A Sermon in Rhyme.

If you have a friend worth loving, Love him, Yes, and let him know That you love him, ere life's evening Tinge his brow with sunset glow.

If you hear a song that thrills you, Sung by any child of song, Wait deserved praises long. Lack the joy you may impart?

By its humble, pleading tone, Join it. Do not let the secker Bow before his Cod alone. Why should not your brother share From a brother's weeping eyes,

When a brother's beart is sad?

Why should any one be glad
