The Tag Of War.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The plan of action for next week upon the Silyer bill has been definitely determined upon and the "screws," will be applied in the Senate Wednesday at the approach of 6 o'clock.

The Senate will meet next Wednesday as usual and when 6 o'clock arrives Senator Voorhees telegraphed all the friends of repeal of the intended programme and warned them that they must positively be in Washington not a day later than Wednesday.

Messrs. Moody and Sankey have declined an earnest invitation to conduct a mission in London next winter. Their work will keep the evangelist in this country for a year at least.

High Point boys who visited upon Evangelist Boyd a shower of over-ripe eggs, were, dismissed, upon trial, on payment of cost.

According to the last Treasury statement the full amount of gold silver and paper money in this country, including that in the Treasury is $2,170,005,361.

About 1,000 marriages celebrated during the past 10 years in Bowie county, Tex., have been practically declared illegal and void by a court of record on account of a technical violation of the law by the county recorder.

W. R. Hornblower, the new supreme court justice, is a little man physically; that is, he comes only about up to the shoulder of an ordinary man.

The receiver of the Erie railroad was a great deal surprised the other day at receiving a money order for $3.45, accompanying a letter stating that the writer, a minister, some seventeen years ago had stolen a ride on the cow-catcher of an engine of seventeen miles and back over the road.

Dr. Briggs, it is reported, will connect himself with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Two women have created a sensation in Toronto, O., by getting married, one of them assuming the name of a male.

The Albany (Ga.) Herald is of the opinion that "President Cleveland swallowed the Democratic platform, but it seems the dose went back on him."

Snow was already a foot deep on the summits of the Blue Mountains of southeastern Washington a week ago, which is earlier by a month than usual.

The actual preparation of the new tariff bill was begun Thursday by Chairman Wilson and the other Democratic members of the ways and means committee.

Two of our sister republics in South America are in the throes of revolution.—Brazil and Argentine.

The republican form of government is no doubt "the best the sun ever shone upon,"—for the right kind of people.

It is not American brag, it is simply truth, that America, across three thousand miles of ocean, is influencing the people of the old world more than they are influencing each other.

The "Shot Gun Company" creates a good deal of fear among cotton ginners in Madison, Courtland and Bibb counties, in Alabama, threatening to burn them out if they gin cotton before the price goes to 10 cents.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular correspondent.

President Cleveland's motive in having all his callers state the nature of their business to his private secretary before being admitted to his office has been so grossly misrepresented that I present the facts, which follow:

So much of the President's time has been occupied in listening to the appeals of Congressmen and other prominent democrats for officers for their friends, that he has found it necessary to stay up the greater portion of nearly every night in order to perform his more important duties.

The most notable incidents of the silver debate in the Senate this week were the appeals made by Senators Butler, of South Carolina, and Blackburn, of Kentucky, to the Senate to end the controversy by compromise.

There is one Congressman—he's a Tammany man, too—who is always certain of a warm welcome when he calls at the White House whether he goes asking an appointment for a friend or to discuss public matters.

The town has other attractions also. There is a splendid lithia spring there that is almost a river in itself. The mountain scenery is hard to out rival and the country is one of the prettiest in the world.

Mr. Fife said to a News reporter Saturday night: "I hardly knew what to do. The opportunity is the one of my life. I have been praying for the way to be opened before me for this one special purpose, and I now believe that this is the time. I am seriously considering the matter, and it is more than likely that I will go to work at it and establish the school. With the encouragement that I have already received I can have a school nearly on the same style of Moody's Northfield school."

The House need not be idle after the vote is taken on the bill for the repeal of the Federal election laws, next week, even if the tardiness of the Senate in disposing of the silver question prevents the recess which many Congressmen would like to take, particularly those from States in which elections will be held this fall.

How much truth there is in the talk among republicans about the democratic members of the House committee on Ways and Means being afraid to attack protection may be inferred from the following remarks made by a democratic member of that committee: "The new tariff bill will be framed on the lines laid down by the Chicago platform, even if it results in the defeat at the polls of every democratic member of the committee. We shall be close to the line and you can rest assured that no matter what else is done it will be found that the tariff bill when it is reported will be found that the tariff bill when it is reported will be completely in accord with the democratic platform."

The town has other attractions also. There is a splendid lithia spring there that is almost a river in itself. The mountain scenery is hard to out rival and the country is one of the prettiest in the world.

found that the tariff bill when it is reported will be completely in accord with the democratic platform." The republicans who are trying to create a contrary impression are doing a foolish thing. It is much better that the country should know at once that the high protective duties of the McKinley law will be entirely wiped out by the new bill.

The republicans have allowed the debate in the House on the bill for the repeal of the Federal election laws to go by default, keeping more or less quiet by order of Boss Reed.

The Cause.

Rome Tribune. A plain old farmer of Sumter county to the Americus Times-Recorder gives his views on the condition of the country as follows:

There is so much being said in the country about hard times and the scarcity of money, and as everybody has a cause and knows a remedy, I thought I would write to tell your readers what I think is the cause. The trouble is we buy more than we produce. There is too much flour and bacon shipped here every year. The things we ought to make at home we are buying.

"We let our timber rot and buy our plow stocks, singletrees, ax handles, hoe handles and fencing.

"We throw away our ashes and buy our soap and axle grease.

