breaking both arms. Then Strander became entangled and his feet stuck a box which was near, knocking off a piece of plank which flew up and passing through young Perkins' bowels tore out his entrails. Mr. Chandler then saw them and shut off the water. Young Perkins lingered about two hours. Strander was also badly bruised and might have been killed had Mr. Chandler not seen him. Piedmont Herald.

The Consumption Cure.
NEW YORK, September 8.—A London dispatch says: Among the subjects scheduled for consideration at the International Medical Congress called to assemble in Rome next month, but the postponement of which to next April has just been announced, was the cure for consumption discovered by Dr. Amick, of the United States, and which is attracting great attention in England and continental countries.

A leading medical journal says as a result of the postponement of the congress a part of prominent physicians of England, France and Germany will leave for the United States the first week in September, and after a brief visit to the World's Fair will proceed to Cincinnati to personally interview the discoverer. At a meeting of the Paris Clinic of physicians last week one of the speakers coupled Amick's name with Pasteur's as a benefactor of the human race, and paid a high tribute to the medical profession in the United States.

The Deadly Oil Can.
Special to News-Observer-Chronicle.
NEW BERN, N. C., Sept. 8.—About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Sadie, the nine-year-old daughter of Mrs. Henry C. Wood, of Riverdale, in this county, attempted to revive the fire in a room of her house with coal oil, poured from a can. An explosion took place and set the little girl's apparel in flames, burning her so badly that at 1 o'clock this morning she died. The mother, who was in another room at the time of the explosion, nursing a sick infant rushed to the aid of the little sufferer, and was also seriously burned, but it is helped not fatally. The railroad runs near by Mrs. Wood's dwelling, and the freight train happened to pass just as the accident occurred. Conductor Willis stopped his train and ran to the assistance of Mrs. Wood, and, but for his timely aid, it is likely they would have both been burned to death, and possibly the house with all its contents, including the infant, burned to the ground.

Prospects of a State Bank Repeal Measure.
Washington Special to the New York Sun.
It is quite apparent to everybody in Washington who has means of knowing the policy of the administration, that no financial proposition will be proposed until the vote is taken in the Senate on the repeal bill. It is known that the President is inclined to favor the repeal of the State bank tax, and that both he and Secretary Carlisle are very anxious that authority be given them to have coined the seigniorage of bullion in the Treasury, as such coinage would at once place an additional $50,000,000 in circulation. They recognize, however, that any proposition at this time would confuse the issue now being fought out in the Senate and endanger the prompt repeal of the Sherman act. After repeal the two suggestions referred to and possibly others will be made by the administration. What their fate would be in Congress is now uncertain. Chairman Springer, of the banking and currency committee of the House, says there is a majority of one on the committee opposed to the repeal of the bank tax. The Senate finance committee probably has a majority against the proposition also. But these committees cannot be regarded as representing, in any sense, the views of the Senators and Representatives at a large.

The President's Proposition.
The President at a conference of some friends some time ago authorized the Senators to promise to silver men that legislation for the white metal should follow the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act, and that such a measure would receive his signature.

President Cleveland's proposition was as follows:
That all the silver bullion now in the treasury, amounting to 133,181,375 fine ounces, should be coined.

That the Sherman notes should, as they were presented at the Treasury, be withdrawn from circulation, and silver certificates issued in their place.

That a currency commission should be appointed to devise, by a study of the financial system of this and other countries, such a sound and stable currency of gold, silver and paper money as would be sufficient in volume and effect for the proper transaction of the business of the country; and that the silver men should have strong representation on this commission.

By the first of these suggestions the President met the demands of the Southern silver men for an increased volume of currency, for the seigniorage on the coinage of 132,181,375 ounces of silver bullion would amount in round figures to $50,000,000. That $50,000,000 would become a part of the available cash assets of the Treasury and would increase by that sum the amount of money available for the payment of government debts and contracts.

There are outstanding, in round figures, $148,000,000 of the Treasury notes. By withdrawing them gradually and issuing silver certificates in their places, the gold reserve, which has recently been encroached upon to redeem these notes would be proected.

By the agency of currency commission it would be possible to provide an elastic system of currency which would grow with the growth of the country and provide for the ever increasing use of silver, while maintaining it on a parity with gold at the same ratio as at present. — Washington Evening News.

A Patriotic Out on Bond.
Sketch by Aurora.
Eighteen months ago, Weldon Atkins, then a lad of eighteen years killed his drunken father, Charles Atkins, who was pursuing him around the house. The boy fled, but was captured last month and put in Rutherford jail.
On a preliminary trial before Judge E. T. Boykin at Marion last week young Atkins was released on a $700 bond for his appearance at Rutherford court in November.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

GENERAL NEWS.
The Landmark says that at an old soldiers' re-union in Statesville last week, committees were appointed in every township to solicit subscriptions to a fund with which to build a Confederate monument at Statesville.

The Durham Sun says: There are about 140 boys at Trinity College, and the number is increasing by every train arriving in the city. Of this there are at least 100 freshmen. Many of the old boys have not yet returned and it is expected that there will be 100 students enrolled this term.

The Asheville Citizen says: Mr. Vanderbilt continues to purchase land to add to his already large estate. Yesterday a deed was filed conveying from Senator John M. Campbell to Mr. Vanderbilt 324 acres on the west side of Busbee mountain. The consideration named was $7,500.

The best judgment from Washington is that the repeal will be effected without formal compromise, after a long struggle, and that a silver measure, with other legislation, will speedily follow. It may be coinage of the seigniorage bullion, and State banks, although the latter is still doubtful, or it may be the former, with a small additional amount of silver, to stop at a certain time, and extension of national bank circulation.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla
Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because it cures Catarrh, causes the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It makes food nourishing, work pleasant, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly by the natural channels. AYER'S Sarsaparilla gives elasticity to the step, and imparts to the aged and infirm, renewed health, strength, and vitality.

THE Superior Medicine