"We give away our beef hides and buy horse strings and shoe strings.

"We let our manure go to waste and buy guano.

"We buy garden seed in the spring and cabbage in the winter.

"We let our lands grow up in weeds and buy our brooms.

"We let the wax out of our pine and gum trees go to waste and buy chewing gum for children.

"We build school houses and hire teachers and send our children off to be educated.

"We land a 5-cent fish with a $4 fishing rod.

"We send a 15-cent boy with a $20 gun and a $4 dog to kill birds.

"We raise dogs and buy wool."

"And about the only thing in this country that there is an over-production of is politics and dogticks."

Fifes New School.

The Charlotte News of October 2nd says: The little social town of Waynesboro Va., is just across a small river from the boom town of Basic City.

The people in Basic City turned out in great numbers and at once recognized in Mr. Fife a great drawing card.

When the meeting closed they offered Mr. Fife a beautiful piece of ground, a high mound in the center of the town, on which to build a summer Bible training school. The amount of ground contained in the mound is eight acres, and to this was added the magnificent gift of $5,000 to build the school. The ground and money are both ready now.

Mr. Fife said to a News reporter Saturday night: "I hardly knew what to do. The opportunity is the one of my life. I have been praying for the way to be opened before me for this one special purpose, and I now believe that this is the time. I am seriously considering the matter, and it is more than likely that I will go to work at it and establish the school. With the encouragement that I have already received I can have a school nearly on the same style of Moody's Northfield school."

Tarheel Boys and Girls.

We find the following malicious slander in a South Carolina newspaper, and copy it simply to show the young ladies and gents of this part of "tarheeldom" how grossly they have been misrepresented: "When a timid young tarheel wishes to express himself to his girl, he takes a piece of fat pine, trims it in the shape of a capital I, that means, I pine for thee. If she rejects him, she strikes the match and sets the splinter on fire. This means, I make light of your pining. If she likes him she hands him a lightwood knot, which means, pine not. When the boy goes to leave, he gently puts his arm around the girl, kisses her, and puts some soft pitch on the end of her nose, which means, "ta-(r)-ta(r)" 'til we meet again."—Ex.

SHAKESPEARE

What Mr. Smith Thinks He Would Have Said About Hood's Sarsaparilla

"Had Shakespeare lived here and suffered as I have, I think he would have said, 'Throw away all medicine except Hood's Sarsaparilla. As an Englishman, coming to this climate, I have felt the heat very much. In the spring I felt as if I had all the care and anxiety of America on my mind. I got one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and after I had taken it I felt as if I could undertake

Since Tom Gibson of the Augusta Evening News kissed Baby Ruth right slap dab in the mouth a few months ago he has been an untirred and unflagging seeker for something to do under the baby's daddy. As soon as another girl baby appeared at the white house Mr. Cleveland instantly laid his plans to quarantine the genial Tom. So he sent him to a little one-horse place in Syria called Beirut, where he can practice his oculatory talents on thousands of sore-eyed Arab babies whose mothers squat along the alleys and cry "buckshesh!" as Tom takes his evening stroll. The pay of this office is $2,000 in salary and $353 in fees.—Gainesville Eagle.

Destruction's Path.

New Orleans, Oct. 6.—Every fresh batch of news from the gulf coast adds new horrors, to the already long list of fearful details received from the path of the storm. That the whole truth will ever be known is extremely doubtful. Hundreds, have, in all probability, perished and whose fate will never come to light. The worst, perhaps, is already reported and the death roll will APPROXIMATE 2,000 SOULS.

And, in all this terrible loss of life two parishes, Plaquemine and Jefferson, are mainly the sufferers. The severity of the storm was such that it required a man of the finest physique and in perfect condition to live through it. The weak and injured were all killed, and in the settlement where the storm was worst not a single child survived and very few women. The survivors are young men in the vigor of manhood. Not one of them but what has a terrible story to tell. Not one but what is badly bruised and injured. They escaped mainly on rafts or logs, floating for 20 to 60 hours in the water, with the wind at 115 miles an hour howling around them.

Was a Babe for 73 Years.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 6.—The funeral of Charles Tailey, at Chadd's Ford, the other day, was the final chapter in the history of a remarkable man.

He was 73 years and 6 months, old yet never fed or dressed himself a single time in his life. Every part of his body was perfectly formed, yet he could perform only the most simple acts with either hands or feet. He was 1 year old before he raised his hand from the pillow, and 12 years old before he made any progress whatever in locomotion. His mind was clear, his judgment keen, and his memory retentive. He was a resident of Brandywine Hundred, Del., but was buried at Chadd's Ford.

The Bombardment Kept Up.

London, Oct. 5.—The bombardment of Rio de Janeiro by the rebel fleet under Admiral Mello continues, but so far it is confined to the government buildings, and while the inhabitants are seeking safety in flight, little damage is done to the resident portion of the city. It is said that, however, is more due to the reign of terror, brought about by the lawlessness of the government's soldiers, than from fear of the enemy's shells.

Are You Nervous.

Are you all tired out, do you have that tired feeling or sick headache? You can be relieved of all these symptoms by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives nerve, mental and bodily strength and thoroughly purifies the blood. It also creates a good appetite, cures indigestion, heartburn and dyspepsia.
